IV DAILY PROCEEDINGS

Clergy Session

May 13, 2019 10:00am

Cowan Hall, Otterbein University, Westerville

Rev. Kathy Brown welcomed everyone to Otterbein University and gave practical instructions for our day together. Bishop Gregory Vaughn Palmer then called the Clergy Session of the 2019 West Ohio Annual Conference to order and opened our gathering with prayer.

Rev. Wendy Lybarger invited everyone to join together in the Call to Worship, then Rev. Lybarger and Rev. Steve Rath led the clergy in singing Come Thou Fount of Every Blessing and Blessed Assurance.

Bishop Palmer introduced our speaker, whom he has known since 2000. Rev. Brian Milford currently serves as President & Publisher/CEO of The United Methodist Publishing House in Nashville, TN, which includes Abingdon Press and Cokesbury. He is an elder in the Iowa Annual Conference.

Rev. Milford brought greetings from Cokesbury and Abingdon Press, then admitted the challenges to being a publisher, as well as a clergy person, at this time in the life of our denomination. Instead of dwelling on those challenges, he came to give testimony to the hope we share, the good news of the gospel of Jesus Christ. Focusing on John 12:23-25, he wondered if we really must die to the old for new life to flourish. Sharing stories from his own grandfather, Professor Lischer, and Fred Craddock, he reminded us that sometimes death can lead to new life, and our experiences can broaden our understanding of who is at the table. He wondered what we need to let go of in order to plant seeds for new life to flourish, and how to do so in a way that holds to our values in our Theological Task. Rev. Milford challenged us that we still need each other, and cautioned us to be aware who we will send away from the table that Christ is inviting. He concluded his message by encouraging us to find our hope in the justifying faith and sanctifying journey of the love of Christ.

In response, all were invited to sing the hymn My Hope is Built.

Next Bishop Palmer invited four representatives of our diverse conference to share their reflections following General Conference 2019. The panel included Rev. Tom Rand, Sylvania First UMC, MWD; Rev. Matthew Brookes, Bainbridge UMC, SHV; Rev. Kate Smith, Hyde Park Community UMC, ORV; and Rev. Michaela Jasper, Asbury North, CAN. They shared reflections on the following questions:

1. In this chaotic and stressful time, as a United Methodist who is also a United Methodist clergy person, what pains you the most?
2. In the midst of this crisis, and there are many crises in the Bible, what are the imaginative possibilities even as we name pain, frustration, disappointment, to speak into the crisis to seize the moment? Who might we become even out of a crisis? How do we not let this crisis go to waste? What can we become?
3. How do we as leaders in the UMC for the sake of the mission of the gospel keep the hope of the gospel at the center of everything we do?

In conclusion, Bishop Palmer emphatically declared, "I don't live in St. Louis anymore." Then he encouraged us to not make it our project to unhitch ourselves from one another. Bishop closed this time with prayer.

Mr. Bill Brownson presented a Finance and Administration Update. He highlighted that by 2020 we will have reduced apportionments 12.5% over 2 years, to the same apportioned amount as in 2002. He gave thanks we have reserves and no debt and can make informed decisions.

Reflecting on Clergy Benefits, Mr. Brownson shared that while 2018 investment returns were less than expected, and health insurance premiums were not sufficient to pay our health claims, 2019 appears to have rebounded on both of these fronts.

Reflecting on Conference Ministries, Mr. Brownson shared that apportionments in 2018 came in at 72%, not the 75% expected.

Reflecting on the General Church, Mr. Brownson shared that after four years of paying 100% of our General Church apportionments, in 2018 we had to dip into reserves to cover the final 5%.

2020 will be influenced by fully owning the conference center, having personnel reduced through attrition, and no compensation changes given to the cabinet members. Light the Way is helping with the costs for revitalization and new church starts.

After fielding questions primarily on insurance, Mr. Brownson prayed for lunch, then we dismissed to fellowship around the tables at the Campus Center.

Following lunch, Clergy Session reconvened in Cowan Hall at 1:30pm by singing the first three verses of O For a Thousand Tongues to Sing. Dr. John Comerford, newly installed President of Otterbein University, offered words of greeting, reminding us that relationships still matter between the campus and the church, and encouraged us to give the university an inclusive home church in which to being.

Turning to the work of the Board of Ordained Ministry, Bishop Palmer recognized the members of the Board of Ordained Ministry for their service. Bishop Palmer then recognized Rev. Kathleen Brown, Director of the Office of Ministry, who will be retiring this annual conference. Bishop Palmer also welcomed Rev. Donnetta Peaks, who will become the new Director of the Office of Ministry.

(BAC #28) They were elected by voice vote and a standing ovation. Bishop Palmer offered a prayer for the newly elected provisional class and verses 4-5 of O For a Thousand Tongues to Sing were sung in response.

Opening Worship Memorial Service with Communion

June 2, 2019 7:00pm

Lakeside Chautauqua

Mr. Andrew Willis offered his gift of music as clergy, laity, spouses and guests gathered for the opening worship service of Annual Conference. Rev. Mark Chow, chair of the Annual Conference Worship Committee, welcomed everyone to worship then introduced our Conference Worship Leader Mr. Chuck Bell.

After instructions from Rev. Chow, Bishop Gregory Vaughn Palmer officially opened the 50th Session of the West Ohio Conference. The processional song was God of Creation, followed by an invocation led by Rev. Christopher Wiseman. The opening hymn was O God, Our Help in Ages Past followed by a collective profession of faith led by Rev. Peter Matthews.

Bishop Palmer gave thanks for the life of Bishop Judith Craig, who served West Ohio from 1992-2000, then in retirement offered herself to teaching theological education at MTSO as well as being an active participant at Broad Street UMC in Columbus.

Rev. Amy Haines, Annual Conference Secretary, read the Roll Call of the Victorious, while a bell tolled and candles were lit in memory of clergy (listed on page 216, #48 in the BAC), spouses, children of clergy, the laity of our districts and our mission partners who have all died since the prior annual conference session. Rev. Wiseman offered a prayer of commendation followed by a sung response of How Great Thou Art.

Bishop Palmer introduced our preacher for the night, then Rev. Matthews read the Scripture lesson from Ephesians 2:8-10. Rev. Laura Bensman, a West Ohio Conference elder serving at Church of St. Andrew UMC in Toledo, preached the sermon "Gifts" celebrating the gifts of loved ones remembered this night, the gift of community, and the gift of Jesus.

Following a sung response of Jesus Loves Me, Rev. Wiseman offered a response to the message, then Rev. Matthews led a prayer of confession. Bishop Palmer and Rev. Seth Evans presided over the table of Holy Communion, which was shared throughout the auditorium. Worship concluded with the closing hymn Precious Name and a benediction offered by Rev. Bensman.

Laity Session

Lakeside Chautauqua

Mr. Bruce Boyd, co-chair of the West Ohio Elections Team, began the 2019 Laity Session with an update on the elections process. He reminded everyone present that they would be voting on seven General Conference, seven Jurisdictional Conference, and four alternate delegates. Twenty lay persons in the voter guide were introduced as potential candidates for election.

More lay nominations were accepted:

Jane Benner, Harris Tay, Alexander Giffin, Kristen Atha, Tracy Chambers, Bobbi Ruddock, Joel Harper, Marilyn Bridges, Cynthia Defibaugh, Stephen Seagrave, and Kathy Rohrs.

Mr. Chuck Bell invited those gathered to worship together as Ms. Cynthia Lockhart sang a rousing rendition of Great Is Thy Faithfulness.

Conference Lay Leader, Mr. Mitchell Harper, welcomed everyone to the Laity Session, including clergy members who were offered an invitation at Clergy Session in May. The theme of this year's Laity Session was "Call. One Word. Many Ways to HOPE!"

Ms. Tracy Chambers, CLM from ORV, brought a Message of Hope, sharing her testimony of struggling through pain and depression following her brother's untimely death in 2018. In her pain, God purified and pruned her then called her back to a life of hope. She reminded us that joy comes in the morning, and as Lamentations 3 proclaims, "God's compassion fails not; great is thy faithfulness; therefore, will I hope in him."

Next came a series of Hope-Bringers, lay people speaking to the ways in which they live out their own callings with hope. Mrs. Jayne Lash, CLM from ORV, shared her testimony of serious health issues following an accidental laceration during surgery. Throughout her illness she lost her singing voice, after having been a worship leader for many years, and found a new way to serve the Lord. She proclaimed her hope is built on nothing less than Jesus' blood and righteousness.

Mr. Keith Wasserman, FTH, shared his testimony of how God used his naiveté to begin a ministry for homeless in his basement, which later became Good Works in Athens, a community of hope with and for those struggling with poverty and homelessness in rural Appalachia. If God can use him, God can use any ordinary person as an agent of transformation. His word of encouragement was to worship God in spirit and in truth.

Mr. Joe Palmer, youth director from Lancaster First UMC, CAS, shared his testimony of recognizing his call to work with youth. He now serves youth as both a youth director as well as a middle school teacher. With Joe was two of his former youth, Mr. Harrison Poor and Ms. Megan Schenck. Harrison shared his testimony of struggling with what he wanted to do with his life and realizing he was passionate to share the joy of music. Harrison credits Joe's guidance in his choice to serve others through music. Megan shared her testimony of struggling with what she wanted to do with her life, even as she enjoyed babysitting or hanging out with her younger cousins. She credits Joe with inviting her to turn to God for help with what to do, and surrendering to Christ. She is still listening to God to uncover her gifts and strengths.

Ms. Kim LaRue offered a call to action from John 14:11-12, reminding all present that they are hope-bridgers to the world.

Bishop Gregory Palmer then offered some closing words of encouragement and a benediction.

Morning Worship Service June 3, 2019 10:00am

Mr. Chuck Bell began our morning worship with a centering song Mighty to Save. Rev. Sara McSwords led our Call to Worship. Then an ad hoc conference choir led the song Hope of the Nations. Rev. McSwords read Romans 15:1-7, 13 then Mr. Bell offered a time of centering and silence and a song response The Risen Christ. Rev. McSwords led a collective prayer response and a sending forth to the work of the day.

Monday Morning Session June 3, 2019 10:30am

The morning session began with Bishop Palmer introducing our guest, Bishop Mande Muyombo from the North Katanga Area of the Congo Central Conference, then reminded us of ways to care for one another during our holy conferencing in the week ahead.

Conference Secretary Rev. Amy Haines moved to set the bar for the conference as the permanent seats, usher tables, stage, thrust, camera stands, sight and sound booths, first aid station, information/lost and found station, and wheel chair positions. (The steps, aisles, and milling areas do not count.) The bar was affirmed by verbal vote.

Rev. Haines moved to nominate the following people for the secretarial staff: Kevin Koske, Meredith Lawson-Rowe, Lynda Lockwood, Rachel Miller, Steve Putka, Matthew Overman, Nancy Riley, Grace Gerber, and Katharine Pack. They were elected by verbal vote. She then moved to nominate Jack Frost as the registrar. He was elected by verbal vote. Rev. Haines recognized the Parliamentary Team of Jim Waugh, Brian Gath and Don Wallick and thanked them for their service. They were affirmed by celebrating their commitment.

Rev. Haines then reminded the conference of protocol and basic parliamentary procedure.

Rev. Jocelyn Roper, Agenda Coach, moved the adoption of the agenda as printed in the Book of Reports on pages 9-10. The agenda was adopted by verbal vote.

Bishop Palmer announced that disaster recovery relief offerings will be taken on Tuesday, to assist with the tornado recovery efforts around the state after the Memorial Day tornadoes.

Rules Committee Report

The Rules Committee Report was presented by Rev. Amy Haines on behalf of chair Rev. Kim Pope-Seiberling as found in the Book of Reports on pages 11-14, centering on changes to our elections process. Rev. Haines moved the adoption of the report, which was adopted by hand vote. Rules Committee members were then recognized.

Bishop Palmer recognized and welcomed Rev. Linda Middelberg to the thrust as she is the new Assistant to the Bishop.

Elections Team Report

Rev. Cyndy Garn and Mr. Bruce Boyd, co-chairs of the West Ohio Elections Team, presented details for our election process Tuesday for General Conference and Jurisdictional Conference delegates. Rev. Garn reminded the conference of the importance of holy conferencing and respectful dialogue. She recognized the members of the Elections Team, all wearing a flower on their nametag, so they could be easily identified. She also reassured the conference that caucus slates mailed out ahead of time were distributed through the conference mailing and no one was given email or physical addresses.

Mr. Boyd reminded the conference that we will be electing 7 clergy and 7 laity for General Conference, 7 clergy and 7 laity for Jurisdictional Conference, and 4 clergy and 4 laity Alternates to Jurisdictional Conference. All General Conference delegates also attend Jurisdictional Conference. Each delegate must be elected by majority vote, and elections will be completed by electronic keypad. Keypads will be available for pickup in South Auditorium from 5-7pm Monday evening or from the back of Hoover Auditorium Tuesday morning beginning at 7:30am.

Corrections to the vote guide were shared:

*Laity Steven Dunn and Brian Montgomery withdrew from consideration

*Clergy John Wagner withdrew from consideration

*Clergy voting numbers left out of the voter guide include Debbie Ketcham, 2573 and Ruth Carter-Crist, 3132.

Instructions were then given for laity nominations from the floor, with a reminder that each person nominated must meet the requirements set out in our rules and be willing to abide by our elections covenant. Their election numbers will be available Tuesday morning on the election monitors as well as on the conference website. Bishop Palmer received the laity nominations in the voter guide and from laity session, presented by Rev. Garn, then invited lay nominations from the floor.

Lay nominations from the floor included:

Bill Brownson nominating Jason Moore, 1032

Katie Collins nominating Kelley Fox, 1033

Dennis Simpson nominating Janet Steele, 1035

Following laity nominations, Paul Risler, clergy, FTH, asked a question on clergy eligibility of those being ordained this week. Bishop Palmer responded that since they have already been approved at clergy session they would be eligible for election. Rev. Garn stated that their numbers will be listed in the back of Hoover on the election monitors.

Laity nominees were then introduced by name and number on the stage of Hoover Auditorium. John Alice, clergy, FTH, then verified a laity number for Kathy Rohrs, who was not present.

Elections Team members were recognized, then Rev. Amy Haines, Conference Secretary, reminded the house that only those with white and yellow tags would be eligible to vote and nametags would be needed in order to pick up voting devices.

Conference Council on Finance and Administration Report

The Conference Council on Finance and Administration Report was presented by chairperson Ms. Christine Clough. Her full report may be found on page 254. Ms. Clough updated the conference on progress made with the 2015 Recommendation to review the West Ohio Conference financial and apportionment strategies. After a 10% reduction in total apportioned giving for 2019, connectional giving obligations for 2020 have been reduced an additional 2.5%. This comes through conference staff reductions from attrition, use of non-apportioned income for expenses, including Light the Way Campaign funds, and the benefits of now owning the Conference Center. Receipts on apportioned connectional giving for 2018 came in at 71%, not 75% as budgeted, with 561 churches contributing 100% of their connectional giving. West Ohio maintained our commitment to General Church apportionments by paying 95% of our obligations. The 2017 audit was completed in December 2018, and results presented with the highest opinion possible, "without qualification."

Ms. Clough then discussed Recommendation #1, our shared financial commitment for the mission and ministry of the West Ohio Conference, and thanked the conference staff members who work closely with CF&A.

CFO Report

The Chief Financial Officer Report was presented by CFO Mr. Bill Brownson. His full report may be found on page 272. Mr. Brownson observed that our connectional giving in 2020 will be the same level as in 2002, yet gave thanks we have reserves and no debt. Our resources remain focused on equipping clergy, laity and local churches. Clergy Benefits continue to be our largest liability, with premiums not able to cover claims in 2017 and 2018. In 2019 claims are down and investments have rebounded. The Clergy Pension Plan is fully funded. Mr. Brownson discussed Conference Ministry funding and that no reserves were used this year.

for General Church support. He closed by discussing highlights of the 2020 budget.

Recommendation #1- Council on Finance & Administration Recommendations Calendar Year 2019

Ms. Christine Clough presented and moved the adoption of Recommendation #1. Following several questions for clarification, the recommendation was adopted by hand vote. Members of the Council on Finance and Administration were then recognized. The full recommendation can be found on page 263.

Rev. Jim Wilson brought courtesies before the lunch hour. He recognized Rev. Laura Bensman who preached at the Memorial Service Sunday evening. Rev. Susan Keyser then prayed for lunch.

Monday Afternoon Session

200 Years of Mission Celebration

The Global Ministries report began with a video celebrating 200 years of Methodist Mission. Mr. George Howard, Director of Connectional Engagement for the General Board of Global Ministries, brought greetings from Thomas Kemper and our Global Ministries team.

Mr. Howard then reviewed the history of John Stewart, the first missionary to the Wyandot nation in Upper Sandusky, Ohio. Inspired by his ministry, the Missionary Society in American Methodism was formed in 1819. The Wyandots trusted their sacred land to John Stewart and the Methodists when forced to leave Upper Sandusky. Mr. Howard celebrated that on September 21, 2019, The United Methodist Church will return the land to the Wyandot Nation. Tribal chiefs, West Ohio leadership, and Global Ministries have been in dialogue over this historic occasion.

In 1919 over 1 million people came to the Ohio State fairgrounds to celebrate our mission centennial. Yet that was an era where the church was associated with power, money and control. Today, missionaries bring experience into a new context with humility and a willingness to be in authentic partnership. There is much that has been learned from our missionaries and mission partners.

Mr. Howard then shared the current ways Global Ministries connects the church in mission.

*Missionaries- West Ohio gave over $65,000 for missionary support last year as over 360 missionaries serve in 60 countries. The two newest Global Missionary Fellows are from West Ohio, Nathan and Samantha Whitford.

*Disaster Response/Recovery- West Ohio in 2018 contributed $550,000 of the nearly $34 million received for UMCOR's response in locations such as Mozambique, Puerto Rico and Alabama.

*Evangelism/Church Growth- West Ohio donated over $57,000 as over 1,000 new faith communities were started globally in the last 10 years. Thanks to Joel Rabb from Linworth who coordinates with churches across the US for work in Laos and Cambodia.

*Abundant Health- West Ohio gave over $89,000 to this focus. To date 503,902 children have received lifesaving interventions, while the goal between 2016 and 2020 is to reach 1,000,000 children.

Mr. Howard concluded by reminding us we are all part of God's mission, and without mission, the church would not exist. He then thanked West Ohio for being a leading mission conference connecting the world in God's Mission and offering hope.

Transformative Discipleship Report

Rev. Doug Damron, chair of the West Ohio Transformative Discipleship Team, celebrated the ministry of our conference connectional ministries. He began by introducing our connectional ministries staff, then shared snapshots of how God has been at work through our shared ministry.

Our camping and retreat ministries had a 30% growth in persons served by our camps from 2017-2018. Since 2013, that growth has been 111%. 18% of our 2018 campers made a first-time commitment to Christ. That is 148 campers willing to join Jesus in a mission of changing the world.

Our work in diversity and inclusion recognizes our local churches are often out of alignment with the rapidly changing demographics of the state of Ohio. 370 West Ohio clergy and laity have now been trained in Cultural Competency, tools to better love and serve all of our neighbors. By the end of 2020, the goal is to engage and equip 25% of our local churches and charges to better reach diverse neighborhoods.

Connection Blueprint is a new training process to equip churches to move from transactions to relationships with their neighbors. 33 churches and over 160 lay and clergy leaders have been trained over the past two years to build relationships and partnerships with their community.

All In Community Ministry has now connected over 1000 lay and clergy with men and women who are incarcerated to build relationships that will assist them to re-enter our neighborhoods upon their release. Shame is being transformed into hope.

In closing, Rev. Damron thanked the conference for the ways they resource, pray, and actively participate in this kingdom work we do best together.

Introduction to Hope Speakers

Rev. Dee Stickley-Miner, Director of Connectional Ministries, invited us to listen this Annual Conference to five people from our own congregations who have found hope even in the dry bones, the waiting times, the in-between spaces of life. They are trusting us with their vulnerability to reveal how hope has changed, redeemed and restored them. Rev. Stickley-Miner encouraged us to allow their stories to lead us to the source of life-giving Hope, and perhaps, see ourselves, the world and others differently as we leave this place.

Hope Speakers #1

Allison and Andrea Hoffman, young adult twin daughters of Rev. David and Mrs. Melissa Hoffman, shared their story of living with Cystic Fibrosis. Even amid their daily routine of medication and therapy, school and after-school activities, they live by hope and give thanks for the voices of hope in the church that remind them that they matter and can still make a difference in the lives of others.

“Hope has taught us to look beyond the present to the life that has been promised in the future,” Andrea said. “Hope has taught us to live our lives to the fullest each and every day and to focus on our potential – never looking back. Hope has taught us to share our experiences with others and to advocate for the needs of others.”

Order of the Day: Abundant Living Reports

Rev. Kristin Langstraat, System Director for Faith Community Relations at OhioHealth, presented the first Abundant Living Report with an emphasis on health. She reminded us that when Jesus said his followers should preach, teach and heal, we took that seriously and founded health institutions. While she is proud of her healthcare system, she emphasized that community is where health starts. This includes in our churches. Our physical, mental, and spiritual health are impacted by everyday things.

Rev. Langstraat then encouraged our churches to think about how to help people achieve abundant life. First, how healthy are our potlucks? Can we build relationships over fun and healthy recipes? In what ways can Dinner Church be made healthy? She challenged the church to be a witness in regard to the care of our bodies.

Second, how does our church talk about end of life? How can we talk about faithful healthcare and some of the complicated medical and end of life decisions we may face? She encouraged the church to be a witness in helping us talk about living and dying.

Third, what mental illness or addiction issues are in our communities? Many who are struggling feel like Psalm 22:19-21, that God is far from them. How can we support families of those going through treatment? Clergy also need support, which is why OhioHealth will be providing an Employee Assistance Program to aid West Ohio Conference clergy and spouses. She called the church to be a witness in loving those who are misunderstood by our society.

Recognizing not everyone has an OhioHealth hospital in their area, she referred us to the West Ohio Conference and OhioHealth websites for health ministries. Rev. Langstraat also invited us to contact her personally to connect with someone to help our churches become centers for health and wholeness.

In closing, she offered Paul’s words from Romans 12:1-3 from The Message translation to consider for our health and the health of our communities. She then referred to the handout given that includes her contact information for a conversation on health.

Janet Blocher, a lay member from King Ave, CAN, presented the second Abundant Health Report, on clergy wellness. She has been the chair of the Clergy Wellness Task Force the past two years and began her report by recognizing the 10 members of the Task Force. She then described their work as the four aspects of wellness: physical, financial, emotional and spiritual.

Highlights of their work include a new Employee Assistance Program to be offered with approval of this resolution. This EAP will provide short-term, confidential counseling for West Ohio Conference lay employees, clergy and clergy family members regardless if they are on the conference health plan.

To raise awareness of clergy wellness, clergy one-on-one forms have been revised to ask questions on clergy wellness. This year’s Clergy Day Apart included breakout sessions focused on wellness topics. Two communities launched Walk with a Pastor programs.

A survey was sent to clergy to gauge clergy health. 361 responded from 900 who were invited to participate. Most clergy were satisfied with their lives and engage in spiritual disciplines yet many do not exercise regularly or use all vacation days. The survey showed continued attention is needed.

As the work of clergy wellness continues, the West Ohio Conference website has many resources for all four aspects of clergy wellness, including videos. While the work of the Task Force is concluded, various initiatives will continue through a joint Committee of Clergy Wellness made up of representatives from Board of Pensions and Health Benefits, the Board of Ministry and the Cabinet.

Recommendation #2- 2019 Board of Pension & Health Benefits

Rev. Ken Woode, on behalf of chairperson Rev. Barry DeShetler of the West Ohio Board of Pension and Health Benefits, presented Recommendation #2. His full report may be found on page 265. Rev. Woode thanked the Clergy Wellness Task Force for their dedication to a holistic strategy to wellness. There is a new Wellness tab for resources on the conference website.

Rev. Woode continued to encourage clergy to be their own best advocates for health care and personal retirement plans. Health care plans are reviewed annually. At this time there are no anticipated changes. He encouraged the financial incentive for clergy and spouses to get their annual physicals, and to participate in the tax-deferred benefits of a Health Savings Account Plan. Rev. Woode then celebrated that 97% of our clergy are now enrolled in UMPIP. A 1% auto-escalation will occur January 1, 2020 unless clergy are contributing 10% or more or opt out. He concluded with a reminder that it is never too early to begin to prepare for retirement.

Rev. Woode moved the adoption of Recommendation #2. It was adopted by hand vote. The full recommendation can be found on page 265.

Order of the Day: Corporate Session

After a short break, Mrs. Ann Baird moved to adjourn the annual conference to convene the corporate session. At 3:10pm the motion to adjourn was affirmed by voice vote.

Mrs. Baird presented the conference Board of Trustees Report, which can be found in its entirety on page 252. She celebrated that the Conference Center renovations are now complete and no major building projects were initiated this year at our conference camps. Since last Annual Conference, churches recommended for closure due to abandonment or loss of missional connection include: Bethel, SHV, effective 5/1/18; Pickerington Trinity, CAS, 7/1/18; Water's Edge, ORV, 8/31/18; New Zion Hocking, FTH, 9/15/18; Fairfield Beach, CAS, 9/15/18; Victory Chapel, SHV, 3/1/19; and Turning Point, MWD, 6/30/19.

Mr. Chris Hogan was then introduced to give the Chancellor's Report. He discussed the complex process for disaffiliation and encouraged any churches wishing to disaffiliate following General Conference 2019 to talk with their District Superintendent. He encouraged churches stay up-to-date on Safe Sanctuaries polices and education, then promoted the Legal Forum in October.

Mrs. Baird thanked Mr. Marlen Yost and the Conference Investment Policy Committee for their stewardship of our assets, endowments and reserves. She shared that the Conference Commission on Archives and History navigated a change of archivist at Ohio Wesleyan University this year with the retirement of Carol Hollinger and the hiring of Sharon Monigold. The Trustees continue to refine their roles and relationships with our affiliated organizations.

Mrs. Baird recognized all who serve on Conference Trustees. She then moved the Trustees Report, including the recommendations for church closures. The report was approved by voice vote.

Mrs. Baird moved to adjourn the corporate session and reconvene the annual conference. At 3:25pm the motion to reconvene was affirmed by voice vote.

Light the Way Report

Mr. Tom Hofman and Rev. Doug Johns began the Light the Way Report with an update on the past two years:

- *8 new church starts launched
- *1,387 average new people in worship
- *142 baptized since September 2017
- *7 new communities launching in 2019/2020
- *$2,540,175 million given so far toward our $5 million goal
- *579 gifts from individuals, 663 gifts from churches

Mr. Brad Aycock then explained the Fresh Expressions movement. He reminded the conference that every number has a name, and every name has a story. To visualize how Light the Way is multiplying, he invited anyone to stand who is part of a parent or partnership church, a Fresh Expressions community, a participant in MCCI, Greenhouse, or the multi-ethnic cohort, or who attended a Dinner Church encounter, Fresh Expression event, Traction Track, or Connection Blueprint. Many in Hoover Auditorium were standing as a part of this movement.

As the goal of Light the Way is to change culture, Mr. Aycock invited Pastor Chris and Tammy Reese from New City Church, Dayton, to introduce Mr. Patrick Shannon, who shared his powerful testimony. Mr. Shannon has been part of New City Church for the past six months, and that involvement has literally changed his life. He was an alcoholic and drug addict, with no hope. After becoming part of Alcoholics Anonymous held at New City Church, where he remembered playing basketball as a child, Mr. Shannon promised to attend on a Sunday morning. From the moment he walked through the door, he knew he was welcomed and loved. He credits baptism for truly cleansing him, and honestly admitted he would now be dead if not for this church. Mr. Shannon then praised God for bringing him back, and shared how he now loves to serve as a cameraman at the church, and has found joy and happiness. Bishop Palmer gave thanks for Mr. Shannon's willingness to share his story of faith.

Rev. Jenn Lucas reminded us all to carry the light of Christ out into our communities, and invited us to be a part of changing lives through Light the Way. She asked, "How as the church are we going to be part of this movement? In what ways are we willing to sacrifice and make a commitment to the Light the Way movement?"

Rev. Lucas then invited everyone to pray a Breakthrough Prayer for the coming year:

God of our hearts, may the miraculous light of Christ engage and unite us with unstoppable faith, passionate courage, gladness of heart, and unbounded love, so that your Spirit-birthing possibilities shine through us and break through with the dawn of new hope and transformation to your world. Amen.

Bishop Palmer gave thanks to everyone involved in Light the Way, including Rev. Stan Ling and Rev. Sue Nilson-Kibbey. He shared some background information on staff shifts to support this ministry. Bishop Palmer then shared his dream of a Hammond organ on stage for annual conference [which someone later pledged to provide] and led the conference in singing Love Lifted Me.

Preliminary Nominations Committee Report

Rev. Laura Bensman, Nominations Chair, thanked those who were nominated last year and agreed to serve. She then encouraged anyone interested in serving on conference leadership to complete the online nominations form, as they prepare for the quadrennial change in 2020. The short list of 2019 nominations to fill vacant positions was read as well as listed on the screen and will be voted on Thursday.

Recommendation #3- Commission on Equitable Compensation

Rev. Mark Weatherman, chair of the Conference Commission on Equitable Compensation, presented Recommendation #3. He explained the work of Equitable Compensation, and that the suggested minimum salary increase for 2020 was 2%. Rev. Weatherman moved the adoption of Recommendation #3. It was adopted by hand vote. The full recommendation can be found on page 268.

Rev. Jim Wilson brought courtesies before the supper hour. Lay and clergy members were reminded to pick up their voting devices for Tuesday's election at South Auditorium during the break. Rev. Wilson then recognized Rev. Suzanne Allen for her hard work on the Bishop's Galatians Study. Rev. Allen closed our session in prayer.

Monday Evening Session June 3, 2019 7:00pm

The gathering song that began our evening was Many Gifts, One Spirit played on the organ, followed by the hymn My Hope is Built.

Episcopacy Committee Report

Rev. Karen Cook recognized members of the Episcopacy Committee, reporting the committee has been diligent in fulfilling its responsibilities according to the Book of Discipline. Rev. Cook honored the Office of the Bishop and its complex work, especially the leadership of Bishop Palmer. She then offered a gift of an acrostic poem "Bishop Gregory Palmer" to honor his attributes. After sharing a story of Bishop Palmer wanting to sing a song while presiding at General Conference yet unable to do so, she invited Mr. Chuck Bell to lead us in singing 'Tis So Sweet. Bishop and Mrs. Palmer were affirmed with a standing ovation by conference members and given a gift basket of items from Duke University. Rev. Karen Cook concluded with prayer for Bishop and Mrs. Palmer.

Episcopal Address

Rev. Cook read Psalm 11:1-4 and Matthew 7:24-29. Then Bishop Gregory Palmer gave a passionate Episcopal Address, recognizing the anxiety and uncertainty in our denomination, yet calling us to keep the church focused on our foundation of Jesus Christ. He called us to deconstruct what has been built on that foundation that isn't making disciples, and choose what materials we will use to rebuild the church. He challenged us that we need one another, as sisters and brothers in the church.

Bishop Palmer proclaimed, "If there was a memo that came from Holy Ghost headquarters that said 'all of you United Methodists are free to suspend your attention to the primary mission of disciple-making and world transformation until you resolve the challenge of human sexuality,' signed God, Creator, Redeemer, Sanctifier, Father, Son and Holy Ghost, I just need you to know I missed the parchment and I didn't get a digital version."

Later he urged us on by asking, "Are we going to be shaped by a single narrative or is the conversation and the work more nuanced and more complex than simply that? I plead with you—deconstruct what we must, then let's build a new church and a new world for the sake of the world together.”

In closing, Bishop Palmer encouraged us to take courage in the storm through the words of the hymn Stand By Me. The full text and video link of the Episcopal Address can be found on page 244 of this Journal.

Monday's session concluded with Chuck Bell leading the hymn How Firm a Foundation and Bishop Palmer sending us forth into the night.

Tuesday Morning Worship and Mission Service

June 4, 2019 8:30am

Our missional service began as Mr. George Howard led the call to worship. The Annual Conference House Band then helped the house sing Ain't No Grave and Revelation Song. Rev. Julie Alsip offered the opening prayer then proclaimed Hebrews 11:6. Bishop Mande Muyombo, the conference guest preacher, offered the message “Keep Your Faith.” Reminding the conference of the gift to work across diverse contexts, he claimed faith as the foundation of the Church. He challenged us that “When you withdraw from mission, you withdraw from God.” In closing Bishop Muyombo passionately encouraged us to “Keep the faith!”

Following the message, Bishop Palmer explained the missional purpose of today's offering for the Light the Way Campaign, funding new church starts here as well as in North Katanga. The ushers then joyfully collected the offering and danced it to the collection point on the stage at Hoover Auditorium while the House Band, with guest percussionists, led our praise to God through the songs Walking in the Light of God and Hallelujah! We Sing Your Praises. Mr. George Howard offered a prayer of thanksgiving followed by the congregation singing We Are Marching- Siyahamba. Bishop Muyombo sent us forth with a blessing.

Tuesday Morning Session

June 4, 2019 10:15am

After a welcome from Bishop Palmer, Rev. Cyndy Garn and Mr. Bruce Boyd, Elections Team co-chairpersons, gave final reminders for our day of elections. They reminded us that having the voting keypads for only one day was a savings of $20,000. If we need to continue elections on Wednesday, we will be using paper ballots. They reminded us that if we neglect to turn in our voting devices we will be charged $85 each.

The Elections Team members were recognized by name, then additions and corrections to the printed lists were given. This included numbers for clergy left off the printed list and the additional laypersons nominated on Monday. Caucus group lists were passed out on Monday and were scrolling on the screens in the back. Rev. Garn also reassured the conference that no personal information was given out to any caucus group prior to conference.

Next Rev. Garn and Mr. Boyd explained what will be shown on the vote tally screens and what will be counted as an invalid ballot: voting for someone already elected, not voting for the proper number of elections on that ballot, and voting for the same candidate more than once on the same ballot.

Two practice votes were taken. The laity voted on their favorite flavors of ice cream, and the clergy voted on their favorite locations around Lakeside. After questions around timing, reasons for invalid ballots, and time for discernment between ballots, Bishop prayed for our election of delegates.

General Conference Ballot #1 results:

Lay Ballot- no elections. 1082 ballots cast, 26 invalid ballots, 529 votes needed for election

Clergy Ballot- no elections. 660 ballots cast, 7 invalid ballots, 327 needed for election

Throughout this election day, various clergy shared their experiences of the Memorial Day tornadoes that tore through the Dayton area. Rev. Bill Halter, from Aley Church in Beavercreek, reminded the conference that we are all UMCOR as storms don't pick and choose who they hit. He shared a moving story about delivering cases of water to strangers who wanted a hug and a prayer for their daughter battling cancer. He gave thanks for the presence of Bishop Palmer, District Superintendent Jocelyn Roper and other conference leaders who toured the disaster areas on Friday. A special offering for tornado disaster relief was then collected by the ushers.

Rev. Jim Wilson brought courtesies before the lunch hour, followed by a prayer by Rev. Kim Armentrout.

Tuesday Afternoon Session

Hope Speaker #2

Mr. James Clay is a returning citizen whose life was transformed in prison through the Horizon Prison Initiative. After having a busy and successful life, bad choices led to nine years in prison. While in prison, Horizon showed him he was worthy and that God's grace was enough. He became a faithful follower of Christ and when invited to mentor a group of men for Horizon he found hope.

"Only God can take a scared, scarred little boy and turn him into a man," James remarked. "Now, I am a Healing Communities Trainer for All In Community, a spokesperson for the Montgomery County Reentry Office, and a fitness trainer. All these things seemed out of reach until the Holy Spirit filled me with Hope."

Mr. Clay is excited about where God will lead him next.

Bishop Palmer recognized Ms. Reba Collins, conference director of All In Community, and all those present from Horizons Prison Initiative.

As we returned to the business of elections, Jason Wellman, clergy, Bobbie Ruddock, laity and Kelley Fox, laity, withdrew from general conference elections only. Bishop Palmer then asked for further withdrawals to be given in writing to the annual conference secretary. Rev. Scott Miller prayed for our election of delegates.

General Conference Ballot #2 results:

Elected were Bill Brownson (564), George Howard (564), Kara Russell (556), Chris Steiner (554) and Callie Picardo (537).

Clergy Ballot- four elections. 641 ballots cast, 4 invalid ballots, 319 needed for election

Elected were Roger Grace (367), Karen Cook (351), April Casperson (341) and Deanna Stickley-Miner (331).

Rev. Amy Haines, conference secretary, read a list of new withdrawals. Laity Kristen Atha and Phil Moots withdrew from both general and jurisdictional elections. Laity Joel Harper, Alex Giffin, Stephen Seagrave, Joseph Gillen, Brenda Reed, Jason Moore, Marilyn Bridges, Kathy Rohrs, Harris Tay, and Jane Benner withdrew from general conference elections only. Clergy Debo Onabanjo, Jeff Greenway, Greg Stover, Calvin Alston Jr, Mark Rowland, Wade Giffin, Suzanne Allen and Rosario Picardo withdrew from general conference elections only.

Continuing to reflect on the extent of the Memorial Day tornadoes, Bishop Palmer shared statistics from Montgomery County alone: 211 houses destroyed, 429 uninhabitable, 567 with roof/siding damage, 1352 with minor damage, for a total of 2559 residences affected. Rev. Brent Watson prayed for disaster relief.

Clergy Curnell Graham and Jocelyn Roper, along with laity Kevin Boulder and Harris Tay, all requested demographic information on screen before the next vote as they expressed concerns for diversity and disenfranchisement. Although that information is in the voter election guide, a short break was given to compile demographics for the next six top vote getters according to the previous ballot.

Rev. Dr. Bridget Weatherspoon, from Dixon UMC in Dayton, shared her family's experience of being displaced by the Memorial Day tornadoes, and named several of the long term needs that will be different than material repairs, such as concern with price gouging, agencies to help with rent, and mental health concerns. Rev. Heather Nordgren prayed for these non-material needs. Mr. Harrison Poor then prayed for our election of delegates.

General Conference Ballot #3 results:

Lay Ballot- no elections. 1066 ballots cast, 9 invalid ballots, 529 votes needed for election

Clergy Ballot- one election. 643 ballots cast, 3 invalid ballots, 321 needed for election

Elected was Anna Guillozet (322).

Guyton read Luke 15:1-10 which was followed by a silent response. The House Band led everyone in singing Here's My Heart, then Rev. Stearns offered the Word of Hope and led a Prayer for Hope and Restoration. Rev. Guyton sent us forth, then during the closing hymn Christ Be Our Light many conference members and visitors came forward for prayers of comfort or spiritual counsel.

Wednesday Morning Session

Hope Speaker #3

Ms. Mandy Fisher shared her story of being a homeless alcoholic in Detroit until her uncle saw her cry for help and picked her up at 2am. He then introduced her to Lifeline, a United Methodist ministry in Toledo, that became her community of hope and place to belong.

"I got sober, and my uncle toled me along to every volunteer commitment and fellowship he was a part of. I didn't mind. I quickly became involved, invested, and inspired," Mandy commented. "It's at all these gatherings that I've loved, and I've been loved; where I've given, yet received more than I could ever dream. I've been a part, I BELONG. This is my community. Dare I say, my family."

At Lifeline, Ms. Fisher also found her voice again, and shared that gift with the conference through a song she wrote called "Small."

To begin the work of our day, Bishop Palmer recognized our newly elected delegation.

North Katanga Report

Bishop Mande Muyombo brought greetings to West Ohio from Gaston and Jeanne Ntombo and the ministry of Wings of the Morning. The program is going very well, strategically looking to the future, and will soon dedicate a new hangar being built in Lumbashi. He then celebrated the ministry of The Kamina Children's Home, where the orphans West Ohio began to support at ages 2 and 3 are now 18 and 19 years old.

West Ohio and North Katanga continue in a phase of mutual learning, and he thanked the team from West Ohio who taught in North Katanga last year, and looks forward to this year's team. Bishop Muyombo then said farewell, as he was leaving after lunch, yet stated that we would be traveling with him in his heart.

UM Identity - Education & Ecumenism Report

Rev. Judy Guion-Utsler began the Education and Ecumenism Report with a reminder that Rev. John Wesley regarded education as essential to faith formation as well as a way to improve the situation for those in poverty. In the 1860s the Methodist Episcopal Church had formal relationships with over 200 schools. Today there are relationships with 119 schools, colleges and universities in the United States and over 580 around the world. In West Ohio we have two seminaries, United Theological Seminary and Methodist Theological School in Ohio (MTSO), and three United Methodist universities: Otterbein, Ohio Wesleyan and Ohio Northern. Any United Methodist can apply to these schools for general scholarship aid. In the United States there are 11 colleges supported by the Black College Fund.

Rev. Claudine Leary continued the Education and Ecumenism Report by affirming that education is also important in Africa. The 1988 General Conference founded Africa University in Zimbabwe and promised financial support. With students from 26 African countries, Africa University has now trained more than 7,000 leaders including Bishop Mande, the first bishop to graduate from there.

Rev. Leary then celebrated John Wesley's insistence on books in every home and the work of the United Methodist Publishing House, which includes Abingdon Press and Cokesbury.

She gave thanks for Lakeside Chautauqua as a place that offers more than just a home for annual conference. Lakeside offers clergy retreats as well as preachers of the week as a part of its programming.

Next, Rev. Leary reminded us that Christian Unity is not an option, but a gift to be received and expressed. One way we do so in West Ohio is through the Ohio Council of Churches, comprised of 17 denominations. Rev. Dr. Jack Sullivan, Jr is their new Executive Director. While we don't agree on everything, we can celebrate the place that education and ecumenism has played in our Christian tradition.

Bishop Palmer recognized Dr. Kent Millard, President of United Theological Seminary in Dayton. He also recognized Dr. Cynthia Hopson, Assistant General Secretary of the Black College Fund and Ethnic Concerns from the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry. Bishop Palmer observed that Ohio has gone from 5 to 3 United Methodist affiliated colleges in the past year, then explained that the historically black colleges were formed when African Americans were unable to attend other colleges. These colleges now have a growing diversity, where students of every color are helped.

Council on Development Report

Rev. Stan Ling, Interim Director of the Council on Development, began the Council on Development report with a reminder that everything we do matters. In 1976 the West Ohio Conference passed a resolution creating the Council on Development and since then we have much to celebrate. 8,789 gifts in the first ten years. $45.5 million in the first 30 years. Another $21.3 million in the last ten years, for a total of $66.9 million since 1978!

The Council on Development has three purposes:

1. Donor relationship, knowledge for donors that donations end up where they are supposed to go
2. Local Church Stewardship, working with local churches to grow generous givers
3. Connecting and Supporting West Ohio Conference Mission and Ministry, such as purchasing a plane, purchasing nets, building relationships with our global mission partnerships, and supporting retiree pension

Rev. Ling reminded us that in 2017 Bishop Palmer challenged the conference to support the Light the Way campaign to fund new churches and revitalize existing churches. Prior to annual conference $2,560,000 had been raised. Tuesday's offering added another $100,000.

Mr. Bruce Boyd, Chair of the Council on Development, then shared plans for a brighter future, a future of hope. In the fall of 2018 the Council on Development began a discernment process for a new direction. They retained Rev. David Bell from the Michigan UM Foundation to provide consultation. The Council on Development was presented several options for organization, governance and direction. They realized 50 annual conferences now have a UM Foundation. West Ohio is the only one with a Council on Development. Following focus groups, Rev. Bell offered recommendations to move forward from a council to a foundation.

On 2/18/19 the Council on Development moved to change to a foundation. They will still receive funds for conference operations, board members will still be elected from the conference, and the controls will remain with the conference. This move provides opportunities to rebrand, alignment with the contemporary foundation structures, and expanded giving opportunities. The Council will work with the Board of Trustees and legal counsel to move forward to incorporate this foundation with the conference as the sole member.

Council on Development members were then recognized.

Bishop Introduced Mr. Mitchell Harper and Rev. Barry Burns to deliver the Laity Address and Cabinet Report.

Laity Address

Mr. Mitchell Harper, West Ohio Conference Lay Leader, presented the Laity Address. He began with giving thanks for those who have been instrumental in laity conversations this past year: Dee Stickley-Miner, Kris Shoaf, Tracy Chambers and Mary Shumard. He also gave thanks to the Hope Speakers this week.

Mr. Harper called on the laity to not lose sight of their hope now, when the church feels at a crossroads. His mother would always say, "Plan for the worst. Hope for the best." Yet as Christians we have a different type of hope, the hope of confident expectation. Our hope is in God, Jesus and the Holy Spirit. In a world full of people, good and bad, looking for answers, we are called to be shipmates on God's lifeboat, throwing out lifelines of hope to people who are drowning. In his own experience of anxiety, Mr. Harper has learned that he is least fearful when people around him are willing to speak confidence and hope into his life. He reminded us we have an obligation as clergy and laity to tell the good news.

He also called us to live into our purpose. So many people get caught up in the question, "Why am I here?" As we discern God's gifts and what ministry we are called to, we are also called to find hope in the fact we are here for good works. And not judged by good works alone. In those moments we miss the mark, we keep hope that we are saved by grace.

Our hope is not in our love for others, the church or this conference, but our hope is in God, and we are all called to share that hope with others. Mr. Harper concluded by challenging us to be Hope Dealers.

Cabinet Report

Rev. Barry Burns, dean of the Cabinet, presented the Cabinet Report. He reminded us that we are living and serving in interesting times. As he completes his fifth year on the cabinet, he recognizes that it has been the most challenging and rewarding work he has done in 34 years of ministry.

Rev. Burns reminded us of the cultural challenges we face. Fewer people participating in a local church. Rural churches struggling to be sustainable as industries and children have left. Urban centers struggling to engage changing populations and even look like their neighborhoods. Churches in all communities struggling to respond to the opiate epidemic and violence and growing cultural diversity.

Rev. Burns reminded us of institutional shifts. The challenge of balancing pastors and congregations in itinerancy. The loss of full-time appointments. Losing track of our mission and purpose, believing our mission is to keep the doors of the church open or preserve our way of doing things rather than focus on the mission of making disciples. The elephant in the room of what our future is going to look like as United Methodists.

Yet Rev. Burns reminded us there is still reason to hope. God tells us to be not afraid. God is a God of creation, resurrection and new life. He then shared signs of hope.

*The Light the Way Campaign has raised over $2.5 million for new church starts and revitalizing existing churches

*A renewed emphasis on planting new congregations of many forms. The 8 new congregations planted in West Ohio over the last couple of years are averaging 1346 in worship attendance, with 142 baptisms to date.

*Fresh Expressions taking the church beyond the walls of the building

*The All In Community working with returning citizens

*Intentional focus on cultural competency in a diverse world

*Disaster response, as seen in the past week after the tornadoes, where we move beyond our differences

While these are challenging times, our communities need us to be the church today. Our purpose has not changed, to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. If we allow the church to become about anything else then the decline will continue. Rev. Burns challenged us to re-commit ourselves to the mission, even with all the anxiety and uncertainty.

In closing, Rev. Burns gave thanks for the honor to serve the conference among a team of gifted superintendents who love the church, the congregations and people of each district, and are hopeful for what God is doing in our midst.

Bishop Palmer thanked Mr. Harper, Lay Leader and Rev. Burns, Dean of Cabinet. He then recognized his Extended Cabinet members. Rev. Kathleen Brown, Director of the Office of Ministry, and Rev. Brent Watson, Shawnee Valley District Superintendent, were both recognized for their retirements at this annual conference session with a gift of a Lectio Divina Bible. Bishop Palmer then introduced Rev. Donnetta Peaks, who will become the new Director of the Office of Ministry and Rev. Calvin Alston, Jr, who will become the new Shawnee Valley District Superintendent.

Rev. Jim Wilson offered courtesies. He celebrated that over 700 kits and buckets were collected for UMCOR and 375 participated in the "Noah's Ark 5K", also known as the Light the Way 5K Tuesday morning. The youngest was 5 years old and the oldest was 74 years old.

Bishop Palmer then celebrated that Rev. Mark Frinrock found someone to step up with a donation of a Hammond Organ for next Annual Conference, then offered a prayer for our lunch break.

Wednesday Afternoon Session
June 5, 2019 1:30pm

United Methodist Women Video

After a video celebrating the ministry of United Methodist Women, Ms. Jeanne Woodward, West Ohio Conference UMW President, was recognized.

Awards & Recognitions

Mr. Alex Giffin introduced the recognitions and awards with a word from Isaiah 43, celebrating individuals and congregations who pass through the waters in their own communities as they share the love of God with all people. He then introduced the following awards and recipients, who were greeted by Bishop Palmer and received their awards/certificates on stage.

The Faith in Mission Award is a new award, and this year's inaugural recipients are Rev. Henry Folgoso and Rev. Dani Ortega de Folgoso, from Middletown First UMC (ORV). They have worked to connect the church with their Hispanic neighbors and to grow the children and youth programs.

The One Matters Award is offered through the General Board of Discipleship to celebrate churches extending the love of Christ into the community and bringing in new members. This year's recipient was River Point Ministries (MWD).

Young Adult Missionaries Commissioning

Missionary Steve Quigg introduced Global Missions Fellows, young adults who seek to live out their baptismal vows by doing something about injustice while transforming the world for Christ. He explained that one-third of all United Methodist missionaries are Global Mission Fellows.

Rev. Greg Hinneman, pastor at Church for All People UMC (CAS), introduced Nathan and Samantha Whitford, who come today to be commissioned as Global Mission Fellows. Sammie began her work at Church for All People as a social work intern, then became a pastoral intern. Nathan was an AmeriCorps Vista worker who chose to remain at Church for All People. As Global Mission Fellows the Whitfords will be serving in Detroit, Michigan.

Mr. Quigg encouraged the conference to go and visit the Whitfords, invite them to our congregations, and financially support them. As he and his wife Gail were the longest active serving global missionaries for The United Methodist Church, having served for 40 years, most recently as mission advocates, he was delighted to bless the newest missionaries.

Bishop Palmer then blessed Nathan and Sammy Whitford with a prayer and the laying on of hands.

Videos were shown highlighting the Connectional Blueprint training as well as the Acorn Buddy Camp at Camp Widewater.

Order of the Day: Board of Ordained Ministry Report

Rev. Brian Law, chair of the West Ohio Conference Board of Ministry, shared the 2019 Board of Ministry Report. He recognized that while life is full of celebrations, most celebrations involve some sort of change. The Conference Board of Ministry and District Committees on Ministry assist candidates to identify and live out their call to ministry, as well as assist clergy to transition from ministry to another phase of life.

Rev. Law recognized and thanked Rev. Sherri Blackwell, vice chair, and Rev. Rachel Miller, secretary, then invited all Board of Ministry and District Committee members to stand. Rev. Law invited appreciation for the work of our Conference Office of Ministry staff: Rev. Kathy Brown, Rev. Donnetta Peaks and Mrs. Susan Thomas.

Reflecting on the past year, Rev. Law acknowledged the significant work of the Board of Ministry. To hone their skills, Board members learned best practices for file reading. A new District Superintendent Recommendation Form was created. Collaborative conversations continue with the Cabinet.

Boundary Training was this year's primary initiative, for all clergy and Certified Lay Ministers. 1,074 clergy were invited to participate, and 1,053 clergy completed the training, plus 54 members of Licensed Local Pastors School. Topics ranged from sexual ethics to healthy boundaries to self-care and appropriate social media boundaries.

As the Board of Ministry seeks to have diverse teams that reflect our conference while interviewing candidates with diverse backgrounds, the Board used the Intercultural Development Inventory Assessment (IDI) at their fall meeting.

Looking ahead to the next year, a task force has been working on an intentional, in-depth renewal process that fulfills the mandate of paragraph 349 of the 2016 Book of Discipline, requiring the implementation of an Eight Year Assessment by January 1, 2020.

The task force has based their assessment process on James 1:22-25, with the critical characteristic of an introspective thinker. This process is to be seen more as a mirror of grace rather than a hammer. It will be named "Your Ministry: Reflecting, Equipping and Flourishing" or REF, based on the following mission statement: "We will create a process that is intended to provide a 6-month process of reflection and equipping clergy to fulfill their call to ministry and flourish as a disciple of Jesus Christ throughout the seasons of serving in active ministry." REF will include a three-day retreat, coach and six-month process. A trial run will begin in September including members of the extended cabinet, members of the Board of Ministry, and representatives from all eight districts. Task force members were then recognized.

In concluding his report, Rev. Law recognized the blessing of Rev. Kathy Brown, who has served God for many years and in many ways throughout the credentialing process, most recently as Director of the Office of Ministry. Rev. Brown is retiring this annual conference. She was affirmed with a standing ovation. Rev. Law then welcomed Rev. Donnetta Peaks as the new Director of the Office of Ministry.

A time of recognition and celebration followed.

Rev. Law recognized two new clergy members transferring in from other annual conferences. They include Valerie Bridgeman and Corey Perry.

West Ohio summer interns were recognized for 2019. They are Kathryn McCarty, from Ohio Northern University, who will serve at Central Avenue in Athens and Grant Palma, from Ohio University, who will serve at Sylvania First in Sylvania.

New Certified Lay Ministers were introduced. They include Rosalind Porter and Randy Williams.

Christopher McManus was recognized for receiving his certification in music ministry.

Rev. David Weaver recognized Course of Study graduates: David Brisker, Herman Dick, Larry Fisher, Daniel Penzel, Michael Queen, and Jerry Sutton.

Rev. Law moved the acceptance of the Board of Ministry report. The report was affirmed by hand vote.

Before the presentation of candidates for ordination and commissioning could commence, the West Ohio Annual Conference paused for a 40-minute weather delay due to a tornado warning in the county. Conference resumed at 3:45pm.

Mrs. Cerssandra McPherson, a lay member of the Board of Ministry, and Rev. Brian Law presented the candidates for commissioning and ordination. Rev. Benji Sayre, Chair of the Order of Deacon, introduced two deacon candidates for provisional membership and four deacon candidates for ordination. Rev. Jon Ferguson, Chair of the Order of Elders, introduced twelve elder candidates for provisional membership, twenty-one elder candidates for ordination, and one candidate for full membership, having already been ordained in another denomination.

Those being received into Full Membership and Ordination were asked the Historic Questions by Bishop Palmer, then all candidates were prayed over and welcomed with a standing ovation.

The conference then had a short recess to prepare for the Celebration of Ministry Service.

Celebration of Ministry Service
June 5, 2019 4:45pm

As Mr. Andrew Willis played the processional hymn, Lift High the Cross, retirees and spouses, clergy being commissioned and ordained and their families, ordinand sponsors and banners all processed into Hoover Auditorium. Bishop Palmer led the opening prayer and a recognition of common ministry as rooted in our baptism. Forty-three retirees were recognized. (names listed on page 219 in the BAC) Bishop Palmer celebrated their combined 1,223 years of service. The Doxology was sung, Titus 1:1-5 was proclaimed by Rev. Miran Lee followed by the solo "Is Your All on the Altar?" performed by Mrs. Sam Ciampa, accompanied by Mr. Chris Ciampa and Mr. Chuck Bell. Bishop Palmer then preached on "For This Cause" reminding the ordination class that there is no perfect church. Amid our grumbling, there are high holy moments of God's Spirit where we know God can be trusted. Bishop Palmer ended his sermon by quoting Theologian Reinhold Niebuhr: "Nothing that is worth doing can be achieved in our lifetime; therefore, we must be saved by hope."

Following the offering, candidates for commissioning and ordination were presented and examined by Bishop Palmer, with a sung response of Here I Am, Lord. Two deacons and twelve elders were commissioned. Four deacons and twenty-one elders were ordained. One elder was received into full membership, having been ordained in another denomination (names listed on page 210 in the BAC) The hymn Be Thou My Vision was sung throughout the service. Four retirees bestowed the symbols of ministry on four newly ordained clergy, then everyone joined in the singing of the closing hymn Lord, You Give the Great Commission. Following the postlude, the congregation was sent forth for an evening of continued celebration with the new retirees and clergy and the intergenerational event "Rock the Dock."

Thursday Morning Worship Service
June 6, 2019 8:30am

Thursday morning's worship service began with Rev. Mark Chow, Annual Conference Worship Committee Chair, recognizing all veterans on this D-Day anniversary, thanking them for their service to our country. He then recognized and thanked everyone who helped with worship, from behind the scenes to musicians and preachers to the conference worship team.

Bishop Palmer then consecrated and prayed over them. Worship closed with the hymn The Church's One Foundation and a closing benediction by Rev. Walker.

Thursday Morning Session

Hope Speaker #4

Our final Hope Speaker was Ms. Connie Bannister, who started attending St. Paul's UMC in Toledo and became involved in the Marketplace for All People three years after her release from prison. In conversation with Mrs. Katie Kuntz-Wineland, she shared her story, how she found hope through St Paul's UMC and Pastor Mary Sullivan. She has volunteered at the Marketplace for All People since day one, and loves to organize it and talk with people waiting in the food line. Because she can't work anymore, she said she was going to work for God, since she loves helping people, talking with people and praying with people.

When asked to offer a word of hope to the Annual Conference, Ms. Bannister declared, "Keep the faith. Stay strong, and believe. Because God is good!"

Hope Speakers Summary

Rev. Dee Stickley-Miner gave thanks for all the Hope Speakers heard this week, and reminded us that these are our stories, multiplied across our congregations and communities. She called us all to testify to hope. Because of Christ's love, we have the power to restore life, restore dignity, and create redeemed communities where we all matter. She called us to leave the confines of our buildings, leave convenience behind, to carry God's life-giving hope to the world around us while giving birth to the next story of Hope and Transformation.

The "Hope Speaker" talks can be found on the WestOhioUMC YouTube channel.

Bishop Palmer took a moment to offer thanks to many who make the work of annual conference possible. He thanked the ushers and the communications team, especially Brandon and Thomas. He thanked the conference secretarial staff and Linda Middleberg, who in his time in West Ohio is the third partner he has had on his right.

Immigration Report

Rev. David Meredith and Mrs. Soroya deArco shared a report on the Eclipse Legal Clinic in the Ohio River Valley District, alternating between English and Spanish to demonstrate the challenge many immigrants experience as they seek to learn a new language as a matter of survival for their families, fearful to return to their countries of origin. They reminded our Conference of our past resolutions to assist immigrants and refugees and to stand against prejudices.

They then described the work of the Eclipse Legal Clinic, based at First UMC, Hamilton, where clients receive free legal consultation regarding immigration status and various migratory processes. Over 50 clients and families have been helped, supported by 25 volunteers. They invited any lawyers who are willing to volunteer to contact the conference office. In closing, they declared: "This is justice work. We all should be a part of it in some way." The report was received by acclamation.

Following speeches for and against, Barbara Cooper, clergy, MIV, moved to amend by addition page 44, line 12 so it would read: "...with the committee. She asked those willing to resist oppression in all forms to stand, then offered a prayer.

VII REPORTS OF ANNUAL CONFERENCE

A. EPISCOPAL ADDRESS

The Lord be with you. Drop thy still dews of quietness 'til all our striving cease. Take from our souls the strain and the stress, and let our ordered lives confess the beauty of thy peace. Grant, O God, in this moment and in all the moments of our lives and of our common life, that the words of our mouths and the meditations of our hearts will indeed be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, our strength and our redeemer. Amen.

I would certainly have to be challenged in some way in which, for example, I had lost the sense of smell, physically or metaphorically, the sense of sight, the sense of hearing, the sense of feeling, both in body and in spirit, the enormous anxiety that is in the system that is called the United Methodist Church. It does not mean that there are not wonderful things going on, and we have been hearing about that over and over again during this annual conference. It will happen in every annual conference, and it ought to. And what is true in the annual conferences is true because it's true in your local congregations and in your communities. And it's true also.. it's multiplied across the denomination, not just in the United States, but around the globe in all of its pieces and parts where United Methodism has planted itself in the hearts of people, and people continue to respond to the witness of the church which is always (or always ought to be) a witness to the gospel of Jesus Christ in their midst. After all, the church, the church, is not really the main point. But we are not irrelevant because we are conceived in the very heart of God.

Someone no less than Jesus said something like, "Upon this rock...upon this foundation, I will build my church. And the gates of Hades or hell (as the case may be) will not prevail against it." There have been many people and there will be people that come in generations going forward who will spend their time saying, what was Jesus talking about and who was Jesus talking about? Who's the rock? What is the rock? What is the foundation? What is this anchor and security and moorings to steal away to a nautical metaphor?

And so, while we are not the point, meaning we're not the 'telos,' not the end game, but we are the means that God, in God's wisdom, Creator Redeemer and Sanctifier, has chosen to be God's instrumentality in the world. It doesn't mean that God may not be working in some other places, but if the witness of Scripture means anything to us and for us, God has made it clear through Scripture, through the life, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, through the apostolic church and across the ages, that there is purpose, there is intentionality, that God chooses to use a human community to get God's redemptive salvation, transformative work done in the world.

And I'm just honored, and I'm humbled that God would choose me and that God would choose you. We ought to drop to our knees every time we think about the notion. And as much as I like to preach and as much as many of you who preach like to preach, I mean, some of the greatest preachers in the English-speaking world, I've heard them say things like.... I mean, when you really think about it, it's a kind of clumsy way, it's an awkward way that every 7 days, shall we say, that a part of God's strategic plan to herald the gospel is to let one mortal perhaps stand just a few inches above others and a pulpit for even flat-footed, on the same level with other folks and declare to them...declare to them that God is light and in God there is no darkness at all, declare to them that the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life, declare to them that their sins despite all that we continue to do, our sins have been forgiven in the blood of the cross and the transformation of the resurrection. One mortal like me, I mean, that was coming as some oracle from some high mountain, that would make a little more sense and feel a little less awkward and clumsy to me. But God, I'm merely emphasizing the point, this idea of church and preaching was not our idea, but God's. But God has chosen....

I mean, have you...have you examined your frailties recently? I mean, I'm not mad at you because I don't have time to worry about your frailties because mine are so many. Some days when I'm sort of in a funk for whatever reason, I say, Seriously, God? I mean, I don't know if you have these inner-active, what I call, psalm-like honest conversations with God. I've not always been able to do that. But you just keep on living and it'll work out for you. Seriously? The demands that the gospel places upon us, but I see those demands only in the light of the grace and mercy of God.

And the institutional church in varying iterations, United Methodism only being one of them, and even then, we are standing upon the shoulders of other ecclesial iterations. I mean, other groups of people that believe God had convened them to be church in a particular way.

Thanks be to God for the church. And while it is popular to rail at institutions and many of them, including the church, need some railing at, this was not your or my idea. And we are not the plumb line for one another. The plumb line is the gospel, the gospel of Jesus Christ, which has invited all of us into a new and transforming relationship and invited us to participate in the unfolding of God's reign and God's sovereignty.

So, as we pray, we also participate. So, when we pray, we ought to take it seriously. Thy kingdom come not in some sweet by and by, but thy kingdom come on earth. That's what we're in the business of, is participating in the power of the Holy Spirit in the unfolding and the enfleshing and the incarnating of the reign of God in all our relationships and in the midst of all our craziness as a human family. And sometimes the craziness seems more resident in the church as institution than it does in the so-called secular world.

But we are all, I hope, realists. And we go through these periods in the life of the church. This is not intended to necessarily be a sad to say, Just blow it off. But it is an invitation to think about how we're going to engage it. It has been tough to be a United Methodist in these days. Have I got any witnesses tonight? I don't care who you are. I don't care where you are on some linear spectrum which is only one way of seeing things, or where you are in the circle of faith, or where you stand on any particular thing even though we know the particularity of what is giving us so much angst and so many sleepless nights in this season. I don't care where you are on that linear thing or that circle, it's been tough. It's been tough for everybody. I don't care if you're a liberal or a conservative, a so-called traditionalist (please see a small 't') or a progressive (small 'p'). If you name the name United Methodist, it's been tough. I mean, every time I hear WOSU say something about the United Methodist Church I just kind of.... I just kind of.... I was shaving the other day and something else, I said, O Jesus. I mean, don't listen to the news with a razor in your hand.

I mean, I get it. I eat, sleep and breathe this in a particular way. Doesn't mean that you don't. It's just the particularity of who I am. But I just tighten up. Even found myself one time (true confession), I was in for a medical test. Thought everything was good. Just routine. Just, you know, doing what Ken Woody and Kristin Langstraat said we ought to be doing every year. And I was laying there and the technician, who was managing the equipment, you know, more out of, you know, trying to make the patient comfortable. "Well, what do you do?" I just need to tell you. You've already heard my story about airplanes. "Well, what do you do?" I don't like to do it when I'm naked. Don't ask me what I do. Or when you have the little skimpy coverings on in the medical setting. Right now, I don't want to talk. Just skip the machine over me. Take the picture. Let's move on.

But I've got to tell you, post February and St. Louis...the tech asked me... I was over at one of the parts and parcels of Ohio Health and so I finally said, "Well, I'm a preacher." And I prayed in a nanosecond.... Please don't ask me what kind of preacher? Don't ask me where is your church? Don't ask me what denomination if any denomination? And then I caught myself. I said that kind of ducking and hiding is not sustainable. It's not sustainable for me emotionally. It's not sustainable for me spiritually. Ducking and hiding from somebody that I think is a stranger, though he may have seen my picture on the cover of the Dispatch or somewhere else, or could be a United Methodist, who was tuning in live stream February 23 to 26. I don't know. And so, as I told the clergy at the clergy session I don't live in St. Louis. I live in West Ohio Conference. I'm a preacher of the gospel in the United Methodist Church. I happen to be serving you as an elder who is consecrated to the office of bishop, and even though we're going through a tough time I'm glad about it because it's not about me. it's not about me and it's not even about the name, except the name of Jesus. Except the name of Jesus.

Everything, including the church in some way is interim. The gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ and the risen Christ are our life. The 'telos' is the complete unfolding of the reign of God in every heart and in every part of the cosmos. Let me say that one more time. Everything, including the institutional church (I did not say the mystical church...the institutional church) is interim. It is Jesus Christ and his gospel that are our light and the 'telos' is nothing less than the complete unfolding of the reign of God, or to put it in something more Wesleyan terms, 'new creation.' 'A new heaven' the revelator said on the Isle of Patmos, 'and a new earth.'

But institutionally speaking, because I've already told you I've had some shaky moments.... I got to thinking as I was preparing to address another group in the post-General Conference season (and it was not here in West Ohio—so you've not seen this. Thank God it's not on the Internet yet.) 'Cause every preacher wants to tell at least one of his or her stories more than once. These words out of Psalm 11 certainly come out of some tension and some conflict. But they raise the provocative question with me that I want to raise with you, and they are in verse 3 where the psalmist raises the question, if the foundations be destroyed, what shall the righteous do? But as is the case, often with Scripture and certainly with Jesus, one question always leads to another because as I began to wrestle with this text and a bit lifted above its complete context to say that that's the question that's stirring inside me. If my church is falling apart, what am I going to do? It's all I know. And then, of course, the answer is it's not about you anyway, dude.

We ask this question culturally. We ask this question in religious and safe experiences. If everything we know, or it really should be everything that we've come to know that we are comfortable with that makes us at ease. Because you see, we in the western world in particular.... It may be true elsewhere but let me talk about what I know tonight and not speculate so much on what I don't know. We love certainty. We want to ask the questions and we want a precise, mathematical or scientific answer. It's this way or it's that way. It's up. It's down. It's sideways. It's north. It's south. We do not like...we don't do well with ambiguity. And people that can't live with ambiguity don't do well with waiting. And people who don't do well with waiting, (watch this,) for those of you that are on the high-speed bullet train we sometimes are not ready to get on the higher speed vehicle or conveyance when it comes by. So, I confess. I've been asking this question, What if this whole thing falls apart, what am I going to do? What are we going to do? What is the world going to do without us?

I flipped over, as you've already heard. So, let me touch base with King Jesus. The end of the Sermon on the Mount (so-called) in Matthew's rendering, he talks about building and framing a life on bedrock, a solid foundation. I flipped over and I said, Paul, I need you to testify if you've got anything to say about this. And watch this, in 1 Corinthians 3 Paul almost is kind of...almost struggling with a metaphor. And there have been many metaphors for the people of God in Israel and in the church. God's field. God's vineyard. God's house. And he comes to this more building kind of construction metaphor in 1 Corinthians 3. And he makes it as clear as it can be that there is only one foundation for the church. And guess who that is! Jesus Christ, our Lord. Everything that does not have Jesus at the foundation is not a church, including some of our incorporated congregations, wherever they may be. They may be well-intended social clubs. They may be well-intended cultural tribal gathering groups working around nationality, language, ethnicity or theology. But if Jesus of Nazareth.... I'm talking about Mary's baby and Joe's boy. ...that...that...that the ancients' generations before saw in the rough and weary land, the Rose of Sharon, Bright and Morning Star, and the preacher used to tell it in Matthew's genealogy, who came down through 40 and 2 burning generations. I mean, those preachers, it was not sufficient to say, through 42 generations. They had to say through 42 burning generations because God was up to something in terms of God's redemption and salvation story. So, Paul says the only foundation for the church is Jesus. So, I jump back over to the psalm and said something is being destroyed, but it isn't the foundation of the church.

I want you to know tonight we can't tear that up. We can't bulldoze it. We can't drill it. We cannot come apart by putting rock salt on it. You don't want to hear me tonight with.... We can mess up the outer image of it if we're supposed to be the face. But we cannot ultimately tear it up, not as United Methodists and not with any other church, any other ecclesial body that is struggling with something that they have done, that they have allowed, and even what they have been silent about. You fill in the blank. You fill in the blank.

So, I simply want to say to you tonight that the foundation is sure because it is Jesus Christ our Lord. Now Paul goes on in 1 Corinthians 3 to say that our fundamental work as church is to make decisions as we go, determinations individually and as ecclesial bodies, whether local ecclesial bodies or whether denominations that have a global reach. Our work is to choose, in our helping to participate in the unfolding of the reign of God, what kind of materials we're going to use to build with during our season in this building project called church. And there is this litany of building materials—gold, and silver and jewels and wood and hay and straw. And if you don't get the beginning of that, go to the end of it in terms of durability and sustainability, in terms of capacity to weather the storms of life and the vicissitudes that come against people, groups of people and institutions. While they all may matter, they will not all last.

So, the question for us as United Methodists and in West Ohio, which (by the way) is the place where we together have the most influence, is right where we are, is what needs, perhaps, some deconstruction. You don't get to decide on the foundation. But there may be some stuff we've built on what we call church that is no longer sustainable, no longer usable, no longer useful, no longer helpful, no longer forwarding of the purposes of the gospel.

Now just think about your local church. If you were to put the plumb line in your local church in the minutes from any of your committees meetings and the plumb line was the question writ large, 'will this activity help us fulfill the mission of making disciples for the transformation of the world' you'd be cutting out two-thirds of what you're doing in your local church. I want to say two-thirds of all the church's effort. Cut it out. Get back to the plumb line. Get back to the initial plumb line. And if that's the question—will this activity help us to be church, or will this activity help us to present gospel to the world. I mean, friends, tell the truth. Half of what we're doing and why our stuff is not sustainable is because we're doing it for ourselves and not for the world. Not for the world.

We don't mean any harm. It's not a conspiracy. It's not malicious. We just like each other. We think we need to perpetuate activities that make us feel good about being together. I hope we do feel good when we're together. But that's not our mission. That is not our primary mission. So, what kind of materials have we built church, called United Methodist, with? What deconstruction is needed for the next season of how God wants to use us in the world to love all of God's people and to serve all of God's people, particularly the marginalized and the poor? I mean, we've got a few places that are cutting it up for Jesus, as a friend of mine says, with the margins. But most of us, small or large, we're not pushing ourselves hard. So, some deconstruction is needed after some terrible reflection. And then we must choose not to tear it up and cast it aside, but to determine what is the renovation or the rebuilding project? And what kind of materials will we choose? Will they be sustainable, and will they serve the missional purposes to which we have been called?

One of the things that I'm deeply interested in, and I've thought about this when I think about what might you do, Palmer, when you retire? And I've thought about, you know, do I have anything to give to a people who are at a different stage of ministry? Should I be engaged in theological education in some way? Or, given our propensity as a human family to live on edge with one another, should I develop my capacities and my skills, which are not that great, at helping people to have better conversations, mediated conversations that lead to reconciliation, to healing of broken relationships? One of the things that distresses me about who we are as United Methodists, but it's not just us, but I see it in .... I see it in West Ohio occasionally. I see around the denomination. I mean, there's some days I thank God for the flat digital world, and there are other days I pray, God, give that part of the country a power failure so that blogger can't get on today.

So, here's the leading text. In the Book of Genesis in the 37th chapter begins that long saga of the story of Joseph and his brothers and, God bless him, his father who likely set his sons into so much dysfunction that we're probably still trying to overcome it. Like all parents, well intended, I suspect.

But listen, guys, I mean, it's in the Bible. But you know, you've got 12 dudes and you've got this special multi-colored coat for one of 'em. Seriously? I mean, Jacob, how do you expect that somebody out of the eleven is not going to get ticked off? But that narrative is in the Bible to show us something about ourselves, and that's only a piece of it. It was about parenting. It was about sibling relationships. It was about the pieces, the mothers in the story who were mostly silent, named but silent and not real players that we could see most of the time. But watch this. I mean, Joseph drank the Kool-Aid. And it was tough. You know, Dad gives me this coat. So, I'm looking good. I'm somebody. I mean, when you've got your duds on (male or female) .... I mean, you can start struttin'. You know, you've got a little swagger. And then he had these...let me say, disclosures to him. 'I was in the field, binding up. And...and... and my sheaves that were bound up rose up higher than...' Seriously?

I mean, I've had some high-flung notions of myself. They're mostly delusional. But even ones that might even still be coming ??? you don't announce it. That's absolutely a non-starter of building relationships with your peers. It feeds into something in our competitive nature that can become very unhealthy. I mean, you've got to be enough of a starter to have some get-up-and-go to do something in life and something for the Lord. But you don't to keep announcing and beating your breast about what your accomplishments are going to be in the future that nobody can see it but you, and you saw it in a dream. Your dream might be somebody else's nightmare.

Then the brother went all up in the constellations. But here's what the text comments. I mean, the brothers were starting to fume. That word is not in the text, but then the text comments in some English translations that his brothers hated him so much that they could not speak peaceably to him. They hated him so much, another translator said in the English, they could not speak kindly to him. And we have come, my friends (not each and every one of you) but we've come in the larger sense to a place in which I'm deeply worried in our church that we cannot speak peaceably to one another. We either hate each other so much that we can't, or we are so convinced of the absolute purity and rightness of our position that there's no room.... I didn't say for other ideas; I said for other people. Work with me tonight.

We have come to the place, let me get out of the Bible, where in our relationships politically, particularly around our current malaise, we've got some folks among us who've got a scorched earth approach. Let's carpet bomb all the people who disagree with us with our votes.

I may not get back, but I'm going to say it tonight. I'm just trying to tell the truth. I'm trying to be a provocateur. The reason I can say that is, there are moments, friends, where many of us have kept those impulses. And even if they've been in the altar of our own hearts and we've not been a part of a crowd, a mob, a caucus or a movement, we've said things in our own heads and hearts, just tell the truth and shame the devil tonight, where we think, 'Well, if they would just go away...' (come on somebody), 'everything would be all right.' This is an equal opportunity employer; may I say to you. I speak to no one of any particular tribe or camp theologically and ideologically. I have seen the behaviors and unfortunately, I sometimes see them among my colleague bishops—scorched earth, carpet bombing. 'If they would just go away.'

Let me give you another illustration. Since St. Louis some of the clergy here have preached from your pulpits, or you've offered commentary not to be deducted from your preaching time or you've written in your church newsletter, in some cases your disappointment with the outcome. And I then, in turn, get letters from parishioners. 'I'm leaving this church because my pastor expressed a different opinion than the adopted legislation of the General Conference.' I say, 'Did the pastor take any action on it? Did the pastor threaten to take any action on it?' 'No, he or she just said they wished that it was different. I can no longer go to this church.' My friends, we are making (some of the clergy heard this. I'm paraphrasing ?????) we are making our project how to get unhitched from one another rather than how to draw closer to one another. We are narrowing the spaces for safe (watch this) and brave conversations. Rather than encouraging brave and courageous conversations, but not conversations that are so far and mean of spirit, ideology and theology notwithstanding, that their goal is the complete obliteration of people who think differently. I need you. You may not think you need me. And I'm not talking in my role officially. I speak as a brother in Christ.

Saint Augustine said about his being in the episcopacy...he said, "For you I am bishop; but with you I am your brother in Christ."

How dare we...how dare we see the complete ecclesial destruction of people with whom we disagree. Have we forgotten all the toil of coming down through 40 and 2 burning generations? Have we forgotten Maundy Thursday and that star-chamber court in which they marched him from place to place? Have we forgotten the thorns in his brow, the bruised reed in his hands? Have we forgotten the vinegar on the sponge? Have we forgotten on the agonizing cross when his own life was spilling out from him physically? The toil of Calvary. Not because humanity had yippee-ki-yayed jumped up and said God send Jesus so we can be saved. I mean, there's some reason to believe that he came even unto his own and they received him not.

So, we must tend to our materiality and what we put on the foundation. As you've heard me say before, but I say again, if there was a memo that came from Holy Ghost headquarters that said 'all of you United Methodists are free to suspend your attention to the primary mission of disciple-making and world transformation until you resolve the challenge of human sexuality' signed God, Creator, Redeemer, Sanctifier, Father, Son and Holy Ghost, I just need you to know I missed the parchment and I didn't get a digital version.

I'm not quite done yet, but I'm almost there. Let me give you one more. Every time one of my colleague bishops does something that's a little controversial around human sexuality, I'll get some correspondence that basically says what you don't do. I am not he, but that verse that pops up concerning the master where the text comments they sought to entrap him. Maybe we ought to stop trying to catch one another in a fault, to entrap one another, to find out how many failings we have from community to community and lean upon some different resources. Perhaps we ought in this season to really work at turning toward one another as difficult as it is, and it is difficult.

My question is, what's the witness outside of the church? I leave it as an open question. I have no authority to make any demand upon you. I only get to stand up here and talk a little bit once a year, raise a few provocative questions. But will we continue to be a church as we have been for some season, where falling into the trap of being defined by a single story?

That's what our sister from Africa raised that question when she found her voice as a novelist. She found out how complex our relationships are, how layered we are in culture and in gender and in all other sorts of identifiers and she begged humanity to say, even as she had found how nuanced and complex things are, that she didn't want to be judged by just one part of her story. And I don't want any of you to be judged by one part of your story, no matter where you are in that circle that I described, or on that linear scale that goes from a proverbial left to right. Is it your whole story? And are you willing to sell the whole farm on it? Or, is there a different kind of work to be done as we build upon the foundation after we have deconstructed what can go because it's no longer useful?

I know it's hard to say good-bye to yesterday, a la Boyz II Men. You all hear me tonight. But some of what we have known as church, it's done. And whether we stay together (I'm not a prophet.) or whether we segment into.... You know, the latest currency is 3 different groups. So, I just want to speak into it, and I'm just deeply frustrated. One group gets defined, you know, in the so-called media. This group is traditional. This group is moderato or centrist. And this group is progressive. The only definer is human sexuality. So, I need to tell you, I ain't going nowhere with any 3 of 'em, any of 'em, because I am not going to be defined by a single conversation and a single story. And you ought not to be as well.

I think, for example, a progressive approach to theology and practice might be in the arena of (let's say) violence. Are we being summed by the crucified Christ who never said a mumbling word to become a pacifist church? That feels progressive to me. Are you???? So, what defines the center? The center on one subject? Are we going to be shaped by a single narrative, or is the conversation and the work more nuanced and more complex than is simply that?

I plead with you, deconstruct what we must and then let's build a new church and a world, for the sake of the world, together. But don't get stuck with these crazy labels that .... Nobody means any harm. They're place holders. But even a place holder doesn't tell our whole story any more than the label of a political party. When I vote I have no permanent friends and I have no permanent enemies. I only have permanent interests. Justice in everything across this landscape, inclusion rather than exclusion. And if somebody in a party that I'm not a member of can deliver that, and I have a reason based on their rhetoric and their track record to say that they can deliver that, I'm going to give it a try because I have no permanent friends. I have no permanent enemies. I only have permanent interests. And I hope those interests in some way resemble the interests of God.

I'm coming on home now. You've been very patient. If you're stirred up and you feel your jaws getting tight, it's all right. Just don't fall out with me. I mean, you know. But something that's been said tonight is useful for the church, but it doesn't mean everything is. I don't want to be in a community where I can go to church and every...every...every time, I just know I just feel so good when I'm here. Sometime I ought to be squirming and feeling not like the preacher, but like the word through preaching came to my pew, slid in the pew and sat down on the pew and began to talk in my ear and say, Palmer, what 'chu going to do about the gospel? Sometimes things happen when the preaching is about my possessions and it's about my relationships and it's about the things, I hold so tightly that don't amount to a hill of beans.

Part of our resources as a church on this journey (and we are on the journey) toward perfection.... If you got a memo that it's going to happen if you split into one of those groups, I would say, Go for it. I unalterably promise you that in a short time you'll begin to smell out the imperfections of the new thing. This is why our colleagues in the Reformed tradition say they are reformed and always reforming. In our own tradition we talk about going on to perfection. And it's primarily about being made perfect in love, the capacity to receive all the wholeness of God's love in our lives, and the capacity to let that love pour out from us into the church and into the world. That's what holiness looks like. God's love poured into our hearts and overflowing until it looks like hope and salvation for the world.

But while we're on the journey there's going to be some tough times ahead. I do not want to blow any smoke in your direction. It may get harder the longer we hang in. But I'm going with Bonhoeffer tonight, who was safely ensconced in the United States teaching in one of our distinguished theological seminaries.... 'Our' meaning American, not United Methodist. And everything was unfolding in the Third Reich in Germany. And he finally reached the conclusion that he needed to return to be a part of what was going on there and people must have been asking him and he was asking himself, what you at Union Seminary in New York do? Let the war and Hitler carry on? And something like this was attributed to him. He says, "If I do not return in this period of suffering for the church and the nation, I may not have any right to participate in its rebuilding or its ongoing life on the other side."

So lest you think I'm being Pollyanna about hanging on in there, no, this is more about courage, bravery, to say that what emerges new whether or not we stay, deconstruct and put something new there on the old foundation, which is undefiled and unfading by the way, will we have a right to participate if our sleeves were not rolled up and our hearts were not opened?

So, we're going through a storm right now. But we've got some resources for going through storms. We've got the scriptures. And you know every now and again I like to sing a song, even if I'm only singing to myself. Two storm songs came to me, one more out of the spiritual tradition of African peoples in America in the Diaspora—"Courage my soul and let us journey 'though the night be dark, it won't be very long. Thanks be to God, the morning light appears and the storm is passing over and the result is hallelujah."

But let me come up another hundred years to Charles Alfred Tindley in south Philadelphia. This is in the United Methodist hymnal, if you've got one in your church, where he said, "When the storms of life are raging, stand by me." I've got hope because he promised he was gonna stand by me. This is not 'stand by your man.' This is not 'stand by your woman.' This is about the triune God who will stand by us when it is absolutely the toughest.

Tindley said, 'When the storms of life are raging, stand by me. When the world is tossing me like a ship...' Do you see the metaphor of church? '...upon the sea.' Oh, come on, Tindley. 'Thou who rulest wind and water, stand by me. In the midst of tribulations, stand by me. In the midst of tribulations, stand by me. In the midst of persecutions, stand by me.' Then he said, "When my friends don't understand and I've done the best I can, thou who knowest all about me, stand by me."

Well, since you're up I guess I'm done. I was going to quote a few more verses, but it's all right anyhow. The title of this exercise tonight is 'How Firm a Foundation.' I see Andrew has slid onto the bench. Some words are going to appear on the screen. And we're going to sing our way out of here. When we get to the end of the hymn you can assume that the benediction has been given. Good night and God bless you.

B. BOARD OF PENSION & HEALTH BENEFITS

Bishop, members of the cabinet and Members of this Annual Conference, I'm pleased to report on the work of your Board of Pension & Health Benefits and present our recommendation.

I am AGAIN representing the authority of the current board chair, Barry DeShetler. Now in retirement status, Barry might be getting ice cream or fishing somewhere or just lounging around. In any case, here I am. And yes, this report will be brief.

First, I wish to thank the Clergy Wellness Task Force for their effort and dedication over the past two years. Their work has provided a solid foundation upon which the Board of Pension and Health Benefits will build. Expanding the scope of the board to include mental/emotional wellness and spiritual wellness will allow us to make wellness the focal point while applying a holistic strategy. Four pillars, one goal – a healthy mind, body and spirit.

Even when staying true to the theme of this Annual Conference Session, Be Not Afraid – Hope, it sometimes can seem like the opposite is true in our day-to-day lives. Regardless of your age, there are things that can burden our minds – student debt, obesity, depression, the health of our own spiritual walk, to name just a few. These are REAL concerns for all of us.

The complexities of our health care systems (no matter what system in which you participate), can cause many to feel hopeless. From my twenty-something children, to my wife and myself, to my eighty-something parents, concerns for our health (with the uncertainty of how we are going to manage to pay for insurance coverage and treatment) are frequently discussed (and cursed).

Regarding retirement, the specter of outliving the money set aside for retirement living is on one end of the spectrum. On the other end is convincing our younger clergy colleagues that retirement planning begins NOW and not when you turn 45 or 50 years old. From personal experience, attempting to convince my working-adult children that retirement saving IS important is not an easy task.

However, I am here to share that there IS Hope! These are situations where working together is paramount. Your Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits will watch out for you as best as we can. Still, you continue to be your own best advocate. We are way past the idealistic state where we blindly act like someone will take care of all of our needs medically or financially. The good news is – there are more resources now than ever before to assist you in making informed decisions for your healthcare and your financial future.

HEALTH CARE PLANS

The Board continues to review the healthcare plans for both retired and active clergy annually. Currently, there are no anticipated changes for either the retired clergy or active clergy healthcare plans. However, the board is looking at changes to the retiree plan beginning 2021. Be assured we will communicate early and often any such changes.

The latest medical claims data will be reviewed in August in preparation for setting 2020 premiums. When that data is available and released, I would remind everyone that it is imperative that our premiums cover the costs of our self-insured active plan as well as keeping our long-term healthcare liability in check for the retiree plan. One hopeful sign is that so far this year, our actual healthcare claims are below expectations, unlike in 2018 when claims exceeded expectations.

PERSONAL RESPONSIBILITY

In the words of our Board chair, Barry DeShetler, "You are your own best advocate." Be willing to ask questions, not only of your primary physician or practitioner but of your local pharmacist. If you are not satisfied with the answers or information, take advantage of educational opportunities regarding healthcare and healthcare case management.

Now, you may be thinking, "Where can I start to get this information?" Again, I bring you HOPE! On the West Ohio Conference website, go to either "Stewardship & Finance" OR "Resources." In either case, click on the "Wellness" tab. There you will see options for physical, financial, emotional, and spiritual wellness.

This website information is new this year. You can access clergy wellness benchmark reports and information and/or links to other sites that provide wellness information for both active clergy and retirees.

As Janet mentioned from the Wellness Taskforce Report, your Board is also taking an extra step to promote emotional wellness by providing an Employee Assistance Program through Ohio Health. We rejoice that this service is being provided at no cost to the participants.

However, even before you get to a critical healthcare situation, we all need to be reminded that we have a personal responsibility to God, our families, our local churches, and ourselves to take the best possible care of ourselves that we can. The stabilization of our healthcare costs will only happen when, individually, we take better care of us.

Your Board continues to provide incentives through programs like Virgin Pulse Activity Program and a financial incentive for getting an annual physical. Receiving a $100 check for completing my annual physical – which was FULLY COVERED under our healthcare program – is a nice little perk. And, what's even better is if your spouse is covered on the plan, they can receive a $100 check for getting their physical as well.

Another opportunity for active clergy is participation in the Health Savings Account Plan. Just by signing up, the Conference will deposit money on January 1 and July 1 into your account that can be used for any qualified expense. Please contribute as much as you can so that you can make the most of the tax-deferred benefit of this savings plan. The best thing is – THIS IS YOUR MONEY! The unused money in your account rolls over from year to year so that you can use this for healthcare expenses when YOU need it.

PENSION

Now, let me shift your attention to the pension side of things. As with healthcare, there are reliable resources at the Conference office to help you navigate the pension process. Mike Kremnitzer, Director of Benefits and Human Resources, and Sandi George, Benefits Coordinator, are there to help you and answer questions you may have around YOUR pension.

I do want to highlight some specific items of note in this year's recommendation.

The past service rate or PSR for the Pre-82 plan effective in 2020 will remain at $611 per service year and that this yearly rate may not be decreased.

At last year's Annual Conference meeting, I reported that all eligible clergy were going to be auto-enrolled on Jan. 1, 2019, in the United Methodist Personal Investment Plan or UMPIP for a pre-tax contribution at a rate of 3% of the clergy's plan compensation (which is cash salary plus 25% for housing if living in a parsonage or the amount of any cash housing allowance where provided).

Let me say that we have tangible positive results.

This chart shows that participation and the average contribution percentage to UMPIP before and after auto enrollment.

Participation increased by almost 60% over last year with 97% of eligible clergy now enrolled.

The average contribution percentage increased by over 34% over last year with the average contribution percentage at 4.96%.

Now, it is time for step two.

Beginning Jan. 1, 2020, all eligible clergy will see an auto-escalation in their pre-tax UMPIP contribution at a rate of 1% per year until a maximum of 10% is reached.

This 1% auto-escalation will take place in 2020 UNLESS you are already contributing 10% or more of your plan compensation or you opt out by completing the Contribution Election form from Wespath.

In any case, personal contributions will be billed to the local church by Wespath and paid from payroll deduction by the local church.

Please understand that these actions are being taken to assist every eligible clergy in reaching your financial retirement goals.

While we look for Hope in trying and perhaps chaotic situations, preparing for retirement can be one that YOU can help to control. Participate in retirement funding to the maximum level you can. Continue to or begin taking advantage of retirement seminars. I know that for some of you, retirement is low on your list of priorities. Still, it is NEVER too early to be considering how you are preparing for that day in the future when you walk across the stage and shake the Bishop's hand.

Bishop, members of the cabinet, and members of this annual conference I want to thank Barry DeShetler, chair of this board, Mike Kremnitzer our Conference Benefits Officer, Sandi George our Conference Benefits Coordinator, and Bill Brownson, CFO and Director of Administration for their leadership and the work they have done this past year. They all are superb assets to our Conference. With that, I move the adoption of recommendation number two.

C. BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Thank you, Bishop Palmer. I move that this session of the Annual Conference be adjourned and that the Corporate Session of the West Ohio Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church be convened.

Bishop Palmer and members of Annual Conference:

The board of Trustees has met five times since the last Annual Conference and conducted substantial work on behalf of the conference.

As was the case in the prior year much of the Trustees' work again involved real estate and been led by Dr. Julie Hurtig who chairs the Real Estate Committee.

- The Conference Center renovation is now complete! This brings to a close action first authorized by the 2014 Annual Conference, five years ago. Meeting space utilization has increased significantly over the pre-renovation design. Some meetings previously held at hotel meeting facilities are now held at the Conference Center, which saves money. The renovation also created space for the Capitol Area District offices, and their move will save $600,000 over a ten-year period. As with all buildings, the trustees will monitor and invest things like parking lot surfacing and roofs. The project is fully paid for and we have no debt on it. Thank you for your patience! Please pay us a visit, we'll be happy to give you a tour.
- We continue to collaborate with Camps and Retreats Ministries and the numerous needs that arise with operating three camps. Since our last report, no major building projects have been initiated. We remain focused on routine and preventive maintenance and work closely with camps and retreats leadership on planning and approval processes for major projects on the horizon.

Trustees also have the responsibility for property of closed local churches. This comes about after a District Superintendent recommends closure or reports abandonment, and Extended Cabinet concurs. Since our last Annual Conference, the following churches were closed:

- o In the Capitol Area South District:
  - Pickerington Trinity, July 1, 2018
  - Fairfield Beach, September 15, 2018
- o In the Foothills District:
  - New Zion Hocking, September 15, 2018
- o In the Maumee Watershed District:
  - Turning Point, June 30, 2019
- o In the Ohio River Valley District:
  - Water's Edge, August 31, 2018
- o In the Shawnee Valley District
  - Victory Chapel, March 1, 2019
- o Bethel in Lawrence County, May 1, 2018

Working with the Extended Cabinet, earlier this year we agreed to a process for allocating closed church proceeds in a more strategic way so that financial resources that derive from closed churches become investment in future ministries.

The 2019 Special General Conference adopted legislation governing disaffiliation and on April 26, the Judicial Council ruled it is constitutional.

I'm pleased to introduce our Conference Chancellor, Chris Hogan, who will share more about this and other matters during his report.

Chris Hogan:

- Along with other chancellors I've been monitoring the results and repercussions of the 2019 Special General Conference. As Ann noted, one outcome is a process for disaffiliation. It's pretty detailed and potentially complicated. I'll share the highlights of the process here and suggest you contact your superintendents if this is something your congregation is contemplating.
  - o Disaffiliation can be only for disagreement with the what the Book of Discipline says about homosexuality or how conferences are administering those provisions.
  - o Provides for an intentional discernment process including a church conference called by a DS.
  - o Sets out minimum costs to be covered by disaffiliating churches that includes two years of apportionments and that church's share of the conference's unfunded liability.

- o Provides for annual conferences to establish additional costs of disaffiliation.
  - o Each disaffiliation agreement must be adopted/approved by a majority vote of Annual Conference.
  - o If Annual Conference approves, the terms must be met prior to disaffiliation date.
  - o Once fulfilled, the disaffiliated church retains its real property.
- While this is certainly significant, other legal work continues.
    - o I keep the Trustees up to date on pending and actual legal matters, which include defending the trust clause consistent with the Book of Discipline
    - o Safe Sanctuary policies and education is a critical continuing effort – please be sure you’re aware of the most recent guidance and avail yourself of training
    - o Legal Forum will be held on Friday, October 25th this year with Ohio Wesleyan University hosting us. I’m sure we’ll have a lot of interesting thing to cover.
  - I appreciate the opportunity to serve as your chancellor and look forward to continuing to advise Bishop Palmer and the Conference on legal and related matters.

Thanks, Chris.

Under the oversight of the Trustees, the Conference Investment Policy Committee stewards the investment management of more than $82 million as of March 31. Marlen Yost chairs this committee, which ensures that local church endowment funds, assets set aside for clergy benefits, conference reserves and the Trustees own endowment are appropriately invested. Investment performance in 2018 was down, particularly at the end of the year. At the same time, by the end of the first quarter we were back to market highs.

Nevertheless, performance continues to be in line with benchmarks and produce sound risk-adjusted results.

Thank you, Marlen, for leading the Investment Committee

Trustees also relate to the Conference Commission on Archives and History. Over the past year, working with Ohio Wesleyan University, which houses our archives, and with the East Ohio Annual Conference, we navigated the retirement of long-time archivist Carol Holliger and the hiring of her successor, Sharon Monigold. I’m grateful for Tom Slack who leads our Archives Commission and Trustee Bill Davis who keeps the trustees informed on the commission’s work. We are also grateful for Carol Holliger’s faithful work over the past 15 years.

The final area of Trustee focus is with our Affiliated Organizations. They continue to refine their role and relationships with our senior living communities, UMCH Family Services, The Charitable Pharmacy of Central Ohio, United Methodist Financial Credit Union, and Preachers’ Relief Society. Earlier this afternoon you heard from Kristen Langstraat from OhioHealth, our largest affiliated organization. As you heard earlier, we continue to seek ways to leverage OhioHealth’s expertise and ministry in our work and our ministry in theirs.

Bishop Palmer and members of Annual Conference, before concluding our report, I would like all trustees present to stand and be recognized for their service.

Bishop, if you are ready, I move this Trustee Report be adopted, including the recommendations for church closures.

Bishop, I now move that the Corporate Session be adjourned and that the Annual Conference Session be reconvened.

D. CONFERENCE COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

Good Afternoon Bishop Palmer and Members of Annual Conference. I am pleased to be with you today to bring a report that will give an update on our financial state from the Council on Finance and Administration.

Since 2015, the Council on Finance and Administration has been focused on realizing meaningful efficiencies and prioritizing resources that allow us to equip local churches for making disciples. A key result of this work is reducing the overall level of apportioned connectional giving so more resources remain part of each church's mission and ministry plan. This my fourth update to you regarding our progress in these areas.

Your Council on Finance and Administration heard the local church leaders from throughout the conference who delivered this message: effective and transforming ministry begins in the local church. To help you increase the missional capacity at the local church, the 2019 budget was based upon a reduction in total connectional giving of 10%. This reduction in connectional giving obligations will continue in the 2020 budget to be presented. Your current local church connectional giving obligations, both Conference and District have been reduced an additional 2.5%, about $500,000, for 2020.

The expense reductions and use of non-apportioned funds/income aid in the reduction of total connectional giving requests to your local churches. And, that means you will have more capacity to fulfill your local missional and connectional giving priorities.

Recommendation 1 in the Book of Reports lists some of the most significant impacts that provide the opportunity to reduce expenses, and they include:

- Staff reductions through attrition at the Conference level,
- Use of non-apportioned income to fulfill expense obligations, including funds raised through the Light the Way Campaign, and
- The benefits of owning the Conference Center in Worthington, Ohio rather than renting.

There is more to do going forward. The churches that pay 100% of their apportioned connectional giving feel the pressure from the churches that do not. We would like to see every church in the West Ohio Conference contribute some support toward the broader United Methodist Church. We could potentially reduce apportioned connectional giving more if we can find ways to have more churches participate at a higher level.

Before our Conference CFO Bill Brownson brings us a more detailed narrative about the Annual Conference's 2019 financial position and plans for 2020, I'd like to share a few items:

- Receipts on apportioned connectional giving for 2018 came in at 71%, not 75% as budgeted.
  - 561 churches participated fully by contributing 100% of their apportioned connectional giving level. We are grateful for this commitment.
- The West Ohio Conference maintained our commitment to our United Methodist connection by paying 95% of our 2018 General Church apportionments. This follows four consecutive years of paying 100% of our General Church obligations.
- The members of your CFA believe that we must be committed to meeting our General Church obligations if we ask our local churches to meet their apportioned connectional giving commitments. The 2019 budget attempts to continue our practice of funding 100% of our General Church apportioned giving to continue our support of global church priorities. Unless there's a change from past experience, CFA will need to authorize spending reserves to achieve 100% in 2020.
- Planned conference programming took place as budgeted.

The Audit Committee continues to work on our behalf to ensure that our sound financial position is supported by a successful audit. We continue to work with Clark Schaefer Hackett as our auditing partner. The 2017 audit was completed in December 2018, which was later than planned. The audit results were presented to us "without qualification" which is the highest opinion possible, and there was no accompanying management letter. In the past, annual audit activities were conducted in the Spring and results were reported during our annual conference meeting. The Audit Committee put timely management reporting at the top of this year's priorities so that we could include 2018 financial results in this year's Book of Reports. This will push the annual audit out about 60 days and the audit is anticipated to complete about mid-year, beyond this Annual Conference. Upon completion of the audit, we'll post the audited financial statements on the West Ohio Conference website, as we always do.

After CFO Brownson brings us a more detailed review of our financial position, we will introduce Recommendation 1 –the "Council on Finance and Administration Recommendations for Calendar Year 2020."

Recommendation 1 will be our shared financial commitment to provide for the Mission and Ministry of the West Ohio Conference and our districts. This is a statement about our missional priorities and is the backbone and support of our work together in 2020. A few highlights to consider:

- The total amount apportioned is $19.6 million with $16.7 million apportioned for conference and general church programming and $2.9 million for district programming. As mentioned previously, this is a 2.5% reduction from 2019. Combined with the 2019 reductions, this amounts to a two-year reduction in connectional obligations of about $2.7 million dollars.

- o We are expecting a 72% apportioned connectional giving receipt rate for conference and general church programming
- Our 2020 financial plan provides support of the Connection through about 95% participation in General Church and Jurisdictional apportioned connectional giving.

The Council on Finance & Administration works closely throughout the year with a number of Conference staff members. We thank you and appreciate you. We work most closely with our CFO Bill Brownson and we appreciate his availability, counsel and time. We rely on Bill and the rest of the financial staff to provide us, and you, the financial information we need when we need it.

As a past church treasurer, I understand the commitment and sacrifice that is made at the local church to participate financially in our conference and district mission. Your Council on Finance and Administration also recognizes that we live in the midst of a season of uncertainty within our denomination. We know that this uncertainty can lead to changes in local church priorities, including financial priorities. Your CFA is prepared to evaluate and adjust to those priorities as needed. What has not changed is our commitment to support our shared mission and ministry in our local churches, our districts, our Conference and throughout the world. Your support turns our missional aspirations into realities. Thank you for your faithfulness. Thank you for your commitment to the mission of the United Methodist Church – in your community, in our Conference and throughout the world.

E. 2018 STATISTICIAN'S REPORT

West Ohio Conference of the United Methodist Church

The Statistical Data that was collected from our local churches for 2018 is highlighted in this report. We used the GCFA Statistical Website (Ezra) to collect our church data. This provides for a better management of our data at the General Church and Conference levels. This year, with help from the District Offices we were able to collect 95% of the reports from our 1,015 churches. Unfortunately, there were 5% or 54 churches that did not complete their reports to give a true statistical picture of the West Ohio Conference. Capital Area South District was the only district that had all of their churches complete their yearend reports. We again allowed churches to enter their data using the online entry method or by sending the information to the Conference Office to be manually entered by myself.

At the close of 2018, the membership of the West Ohio Conference stood at 147,807 members. A total of 4,703 members were added to the membership across our conference in 2017. That meant that every day last year, 13 members either joined a congregation or restored their affirmation in our conference. Like the previous years the largest increase was received on profession of faith, a total of 2,644 members. That number decreased by 395 from 2017. In 2017, a total of 182 churches held confirmation classes, representing 18% of our churches. In 2018 that number has decreased from the previous year by 164, representing 16% of our churches.

At the close of 2018, the West Ohio Conference membership was down from what was reported at the end of 2017. The total loss of members in all statistical categories was 12,587. Unfortunately, that meant that every day last year 36 people were leaving congregations in the conference. Like the trend over the last few years the largest loss was removed by charge conference action, a total of 4,203 members. This number decreased from what was recorded for the year in 2017. The net loss from the new members minus the members lost shown below is 7,884 members. The West Ohio Conference membership has been reduced by 34,632 members over the last 5 years. The membership loss in 2018 of 7,884 is the largest loss since 1978. The average annual loss for our conference over the last ten years has been 6,431 members per year.

Those received during 2018 – Add	4,703
Those removed during 2018 – Subtract	-12,587
Ending Membership 2018	147,807

Every Sunday the West Ohio Conference had an average of 95,089 members participating in worship across the conference. Of that amount is a new category for this quadrennium of online worship. Online worship had 6,504 members participating. The 95,809 represents 64% of conference membership in worship every Sunday morning. Despite the online worship addition, the average attendance in principal worship services decreased by 2,900 members from what was reported in 2017. We also baptized 2,444 individuals during 2018. The number of baptisms decreased by 516 from the totals reported in 2017. A total of 481 churches or 47% of the congregations in our conference reported at least 1 baptism in during 2018.

The Total number of Christian Formation Participants for 2017 was 97,171 participants. All four of the categories Children, Youth, Young Adults & Other Adults showed decreased numbers in 2018. Overall the West Ohio Conference experienced a 4% decrease in the number of participants from 2017 to 2018. The Average Attendance at Sunday School increased from that of 2017 by 99 members. There were 34,843 participants involved in Vacation Bible School in our churches during 2018. This was a decrease from those participating in 2017 of 991 or 3%.

There were 154 UMVIM teams sent out from local churches in 2018. That was an increase from 2017 of 1 mission team. That accounted for 1,562 participants in UMVIM teams which decreased by 33 participants. We also have several churches that are involved in community ministries for outreach, justice, mercy, and daycare. The number of persons engaged in mission in the local churches was 50,527 serving 2,407,216 people in those communities. There were 744 or 73% of our congregations that had persons engaged in mission.

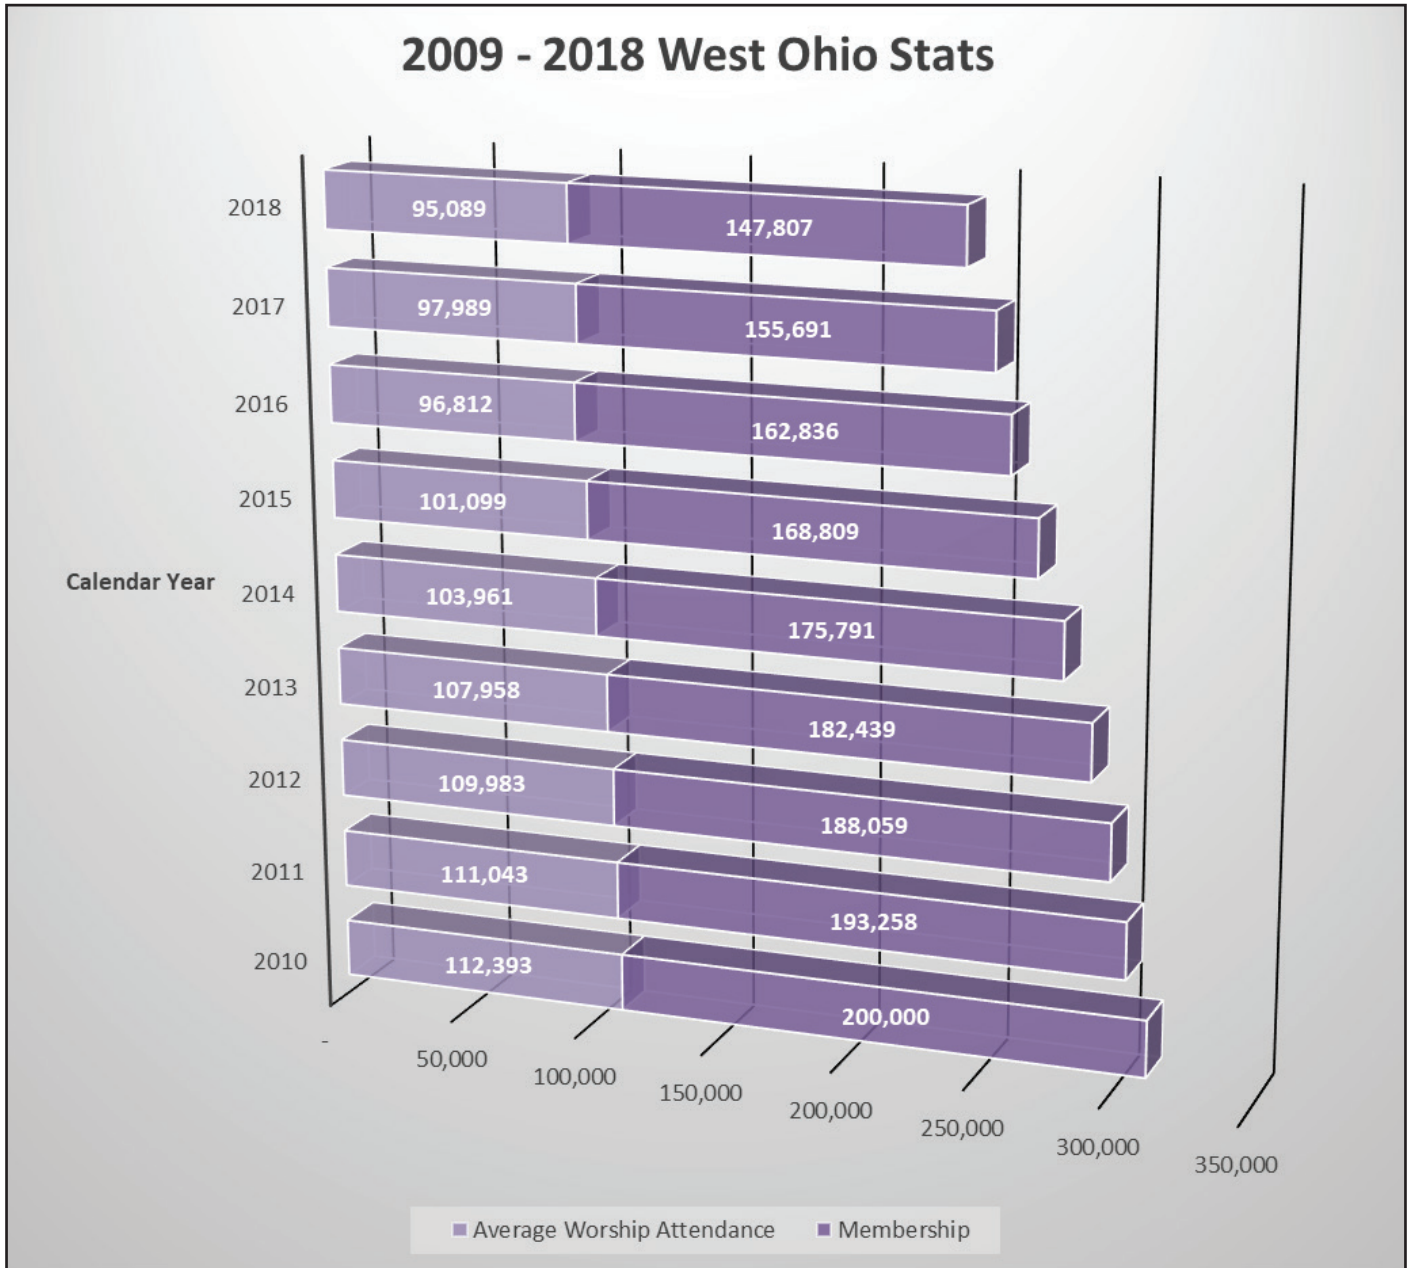

The West Ohio Conference recorded a decrease in total paid in 2018. The conference received $193,211,320 which was a decrease of $7,376,405 compared to 2017. That breaks out to a cost of $1,307 per member as compared to $1,288 per member in 2017. Almost 52% or 530 of the churches in our conference paid their apportionments at 100% or more in 2018. That number has decreased from what was reported in 2017 by 29 churches. General Advance Special giving for specific, designated ministries and projects showed a decrease of $501,379 in 2018. Total giving to General Advance Specials was $662,269. The West Ohio Advance Specials in 2018 collected a total of $81,527 in gifts. That was a decrease of $19,683 or 24% from what was reported in 2017.

Other ministries in the conference that are not recorded in the Statistical Data include: Groups and gatherings of people using the churches of the West Ohio Conference for worship, Emmaus Walks, Chrysalis, food pantries, after school programs, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, 4H, kindergarten, pre-school, and many other civic functions. Some ethnic congregations are using West Ohio Conference churches for worship services. In situations like those mentioned above, vital ministries are taking place to help establish or re-establish the United Methodist Church as an integral part of their communities. The West Ohio Conference appreciates those churches for providing this outreach.

In conclusion, please be aware that this report covers only part of the Statistician's entire Report. Please review your church's records in the conference journal and compare how your church measures up against others in your district and across the conference.

F. RECOMMENDATIONS

2020 Budget Narrative for Recommendation #1

This narrative for the 2020 Annual Conference funding plan and budget will address these matters:

- The total connectional giving amount West Ohio Churches will be apportioned in 2020;
- The total expense budget, which includes things covered by income sources other than apportioned connectional giving;
- What ministries are supported by the provided resources.

On a combined basis, Council on Finance and Administration recommends apportioning $19,572,211, of which $2,965,646 or 15% is for districts and $16,703,000 (85%) is for conference and general church ministries. This is a reduction of $500,000 (2.5%) versus 2019 and $2.7 million or 12% since 2018.

While conference and district leaders are looking at big and small ways to reduce expenses and reliance on apportionments, here are some contributors to this trend:

- One district superintendent is dually assigned as the clergy assistant to Bishop Palmer, which reduces by one members of cabinet.
- The Office of Ministry will reduce full-time employment by one with the June 30 retirement of Rev. Kathy Brown.
- No 2020 raises are planned for members of the extended cabinet.
- Electronic voting for general conference delegates is limited to one day.
- Benefits of owning rather than renting the Conference Center will be fully realized in 2020. The renovated facility also means greater and larger meetings can be held there rather than in local churches or hotels, which reduces meeting expenses.
- Light the Way donations for new and revitalizing churches are funding an increasing portion of New Church Start grants, reducing the need for apportioned dollars.
- Investment income from the Clergy Benefit Fund is used to offset retiree health care and other clergy benefit expenses not covered by apportionments.
- If West Ohio is to continue General Church support at a 100% level and based on projected collection rates, CFA would have to approve use of reserves. In recent years, apportioned amounts have been set to achieve 100% support.

Conference leaders believe this plan will support critical ministries, which are briefly described by function below. At the same time, we understand current denominational uncertainties may lead to a significantly different level of resources available to carry out the plans described below. In the coming weeks and months, substantial conversations will take place to lay the groundwork for an even leaner future.

Here are additional highlights:

Clergy Benefits, at more than $18.6 million, continues to consume the majority of conference income and expense. Most of the expense is related to the active clergy health plan, followed by clergy pension plan liabilities. $1.25 million in apportioned connectional giving, down from nearly $5 million 10 years ago, is projected to provide $900,000 toward these expenses.

Planned Conference Ministries expenses are $8.8 million, of which $2.1 million (24%) are from non-apportioned sources. Based on anticipated receipt rates, $9.1 million is apportioned to realize $6.7 million of connectional support. Although the amount apportioned for conference ministries is about the same as in 2019, we expect $300,000 less in apportionment support due to lower anticipated collection rates.

Districts will apportion $2.9 million, down 3% from 2019 and expect to produce $2.6 million of support for their work. $1.3 million from other sources such as restricted assets and investment earnings will provide the additional support needed to cover $3.9 million of expenses. Contact your district office with questions about district budgets.

$6.4 million is apportioned for General Church purposes. At the expected collection rate, apportionments will produce 90% of West Ohio's allocation. Approximately $0.5 million of reserves would be needed to be a 100% conference, should CFA approve additional funding.

Contact Bill Brownson, Conference CFO, at bbrownson@wocumc.org or 614-844-6200, ext., 221 with questions about this recommendation and conference finances in general.

Funding Plan Discussion by Section

General Church (line numbers 1–46)

The General Church helps West Ohio churches make a difference in the conference, our nation and around the world. The infrastructure of the General Church allows UMCOR to be among the most effective disaster relief organizations in the world. One third of general church connectional giving supports education efforts of both clergy and lay. After education, Global Ministries, at 18% is the next largest component of the denominational budget followed by the Episcopal Fund at 15%. The remaining one third of the denominational budget is spread among various agencies and funds, including General Administration, Discipleship Ministries, Church and Society, Commission on Religion and Race, Commission on the Status and Role of Women, Interdenominational Cooperation and United Methodist Men. Of the amount apportioned by the conference, 38% is for General Church support.

Retiree Pension, Health and Other Benefits (line numbers 47–82)

The three major expenses in this section are:

- Health insurance for clergy appointed to local churches, which is directly-billed to each church. Premiums are set each September by the Board of Pension & Health Benefits at a level projected to cover projected claims. Since the conference plan is self-insured, reserves must be used if claims exceed premium income, which has been the case in the two most recent years. This budget projects $9.3 million in expenses for this benefit.
- Clergy Pension and other income support totals $5.6 million, which is provided for by directly billing churches of participating clergy.
- Retiree health care costs are budgeted at $3.8 million. Revenue comes from $0.9 million of apportionment support and $1.3 million from retired clergy contributions.
- Shortfalls in directly-billed benefits, apportionments and other support are covered by $1.1 million of income from the Clergy Benefit Fund, which had a balance of $54 million as of March 31, 2019.

Taken together, we project $18.6 million in resources will be needed to pay for clergy benefit expenses in 2020. Policies that give rise to benefit obligations are set forth in Conference Board of Pension & Health Benefit Recommendation #2.

Questions should be directed to Mike Kremnitzer, Conference Benefits Officer and HR Director at mkremnitzer@wocumc.org or at 614-844-6200, ext. 226.

Conference Ministries (lines 84-197)

Transformative Discipleship Team (Connectional Ministries) (lines 90-121)

The Transformative Discipleship Team works to align resources, insure effective collaboration and develop evaluative processes resulting in greater effectiveness in making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world...a world of justice, love and peace filled with people growing in the likeness of Jesus Christ.

We prioritized ministry areas for funding and adopted outcomes for 2020. Connectional Ministry staff and lead teams will develop strategies for attaining these outcomes. The strategies will include identifying appropriate metrics and the development of assessment tools to measure the impact of our work, moving beyond just counting people and events. The Transformative Discipleship Team membership includes five at large people and the chairs of the five lead teams.

Connectional Ministries exists to equip local congregations to extend the healing and redemptive love of Jesus Christ in life changing and community transforming ways. In 2020, we will focus upon the following outcomes.

1. Building congregational capacity to engage local and global communities by integrating Jesus' commandment to love God, self and neighbors in all aspects of mission and ministry.
2. Equipping congregations to share the story of Christ's redemptive love and the power of the Holy Spirit in ways that neighbors will understand.

In total, the Transformative Discipleship Team expenses are budgeted at $2,650,000 with apportioned connectional giving covering just under $1,514,000 or 57% with the rest from grants, donors and program income.

Questions about the Transformative Discipleship Team budget and the mission it makes possible should be directed to Rev. Dee Stickley-Miner at dstickley@wocumc.org. Contact Ken Overholser, koverholser@wocumc.org with questions about Camps & Retreat Ministries. Both can be reached at 614.844.6200.

Missional Church Development (lines 122–130)

Missional Church Development equips clergy and lay leaders committed to revitalizing existing churches and with starting new churches and worshipping communities. Resources for covering the $1,164,000 of Missional Church Development initiatives noted below come from apportioned connectional giving ($754,000), donors to Light the Way ($410,000) and program income.

- The Greenhouse: Leadership development for clergy called to start new churches and worshipping communities.
- New church start grants: Grants for emerging churches and worshipping communities led by specially trained and/or clergy who have proven track records of starting new worshipping communities.
- Missional Church Consultation Initiative (MCCI): An in-depth multi-year revitalization initiative for about 10 additional churches each year that are nominated by superintendents and approved by Bishop Palmer.
- Traction Tracks: Culled from years of MCCI experience, Traction Tracks afford participating churches the opportunity to focus on a specific area needing attention.
- Revitalization Grants Intended to provide churches with resources to address matters inhibiting vitality.

Contact Sue Nilson Kibbey, at snkibbey@wocumc.org or 614.844.6200 for questions about Missional Church Development.

Office of Ministry and Clergy Leadership (lines 131–139)

The Office of Ministry administers clergy credentialing and continuing education, provides financial support for seminary and course of study students, and it supports the work of the Board of Ministry.

Programming for credentialing includes a summer internship program for undergraduates exploring a call to ministry, local pastor licensing school, Candidacy Summit for clergy candidates, and Crucible for clergy in their provisional years. The work of this office has expanded to include prepare pastors and church for cross-cultural/cross-racial appointments and fulfilling the Book of Discipline requirement of an in-depth assessment of each clergy member every eight years. For some programs, West Ohio hosts students and generates income from other annual conferences, particularly East Ohio. Credentialing education expenses are offset by tuition and registration fees.

The Office of Ministry and Clergy Leadership expects $632,000 in 2020 expenses of which $305,000 is covered by tuition and donor-restricted income, and $327,000 is provided by apportioned connectional giving. Twenty five percent of what's received toward the Ministerial Education Fund stays at the Conference and is applied by the Office and Board of Ministry to its area of responsibility.

Questions about the work and budget of the Office of Ministry can be directed to the Rev. Kathy Brown at kbrown@wocumc.org or Rev. Donnetta Peaks at dpeaks@wocumc.org. Both can be reached at 614.844.6200.

Council on Development (lines 140–148)

The Council on Development (COD) equips local churches in the areas of stewardship education, capital campaign planning, creating and establishing and managing endowments. With the Conference Investment Policy Committee, COD manages over $20 million of local church and district endowments and charitable gift annuities.

The Council on Development manages capital and major fundraising campaigns deemed critical by the Conference. Light the Way, the current $5 million campaign to fund new worshipping communities and revitalization activities, is taking place under the leadership of COD.

COD expects to incur $334,000 of expenses in 2020, of which $284,000 is funded through apportioned connectional giving. Questions about COD can be directed to Rev. Stan Ling at sling@wocumc.org or at 614.844.6200.

Finance & Administration & Board of Trustees (lines 149–167)

Finance & Administration includes many functions that span the districts and conference, including accounting, treasury management, human resource management, information technology, conference statistics, facilities and property management. The area equips local churches through training and online content, and it resources the Council on Finance and Administration, the Conference Chancellor, Board of Trustees and the Conference Investment Policy Committee.

2020 will be the first full year for which ownership and operation of the Conference Center is reflected in the budget. While program income is limited, interest and dividend income is earned operating cash balances and reserves. This area projects spending $1,377,000 million of which all but $115,000 is from apportioned connectional giving.

$167,000 for Depreciation and West Ohio's share of the Archives and History at Ohio Wesley University is reflected in the Board of Trustees budget as is $140,000 in anticipated investment income from its permanent fund.

Questions about the Finance & Administration Budget can be directed to Bill Brownson at 614.505.7440 or at bbrownson@wocumc.org.

Episcopal Area Leadership (lines 168–193)

Bishop Palmer, District Superintendents and his Episcopal Office staff oversee the following areas which together are budgeted to incur $2.7 million expenses, all but $121,000 of which is provided by apportioned connectional giving. Together they provide for the deployment of credentialed clergy, superintending of local churches, Annual Conference Session, and communicating helpful information to and about local churches, the conference and general church and for current events for which a Christian witness is needed.

Episcopal Area	Net Expense
Annual Conference and Special General Conference:	$219,000
Episcopal Office Administration:	$270,000

Electronic database versions of these directories are for the exclusive use of the Conference councils, boards, and committees for their specific ministries. The directory database shall not be sold or loaned to individuals, groups, or commercial organizations or otherwise made available in a form that facilitates direct solicitation of clergy and lay members by such individuals or organizations.
2. The Conference Council on Finance and Administration through the Conference Treasurer's office shall send, at least annually to each pastor and local church treasurer, information that may be helpful to their financial operations. This may include tax, legal, stewardship, and fiduciary responsibility bulletins.
3. Effective July 1, 2007, local church/charges, member, or constituents of a local church/charge shall not make a loan or a grant to a clergy person. When a local church, its members or constituents, acts as a banker to its pastor, the dynamics of the relationship between the pastor and the congregation are very likely to be changed and may adversely affect the ministry of both congregation and pastor.

Introduction to Board of Pension and Health Benefits

This year's recommendation from the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits is largely consistent with those of past years.

Specific items of note in this year's recommendation include:

- Beginning 7/1/2019, all eligible clergy and lay Conference/District employees will have access to an Employee Assistance Program (EAP). (see General #1)
- In addition to full-time appointments, West Ohio will continue to include clergy serving ½ and ¾ time in the Clergy Retirement Security Plan (CRSP), the denomination's pension plan for clergy. (see Clergy Pension and Disability Income Plans #2)
- Beginning 1/1/2020, all eligible clergy will see an auto-escalation in their UMPIP at a rate of 1% per year until a maximum of 10% is reached. (see Clergy Pension and Disability Income Plans #9)
- For the Pre-82 clergy pension plan, the past service rate (PSR) will remain at $611. (see Clergy Pension and Disability Income Plans #7)
- Local churches will continue to be billed directly for clergy pension costs. The billing rate will remain at 11% of plan compensation (cash salary and housing) for the CRSP defined benefit portion of the plan, capped at DAC (Denominational Average Compensation). (see Clergy Pension and Disability Income Plans #5)
- Retiree housing allowance exclusion will remain unchanged.

Questions about this recommendation can be directed to Mike Kremnitzer, Conference Benefits Officer at mkremnitzer@wocumc.org or at 614-844-6200.

Recommendation #2*2020 Board of Pension and Health Benefits*Adopted*Clergy Pension and Disability Income Plans

1. The General Conference of The United Methodist Church gives authority to Wespath Benefits and Investments (Wespath) to establish and maintain a pension program for the benefit of the ordained ministers and their families, other church workers, and lay employees (§1501). As a part of those plans (as approved by the General Conference) participation by full-time ordained clergy is required. The Discipline does not give permission for a local church to deny payment of the pension benefits for any pastor appointed to that charge. Such payments are part of the total obligations of receiving the appointment of a pastor.
2. The 2012 General Conference made Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) eligibility optional for Annual Conferences for those clergy with less than full-time appointments. Upon a thorough review, the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits approved the continued CRSP eligibility of three-quarter and one-half time appointments effective January 1, 2014. The Board affirms this recommendation for 2020.
3. Licensed local pastors (not the local church) may waive participation in the pension program if the pastor is appointed less than full-time and is receiving, or is eligible to receive, a pension from other employment. Provisional elders and deacons and full elders and deacons (not in the local church) may waive participation in the pension program if they are appointed half time and are receiving, or eligible to receive, a pension from other employment. To waive participation, the pastor must complete, have notarized, and return a "Waiver of Participation", which is supplied by the Conference Benefits Office.
4. The Plan Compensation shall include salary plus 25% for housing where the minister lives in a parsonage or the amount of any cash housing allowance where provided.
5. The contribution rate for funding the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) will be billed in two parts; the Defined Benefit (DB) portion shall not exceed 11% of the participant's actual Plan Compensation up to the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC)<sup>1</sup>. The DAC for 2020 is $72,648. The rate for funding of the Defined Contribution (DC) portion shall not exceed 3% of the participant's actual Plan Compensation. (The participant must be enrolled and making a minimum of 1% United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP) contribution to have the full 3% credit to CRSP-DC.) Billing begins at the time of participant's eligibility for, not enrollment in, the program.
6. The contribution rate for the Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) shall not exceed 3% of the participant's actual Plan Compensation for all full-time or three-quarter time appointments for Full, Provisional, or Associate members and full-time local pastors. Contributions will be paid monthly by each charge for their pastor or pastors. The West Ohio Conference, acting as an agent of Wespath, shall be responsible for the collection of these funds. Because each full-time or three-quarter time appointment for Full, Provisional, or Associate members and full-time local pastors must be part of the CPP, it is the obligation of each local church to pay this cost. Billing begins at the time of participant's eligibility for, not enrollment in, the program.
7. The base annuity rate for 2020 on Pre-82 pensions will remain at $611. The yearly PSR may not be decreased.
8. Annuity rates for surviving spouses shall be 70% of the base rate on Pre-82 pension.
9. Each eligible clergy member and local pastor will contribute at least 3% of his or her plan compensation to the UMPIP beginning 1/1/19 unless opting out of the auto-enrollment feature. Beginning 1/1/20, each eligible clergy member and local pastor will have their UMPIP contribution increased 1% until a maximum of 10% is reached unless opting out of the auto-escalation feature. Participants may contribute more than the 10% max, if desired. Personal contributions will be billed to the local church by Wespath and paid from payroll deduction by the local church.
10. Medical Leave and Death Benefits: Eligible clergy also have CPP as part of the benefit package. CPP provides disability income, death, and other supplemental benefits. Complete policy information can be found on the Wespath website at www.wespath.org. Clergy whose health condition may indicate a need for medical leave should contact his or her District Superintendent.
11. Death Benefit of $50,000 is part of CPP for active clergy. An additional death benefit of $50,000 is provided by the Conference for eligible active appointments. The cost is included in the Clergy Benefit billing for full-time or three-quarter time appointments of Full, Provisional or Associate Members and full-time licensed local clergypersons.

Health Care Benefits*1. Active Pastors: Eligibility

- a. Each charge shall fund health insurance for its eligible pastors and families through the West Ohio Conference program. The following chart shows who shall be covered and who has responsibility for payment of premiums.

Status	Coverage	Premium Payment
Full Member	Required	Shared Cost Church/Participant
Provisional Member	Required	Shared Cost Church/Participant
Associate Member	Required	Shared Cost Church/Participant
Full-time Local Pastor	Required	Shared Cost Church/Participant
Part-time Local Pastor	Optional	Subject to District Superintendent and local church approval

- b. Pastors under full-time appointment to West Ohio Conference local churches, District Offices or Conference Office will participate in the Conference health insurance plan. If such pastors have duplicate coverage through a spouse's employment, have access to military coverage or prior employer insurance they may use those plans. A written waiver is required to use other insurance.
- i. Should a church provide compensation to pastors that opt out of the Conference plan, care should be taken not to violate employer payment plan rules, the violation of which could subject the church to financial penalties. Clergy opting out of the West Ohio Conference health insurance plan for any other reason must do so in writing and the decision is irrevocable: he or she will be prohibited from accessing a West Ohio Conference active or retiree health plan in the future.
- c. A pastor who has opted out of the Conference health insurance plan may be approved for medical leave, but he or she will not have access to a West Ohio Conference health insurance plan.

- e. If one in an active clergy couple dies, the appointment of the surviving spouse will be responsible for health insurance as an active participant and responsible for payment of premium.
- f. Surviving spouses and qualified dependents of deceased active clergy previously serving in an appointment will pay 25% of the premium cost of the policy in use for the 24 months following the clergy's date of death. Thereafter, access will be based on years of service consistent with the premium sharing available to retirees.
- g. Annual premium levels will be set by the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits.

2. Retired Pastors, Surviving Spouses, Medical Leave participants

Eligibility: When a pastor retires under ¶358.1, ¶358.2b or ¶358.2c health insurance is available to the pastor, spouse, and eligible dependents.

- a. A stipend will be provided to each retiree under age 65 to purchase an individual policy or to remain on the Conference plan. The amount of this stipend will be a fixed dollar amount consistent with the amount toward post 65 retirees, which is based on years of service.
- b. Upon retirement at age 65 or thereafter, the pastor and spouse (at age 65) are responsible for enrolling in Part A and B of Medicare. Those having opted out of Social Security will not have access to West Ohio Conference retiree (over 65 years) insurance.
- c. Surviving spouses of retired pastors will pay a portion of their premiums based on the number of years of service for the deceased clergy member. Premiums will be applied to type of policy used.
- i. Retired clergy or surviving spouses who remarry will not have access to Conference insurance for a new dependent.
- d. Premium contributions shall be collected monthly by Automated Clearing House (ACH) transaction from a bank account designated by the retiree.
- e. Pastors who transfer from an Episcopal appointment in another United Methodist Conference to an Episcopal appointment in the West Ohio Conference where the Conference has pension responsibility will be granted years of service from previous conferences.

3. Other Health Care Provisions

- a. All full-time (at least 30 hours per week) lay employees of the West Ohio Conference and its District Offices will have access to health insurance under the same provisions as active and retired clergy.
- b. Any participant who terminates employment may continue their health insurance for up to 12 months at his or her own expense. The participant's payment for insurance will continue through the former local church to the Conference until coverage is terminated or 12 months pass, whichever occurs first.
- c. The Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits shall be empowered to select the carrier, set the premium rate, and adjust benefits and method of funding the total health insurance program in a manner that is deemed appropriate and equitable for both local churches and participants in the program.

- d. The Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits shall extend an invitation to the Board of Ministry to review and comment on material changes in the Board of Pension and Health Benefits recommendation to Annual Conference at least 30 days prior to Annual Conference.

General

1. The Employee Assistance Program (EAP) is designed for eligible clergy and lay Conference and District employees and their dependent family members who seek professional emotional assistance. This includes certified lay ministers and pastors appointed to a local church, clergy appointed to extension ministry and serving on Conference and District staffs, as well as lay Conference and District staff. Pastors appointed to their first church and newly hired Conference and District lay staff are eligible after 6 months. This service is provided by OhioHealth at no cost.
2. A moving reimbursement (receipt(s) of cost) of up to $3,500 is paid to each full-time and three-quarter time clergy household of the retiring class and each member accepting CPP disability leave and the families of active full-time members in the event of the death of the member, provided they have not previously had a move reimbursed and provided they have been a participating member in the Conference Pension Program for the last five years prior to retirement.
3. The total requested apportioned expense presented to CFA for 2020 is $1,250,000. Final apportioned expense is subject to the budget adopted by Annual Conference. This amount covers benefits administration, retiree moving reimbursements, health, dental and vision premiums, and costs associated with personal and medical leaves.
4. The church from which the pastor is moving will pay pension payments for pastors moving at conference time for the whole month of June. Payments for new pastors will begin on the first of the month following the appointment.
5. All churches shall be encouraged to include eligible full-time church lay employees in UMPIP, the Lay Pension Benefits program offered by Wespath. ¶258.2g (12)
6. The Conference will post on its website the date when the 2020 Comprehensive Funding Plan from Wespath releases its opinion. This became an annual requirement because of 2012 General Conference legislation.

Recommendation #3

Commission on Equitable Compensation

Adopted

Ministry is traditionally supported by the body of Christ, especially in the local community where ministry happens. The United Methodist expression of the body of Christ is the connectional system. Through it, we share in the missional ministries of the West Ohio Conference. United Methodist clergy are called and sent by God to serve in a variety of ministry settings.

Through the distribution of designated Conference funds, the Equitable Compensation Commission seeks to support the Annual Conference through the Cabinet's appointment of transformational leadership in strategic appointments to further the mission of Christ.

Guidelines and Recommendations

The Commission presents the following guidelines and recommendations for calendar year 2020 with consideration of the projected General Board of Pensions Conference Average Compensation (C.A.C.) of $64,201 (which includes salary plus 25% for housing where the minister lives in a parsonage, or the housing allowance where such is provided).

A. Minimum Salary

Recommended Minimum Salaries	2020*	2019
Elder in full-time appointment; Full-member deacon in full-time appointment in a local church	$42,550	$41,720
Provisional on elder-track in full-time appointment; Provisional on deacon-track in full-time appointment in a local church; Associate member in full-time appointment	$38,575	$37,820
Licensed local pastor in full-time appointment who has completed the Course of Study or equivalent	$37,200	$36,470
Licensed local pastor in full-time appointment	$35,225	$34,530

*Average increase 2%. ** Average increase 2% (Amended by Annual Conference. Committee Recommendation 1.5%)

1. Each elder in full connection who is in good standing and who is appointed by the bishop to less than full-time service under the provisions of paragraph 338.2 of the 2016 Book of Discipline shall have a claim upon the conference Equitable Compensation Fund in one-quarter increments (Paragraph 342.2).

B. Definition of Eligibility

1. MINIMUM SALARY SUPPORT

- a. Elders, provisional members on the elder-track, deacons in full connection serving in local churches, provisional members on the deacon-track serving in local churches, associate members, and licensed local pastors serving full-time appointments in local churches are eligible for minimum salary support.

- b. Retired members, retired local pastors, full-member deacons appointed beyond the local church, provisional members on the deacon-track appointed beyond the local church, student pastors, and members in extension ministries have no claim to minimum salary support.
- c. Support from all church sources (District, Conference, and General Church) in addition to local sources will be used in computing claims.
- d. The commission will continue to work with the Cabinet in providing minimum compensation, sensitive to such variable factors as unique situations needing special skills, missional priorities, and ethnic/racial considerations.
- e. When a church withdraws from a charge to a station, its pastor shall not be eligible for minimum salary support for at least five years.
- f. A charge with more than 300 members shall have no claim to minimum salary support.
- g. Any situations limiting full itineracy of pastors will be taken under consideration, prior to approving equitable compensation amounts.

2. KEY LEADERSHIP SALARY SUPPORT

Developing/redeveloping Ministries: Situations where new congregations should be developing or where existing congregations are facing circumstances that enhance the potential for unusual growth. These churches have the potential of becoming viable and self-supporting within five years.

3. KEY MISSIONAL SALARY SUPPORT

Situations where churches/parishes have an unusually large or complex program of missional ministries and require pastoral leadership for expanded ministries. This also includes Ethnic Churches where support is necessary in getting the ministry established.

4. SPECIAL SALARY SUPPORT

This category provides pastoral support on a short-term basis to meet a temporary situation. Funding under this category shall not continue beyond the appointive year in which it began.

C. The goal of the commission is to eliminate the need for long term minimum salary support by:

1. Agreeing that any new Equitable Compensation grants for Minimum Salary Support or Key Leadership Salary Support shall not exceed 25% of the total cash salary received by the pastor of the church or charge. The 25% rule shall not apply to Key Missional or Special Salary Support.
  2. Limiting the maximum number years of eligibility for all Equitable Compensation grants to five years per pastor or church. Grants will be decreased by 20% of the original amount each year.
  3. Asking for greater accountability of the local churches in the process of applications for funds through the District Superintendents, providing information on budgeted receipts and expenditures, having a stewardship plan, detailing how they are living within the CORE process, and an apportionment plan.
  4. Being aware that churches or charges which reach the total grant or grant term limitations described above, and which are unable to maintain support for a full-time appointment will be assisted by the District Superintendent to move to a part-time pastor, or to realign the charge.
  5. Being open to knowing that there may be special circumstances that would warrant an exception to these guidelines which can be made with the approval of the cabinet and the Equitable Compensation Executive team.
- D. The commission reminds the members of the Conference, local church Pastor-Parish Relations Committees, and pastors, that total ministerial support includes items beyond cash salary, such as accountable reimbursements, housing, utilities, pension benefits and health insurance.
- E. It is the responsibility of the pastor of any church not receiving agreed upon compensation from the church during a calendar year to contact their District Superintendent by the earlier of March 15th of the next year; one year from the date of the initial arrearage; or at the time of an appointment change. Failure to submit such notice of arrearage will end the statute of limitation for filing a claim from the Annual Conference for such funds (under Discipline ¶ 342.4 once an appointment ends the Pastor no longer has claim on the local church for compensation funds) and/or may cause an administrative complaint to be filed against such pastor.
- F. The commission recognizes that clergy compensation contributes to pastoral morale and encourages openness in financial matters among all persons, boards, and agencies who share the concern for the well being of churches and pastors.

Recommendation #4

Petition to the 2020 General Conference to Amend Paragraph 316.1 Clarification of Context of Ministry Regarding Licensed Clergy

Adopted

General Conference Budget Implications: None

Whereas, licensed local pastors often become the pastor to their community, especially in rural areas;

Whereas, with population decline in various settings we will see more licensed pastors;

Whereas, ministry context is greater than the four walls of the church;

Whereas,  $\frac{2}{3}$  of UM churches worship less than 100;

Whereas, many small membership churches are too small for large family celebrations and may need a different venue;

Whereas, there is need to further support small church ministries beyond the walls of the local church so the expansion of the kingdom of God is made real in a local church's community;

Therefore, be it resolved that Paragraph 316.1 be amended as follows and be forwarded to General Conference 2020 so that that it reads:

¶ 316. Responsibilities and Duties of Those Licensed for Pastoral Ministry

1. Provisional elders approved annually by the Board of Ordained Ministry and local pastors approved annually by the district committee on ordained ministry may be licensed by the bishop to perform all the duties of a pastor (¶ 340), including the sacraments of baptism and Holy Communion as well as the service of marriage (where state laws allow), burial, confirmation, and membership reception, within and while appointed to a particular charge or extension ministry. A charge or extension ministry is defined as "the people within or related to the community in which it is located." Those licensed for pastoral ministry may be appointed to extension ministry settings when approved by the bishop and the Board of Ordained Ministry.

RATIONALE: Variances across districts and conferences can limit the way a licensed local pastor expands the outreach of their church or ministry setting. This clarification allows licensed local pastors to perform ministry in their church's community, since in some rural areas, the licensed local pastor may be the only pastor in the community.

Recommendation #5

Petition to the 2020 General Conference to Amend Paragraph 319.2 Annual Licensing for Local Pastors

Adopted

General Conference Budget Implications: None

Whereas, many licensed local pastors have been in vital, effective ministry for many years;

Whereas, each passing year annual conferences are relying more and more on licensed local pastors who currently must meet with their DCOM annually;

Whereas, the number of meetings needed for DCOM's work has increased over the years;

Be it resolved that Paragraph 319.2 be amended to include the following addition, and be forwarded to General Conference 2020 so that it reads:

¶ 319. 2. Upon completing each year's education and other qualifications, a local pastor who is not a provisional member may be recommended for continuance by the district committee on ordained ministry. Upon completion of educational requirements, either Course of Study or Master of Divinity degree from a senate- approved seminary, a local pastor may be continued annually by the district committee on ordained ministry without meeting in person with the committee unless requested by the committee, the district superintendent, or the local pastor. The clergy members in full connection of the annual conference may approve continuance of a local pastor after reference to and recommendation by its Board of Ordained Ministry.

RATIONALE: This would enable our District Committees on Ministry to honor and affirm the work of local pastors who are in vital, effective ministry. Without a mandatory annual meeting with the DCOM, this affirmation would lighten the load of the DCOM, as they also have responsibilities to oversee CLMs.

VIII. FINANCIAL REPORTS

A. CFO REPORT

MONDAY MORNING, June 2, 2019

Thank you, Chris. While we find ourselves in interesting times, I'm here to tell you that from a financial and budget priorities perspective, what we've done over the past several years has prepared us for this very moment:

- o We will have reduced apportionments by nearly 13% over a two-year period, and in 2020 will rely on the same level of apportionment income as in 2002, nearly two decades ago!
- o We have reserves and no debt;
- o Which means we have the luxury of making any needed changes in smart ways, we don't need to make reckless decisions or be poor stewards.
- Our resources remain focused on making disciples for the transformation of the world by and through
  - o equipping clergy...
  - o and on equipping laity...
  - o and on equipping churches...
  - o and on realizing efficiencies – so as many resources as possible are available for these named goals.
- The 2019 and 2020 budgets are prudent – both in size and focus.
- Yet we're ready to continue the challenging work of living into a future that is evolving weekly. Not one of us here today can predict what we'll look like in 2020 or beyond. To that end,
  - o Extended cabinet will be meeting after annual conference to review priorities and if we must – just like in your households and local churches --
    - Reduce spending in the current year, 2019
    - Plan for scenarios other than what the budget you'll pass contemplates
    - Lay the groundwork for funding 2021 budget priorities
- All in all, we're prepared. With the input of many paid and unpaid leaders throughout the conference – we're prepared to provide the financial leadership our conference deserves. We've got this.

With these key points as a backdrop, I'd like to provide some thoughts on 2018 results, the 2020 Budget and what we're seeing in 2019.

There are three main sections: *clergy benefits, general church and conference ministries.

Clergy benefits consume a majority of conference income and expense. As was the case in 2017, the cost of the active plan health insurance claims exceeded premium income. You heard me right, despite our high premiums, in 2018 we did not collect enough to cover actual claims. It appears, however, that changes made by the Board of Pension and Health Benefits are beginning to pay off. We're looking better so far in 2019. We also have more than $50 million reserved for clergy benefits. Although markets have rebounded nicely, you may remember we ended the year on a downward note. A loss in market value of a few percentage points on $50 million adds up fast. Rather than $1 million surplus for clergy benefits in 2018, instead we had a deficit of more than $ 2 million. While these numbers are big, the investment portfolio is already up $5 million since the end of the year and as I mentioned, we're gaining control of health insurance claims.

Income and expense for retiree health care and pensions came in a bit better than budget. This means the manner in which we directly bill churches for their share of our annual pension plan liability is pretty accurate.

About clergy pensions, I need to address the topic of how well funded we are to honor on the promises made to participants – both those already retired and those looking forward to retirement. For the past several years, I've shared information from Wespath – our general church pension agency – that shows the pension plan is fully funded. That was true then and it's true today on what is called a "funding basis." This definition and calculation assume the plans continue largely as they are, including how they're invested for the long term. A well-managed balanced portfolio should expect annualized investment returns of about 6.5%.

Wespath also produces a liability figure on a "market basis." This calculation produces the amount we would need now to convert all our current promises into an annuity based on current rates. The rate Wespath used for the most recent market basis calculation was 3.6% (a little more than half the rate used for the funding level approach). On a "market basis" across all plans, West Ohio would need another $100 million in order to buy annuities that pay what's been promised.

Here's a simple way to see the impact of using 3.6% in market basis calculation versus 6.5% in the funded calculation. If two people wanted a $1,000/month annuity for 20 years, the one earning 3.6% would require $170,908 up front. The one earning 6.5% would only need $134,125 up front. Lower rates require more up-front money to produce the same payments.

So why bring this up now? First, there's a lot going on in our denomination. Fewer churches and members would make it more difficult to make up for a terrible run of bad investment years. So it makes sense to look at funding a bit more conservatively now than we have in the past. Another reason is that as a result of the 2019 General Conference, a new Book of Discipline paragraph sets forth a process for churches to disaffiliate. It requires, among other things, disaffiliating churches to pay its share of an unfunded pension liability on a market basis, which for West Ohio, again, is $100 million. Think of these payments as an insurance policy should the unexpected happen with our pension plans and more funding is needed to keep our promises. Chris Hogan will speak a bit more on the disaffiliation process during his report this afternoon.

Thank you for going into the weeds with me for just this short time. Please know that as of now, based on how the pension plan is invested, you should have every confidence that your pension payments will continue or begin as currently calculated. I pray that denominational changes don't put at risk the care of our retirees and widows our conference and our predecessors have labored for.

Looking ahead to the 2020 Clergy Benefits Budget, we will once again rely on greater investment income and fewer apportionments. At some point in the future, this set of responsibilities may rely on no apportionments and be fully paid from investment income and direct billing.

Conference Ministries

The next major section is Conference Ministries. This includes all other conference expenses such as connectional ministries, missional church development, finance and administration, trustees, episcopal office, superintendents, Council on Development, Communications and Annual Conference. Total conference ministries expenses were $9.6 million – 1% better than budget-- and includes a $500,000 loss on investments. Excluding that, we ended with a surplus of $400,000, $260,000 of which is mostly attributable to Light the Way contributions that we didn't budget. These results suggest we manage budgets well and make necessary adjustments along the way, just as you do in your church and household.

If you're a reader of financial statements, within some departments you'll see some line items that are significantly different from budget. This happens when we move activity from one department to another after Annual Conference sets the budget, or certain expenses or income is either unexpected or unbudgeted. As I noted earlier, overall, we managed to our budget well in Conference Ministries.

General Church

The final bucket of expenses – actually pass-through amounts – are for General Church support. West Ohio paid $4.5 million, 95% of what we were apportioned to the General Church, of which World Service is about half. Unlike past years, CFA elected not to use conference reserves to get to the 100% level. On average, annual conferences pay about 90% towards general church support.

2020 Budget

As Chris Clough said, the 2020 budget builds on prior budgets and further reduces the total apportionment burden by 2.5%. By reducing the assumed collection rate to 72% - which is where we ended 2018 – from 75%, we'll realize even fewer resources than starting with a lower amount apportioned only.

I trust you've read the budget narrative in the Book of Reports, beginning on Page 15. If not, here are some highlights:

- Investment income supports a growing portion of the retiree health care subsidy;
- We continue to reduce salary expenses, primarily through attrition;
- Extended cabinet will receive no pay increase in 2020;
- We'll continue to use non-apportionment sources to carry out mission; Light the Way, for example, provides funding for new church starts and revitalizations efforts;

2019 YTD

I'd like to end with a note about where we are so far in 2019.

- As noted earlier, investments have rebounded nicely, recovering all that was lost at the end of 2018 and then some;
- We've had no surprise expenses
- And we're paying close attention to spending – for example, electronic voting costs about $10,000/day so we're saving about $20,000 by scheduling delegate voting as we are this year.
- Through April 30, we've received a little over 20% of what was apportioned. In prior years, we've received about 22% through the same periods and went on to receive 75%. So we're down a little, but so far it's manageable.

Thank you for the opportunity to serve as your CFO & Director of Administration. This concludes my report.

B. 2020 MISSION & MINISTRY FUNDING PLAN

The West Ohio Annual Conference Budget significantly relies on receipts from Connectional Giving apportioned to three funds:

1. Seven General Agency and the North Central Jurisdiction are combined into the General Church Ministries Fund.
2. Retiree Health and Other Benefits
3. Conference Ministries combines all conference offices (Connectional Ministries, Missional Church Development, Financial Administration, Episcopal Office and District Leadership, Communications, Office of Ministry and Council on Development)

General Church funds cannot be used by the Annual Conference for any purpose and will be forwarded pro-rata to the General Church each month.

The detailed 2020 budget also shows the 2018 and 2019 budgets as well as 2018 actual results. The format strives to reflect all sources used to meet expenditures, including donor income and program income.

The total amount of apportioned Connectional Giving in 2020 through the Conference will be $16,703,000, a reduction of 2% from 2019. Over a two-year period, the reduction is more than 12%.

District apportionments are $2,869,211, a reduction of 3%. Since 2018 the reduction exceeds 13%. A summary of each district's budget is on page 281.

West Ohio Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church and Affiliates
Columbus, Ohio

Report on the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of the accounting policies used, and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of the West Ohio Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church and Affiliates as of December 31, 2018, and the changes in their net assets and their cash flows for the year then ended, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Report on Supplementary Information

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the consolidated financial statements as a whole. The consolidating information on pages 24 to 29 is presented for the purposes of additional analysis and it is not a required part of the consolidated financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the consolidated financial statements. The consolidating information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the consolidated financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the consolidated financial statements or to the consolidated financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the consolidating information is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the consolidated financial statements as a whole.

West Ohio Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church and Affiliates Consolidated Notes to the Financial Statements
December 31, 2018

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of activities

The West Ohio Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church and Affiliates (the "Conference") is a religious not-for-profit organization that was established to provide organizational structure and support to its member churches. The Conference provides management of conference-wide programs for missional, ministerial, and charitable giving purposes. The Conference also operates retirement and healthcare programs for eligible lay and clergy employees and retirees of the Conference and member churches.

Conference and Affiliates

The more than 1,000 member churches are organized into eight districts. The Conference is legally the sole member of each of the eight districts included in these consolidated financial statements. The eight districts are:

- Capitol Area North (CAN)
- Capitol Area South (CAS)
- Foothills (FTH)
- Maumee Watershed (MWD)
- Miami Valley (MIV)
- Northwest Plains (NWP)
- Ohio River Valley (ORV)
- Shawnee Valley (SHV)

Because of the control exercised by the Conference over the Community Ministries of the Capitol Area (CAM), that entity is included in the consolidated financial statements.

Adoption of new accounting standard

During 2018, the Conference adopted ASU 2016-14, Presentation of Financial Statements of Not-for-Profit Entities. The standard addresses the complexity and understandability of net asset classification, deficiencies in information about liquidity and availability of resources, and the lack of consistency in the type of information provided about investment return and functional expenses, including allocation methodologies and presentation of a statement of functional expenses as part of the basic consolidated financial statements. The Conference has adjusted the presentation of these financial statements accordingly.

Basis of presentation

The Conference's consolidated financial statement presentation is in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP). Under GAAP, the Conference's consolidated financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting, and the Conference reports information regarding its financial position and activities according to two classes of net assets: net assets without donor restrictions and net asset with donor restrictions.

Accordingly, the net assets of the Conference, and changes therein, are classified and reported as follows:

Net assets without donor restrictions- Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed restrictions and are available for use in the Conference's ongoing operations.

Net assets with donor restrictions- Net assets that are "temporarily restricted" and therefore limited as to use by donor-imposed restrictions that can be fulfilled by either the actions of the Conference, or the passage of time; and net assets that are "permanently restricted" and therefore limited as to use by donor-imposed restrictions that permanently restrict the use of the funds by the Conference, with the exception of the investment earnings.

Generally, if the corpus of a contribution will, at some future time, become available for spending, it is recorded as with donor restrictions. In addition, contributions that are promised to be given in a future period are presented as with donor restrictions. If the corpus never becomes available for spending, it will be held in perpetuity and classified as net assets with donor restrictions. Net assets held in perpetuity represent the fair value of the original gift as of the gift date and the original value of subsequent gifts to donor-restricted endowment funds.

Net assets without donor restrictions include resources without restrictions, including donations, gifts, and bequests available for the use of the Conference, over which the Board of Trustees has discretionary control. The Conference reviewed all endowment funds, and no reclassification to net assets was required.

Use of estimates

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting periods. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and cash equivalents

For purposes of reporting cash flows, cash includes all cash on hand, demand deposits, and highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less. Cash and cash equivalents excludes the cash components of investments.

The Conference and Affiliates maintain financial relationships with financial institutions subject to FDIC or NCUA membership. Under FDIC and NCUA guidelines, all depository accounts are insured up to $250,000. Throughout the year, the Conference's and certain Affiliates' deposits exceeded these limitations for deposits held at certain financial institutions. Balances are insured subject to the regulatory guidelines for banks and credit unions. Further, periodic reviews of financial institution relationships include assessment of capital adequacy. Deposits in excess of insured limits were approximately $1.2 million at December 31, 2018.

Accounts receivable and revenue

Apportionments - Apportionment revenue represents amounts paid by member churches to fund Conference initiatives and operating expenses. Requests for apportionment contributions are sent in the early part of each year, and additional requests are sent throughout the year. The Conference records revenue during the year based on actual funds received. Final revenue and receivables for the current year are recorded at year-end, based on subsequent receipts collected in January that relate to the prior year. Accordingly, there is no need to consider or record an allowance for uncollectible apportionments. Receivables are never considered delinquent and no interest is charged on receivables. Apportionment revenue does not include amounts collected from member churches to be passed on to the general United Methodist Church. These amounts are recorded as liabilities until transferred.

Medical Coverage Insurance - The Conference operates a medical coverage plan covering eligible lay employees, eligible clergy employees, eligible retired clergy of the Conference, and member churches. Medical coverage premiums are collected from member churches and retirees monthly. Revenue is recognized when invoiced each month. Receivables are recorded, and there is no need to consider or record an allowance for uncollectible accounts as payments are automatically pulled electronically when invoiced.

Camp Operations - The Conference operates several camps throughout its region. Camp sessions primarily occur in the summer. Revenue is recorded in the month that registrations and payments are received in advance of the camp session. As such, no receivables are recorded. Any revenue collected in the current year pertaining to a camp session for the next year is recognized as deferred revenue.

Program Fee Income - At times, the Conference also requests a fee for events (other than camps) to defray a portion of program costs. These programs may be educational sessions or mission trips. Fees are recorded as revenue when received and are due in advance of the session or trip. Any revenue collected during the current year that pertains to a future event is recorded as deferred revenue.

Miscellaneous Revenue - Non-operational and ancillary income is reflected as miscellaneous revenue in the consolidated statement of activities. Miscellaneous revenue consists primarily of revenue generated from rental income, and random monetary or property gifts received from donors.

Investments

Investments are recorded at fair value based on quoted market values. Investment returns, including interest income, dividends, unrealized and realized gains or losses and fees are included in the consolidated statement of activities. See Notes 4 and 6.

Property and equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost and depreciated over their estimated useful lives using the straight-line method. Routine repairs and maintenance are charged to expense when incurred, and improvements and additions are capitalized. The carrying value of long-lived assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate the amount of assets may not be recoverable. Management has determined there was no asset impairment on depreciable assets in 2018.

The Conference holds approximately 1,200 acres of land related to its camps that were donated or otherwise acquired in prior years. As the fair market value of this land could not be reasonably determined at the time of its donation, it is not recorded in the consolidated financial statements. In addition, the Conference is holding 8 properties for resale at December 31, 2018. These properties have been recorded at their estimated fair values.

Endowment investment and spending policies

The Conference has adopted investment policies for all investment assets for which it is accountable, including certain endowment assets. The investment policy acknowledges and accommodates objectives unique to each fund, pool, or donor. In some cases, the investment policy is designed to produce an income stream to meet conference obligations to annuitants; in other cases, the policy is designed to preserve the real purchasing power of the assets and produce increasing income over time. In all cases, the policy provides a governance framework and guidance on investment management practices that are prudent and respectful of The United Methodist Church's social principles and underlying investment objectives.

Where not restricted by donor intent, the Conference relies on a total return strategy in which investment returns are achieved through both capital appreciation (realized and unrealized) and current yield (interest and dividends). Spending and disbursements from each fund are set by donor agreement or the investing body (e.g., Board of Pensions and Health Benefits, Trustees, or Council on Development). Certain affiliated churches that have placed investment assets with the Conference, be they endowed or otherwise, may request a distribution of some or all of their balances at any time. The liability for funds held for the benefit of these churches is included in amounts held for distribution on the consolidated statement of financial position.

Each district or mission board within the Conference that has investable assets, separately maintains an investment policy statement designed to meet their respective needs and objectives.

Contributions

The Conference accounts for contributions in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Donor contributions are recognized as revenue when the contribution is pledged or received and are recorded as without donor restrictions or with donor restrictions, depending on the existence or nature of any donor restrictions. When a restriction is satisfied, net assets with donor restrictions are released to net assets without donor restrictions and reported in the statement of activities as satisfaction of donor restrictions. Any restricted contributions that are received and fulfilled in the same year are recorded as net assets with donor restrictions originally, and then released to net assets without donor restrictions in the same year. Contributions of marketable securities and property and equipment are recorded at their fair market value at the date of the gift.

Expense allocation

The Conference allocates a portion of administrative expenses to program and mission services based on various direct costs related to each program and an analysis of personnel time.

Income and property taxes

The Conference is a not-for-profit organization that is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, except for unrelated business income as defined by the Internal Revenue Code. The Conference did not have any unrelated business income during 2018. Accordingly, no provision for federal, state, and local income taxes is included in the consolidated financial statements.

As a religious organization, the Conference is not required to file tax returns if it has no unrelated business income. Based on its review, management does not believe the Conference has taken any material uncertain tax positions, including any position that would place the Conference's exempt status in jeopardy for 2018.

Life annuity gifts

The Council on Development (COD) receives funds from donors classified as life annuity gifts. The donors contribute an irrevocable remainder interest in the donated funds and establish an interest that requires monthly or quarterly payments of a specified amount to the donor annuitant or another annuitant. Payments must be made for the remaining life of the specified annuitant.

Upon the death of the donor, other identified party or annuitant, the remainder interest becomes available for the final beneficiary, which is either the Conference, or other organizations generally associated with The United Methodist Church. The final beneficiary is designated in the life annuity contracts; however, the Conference enables the donor to change the final beneficiary up until the time of death, with the stipulation that the donor must either change the final beneficiary to the Conference or to another organization associated with The United Methodist Church. Since the final beneficiary is not determinable until the date of death, the Conference records all original gifts as liabilities and includes them in amounts held for distribution in the consolidated statement of financial position.

Upon the death of the donor, identified party or annuitant, if the Conference is named as the final beneficiary, then the Conference records contribution revenue for the remaining portion of the gift in the year of death. If another organization is named as the final beneficiary, then a liability is recorded to that organization by the Conference for the remaining portion of the gift. When the remaining portion of the gift is paid to the other organization, the liability is released.

Subsequent events

In preparing these consolidated financial statements, the Conference has evaluated events and transactions for potential recognition or disclosure through December 13, 2019, the date the consolidated financial statements were available to be issued.

2. PLEDGE CAMPAIGN RECEIVABLES

The Conference conducts fundraising activities on an ongoing basis and some of those efforts result in multi-year promises to give. Pledges are recorded at their estimated fair value using discount rate of 6.17%. Pledge campaign receivables at December 31, 2018:

Pledges due in:
Less than one year	$	8,750
One to five years		35,000
More than five years		188,125
		231,875
Less discount to present value		(136,089)
	$	95,786

3. NOTES RECEIVABLE

The Conference and Affiliates provide loans to member churches for purposes of providing a source of funds to pay for renovation projects or new construction. Payments are due either on a monthly or quarterly basis, or in a lump sum upon completion of project construction. Interest charged may be at a rate of Prime (5.5% at December 31, 2018) plus 2.00%, the London Interbank Offered Rate (LIBOR) (3.0783% at December 31, 2018) plus 0.90%, a fixed rate ranging from 2.25% to 4.25%, or be interest free. The payment terms range from due upon project completion up to 17 years.

Notes receivable are considered delinquent if required payments are not made; however, loans are not charged incremental interest or penalty fees provided foreclosure of property does not occur. Based on this practice, despite loans made to churches closely related to the Conference, there is a certain level of credit risk that may become significant.

Management assesses the collectability of notes receivable at year-end. Based on collection activity and known financial status of the church, an allowance may be recorded. The allowance for uncollectible notes receivable was $27,015 at December 31, 2018.

Maturities of notes receivable over the subsequent five years and thereafter are as follows:

	Year ending December 31
	2019	$ 32,242
	2020	28,032
	2021	28,245
	2022	20,377
	2023	16,443
	Thereafter	7,517
		$ 132,856

4. INVESTMENTS

Marketable securities are exposed to various risks such as interest rate, market, and credit risks. Due to the level of risk associated with certain marketable securities, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in the value will occur in the near term, and such changes could be material. Investments consisted of the following at December 31, 2018:

Money market	$	1,473,308
Government obligations		5,992,004
Corporate securities		11,549,526
Common stock		25,393,269
Mutual funds		43,070,006
Certificates of deposit		935,274

5. BENEFICIAL INTEREST IN PERPETUAL TRUSTS

ORV is the beneficiary of two perpetual trusts. The trusts' assets are not in possession of the Affiliate and are administered by the Board of Trustees of The United Methodist Church. Under the terms of the trusts, ORV has the irrevocable right to receive income earned on the endowment assets in perpetuity. ORV has recorded an asset titled "beneficial interest in perpetual trusts" equivalent to the present value of the expected future cash flows from the trusts, approximated by the estimated fair market value of the trusts' assets.

6. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

Generally accepted accounting principles define fair value, establish a framework for measuring fair value, and establish a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. A fair value measurement assumes that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability occurs in the principal market for the asset or liability or, in the absence of a principal market, the most advantageous market. Valuation techniques that are consistent with the market, income or cost approach are used to measure fair value.

The fair value hierarchy prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value into three broad levels:

Level 1: Inputs to the valuation methodology are unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that the Conference has the ability to access.

Level 2: Inputs to the valuation methodology include:

- Quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets;
- Quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in inactive markets;
- Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability;
- Inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means. If the asset or liability has a specified (contractual) term, the level 2 input must be observable for substantially the full term of the asset or liability.

Level 3: Inputs to the valuation methodology are unobservable and significant to the fair value measurement.

The asset or liability's fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques used need to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

The following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for assets measured at fair value. There have been no changes in the methodologies used at December 31, 2018.

Money market and certificates of deposit: Valued based on the contractual terms of the underlying money market or cash equivalent account.

Common stock, corporate securities and government obligations: Valued at the closing price reported on the active market on which the individual securities are traded.

Mutual funds: Valued at the net asset value of shares held by the Conference at year-end.

Property held for sale: Valued at fair market value based upon real estate appraisals.

Beneficial interest in perpetual trusts: Valuation is determined by the underlying interest in funds held by the custodian, which are primarily invested in marketable securities with quoted market prices.

The following table summarizes the valuation of financial instruments measured at fair value on a recurring basis in the consolidated statement of financial position as of December 31, 2018:

	Fair Value	Quoted Prices in Active Markets for Identical Assets (Level 1)	Significant Other Observable Inputs (Level 2)	Significant Unobservable Inputs (Level 3)
Assets
Beneficial interest in perpetual trusts	$ 528,138	-	-	528,138
Investments
Money market	1,473,308	1,473,308	-	-
Certificates of deposit	935,274	935,274	-	-
Government obligations	5,992,004	5,992,004	-	-
Common stock	25,393,269	25,393,269	-	-
Mutual funds	43,070,006	43,070,006	-	-
Corporate securities	11,549,526	-	11,549,526	-
	$ 88,941,525	76,863,861	11,549,526	528,138

Property held for sale is measured at fair value on a nonrecurring basis in the consolidated statements of financial positions as of December 31, 2018. Property held for sale is valued at $1,841,405 as a Level 3 input.

The preceding methods described may produce a fair value calculation that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, although the Conference believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

Changes in the fair value of properties held for sale and beneficial interest in perpetual trusts, which are measured on a recurring and nonrecurring basis using significant unobservable (Level 3) inputs, for 2018:

	Recurring Beneficial Interest in Perpetual Trust	Nonrecurring Property Held for Sale
Balance as of December 31, 2017	$ 599,073	1,629,218
Fair market value of churches acquired	-	1,301,918
Sale of property held for resale	-	(1,067,921)
Assets placed in use, subject to depreciation	-	(22,200)
Change in beneficial interest in perpetual trust, held at year end	(30,673)	-
Release of assets from beneficial interest in perpetual trust, held at year end	(40,262)	-
Balance as of December 31, 2018	$ 528,138	1,841,015

Several districts have acquired church properties from former congregations that have ceased to be associated with the Conference. These properties are recorded at their estimated fair value when the relevant district determines it will be held for resale. The Conference is committed to selling these properties as soon as possible.

7. LINE OF CREDIT AND LOAN GUARANTEE

ORV maintains a $1,500,000 revolving line of credit with a financial institution due on demand. The line of credit bears interest at a rate determined by the size of the District's assets that are under management of the financial institution (3.00% at December 31, 2018). The assets of the District are pledged as collateral.

ORV is guarantor on the commercial loan of a local church in that district. At December 31, 2018, the outstanding balance on the loan was approximately $1.2 million, for which ORV may be immediately liable if the church defaults on the loan or files a bankruptcy petition. The loan balance is due before March 1, 2023, and ORV may be released from the guarantee prior to that time, provided certain terms of the guarantee are met. The local church was current on the loan at December 31, 2018, and management does not expect to be required to perform on the guarantee. Accordingly, no related liability is recorded in these consolidated financial statements.

8. PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT

9. OPERATING LEASES

ORV leases office space as an operating lease commencing in January 2018 from a local church. Annual payment of $1 is due in January 2018. In addition, as compensation to the Lessor, Lessee will pay for repairs and remediation to the property as set out in Exhibit B to the lease. As of December 31, 2018, ORV has paid $194,869 towards the repairs and remediation of the property.

The Conference leases certain other office equipment under non-cancelable operating leases, which expire at various times over the next five years. Total lease expenditures in 2018 were $175,423. Future minimum lease payments are as follows:

Year ending December 31
2019	$	69,706
2020		6,845
2021		1
2022		1
	$	76,553

10. NET ASSETS WITH DONOR RESTRICTIONS

The net assets with donor restrictions that are restricted by time or purpose includes assets and trust obligations of the Conference related to gifts with explicit donor-imposed restrictions that have not been met. Net assets restricted by time or purpose at December 31, 2018, are restricted to the following uses:

Church buildings	$	2,299,060
District operations		1,023,694
Clergy development		1,773,708
New church starts		412,607
Local churches		1,623,415

Parsonages		216,820
Camps		398,759
Other		1,531,324
	$	11,120,500

The net asset with donor restrictions that are held in perpetuity includes assets of the Conference related to gifts with explicit donor-imposed restrictions that permanently restrict the use of the corpus of the original gift. See Note 5 regarding beneficial interest in perpetual trusts. Net assets that are being held in perpetuity at December 31, 2018 are restricted to the following:

Beneficial interest in perpetual trusts	$	528,138
Local churches		176,057
Church buildings		68,696
Cemetery support endowments		22,726

11. FUNDS HELD IN TRUST BY OTHERS

The COD is named as the remainder beneficiary of certain trusts held by others. These trusts are not included in the consolidated financial statements as the funds are neither in the possession of nor under the control of the COD. Total estimated fair value of the COD's interest in these funds at December 31, 2018, is not available.

12. EPISCOPAL FUND

The Conference receives funds from the Episcopal Fund established by the General Council on Finance and Administration (GCFA) of The United Methodist Church. This fund is one of the general church funds to be used for administrative expenses of annual conferences.

The GCFA requires certain comparative information to be disclosed as a part of the annual audit of the Conference for the years ended December 31:

	2018	2017
Revenue
GCFA Episcopal Fund receipts	$ 106,252	104,560
Expenses
Salaries	236,127	286,074
Payroll taxes and benefits	74,587	99,114
Travel	15,998	574
Episcopal initiatives	38,195	18,273
Occupancy and office expenses	35,473	21,776
	400,380	425,811
	$ (294,128)	(321,251)

Episcopal related expenses exceed funding received annually; accordingly, there is no beginning or ending cash balances as funds are fully utilized by the year-end. Other operational or contribution funding is effectively utilized to pay for Episcopal expenditures greater than the funds provided from the Episcopal Fund. None of the Episcopal Funds were used for property and equipment purchases in 2018 or 2017.

13. ENDOWMENT FUNDS AND UPMIFA

Management has determined that certain Conference assets meet the definition of endowments under the Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act of 2006 (UPMIFA). The Conference has interpreted UPMIFA as requiring the preservation of the fair value of the original gift as of the gift date of the donor-restricted endowment funds, absent explicit donor stipulations to the contrary. As a result of this interpretation, the Conference classifies as net assets with donor restrictions (a) the original value of gifts donated to endowments, (b) the original value of subsequent gifts to endowments, and (c) accumulations to the endowment made in accordance with the direction of the applicable donor gift instrument at the time the accumulation is added to the fund.

In accordance with UPMIFA, the Conference considers these factors in making a determination to appropriate or accumulate donor-restricted endowment funds:

- (1) The duration and preservation of the fund;
- (2) The purposes of the Conference and the donor-restricted endowment fund;
- (3) General economic conditions;
- (4) The possible effect of inflation and deflation;
- (5) The expected total return from income and the appreciation of investments;
- (6) Other resources of the organization; and
- (7) The investment policies of the organization.

Summary of changes in endowment net assets for 2018:

	Without Donor Restrictions	With Donor Restrictions	Total
Balance as of December 31, 2017	$ -	1,690,923	1,690,923
Investment returns, net	-	(7,179)	(7,179)

Summary of all Conference net assets as of December 31, 2018:

	Without Donor Restrictions	With Donor Restrictions	Total
Endowment funds	$ -	1,674,244	1,674,244
Non-endowment operating funds	33,958,495	10,282,135	44,240,630
	$ 33,958,495	11,956,379	45,914,874

14. HEALTHCARE POST-RETIREMENT BENEFIT OBLIGATIONS

The Conference sponsors a defined benefit post-retirement healthcare plan covering substantially all employees, and is a participant in a denomination-sponsored defined benefit pension plan as described in Note 15. GAAP requires an employer to recognize the over-funded or under-funded status of a defined benefit plan, or post-retirement benefits plan, as an asset or liability in its consolidated statement of financial position.

For pension plans, the asset or liability is determined by comparing plan assets to the projected benefit obligation. Pension plans recognize changes in the funded status in the year in which the changes occur through unrestricted revenue or expense. For post-retirement plans other than pension plans, the asset and liability is determined by comparing plan assets to the accumulated benefit obligation.

The size of the post-retirement healthcare obligation and related expense is based upon the plan benefit levels approved each year by the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits. The Conference had assets designated for this liability totaling approximately $48.8 million at December 31, 2018, in the Retired Clergy Benefits Fund.

Further information about the healthcare plan as of December 31, 2018:

Fair value of plan assets	$ -
Benefit obligations	(48,683,086)
Funded status	$ (48,683,086)

Reconciliation of accrued healthcare post-retirement benefit obligations:

Healthcare post-retirement benefit obligations - beginning of year	$ (55,378,497)
Service cost	(1,108,311)
Interest cost	(2,042,635)
Plan amendments	1,914,033
Actuarial gain (loss)	6,115,847
Net expected benefit payments	1,816,477
Change in healthcare post-retirement benefit obligations	6,695,411
Healthcare post-retirement benefit obligations - end of year	$ (48,683,086)

The discount rate used to determine the benefit obligation at year-end was 4.35% for 2018. For measurement purposes, the rate of increase in the per capita cost of covered healthcare benefits has been assumed to be 6.00% for 2019 and declining 0.25% each year until 2025 when it reaches 4.50%, the ultimate trend rate.

Contribution ranges are dependent on years of service at retirement and apply to the retiree and his or her spouse. Plan premiums are paid by the Conference upon presentment of invoice by the insurer for payment toward coverage of healthcare plan benefits and thus equals benefits paid. These payments are recorded to medical coverage expense on the consolidated statement of activities.

Year ending December 31
2019	$ 1,810,557
2020	1,950,320
2021	2,056,376
2022	2,153,656
2023	2,248,950
2024 - 2028	12,485,459

15. RETIREMENT PLANS

The Pre-82 Plan

The Conference participates in a multi-employer defined benefit pension plan (the Plan), administered by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits (GBPHB) of The United Methodist Church, covering all clergy with Pre-82 pension credit service. The benefits are based on the greater of the past service pension rate multiplied by the number of the clergy's Pre-82 years of service in the Plan, or the service annuity benefit specified by the Plan.

Annual contributions by the Conference are determined within certain guidelines established by the GBPHB. Contributions made by the Conference are held in a general pool with the contributions of other conferences, and are generally available to pay the beneficiaries of all employers in the Plan. The Conference's account within the Plan was over-funded as of the January 1, 2018 valuation. The Conference was not required and did not make any contributions for 2018.

The GBPHB prepares actuarial valuations annually as of January 1 and generally issues its report each September. The most recent valuation reflects the Plan asset values and liability funding status as of January 1, 2018.

Plan information and assumptions at January 1, 2018:

Assets and funding:
Fair value of plan assets	$ 74,510,093
Less pension benefit obligation	(68,571,395)
Funded past service liability	$ 5,938,698
Assumptions:
Interest rate	6.500%
Past service rate (PSR) increase	2.00%
Mortality table	RP-14 (MP-16)

All Plan assets are invested in the Multiple Asset Fund (MAF) of the GBPHB. The investment objective of the MAF is to maximize long-term investment returns, including current income and capital appreciation, while reducing short-term risk by investing in a broad mix of investments. Weighted-average asset allocations of Plan investments as of December 31, 2018:

	Policy Target		Actual
	Range
US Equity Fund	32%	38%	33.9%
International Equity Fund	27%	33%	29.7%
Fixed Income Fund	22%	28%	25.8%
Inflation Protection Fund	7%	13%	10.2%
Cash	0%	2%	0.4%

Ministerial Pension Plan 1982- 2006 (MPP)

The Conference participates in a 403(b) defined contribution plan, the MPP for clergy employees. Eligible employees are 100% vested in their contributions. When the Plan was active, the Conference made a matching contribution equal to 12% of Denomination Average Compensation (DAC) for clergy employees. This Plan was closed to new contributions at December 31, 2006.

Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP)

Effective January 1, 2007, the GBPHB amended its pension plan, creating the CRSP, which has both a defined benefit and defined contribution component. The defined contribution component of the CRSP is capped at 3% of eligible compensation. The defined benefit component provides annual income based on years of service and a percentage of DAC (1.25% for service years 2007 through 2013 and 1.00% thereafter).

The terms of the plan permit the Conference to use an over-funded position in the Pre-82 Plan to fund the defined benefit component of the CRSP. Although a surplus was available, the Conference made a full contribution of $3,329,724 in 2018. The Conference bills its churches at a percentage of eligible compensation regardless of whether the surplus is utilized. When amounts collected exceed the amount remitted to GBPHB, the excess funds are used to build a reserve for the post-retirement healthcare liability or other clergy benefits, as designated by the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits.

United Methodist Personal Investment Plan

The Conference sponsors a 403(b) defined contribution plan for clergy and full-time lay employees of the Conference and Affiliates. Participants are 100% vested in their contributions. The Conference and Affiliates make matching contributions subject to their respective adoption agreements with the GBPHB. Matching contributions for the 403(b) defined contribution plan are immediately vested. Matching contributions for 2018 totaled approximately $150,000.

16. LIQUIDITY AND AVAILABILITY

The Conference is substantially supported by earned revenue. The Conference also receives contributions with donor restrictions. Because a donor's restriction requires resources to be used in a particular manner or in a future period, the Conference must maintain sufficient resources to meet those responsibilities to its donors. Thus, financial assets may not be available for general expenditure within one year. As part of the Conference's liquidity management, it has a policy to structure its financial assets to be available as its general expenditures, liabilities, and other obligations come due.

Financial assets:
Cash and cash equivalents	$ 3,257,319
Investments	88,413,387
Accounts receivable	1,695,478
Financial assets available at year-end	93,366,184
Less those unavailable for general expenditures within one year:
Restricted by donor	11,916,117
Financial assets available to meet cash needs for general expenditures within one year before board designated and post-retirement benefit obligations	81,450,067
Board designated	20,848,572
Post-retirement benefits obligations	48,683,086
Financial assets available to meet cash needs for general expenditures within one year	$ 11,918,409

4. VACATION

a. Vacation Policy

Time for vacation, continuing education, Sabbath and formational renewal are extremely important to every person involved in professional ministry. There must be times of recreation, study and re-centering in each clergy's life. The West Ohio Conference adopts these guidelines for clergy and churches as a way of encouraging clergy to live a balanced life in ministry.

The guidelines that are listed below are the minimum of all clergy under appointment. A charge and the appointed clergy in consultation with the District Superintendent may negotiate mutually agreeable changes to fit unusual circumstances in line with the spirit of this section.

Details and agreements regarding vacation, sick time, continuing education, days off, formational and spiritual growth leave, and connectional responsibilities should be established at the time of the appointment and reviewed annually as part of the annual pastor evaluation with the charge’s Committee on Staff/Pastor-Parish Relations (SPRC).

All clergy shall have at least, but not limited to, the equivalent of four weeks (based on estimated weekly workdays), plus two days. These days may be taken individually. This shall include a maximum of four Sundays. The following table shows minimum paid vacation days by nature of appointment.

MINIMUM VACATION STANDARDS****

Appointment Level	Estimated Weekly Workdays	Total Vacation Days including 4 Sundays
Full Time Appointment	6	26 (6 x 4 = 24) + 2
¾ Time	4.5	20 (4.5 x 4 = 18) + 2
½ Time	3	14 (3 x 4 = 12) + 2
¼ Time	1.5	8 (1.5 x 4 = 6) + 2

Vacation shall be granted on the annual conference year (July 1 through June 30). In order to establish proper healthy boundaries, pastors and other clergy persons under appointment are expected and encouraged to take all vacation days annually. Vacation is not cumulative and cannot be carried over to the succeeding year. It is expected that the pastor will make arrangements in advance with the SPRC and consult with them in obtaining vacation supply coverage. Vacation leave for appointment beyond the local church (deacons) or extension ministry (elders and local pastors) is determined by that employer.

b. Continuing Education and Spiritual Growth

In accordance with The Book of Discipline ¶350.2, clergy members continuing education and spiritual growth program shall include professional formation leaves at least one week each year and may include at least one month during one year of every quadrennium. Such leaves shall not be considered vacation time and should be coordinated through your SPRC committee.

More extended time for renewal leave is a healthy part of the rhythms of vocational ministry. In accordance with The Book of Discipline ¶350.3, clergy members who have held full-time appointment for at least six years may request a formational and spiritual growth leave of up to six months while continuing to hold an appointment in the local church.

c. Sabbath and Weekly Day Off

It is important for clergy to have regular time away each week. Clergy members are strongly encouraged to establish a schedule that includes at least one day of Sabbath and one day away from ministerial responsibilities each week. Experiencing and modeling the rhythm of weekly Sabbath rest is vital to the work of vocational ministry. This day is included as a part of the six-day workweek for full time appointment in the chart above. Such days should be communicated so that congregation and staff will know when such days are to occur, so as to allow a time of refreshment. These are not vacation days.

d. Connectional and Community Responsibilities

All clergy are expected to attend all sessions of the Annual Conference. In addition, clergy may have other connectional responsibilities. Time spent on these responsibilities shall not be counted as vacation or as continuing education. Clergy will inform the SPRC of time needed for these responsibilities.

Clergy are also often involved in various community groups. Such involvement provides an opportunity to build a bridge between the community and the church. These involvements shall not be considered vacation or continuing education. Clergy are encouraged to use good judgement in determining the commitment accepted beyond the primary appointment. Consultation with the SPRC should take place before accepting such responsibilities.

24. Retired bishops who served, who were elected from, or who reside in the West Ohio Conference shall be honorary members of the annual conference and listed in the conference journal.

F. PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

If any one or more of the following motions are made when one or more other motions are pending, the order of precedence in relation to one another shall be the same as the order of their listing below:

- a. To fix the time to which the conference shall adjourn. (This motion is subject to amendment or it may be laid on the table.)

7. ALTERATION OF REPORTS

When a committee report has been published in the Book of Reports to the members of the conference, it is in possession of the conference and cannot be altered except by action of the conference.

8. MOTIONS IN ORDER WHEN A MAIN MOTION IS BEING CONSIDERED

When a question is under debate, any subsidiary motion applying thereto may be made. This includes the following motions listed in order of their precedence: Lay on the Table, Previous Questions, Limit or Extend Limits of Debate, Postpone to a Certain Time, Commit or Refer, Amend, Substitute, Postpone indefinitely. Privileged motions are always in order, limited only by such restrictions, Roberts Rules of Order.

The motion to adjourn cannot be made when a member has the floor or when it interrupts voting or verifying a vote.

9. AMENDMENTS AND SUBSTITUTIONS

Only one amendment to an amendment shall be in order. However, it is in order to move a substitute for the main motion. In such case the chair shall proceed to perfect the original motion. The previous question when voted under these conditions shall merely stop debate but does not permit a vote on the main motion. When the main motion has been perfected, the chair shall proceed to perfect the substitute. When the substitute has been perfected, the chair shall call for a vote on the substitute. If the substitute is carried, it shall replace the original main motion and become the main motion. The chair will then call for a vote on the (new) main motion. The new main motion can be amended only by addition. If the substitute does not carry, without further debate, the chair shall call for a vote on the original main motion as it has been perfected.

10. DIVISION OF QUESTION

Before a vote is taken, any member has the right to call for the division of any question, if it is subject to such division as he/she indicates. If no member objects, the division shall be made, but if there is objection, the chair, not waiting for a second, shall put the question of division to vote.

11. TABLING RELATED MOTIONS

No motion which adheres to another motion, or has another motion adhering to it, can be laid on the table by itself. Such motions, if laid on the table, carry with them the motions to which they respectively adhere or which adhere to them.

12. SPEAKERS FOR AND AGAINST

- a. When a recommendation is under consideration, it shall be the duty of the chair to ascertain, when recognizing a member of the conference, on which side the member proposes to speak; the chair shall not assign the floor to any member proposing to speak on the same side of the pending question as the speaker immediately preceding if any member desires to speak on the other side thereof.
- b. Except for undebatable motions (Rule 2), no recommendation shall be adopted or question relating to the same decided without opportunity having been given for at least two speeches for and two against the same recommendation. After three speeches for and three against and provided no secondary motions come before the floor, the question shall be put automatically.

13. LIMITATIONS ON DEBATE

No member shall speak more than once on the same question until all who desire to speak have spoken. Speeches shall be no more than two minutes without leave of the conference. The chair and/or duly authorized member or members presenting the recommendation shall be entitled to two minutes to close the discussion. The motion to limit or extend the limits of debate is in order any time, except when a member has the floor.

14. SPEAKING ONLY AFTER A MOTION

No member of the conference shall be permitted to speak on a question unless it has been properly presented to the conference in the form of a motion.

15. MOTIONS AFTER SPEAKING ON A PENDING QUESTION

No member who has spoken on a pending question shall at the close of his/her speech have the right to call for the previous question or move to lay the motion on the table.

16. WHO MAY VOTE

Every member who is within the bar of the conference at the time the question is put has the right to vote. A member who is not within the bar of the conference at the time the question is put by the chair shall not be permitted to vote except such member is necessarily absent in the work of the conference.

17. PREVIOUS QUESTION

When any member moves the previous question (that is, that the vote be now taken on the motion or motions pending) he/she shall indicate to what he/she intends it to apply if any secondary motion or motions are pending. If he/she does not so indicate, the chair may regard it as applying only to the immediate pending question. This vote shall be taken without debate and, if in the judgment of the chair, two-thirds of those present vote for its adoption, the vote shall be taken on the motion or motions to which it applies.

18. INTERRUPTING THE SPEAKER

No member who has the floor shall be interrupted except for a breach of order, or a misrepresentation, or to direct the attention of the conference that the time has arrived for a special order of the day, or to raise a very urgent question of high privilege.

19. RECONSIDERATION OF A QUESTION

A motion to reconsider an action of the conference shall be in order any time if offered by a member who voted on the prevailing side. If the motion it is proposed to reconsider is nondebatable, the motion to reconsider may not be debated.

20. SUSPENSION OF RULES

The application of any of the provisions of these Rules of Order may be suspended at any time by a two-thirds vote of the conference.

21. ROBERTS RULES OF ORDER, SUPPLEMENTARY AUTHORITY

In any parliamentary situation not covered in these Rules of Order, the conference shall be governed in its action by the appropriate provisions of Roberts Rules of Order.

22. BISHOP'S RIGHT TO SPEAK ON ISSUES

The bishop is not, and by discipline cannot be, a member of the body with whose presidency he/she is charged. But he/she is the head of the area, vitally concerned with the decisions of this body. Therefore, the bishop shall have the right to speak on the issues before this conference, providing he/she surrenders the chair to someone of his/her appointing at any time that he/she feels he/she should apprise the conference on matters pertaining to the issue before the house.

MARGARET "PEGGY" CLARKE

Margaret (Peggy) Louise Clarke was born on September 20, 1932, to Myron and Dorothy Johns of Lakewood, Ohio. After graduating from Rocky River High School, Peggy went on to attend college at Bowling Green University. She transferred to Ohio Northern University spring quarter of her freshman year; on the first day of class, a young man named Don Clarke saw her across the room and made it his mission to ask her out on a date. That meeting marked the beginning of a beautiful love story that would last the rest of Peggy's life.

In August of 1954, Peggy and Don married. She accompanied him to Atlanta, Georgia, where Don attended the Candler School of Theology at Emory University. While Don studied, Peggy pursued her teaching career.

Don and Peggy started their forty years of ministry together in 1957. Their journey began at Goshen, and later took them to Cleves, Asbury, McKendree, Van Wert First, Walnut Street, Columbus South District, and Grace. As a minister's wife, Peggy was wonderful at supporting Don in his church ministry and was an active participant in each individual church. She also had a beautiful singing voice and was a welcome addition to the church choirs wherever they went.

Peggy loved to travel, camp, fish, sing, and she was a talented artist. Her "doodles" ranged from whimsical sketches to beautiful studies of animals, people, and scenery. But Peggy's greatest joy was her family. She was a devoted wife, a loving mother to her three children, a fun loving grandmother of eight, and an adoring great-grandmother of ten.

When Peggy died on October 30, 2018, it was with family by her side. And through all of her struggles with the Alzheimer's disease that ravaged her mind, she never forgot the love of her life, Don, or the children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren whom she loved and adored.

After retiring from the "rigors of the corporate world" per Beesigye's own phrasing, she began a second career in social services. She worked as a Speech and Hearing Technician, for Head Start for several years.

JOSEPH HAVLOVIC

Joseph Arthur Havlovic was the only child of Arthur John Havlovic and Hazel (Banning) Havlovic. Joe was a lifelong Ohioan, having arrived on June 1, 1929, in Mansfield, but soon moved to Cincinnati. A fun fact in Joe's life is that he attended grade school, high school and college on the same street. Lifelong friendships were formed in this Clifton neighborhood.

Sports had always been a major interest in Joe's life. Following his first year in college he received invitations from Major League Baseball teams to join their tryout camps. This would take him to the camps of the Cleveland Indians, the New York Giants, and the Brooklyn Dodgers. After several months of road travel with many hopefuls and the draft looming over all of them, Joe decided it would be best to return to the University of Cincinnati and complete his degree. He proudly played baseball for UC with a highlight being that he hit a home run 400 feet over the left field at Crosely Field, home of the Reds.

Following graduation, Joe enlisted in the Navy. After serving 4 years, he received an honorable discharge with a rank of Lieutenant. His career would be in sales with Motorola. His success was recognized by being elected as a Galvin Master. These were also the busiest of family years keeping up with 2 sons, David and Stephen and 2 daughters, Jennifer and Julie. In the midst of all that, his wife of 15 years Barbara Dilts Havlovic, answered the call to ministry which involved 3 years of commuting to United Theological Seminary for her M. Div. degree. Barbara's appointments would be first to Church of the Savior in Montgomery, Ohio, and then to Walnut Hills Avondale United Methodist Church, also in Cincinnati. Owning their own home was very helpful to both churches. Being the male spouse to the pastor under appointment was fairly new at that time, so Joe had to define his own role.

Joe's retirement was filled with the blessing of 8 grandchildren, travel, golf, gardening, and learning all the new technology. Pancreatic Cancer claimed Joe's closing months where he continued to reveal his gentle spirit and trust in the One to Whom he had always belonged. Death came April 9, 2019, a week shy of Barbara and Joe's 59th wedding anniversary and two months shy of Joe's 90th birthday.

XII HISTORICAL STATEMENT

The hardy pioneer itinerants who blazed their way through the uncharted Indian wilderness were people of giant hearts, stalwart frames and steadfast convictions. Surely these faithful pioneers, always ready for any hardship and toil the Church and its elders might demand, would be most happy that the Church militant has achieved such a historical time line as is evidenced in the continued health and aspirations of this, the oldest original Conference in the Northwest Territory.

The east and west borders of the Western Conference were that portion of Ohio bordering the Ohio River on the east to the "shores of the setting sun" on the west. At the annual meeting of the Western Conference in Cincinnati on October 1, 1811, both Bishop Frances Asbury and Bishop William McKendree were in attendance. At that time it was decided that, if the General Conference voted to divide the Western Conference, the "lower conference" would next meet at Fountain Head, Tennessee, and the "upper conference" – to be called the Ohio Conference – would be held in Chillicothe, Ohio, on October 1, 1812.

Our present West Ohio Conference, therefore, reflects the unions of the former Cincinnati (1913), Central Ohio (1913), old West Ohio (1927), part of the former Central German (1936), and part of the Lexington (1964), Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church, the Ohio (1939) and the Muskingum (1918) Conferences of the Methodist Protestant Church, and the Ohio Miami (1968), Ohio Sandusky (1968), and Ohio Southeast (1968) Conference of the Evangelical United Brethren Church.

On June 10, 1970, a Special Session of Six Annual Conferences of The United Methodist Church, within the Ohio West and Ohio East areas, was held in Veterans' Memorial Auditorium, Columbus, Ohio, for the purpose of uniting the six conferences into two. The former Ohio Methodist, Ohio Sandusky Evangelical United Brethren, Ohio Miami Evangelical United Brethren, and Ohio Southeast Evangelical United Brethren Conferences were united to become the West Ohio Conference of The United Methodist Church. The former North East Ohio Methodist, the East Ohio Evangelical United Brethren and a designated number of churches in the former Ohio Sandusky and Ohio Southeast Conferences were united to become The East Ohio Conference of The United Methodist Church.

West Ohio, State of Ohio: counties of Adams, Allen, Athens, Auglaize, Brown, Butler, Champaign, Clark Clermont, Clinton, Darke, Defiance, Fairfield, Fayette, Franklin, Fulton, Gallia, Greene, Hamilton, Hancock, Hardin, Henry, Highland, Hocking, Jackson, Lawrence, Licking (excluding the towns of Homer and Utica), Logan, Lucas, Madison, Meigs, Mercer, Miami, Montgomery, Paulding, Perry, Pickaway, Pike, Preble, Putnam, Ross, Scioto, Shelby, Union, Van Wert, Vinton, Warren, Williams, and Wood; west of the Muskingum River in the counties of Morgan, Muskingum (including the city of Zanesville), and Washington (including the city of Marietta); west of Route 23, north of Route 37, and west of Route 71, south of Route 37 in Delaware County and west of Sandusky Street (excluding Asbury United Methodist Church) in the city of Delaware; west of Route 23 in the counties of Marion and Wyandot (including the city of Upper Sandusky); west of the 83rd longitude in Ottawa County; and west of the Sandusky River through the counties of Sandusky (including the city of Fremont) and Seneca.

This is the 222nd year of organized Methodism in Ohio. It also marks the 208th Conference Session within the territory covered by the West and East Ohio Conferences.

XIII ANNUAL REPORTS FOR 2018

COMMITTEE ON EPISCOPACY

The Episcopacy Committee has met regularly with Bishop Palmer during the past year for the purpose of support, encouragement, and to provide feedback where invited. We also recognized the importance of supporting Bishop Palmer's wife, Cynthia as appropriate.

The Episcopacy Committee appreciates the opportunity to serve our conference and our bishop, and we encourage everyone to continue praying for Bishop Palmer—for wisdom and a steady hand, as he leads the movement called the West Ohio Conference of the United Methodist Church in the Mission of Jesus Christ!

As a Conference, we participated in the Mid-Quadrennium Episcopal Evaluation Report for Bishop Palmer and presented him with the final report and a summary from the team that did the work. It was important to the team that we affirmed that Bishop Palmer is an inspiring preacher, that he has a pastoral heart, that he has a deep desire to connect people to Christ, that he has an undeniable hope for the world and the church, and he has a willingness to hear all perspectives.

Bishop Palmer is seen as a thoughtful and highly respected leader and teacher in our denomination and beyond. It is the opinion of this team that this combination of gifts will serve not only the West Ohio Conference but the denomination in coming months. We know that his leadership will help the church navigate these anxious days to maintain our mutual respect and unity in purpose.

"Let's not get tired of doing good, because in time we'll have a harvest if we don't give up."

CONNECTIONAL MINISTRIES LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT TEAM

Goals & Expectations for 2018:

Our goal was developed in context of the conference charge to identify & implement best practices for Christian leadership development, ensure systems and processes for training lay and certified lay leadership and develop a knowledge base to equip the church in engagement of younger people in ministry/leadership.

Our overall goal was to create a multi-faceted discipleship program that was based in long-term mentoring relationships. A model that could be used by anyone; one that is intended to grow personal connection to Christ and internal transformation.

Accomplishments for 2018:

Each team member was charged to research existing best practices in Christian leadership development know to be effective. The respective responses of each member yielded consistent themes.

1. Genuine relationships are core to leadership development: mentoring models work...
2. Discipleship focused on creating a relationship with Jesus creates and sustains commitment...
3. Any engagement strategy must be systemic: Needs endorsement/involvement from the pastor on down and throughout the church organizational/administrative design.

We resolved to create an eight component mentoring discipleship programs focused on addressing the practicality of being in relationship with Christ:

1. "Getting to Know You"
2. "Prayer"
3. "Health: Spiritual/Physical"
4. "Worship & Faith Community"
5. "The Bible"
6. "Purposeful Gifts"
7. "Love in Action"
8. "Your Story"

Budget 2018:

None

Measurable Goal for 2019:

1. To create an outline for the discipleship tool
2. To begin work on a working model to submit to Annual Conference by 2020

Hopes & Dreams for Next 3-5 Years:

We hope to have completed a multi-media tool that can be accessed via web and used by almost anyone. We believe best practice supports the emergence and sustainability of Christian leaders through mentoring and developing those mentored to mentor.

Sincerely Yours,
Marty McMichael
Leadership Chair

UNITED METHODIST MEN

My name is Patrick Talisse, married to Emily for 32 years and have been blessed with two girls, Chesley and Lydia. I studied at Indiana University and majored in economics with a minor in business. I started my career in retail management and eventually made the decision to seek a career in Information Technology because of my strong interest in computer programming.

My faith has played an important part in my life. I was born into a Christian family and since childhood I do remember how my parents encouraged me to read the scriptures and to pray. I experienced an amazing awakening at a revival ceremony when I was twenty eight years in which we were called to do a self-examination of our spiritual condition, and there I was convicted by God's spirit and I accepted the invitation to journey with Him. It was an amazing experience and a turning point in my life.

I believe that we need to encourage men to seek answers in the Bible and to follow the examples set for us by Christ's teachings to ensure that they stand on solid ground. The vision is for Men to come to understand how important it is to seek answers to their problems that are rooted in the truth, which is the Word of God. This would call on leaders to lead by example and spend time mentoring men, caring for them, supporting them, praying with them and for them.

My desire is for the following to come true:

1. Raise strong Christian leaders and encourage those with leadership skills to mentor men one on one and develop close relationships that will last.
2. Encourage men to get into small groups where they can privately and safely share their problems, get support and honest advice from other believers in addition to being held "accountable" for their actions.
3. Encourage communications among all the churches within the conference to share ideas and established activities as it relates to men's ministry so that everyone can learn and benefit.
4. Organize one or two meetings a year at the conference level where known speakers in men's ministry will be invited to attend, men will gather to hear testimonies from local churches and engage in discussions that will further their knowledge and understanding in a spirit of fun and fellowship.

5. Utilize all available digital means of communications to enable, draw the interest and mobilize the men across the conference. This includes web, twitter, Instagram and face book. Use Zoom as a platform for events that can be attended remotely by a wide audience.

My desire is to see Men come to the realization that the only way for them to get through the challenges that inevitably appear in their lives is to rest on a solid foundation that will sustain them in troubled times, which will occur with the decision to pursue a close relationship with Christ.

The purpose of this ministry is for men to glorify God.

UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

One hundred fifty years is a long time!

United Methodist Women, as an organization, traces its roots back one hundred and fifty years, to a small gathering of women in Boston who answered a call and filled a specific need, to send a woman doctor and a woman teacher to the women of India. Dr. Clara Swain and Isabella Thoburn made history, and so did the women who formed the Women's Foreign Missionary Society in 1869 to support their work. It's truly amazing to consider the changes in name and format that have taken place during the following one hundred fifty years, and yet, our mission and our purpose remain the same: to be faith, hope, and love in action to women, children and youth around the world.

The year 2019 has been filled with birthday celebrations. Local UMW groups, district, and conference groups have met, laughed and cried, enjoyed skits and programs, and eaten birthday cake to commemorate our special birthday and to talk about our Legacy Fund, an endowment meant to ensure that United Methodist Women will still exist for our great granddaughters. There may be uncertainty in the world and in the United Methodist Church, but United Methodist Women fully intend and are prepared to continue our commitment to our missionaries and our National Mission Institutions (<https://www.unitedmethodistwomen.org/what-we-fund/national-mission-institutions/national-mission-institutions-map-for-printing>).

One of the best mission education events available anywhere is Mission u, which is an annual event of United Methodist Women. Mission u is held at Otterbein University in Westerville, Ohio. See the <http://westohioconferenceunitedmethodistwomen.org> for details. This year one of our studies is United for Change by Ellen Blue, the first in a two-year study providing a history of United Methodist Women and its predecessor organizations (<https://www.unitedmethodistwomen.org/mission-study/women-united-for-change>). In addition, a DVD which celebrates our history is available (https://www.umwmissionresources.org/shopping\_product\_detail.asp?pid=53456).

In May 2019, West Ohio United Methodist Women continued our commitment to the four mission priorities set by the National Organization in planning our Racial Justice Event: Racism, Crime, and Community. Reba Collins, from West Ohio's All in Community, provided an eye-opening program with speakers and panelists sharing their lives and perspectives to a large group of United Methodist Women and other interested participants. Our Annual Celebration on October 26, 2019 at Ginghamburg will center on another of our issues, Wage Equality/Fair Wage for All, with a presenter from National Office, Carol Barton (Executive for Community Action).

West Ohio United Methodist Women are following in the footsteps of our foremothers by enabling all of us to share in giving to mission, and supporting the missions and missionaries in our care. In 2018, the total given to United Methodist Women, from individuals, units, districts, and conference, totaled $389,820.62. We are grateful to all those in West Ohio Conference who made this giving possible.

COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES

OHIO NORTHERN UNIVERSITY

Ohio Northern University has enjoyed an enduring relationship with The United Methodist Church since 1899, when the Methodist Church came alongside our institution and helped us reach our potential as a leader in educational excellence. In the 120 years since our partnership began, our institution has had a symbiotic relationship with the denomination, as we send qualified lay people and future clergy into the world and the church, The United Methodist Church has provided an avenue for us to reach communities and potential students throughout Ohio and beyond.

As we enter into a season of discernment and discussion regarding the future of The United Methodist Church, Ohio Northern stands at the ready to lend our voice, in an effort to help create a Methodism that is more inclusive and reflects our core values of:

- Collaboration
- Community
- Diversity
- Excellence
- Faith
- Integrity
- Service

We believe that these values are directly related in many ways to our affiliation with The United Methodist Church, and that the development of these values happened because of, not in spite of, our Methodist roots. It is because we have our foundations in the love of God and love of neighbor as exemplified in the teaching and work of John Wesley, that we are an institution that values the contributions and perspectives of all people, including and especially our students and faculty who come from outside the Methodist/Christian tradition. Therefore, we look forward to bringing our Methodist-influenced values to the table in the discussions about the future of our denomination. Ohio Northern University looks forward to working alongside those who came alongside us when we needed it the most, and we look forward to being able to work with those who seek a more just, inclusive, and forward-looking Methodism.

Dr. Daniel A. DiBiasio,
President, Ohio Northern University

OHIO WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY

There are times when radically divergent directions merge into a mighty moment of wisdom. So it was on that Sunday, November 24, 1765, at the Chapel in West-Street, Seven Dials (so named because it is a road junction in the neighborhood Covent Garden in the London Borough of Camden, West End of London where seven very divergent streets converge). The Rev. John Wesley preached a sermon there that morning. His title was "The Lord Our Righteousness." His message could well be summed up in the most famous sentence to emerge from that sermon: "If there [is] a difference of opinion, where is our religion, if we cannot think and let think?"

Today, that is the point of convergence at which we at Ohio Wesleyan University find ourselves, as we seek to remain faithful to our hope and heritage within the Methodist traditions.

In 1842, Ohio Wesleyan University was legally chartered as "a university to be established on the most liberal of principles, to provide the highest quality of scholarship and leadership for the enrichment of all faiths and society in general." We remain solidly so to this day.

We also remain, since 1842, an integral part of the educational network of The United Methodist Church, which has more formal educational institutions than any other Protestant denomination in the world: 119 schools, colleges and universities in the United States, including 13 schools of theology, and more than 700 institutions globally. As a part of this connectional system, we faithfully practice the core principles of Methodist-related higher education as officially delineated by the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry:

- OWU emphasizes learning that incorporates a concern for the world community and a rigorous examination of the beliefs and values that students use to interpret their lives.
- OWU respects and honors the religious practice of our students, faculty, and staff. All are free to share (or not to share) how their religious beliefs and experiences relate to their lives.
- OWU encourages people to explore the place of religion in society and the contributions of religion to public life.
- OWU supports the faith development of students, faculty, and staff who choose to worship or pray in the Christian tradition on campus, while not excluding other religious traditions or those who do not identify with a particular religious tradition.

- OWU seeks to create a community that is just and embodies the Social Principles of the United Methodist Church, even as some of these concerns are being debated and challenged across our wider connexional system this year.

In the midst of our many challenges, both secular and sacred, we at Ohio Wesleyan continue to heed our historic call to sacred service “to provide the highest quality of scholarship and leadership for the enrichment of all faiths and society in general.” We invite you to come visit us to see the many ways in which this sacred mission is vibrantly alive at Ohio Wesleyan University.

The Reverend Dr. Rock Jones, President, Ohio Wesleyan University
The Reverend Jon Powers, Chaplain, Ohio Wesleyan University

OTTERBEIN UNIVERSITY

In 1847 when Revs. William Hanby and Lewis Davis founded Otterbein University, they did so with an explicitly inclusive educational mission. This commitment to diversity, including people of color, those in lower socio-economic groups, people of differing religious traditions, LBGTQIAP+ students, faculty, and staff, those who identify across the spectrum of gender identity, and those who are disabled, has made Otterbein take a serious look at our affiliation with the United Methodist Church. We are rightly proud of our heritage, and this year has been marked with many concerned conversations across campus about institutional church language that is more about exclusion than loving welcome. When discussing our identity as a Christian-affiliated institution, our new president, John Comerford, has repeatedly stated that he would like to continue to be a university grounded in progressive, inclusive and loving faith, in order to demonstrate a different and more inclusive way to model the Christian tradition.

In a 2007 study by Barna, 16 to 29 year olds were asked to choose words to describe Christianity. Some of these words were positive (like “offers hope”) and some were negative (like “judgmental”). Out of all of the words available, the most frequently chosen word was “antihomosexual.” This was chosen by 91% of the non-Christians and by 80% of those young adults who identified themselves as churchgoers. Although this data is more than a decade old, there is little in our current culture to suggest that this has changed significantly and indeed, ample evidence to suggest that this kind of judgement and exclusion are on the rise.

Otterbein University released a statement following its 2019 Board of Trustees meeting that states our decision to publicly dissent from the Traditional Plan approved at the special General Conference Session in 2019. We see this plan as antithetical to the call of Christ to love and serve one another. Therefore, this annual report includes the following affirmations:

- Otterbein continues to affirm the sacred worth of all of our students, faculty, and staff, particularly those who have been hurt by the church.
- Otterbein provides both liberal arts and professional education that emphasizes the concept of the public good, and a deep concern for our global community. We encourage our students, faculty and staff to make meaning from their experiences, beliefs and values and are committed to finding ways for us to do that together with mutual respect.
- Otterbein continues to affirm and honor the many religious traditions represented by our students, faculty and staff. We value what we can learn from one another and affirm that sharing our beliefs can break down barriers and challenge stereotypes.
- Although Otterbein has made a commitment to dissent from the current UMC language, we are also hopeful that there will be new movements informed by expansive theological scholarship and a commitment to historic Wesleyan values that respect diversity and stand with those who have been placed in the margins. We believe that this is where Christ is found.

Rev. Dr. Judy Guion-Utsler, Otterbein University Chaplain

SCHOOLS OF THEOLOGY

AFRICA UNIVERSITY

Africa University thrives in ministry because of the steadfast support of the local congregations of The United Methodist Church. Thank you to the members of the West Ohio Conference for prioritizing Africa University and its ministry with an investment of 100 percent of the asking to the Africa University Fund (AUF) apportionment in 2018.

In giving so generously to the Africa University Fund, the West Ohio Conference continues to affirm the university's core mission of nurturing leaders who help communities to know and grow in relationship with Jesus Christ, and to experience peace, sustainable livelihoods, food security and abundant health.

Institutional Update:

- In 2018, Africa University enrolled more than 700 new students and maintained an overall enrollment of around 2,000 students. There were 25 African countries represented in the student body. The university's intentional recruitment and retention efforts resulted in women making up 53 percent of the student population, which is almost twice the average for African higher education institutions. Africa University's women graduates are emerging as the change leaders of their generation, whether empowering victims of gender-based violence in the Democratic Republic of Congo or working alongside rural women to establish and operate community-based telecommunications infrastructure and provide internet connectivity to underserved communities across Africa.
- Throughout 2018, Africa University weathered the challenges of Zimbabwe's depressed and uncertain socio-economic environment with creativity and prudence. The university delivered teaching, learning and community service activities of high-quality without interruption, while also renewing and expanding its infrastructure. Key enhancements in 2018 included the refurbishment of three residence halls for women students and the full implementation of an ERP software system to integrate and manage all facets of the university's operations.
- For the first time in five years, there is new construction on the Africa University campus thanks to a 25th anniversary gift from Highland Park United Methodist Church in Dallas, TX. In December 2018, work began on the foundation for a new residence hall. The university subsequently broke ground for the construction of phase two of its Student Union and Cafeteria building. Both projects are progressing well and are expected to be fully in use by August 2020.
- With conflict, poverty, and the impact of climate change persisting as the key drivers of food insecurity and the rise in internal displacement, migration, and refugeehood in Africa, the university consolidated its position as a trailblazer by offering new graduate training and research opportunities. Africa University has also continued to provide scholarships for refugee women so that their experiences, talents, and ideas are integrated into the search for lasting solutions.
- Africa University delivered critical data for reducing malaria deaths in southern Africa and controlling the spread of insect-borne diseases world-wide. AU's insectary—a laboratory for rearing and studying live insects, such as mosquitos—shares its findings through the Southern Africa Centers of Excellence for Malaria Research. This data informs regional policies, practices and malaria control efforts.

The students, faculty, administrators, trustees and graduates of Africa University thank the members of the West Ohio Conference for their prayers and support, which continue to grow and sustain its ministry. Thank you, West Ohio United Methodists, for all that you have invested in mission and ministry through Africa University over the past 27 years. Our shared story is one of transformation, hope, and realized dreams. As Africa University and the West Ohio Conference move forward together in missional engagement, we trust in God's unending grace for the increase.

CANDLER SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

For more than 100 years, Candler School of Theology at Emory University has prepared real people to make a real difference in the real world. Since our founding in 1914, more than 10,000 students have graduated from Candler, where they have been shaped as thoughtful, principled, and courageous leaders dedicated to transforming the world in the name of Jesus Christ.

This is especially important to note amid the current uncertainty in our denomination. It is an honor and a privilege for Candler to be one of 13 official seminaries of The United Methodist Church. Yet true to the Methodist tradition of ecumenical openness, Candler has enthusiastically welcomed the entire Wesleyan family to our community for generations. Faculty, staff, and students from the AME Church, the AMEZ Church, the CME Church, Free Methodists, Nazarenes, and others have worked, worshiped, learned, and prayed alongside United Methodists, and have been a vital part of shaping Candler and our mission. This diversity has been a wonderful gift and a rich blessing. As we move forward from the Special Session of General Conference, we will continue to invite and welcome wholeheartedly those from all expressions of the Wesleyan tradition. Indeed, we will continue to welcome all those who follow Jesus Christ.

Candler is also privileged to be one of seven graduate professional schools of Emory University in Atlanta. With the resources of a top-tier research institution and the reach of a global city, our students benefit from a rich academic and hands-on learning environment: The General Board of Global Ministries is in Atlanta, as are numerous public health, international development, and social service organizations. Candler's intentional involvement with our surrounding community has contributed to our inclusion on a list of "Seminaries that Change the World" for six years running. In short, there is no better place to prepare for ministry that engages our major denominational priorities: developing leaders, starting and growing churches, ministry with the poor, and improving global health.

In order to keep pace with the needs of the church and the world, Candler offers 16 degrees: six single degrees and ten dual degrees pairing theology with bioethics, business, international development, law, public health, and social work. Our Doctor of Ministry degree is 90 percent online, so students can remain in their places of ministry and immediately apply to their context what they learn in class. Our Teaching Parish program allows eligible United Methodist students to serve as pastors in local churches while they're enrolled—they earn a salary as they earn course credit and pastoral experience, plus they are mentored by an experienced United Methodist elder.

Candler's student body continues to reflect the diversity and breadth of the Christian faithful, with an enrollment of 453, reflecting 51 percent women, 39 percent people of color (U.S.), and a median age of 27 among MDivs. Students represent 44 denominations, with half coming from the Methodist family.

Candler has a deep commitment to alleviating student debt and promoting financial literacy. In 2018-2019, we awarded $5.8 million in Candler scholarships, with 100 percent of MDiv students receiving aid. Plus, our comprehensive "Faith & Finance" program teaches money management skills that serve our students now and will continue to serve them—and the churches they lead—well into the future.

Candler draws considerable strength and inspiration from its relationship with The United Methodist Church. Our ability to fulfill our mission of educating faithful and creative leaders for the church's ministries throughout the world depends upon your prayers, partnership, and support. Thank you for the countless ways you advance this vital ministry in the life of our denomination. ## METHODIST THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL IN OHIO

Thank you for this opportunity to bring news from MTSO to our friends in the West Ohio Conference.

Full-tuition pledge extended to those pursuing United Methodist candidacy

MTSO has announced a groundbreaking full-tuition pledge to every prospective student who is pursuing United Methodist candidacy as an elder or deacon. The school's financial-aid experts will assist the prospective student in locating and applying for scholarships from numerous sources. If scholarships from those sources don't cover the full tuition, MTSO and its donors will make up the difference, leaving the student with no out-of-pocket tuition expense. This pledge is extended to qualified prospective students who apply by July 1 for the 2019-20 academic year. The MTSO admissions staff is happy to answer questions at 800-333-6876 or admissions@mtso.edu.

Master of Arts in Social Justice program launched

In August of 2019, MTSO will welcome the first students pursuing the school's new Master of Arts in Social Justice degree. This 39-hour, two-year professional master's degree takes full advantage of MTSO's unique ethos. The MASJ offers an interdisciplinary core curriculum combining ethics, theology, public leadership, sacred texts and spirituality. Students also will choose from among social justice-oriented elective courses to sharpen their focus in areas of interest such as race, immigration, human sexuality, climate, disability and labor exploitation. MASJ core classes include on-campus and online learning. All on-campus core classes will meet on Monday and Wednesday evenings. Coursework includes a cross-cultural immersion trip and a customizable 280-hour internship.

Ohio Northern and MTSO announce 3+3 M.Div. program

Ohio Northern University and MTSO have teamed up to offer incoming college students a unique 3+3 program leading to a Master of Divinity degree. The program is the only one of its kind in Ohio and one of only a few in the country. The typical path to an M.Div. requires seven years of undergrad and graduate study. Through the 3+3 program, students will save time and money by completing the degree in six years. Starting the program at ONU in Ada, they may choose one of three majors: religion, youth ministry, or religion and ecology. The next step is three years of study at MTSO. After their first year at MTSO, 3+3 students will complete a Bachelor of Arts degree from ONU. After completion of seminary coursework, they will earn an MTSO M.Div.

Respectfully submitted,
Danny Russell, director of communications

HOSPITALS AND HOMES LIFE ENRICHING COMMUNITIES (LEC)

The highlight of 2018 was completion of Phase 1 of the Twin Lakes Expansion project that started in 2016. We were honored to have Bishop Gregory V. Palmer consecrate the new additions including 45 new independent living apartments, The Shirley M. Davies Community Center, the Courtyard and the Copperlight Café. Twelve of the 22 new villa homes were completed and occupied by the end of 2018.

We strengthened the leadership of Twin Towers with the addition of Vicki Hickman as the Executive Director. Vicki, a Registered Nurse and Licensed Nursing Home Administrator, has previously served as the Director of Clinical Strategic Initiatives for Life Enriching Communities. The Artists-in-Residence program, a partnership between Twin Towers and the University of Cincinnati College-Conservatory of Music, graduated its first two students.

Through an extensive strategic planning process, LEC adopted three organizational objectives as a focus for success into the future – Increasing Associate Retention, Establishing Sustainable Access to Sources of Health Care Talent, and Achieving Balanced Mission Support.

Our organization's fiscal strength was acknowledged with an investment grade credit rating for the sixteenth consecutive year as Fitch Ratings affirmed its 'BBB-' (stable outlook).

The LEC Foundation secured over $2,303,000 in contributions, which included $1,854,000 to support benevolent care, $93,000 for capital improvements and $92,000 for pastoral care.

The total expenditures for Life Enriching Communities (including Twin Towers and Twin Lakes) in Fiscal Year 2018 were $58,822,000 – 2.8% under budget. 86% of all expenses were related to programs and ministry while 13% represented administrative costs and 1% was spent for fund-raising.

Even with the addition of 57 independent living accommodations, Twin Lakes maintained a 92% occupancy rate for 2018 while Twin Towers' occupancy was a steady 85%. Twin Lakes currently has a 5 star rating from the Centers for Medicare/Medicaid Services for service and care provided to residents in long term care and short term rehabilitation while Twin Towers' rating is a 3 (star). Confident Living, our Continuing Care at Home program, added 18 new members in 2018.

Looking forward to 2019, LEC has identified the following five Strategic Initiatives: 1) Completion of the remaining 10 villas and beginning the Phase 2 Expansion at Twin Lakes which will add 16 Memory Support Assisted Living accommodations to the campus; 2) Repositioning Twin Towers for greater success; 3) Increasing membership in Confident Living; 4) Exploring affiliations and partnership opportunities that will complement the LEC family of services, and 5) Evaluating the viability of establishing a non-medical home care program.

We are thankful for the ongoing support of the West Ohio Conference of the United Methodist Church.

OHIOHEALTH

Overview

As an extension ministry of the West Ohio Conference, OhioHealth includes 12 member hospitals, agreements with five additional hospitals throughout Ohio, and more than 60 outpatient locations including health and surgery centers, home health services, hospice, long-term care facilities and occupational health services.

In 2018, we were privileged to touch more than three million lives across the OhioHealth system, with three million outpatient visits, 169,951 admissions and observations, 108,166 surgical procedures and 510,196 emergency department visits.

Our ability to deliver the best possible healthcare is strengthened by the efficiencies and effectiveness inherent in a system approach. That is why we remain focused on connecting care across our many hospitals and locations to further extend the healthcare ministry of the West Ohio Conference.

Across our system, we see the ways healthcare is changing at the national and local levels. Regardless of changes in government funding, we believe that a realistic and sustainable healthcare delivery system reform must be led by those who provide healthcare and must involve payors and consumers with a focus that includes prevention and wellness.

OhioHealth is well positioned to lead these changes by focusing on achieving consistent quality/safety, delivering a compassionate patient experience, increasing accessibility and reducing our costs. We believe in providing care that touches body, mind and spirit and in this way we remain dedicated to our faith-based mission to improve the health of those we serve.

Community Benefit

In 2018, OhioHealth provided Community Benefit totaling $393.7 million. This figure includes $90 million in charity care and $240.4 million in unreimbursed Medicaid costs. System-wide, OhioHealth trained 385 residents and fellows, the next leaders and healthcare providers of our community. This is just one example of our continuous commitment to ensuring the future of our healthcare ministry and to improving the quality of care we provide.

Preserving Our Charitable Mission

Every dollar OhioHealth earns is reinvested in our communities to improve quality, increase access and enhance service for our patients and their families. In addition to the charity care we provide each year, we also subsidize essential community health services, including many local partnerships that make services available to community friends in need.

- OhioHealth launched a system-wide program aimed at reducing suicides. OhioHealth began screening every patient who walks into a primary care office for depression. Using a simple nine-question tool that helps flag signs of depression, a behavioral health specialist sits with the patient and "interviews" them before the patient's appointment. All of the services are free of charge thanks to a five-year, $15 million commitment OhioHealth made in order to fulfill our mission to the communities we serve.
- OhioHealth and ChenMed announced plans to open three, new, geriatric-based primary care practices in underserved neighborhoods near north Columbus, the far east side and in the Hilltop/west side area. These senior medical centers will improve the lives of moderate-to-low income seniors, particularly those with Medicare Advantage or combined Medicare/Medicaid health insurance coverage.

Focus on Quality and Service

OhioHealth's system-wide commitment to quality care and service was publicly acknowledged with a number of major awards this past year, including the following:

- Named one of the country's "100 Best Companies to Work For" by FORTUNE Magazine for the thirteenth consecutive year.
- IBM Watson named OhioHealth Riverside Methodist Hospital to the 50 Top Cardiovascular Hospitals list.
- OhioHealth O'Bleness Hospital became a certified member of the MD Anderson Cancer Network®. As a new member of the MD Anderson Cancer Network, O'Bleness Hospital is now part of a best practices and quality improvement program. The program offers certified OhioHealth hospitals and their associated cancer specialists access to MD Anderson guidelines for treatment planning and improving the quality of cancer care.

Faith Community Relations

OhioHealth continues the holistic healthcare ministry of the United Methodist Church, begun by John Wesley himself in the early days of the Methodist movement in England. Rev. Kristin Langstraat, a clergy member of the West Ohio Conference, leads our Faith Community Relations and offers a comprehensive resource program for local congregations as they live out their own call to Health Ministry. The available curriculum modules, supported by OhioHealth staff as well as local content experts, include:

- Theological Underpinnings of Health Ministry
- Nuts & Bolts of setting up a Congregational Health Ministry
- Nutrition for Holistic Health
- Movement as Stewardship of Our Bodies
- Congregational Education Resources
- Caring for People Before, During, and After Hospitalization
- Advocacy & Navigation within a Complex Healthcare System
- Medical Decision Making & End of Life

Rev. Langstraat may be contacted at Kristin.Langstraat@ohiohealth.com, or 614-544-4012

Physicians Supporting Our Mission

OhioHealth's more than 3,700 physician partners support our healthcare ministry by providing life-saving care to our patients and raise the bar on quality standards, to save even more lives. Here are a few examples:

- Sepsis: Saved 352 lives as a result of work since July 2015
- Falls: Avoided 527 falls as a result of work since July 2016
- Emergency Department: Provided care to 8,342 patients since July 2016 who would have left without being seen.
- Cost of Care: Discharged 597 more patients to home since July 2016.

Our physician partners help drive innovation and excellence in the care we deliver by identifying key opportunities to improve quality and reduce costs for our patients.

Growing with Our Communities

Because we believe that every patient, no matter who they are or where they are, deserves the very best care, we are extending our reach in communities that need greater access to specialized healthcare services. In 2018, OhioHealth:

- Announced a five-year management agreement with Southeastern Ohio Regional Medical Center (SEORMC). This agreement ensures that SEORMC will continue to keep more care local, both now and in the future.
- Opened OhioHealth Grove City Methodist Hospital. Located off of Stringtown Road, Grove City Methodist offers an improved patient experience, delivering the highest quality emergency and inpatient surgical care from experienced providers, right in the Grove City community.
- Broke ground on the OhioHealth Neuroscience Wellness Center. This 28,500 square-foot center will be the first freestanding, neuroscience wellness center in the country, and serve as a central location for patients with neurological conditions.
- Opened a 34-bed expansion for patient care at OhioHealth Grant Medical Center. The expansion creates operational efficiency, increases private rooms and brings the total number of in-use patient beds at Grant from 415 to 449 (363 private and 86 semi-private).
- OhioHealth Marion General Hospital received approval for $46 million for a four-year master facilities project featuring a new three-story addition to the hospital that will significantly increase the number of private rooms available for patients. This is a great example of OhioHealth's continued investment in the Marion community.
- Transformed a former Walgreens building into the OhioHealth Marion Urgent Care clinic. The new urgent care clinic will provide community members with access to medical care when primary care providers are unavailable and offer a low cost alternative to an emergency department visit for less emergent cases.

OhioHealth Foundation, Grateful Hearts Changing Lives

Funds raised by the OhioHealth Foundation put OhioHealth values into action. We focus fundraising in four key areas to make meaningful and long-lasting improvements in the healthcare we provide in the communities we serve throughout Ohio:

- Innovation and technology
- Research and education
- Community outreach
- Infrastructure and facilities

Since July 2017, more than $24 million was raised. Notable enhancements for our patients included:

- Funding of a first-of-its-kind OhioHealth Neuroscience Wellness Center
- Transformation of a heart and vascular waiting area into an interactive education experience for both patients and their families
- $300,000 in nurse scholarships to continue their education
- Combating the opioid epidemic in our communities and training our physicians on the proper usage of opiate medications

UMCH FAMILY SERVICES

As Executive Director of UMCH Family Services (formerly, The United Methodist Children's Home), a Ministry of The West Ohio Conference of The United Methodist Church, I, Sean Reilly, respectfully submit this report for the calendar year 2018.

Mission:

The Mission of the United Methodist Children's Home is to strengthen our community by providing care, nurture and treatment to strengthen hurting children and families.

Accomplishments for 2018:

If we summed up the whole of 2018, the overarching theme would be that UMCH Family Services has been and is continuing to pursue excellence. From our programs, to our office operations, to our partnerships, to our certifications and trainings, to our staff wellbeing. Across every agency touchpoint, we are striving for continual improvement. It's the thread that runs throughout. Beyond constant introspection, toward this goal, as an agency we have committed to working with five external professional resources that assess us and provide feedback to help us continue to pursue excellence. These include:

- A Specialist from the national Trauma-Focused Cognitive Behavioral Therapy (TF-CBT) therapist certification organization to consult on our TF-CBT program
- Case Western Reserve University to consult on our Intensive Home Based Therapy (IHBT) program
- Mental Health America (MHA) for in-depth staff wellness and satisfaction assessments
- ChildTrauma Academy for our NMT Trauma Informed Care protocols
- Council on Accreditation for overall agency accreditation – our agency received an expedited certification for having no finding in our survey.

As we continue to expand our work with most vulnerable of children - who often are in the most tenuous situations - the feedback we receive and take to heart along with our strong outcomes means those we serve are getting the help they need toward healthier, more promising futures.

Our mission continues to be in keeping families together, starting new families and returning children safely to their families or relatives. Our ongoing pursuit of excellence will help the children and families we serve and thereby positively impact the communities we all share.

Here are a few additional highlights from 2018:

- We served 1,273 children in 2018.
- We are operating 6 locations, including our most recent, which is an expansion of Treatment Foster Care and 18-21 – year – old services into Middletown, serving the children and families of southwest Ohio.
- We are evolving and growing our ability to serve 18 to 21 year olds aging out of foster care. With increased enrollment in the program, we work with these young adults to create pathways for them to achieve their long and short-term goals so that their stability exceeds what has been historically dismal for former foster youth.
- We have preserved 82% of families through our IHBT program.
- We returned 82% of children back to home, kin or adoption.

UMCH in 2018:

The following provides a brief snapshot of 2018 and the services provided by UMCH Family Services. We provided services and support to over 1250 of Ohio's at-risk children and families through one or more programs in 2018.

- Our 2018 financial statements show revenue of $5,504,942 with expenses of $5,490,865, (not including loss from investments).
- Over 89% of our expenses were for direct programs to children

Our financial position continues to be strong. With the support of our generous donors and others, we expect increased revenues of $6,083,679 with a surplus of $84,239.

Foster Care Services.

The Foster Care program provided care and treatment to over 154 children in 2018. We continue to be successful in expanding our recruiting for the program in an effort to provide more foster families across the conference and the state. In 2018 we added 12 new homes.

Outpatient Services

During 2018, UMCH Family Services provided outpatient mental health treatment and counseling services to over 1250 children and families. School and agency staff are trained together to better offer services to the children and families we serve. We continue to offer psychiatric services through the internet to children in the Dayton area, thus eliminating a six month wait for some families due to the shortage of services available.

In 2019 we hope to:

- Preserve 80% or more of the families who so desperately need our help
- Return more than 80% of our foster children to home, kin or adoption
- Expand our Foster Care program to more counties in the Conference

In 2018, as always, the churches of the West Ohio Conference have helped us reach more children and families than ever before. With God's help we will continue to provide homes through our foster care program, find homes through our adoption programs and preserve and strengthen homes through our many mental health services.

I continue to be grateful to our wonderful staff, trustees, donors, churches, friends and families who make this ministry of caring for children possible.

Sincerely,
Sean Reilly
Executive Director

PREACHERS' RELIEF SOCIETY

All active clergy members in the West Ohio Conference licensed by the West Ohio Conference and in good standing are eligible for membership in the Preachers' Relief Society (PRS).

Recognized as an affiliated Member Organization of the Conference, PRS was first organized in 1837 by clergy to help minister to clergy members and their families with unforeseen catastrophic expenses from health, death, fire, flood, or other circumstances beyond their financial control. This forerunner of our denominational pension and health care network continues to fill a widening gap in medical coverage for dental work and other out of pocket expenses along with other needs mentioned above.

To join PRS, it costs $25.00 the first year with annual dues of $25.00 given every spring. Membership is not available to retired pastors, who were not members at the time they retired or those over the age of 72. Retiree Society members and deceased member's spouses pay no dues for continued membership.

Churches wishing to honor their pastor can sponsor them into membership. For more information or answers to questions contact Membership Secretary, Rev. Sharon Hausman 9822 Bradysville Road, Aberdeen, Ohio 45101 or by phone 740-621-0973 or by Email at pastor.sharon62@gmail.com.

Grants are available through Treasurer, Rev. Mark Weatherman, for members and their families who are members of PRS.

Consideration is given according to the amount of need presented on grant application blanks.

In 2018 PRS issued 22 grants to members defraying needs of $42,985.

Our goal as PRS is to be available to help all clergy who are willing to join this long-standing organization.

Current PRS membership is 350+ clergy and spouses of deceased clergy members.

Rev. Angie Sherer, Chairperson of PRS Board of Directors

PAUMCS

(PROFESSIONAL ADMINISTRATORS OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH STRUCTURE)

Ohio Chapter of PAUMCS

2018 Goals: To hold two special events for church administrators for the purpose of continuing education, professional development and spiritual enrichment. To hold our Annual Business meeting.

The purpose of the Ohio Chapter of the Professional Administrators of the United Methodist Connectional Structure is to provide a supportive base for the unity and fellowship of its members, to provide individual growth, professional development, continuing education and spiritual enrichment.

The Ohio Chapter of PAUMCS held its annual membership drive in January & February of 2018. We had 35 church administrators sign up for membership.

We held two successful events for church administrators in 2018. Our Spring Workshop was held on April 17 at Reynoldsburg UMC. Our speakers were Steve Schemine, Deputy Chief of Police at Columbus State Community College who spoke on "Creating Safety & Security in Your Church". Our second speaker that day was Carol Holliger, Archivist, of West Ohio Archives who spoke on "Preserving our History". Both speakers did an amazing job and our participants were very satisfied with the information they received. The day also included a lunch and Learning about Missions at Reynoldsburg UMC.

Our fall meeting was held on September 25 at Ginghamburg UMC in Tipp City, Ohio. Twenty people were in attendance. Our guest speakers were Kitty Kincaid, Executive Director of New Creation Counseling Center who spoke on Finding Balance in Service. Our next speaker was Mike Martin, Pastor of Care & Next Step Recovery Ministries who spoke on Challenges of the Church and Community. Our final guest was Ron Will, Executive Director of Joshua Recovery Ministries. All participants were very pleased with the topics of the day. Also, our annual business meeting was held during this event. Election of 2019 officers was held and 2019 budget was approved.

Total Expenditures for 2018:	$1579.00
Programs-	$1180.00
Missions-	$399.00

Goals and Expectation for 2019:

Our goal for 2019 is to provide at least one workshop and one conference with relevant speakers for learning, earning CEUs, for fellowship, support and networking with other church administrators who work in the ministry of Administration. In the West Ohio Conference.

Our hopes are to reach as many church administrators in the conference as possible and to grow our organization.

In Christ's service,
Lisa Gleason, President
Ohio Chapter of PAUMCS

UNITED METHODIST FINANCIAL CREDIT UNION

WE ARE MORE THAN JUST ANOTHER FINANCIAL INSTITUTION!

Since 1939 we have been helping our members to become better financial stewards. When you use the credit union as your primary financial institution, you not only have the potential to earn above market dividend rates and obtain lower cost loans, you are also providing us with the funds to make affordable loans to other United Methodists and affiliates. We also finance the expansion of ministry opportunities such as local church construction and building projects, repair and maintenance projects, and other missions that allow our local churches to better share the good news of Jesus Christ in their community and around the world.

Over the years our credit union has grown into a full service financial institution offering a diverse menu of financial products and electronic delivery systems tailored to meet the needs and expectations of our membership. We provide banking and financial services to clergy, local churches, members and employees of the local churches, conference staff and affiliated organizations of the East and West Ohio Conferences of the United Methodist Church.

We invite you to become part of our credit union family! It is our prayer that you too may move to better financial stewardship as you enjoy the many advantages of credit union membership. Once you become a member, you can maintain your membership for life, even if your circumstances change. Your immediate family members, such as your spouse, children, siblings and parents are also eligible to apply for membership.

Becoming a member is so easy! Simply give us a call or stop by one of our branch locations and we take care of the rest!
