IV DAILY PROCEEDINGS

Memorial Service

April 24, 2022, 4:00 p.m.

Live Stream Service from Grace Church, Dayton

The service began with welcoming words from Rev. Justin Williams, Chairperson of the Annual Conference Worship team followed by a piano prelude provided by Mr. Joe Severyn based upon the hymn “Come Ye Sinners, Poor and Needy.”

Bishop Palmer extended words of greeting to the congregation, particularly the families attending the service at Grace Church and via the livestream. Rev. Don Wilson of Grace Church led a Call to Worship followed by the hymn “Love Divine, All Loves Excelling” led by vocalists Lois and Larry Ramey. After an opening prayer offered by Rev. Donnetta Peaks, Ms. Hope Grandy read our theme scripture, 1 John 3:1-3.

Bishop Palmer delivered a powerful sermon on our unchanging relationship with God – in our mortal lives and in death. As the theme scripture states, “See what love God has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. “Bishop Palmer contrasted the “first death” of baptism vs. the “second death” of our physical bodies. The first death is celebrated as rising from death to new life in Christ to be lived in a different way. The second death does not elicit the same celebration due the finality of saying goodbye to those we have shared our lives with. But we are assured that our relationship status with God is unchanged. In life and in death we are children of God. We have experienced an end to the way things have been, but the story is not finished. Our celebration of Easter is the rehearsal of our belief that our story is not finished. Easter is the decisive intervention into the status quo that shows us that this is NOT the way that things will stay. We should claim for our loved ones and ourselves that our relationship status has not changed in life or in death – we are God’s children.

Worship continued with a musical presentation of “Where He Leads Me/He Leadeth Me” from violinist Ms. Lois Ramey accompanied on piano by Mr. Joe Severyn.

Rev. Amy Haines, District Superintendent of the Northwest Plains District, and Ms. Chris Clough, Annual Conference Secretary, read the Roll Call of the Victorious. Clergy, spouses, children, and laity were remembered by name. Bishop Palmer offered a prayer for the saints and led the congregation in praying the Lord’s Prayer. A musical offering on violin and piano of the hymn “The King of Love My Shepherd Is” was presented by Ms. Lois Ramey and Mr. Joe Severyn. Bishop Palmer led us in a time of remembrance for those lost to the COVID-19 global pandemic and in the war playing out in Ukraine. A time of silence for the dead and grieving was observed.

Our worship service closed with the poem “Therefore I Will Hope” read by Susan Bennet and singing “The Hymn of Promise” by the congregation. Bishop Palmer offered the Benediction followed by a sung response of “Take, O Take Me as I Am” by the congregation. Joe Severyn, pianist for Grace Church played a postlude based upon the hymn “I’ll Fly Away.”

Clergy Session

May 10, 2022, 9:00 a.m.

Zoom Webinar from Stonybrook Church, Gahanna

The Clergy Session opened with words of welcome from Bishop Gregory V. Palmer, who called the session to order.

Rev. Meshach Kanyion, Vice Chair of the Board of Ordained Ministry led the body, both in person and via the live stream, in a Call to Worship and an opening prayer.

Bishop Palmer introduced Rev. Dr. Suzanne Allen, Chair of the Board of Ordained Ministry, who will be the Clergy Session preacher and facilitator of the business agenda.

Rev. Dr. Suzanne Allen began the homily by reading the theme scripture for this year’s Annual Conference, 1 John 3:1-3, which helps to define the Annual Conference Theme of “Becoming.” Rev. Dr. Allen declared the great promise of this scripture, that we are God’s children, and how this seems much like the beginning of a motivational speech. However, a motivational speech feels out of place in our current reality - recovering from a pandemic and social unrest. The question of our time is more like – what shall become of us? Rev. Dr. Allen described the classic definition of “becoming” is “flattering to one’s appearance.” But the verb becoming is NOT becoming at all. Becoming is more like an in-between growing stage – full of awkwardness, disorientation, and generally not flattering. But we must enter the awkward stage to grow – to become what God would have us be.

The scripture tells us who we are – Children of God, and what we are intended to be; we will be like Christ. We are in between these two stages – we are Christians in the making, in the Becoming. The Becoming allow us to fulfill our mission – to become like Christ to transform the world.

There is beauty in the awkward, in the Becoming. We are putting our hope in God who will be with us in the in-between time. We can trust this truth to persevere in hope. For this Clergy Session, we should trust in God's love, in the people around us, and in the work and mission. And today, that work is the Clergy Session.

Rev. Dr. Allen gave special thanks to the members, committees and boards who have worked hard to prepare us for this day. Particular thanks were extended to Rev. Donetta Peaks and Ms. Susan Thomas of the Office of Ministry.

Bishop Palmer continued the opening of Clergy Session by singing a verse from the hymn, "Beloved, We Are the Children of God." He thanked Rev. Dr. Allen for her message which aligns us with our theme and sets the stage for our work together. Bishop Palmer asked us to proceed in our work by doing and saying things that build one another up.

BAC Preparations

Rev. Allen moved to set the bar as follows:

We move to allow clergy guests be admitted to the Clergy Session without voice or vote; that the Episcopal Office, Annual Conference Secretary, Office of Ministry Staff, Communications Dept., GNTV Staff and IT Staff be admitted to the Clergy Session to support the work of the Board of Ordained Ministry; to set the bar for all those permitted to participate; and to perfect the BAC.

The motion carried: 614-7

Bishop Palmer closed the clergy session with additional remarks. First, he thanked those who hosted at Stonybrook UMC, all staff and volunteers. Second, he reminded us that we are passing through a challenging season defined by anxiety, anticipation of change, and/or wonderment of the future. Moving forward, he shared that we are all United Methodists unless we indicate otherwise, and we are all called to be in mission. Third, he reminded us that we have never seen a storm that has not passed, and that in storms we are called to hold God's hand, to be firm as in Matthew 7:24-27. He cautioned us to refrain from anger as our bishop provides more clarity. Fourth, he reminded us that all our work during the clergy session was led by our Board and Office of Ministry and thanked them for their ministry. Finally, he reminded us that while we are all imperfect, we are invited to be perfected in love. He thanked us for the privilege to serve together, imperfect though we may be.

Bishop Palmer reminded us of the dates of Annual Conference as well as the commissioning and ordination service to be held at 4:00 p.m.

Commissioning and Ordination Worship Service

May 10, 2022, 4:00 p.m.

Live Stream Service from Stonybrook UMC, Gahanna

The Commissioning and Ordination service was live streamed from the sanctuary of Stonybrook UMC, beginning with an organ and piano duet of "Great is Thy Faithfulness." Rev. Justin Williams, Chair of the Annual Conference Worship Committee, offered words of welcome to the congregation, both to those in-person and watching via the livestream. He thanked Rev. David Hoffman and his team at Stonybrook UMC for hosting the ordination service. Rev. Williams introduced the 2022 Annual Conference Theme of "Becoming" and read the scripture 1 John 3:2.

Candidates for commissioning and ordination processed into the sanctuary to the hymn "Lift High the Cross." Ordination banners filled the front of the sanctuary. Rev. Donnetta Peaks, Director of the Office of Ministry, and Rev. Dr. Suzanne Allen, chair of the Board of Ministry, offered the Call to Worship and an introduction to the service. Bishop Palmer then reminded everyone present and online to remember their baptism.

Candidates were presented by clergy members of the Board of Ordained Ministry; the candidates were then examined by Rev. Dr. Suzanne Allen and Bishop Palmer.

Bishop Palmer introduced the Ecumenical Representative for the 2022 Commissioning and Ordination Service, the Right Reverend Marvin Frank Thomas. Bishop Thomas is the presiding Bishop of the 2nd Episcopal District of the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church (CME) with responsibility for Ohio, Kentucky, Pittsburgh, and Central Indiana. Following the introduction, Bishop Thomas shared the scripture reading for the service, Luke 4:14-22.

Bishop Palmer stated that the title of his message could be called "Preachers One and Preachers All." He began by reminding us that the Book of Discipline uses a lot of words and time describing the order of our church; a topic of interest for us today during the commissioning and ordination service. Some of the words describe the responsibilities of the order of Deacons and of Elders. There are two words that are shared between both orders – word and service. Today's message from the Bishop is related to the word – the proclamation of the gospel and the task, craft, and art of preaching. His message is Preach, Preach, Preach.

Bishop Palmer continued with instruction and guidance to become an effective preacher. A pastor must preach. Preaching frequently gives opportunities to dig into the scriptures and to receive feedback from the listeners. He cited a book by Richard Lischer, Tell the Truth: A Call to Faith, Hope and Courage. The introduction to the book of curated sermons describes a path for effective preaching, "for us telling the truth begins with an accurate and passionate account of what the book of Acts calls the facts about Jesus – who he is, what he did, what he demands, and what sort of people he demands us to be."

Preaching the gospel of Jesus is the starting point. The gospel is a message for everyone no matter our station in life. Preaching the gospel to the community will bring us into alignment with the gospel. This will in turn create a "preaching congregation" of people sent forward into the world proclaiming the gospel not only in words, but in deeds. Preaching the word should empower the community to be who Jesus needs us to be. Bishop Palmer ended his message with an impassioned plea to PREACH THE WORD!

Following Bishop Palmer's message, the ordination celebration song "Go!" was presented by a choral group. "Go!" Composed by Dr. Milton Ruffin this energetic and inspiring musical piece set the stage for the commissioning and ordination class of 2022.

Three deacons and five elders were commissioned. Three deacons and twelve elders were ordained. (Names listed on pages 197-199 in the BAC). Symbols of ministry - the Bible, Cup and Plate, Book of Discipline, and Bowl and Towel - were offered from four retiring clergy to four newly ordained clergy.

Bishop Thomas offered a charge to the newly commissioned and ordained class of clergy. He asked the class to revisit the occasion of the Great Commission (Matthew 28:16:20), but to think of it as the Post-Resurrection Reunion. The occasion presents the opportunity to come together in order to be sent away. Bishop Thomas issued the charge of "You take it from here," and offered up examples of what should be taken:

- The message which is "Go!"
- The mandate which is "Make Disciples."
- The method which is to "Teach and Baptize."
- The assurance that you are not alone and are accompanied by a Divine traveling partner.

Bishop Palmer invited those who felt the nudging of the Holy Spirit to enter an intentional time of prayer and discernment to hear where God is calling them to serve and offered a final prayer for the service. The closing congregational hymn was "Go Forth for God." Rev. Tesia Mallory and Rev. Hyo-Jin Kim offered the benediction, followed by the choral benediction response, "I Seek Protection Over You."

Commissioning and Ordination Service (Continuation)

Worthington UMC, Worthington

The special service of commissioning and ordination took place and was recorded from the sanctuary of Worthington UMC, beginning with a rousing arrangement of "His Eye Is on the Sparrow" offered by organist Collin Richardson. Rev. Justin Williams, Chair of the Annual Conference Worship Committee, offered words of welcome to those present. He thanked Rev. Lou Seipel and her team at Worthington UMC for hosting this special ordination service. Rev. Williams introduced the 2022 Annual Conference Theme of "Becoming" and read the scripture 1 John 3:2.

With the candidates for commissioning and ordination present the service began with the singing of the hymn "Lift High the Cross." Rev. Donnetta Peaks, Director of the Office of Ministry, and Rev. Dr. Suzanne Allen, chair of the Board of Ministry, offered the Call to Worship and an introduction to the service.

The candidates were presented by members of the Board of Ordained Ministry, and the candidates were then examined by Rev. Dr. Suzanne Allen and Bishop Palmer.

Following the presentation of the candidates, Rev. Linda Middelberg, Assistant to the Bishop, shared the scripture reading for the service, Ephesians 4:7-16.

Bishop Palmer began his message with words of thanks to Rev. Lou Seipel and her team at Worthington UMC. He expressed his appreciation for their ability and willingness to help provide a venue and atmosphere for the special commissioning and ordination service.

The Bishop's remarks were influenced by the Ephesian scripture which he described as the Apostle's listing of a patterning of ministry for the Christian church and the body of Christ. Not unlike other scriptures in the New Testament, there is a listing of roles and gifts which are given to God's people to accomplish God's purposes. Bishop Palmer asked the congregation to focus on the phrase from Ephesians 4:8, "He gave gifts . . ." Gifts are given to all the saints of the church. We are gifted to participate in the work of God and to pursue the purposes of God. And, because all of us are gifted, we work in collaboration with one another to achieve God's purposes.

Why are we given gifts? Ephesians 4:12 indicates that gifts are given to "equip the saints." For the newly commissioned and ordained clergy, Bishop Palmer suggests that their gifts should be used to equip the saints who they find in their ministries. As the saints are equipped to pursue the purposes of God, they will be equipped to contribute to restoration and healing in the world and to grow up to the full measure and stature of Jesus Christ.

Following Bishop Palmer's message, the commissioning and ordination of the candidates began. Throughout the commissioning and ordination, Rev. Williams sang selections from "Yet Not I" and "Moving Forward" as he accompanied himself on piano. Kristen Lawson was commissioned as a Provisional Elder. Joy Bronson was ordained as a Deacon. (This information can be found on pages 197-199 in the BAC). Bishop Palmer offered a prayer of Thanksgiving for the newly commissioned Provisional Elder and ordained Deacon.

Rev. Williams led the congregation in the closing hymn, "Crown Him with Many Crowns." Following the hymn, Rev. Lawson and Rev. Bronson shared a joint benediction with the congregation. Rev. Williams sang "Take O Take Me as I Am" for the choral benediction response.

The service closed with an exciting and passionate organ postlude played by organist Collin Richardson.

Retirement Worship Service

May 15, 2022, 4:00 p.m.

Live Stream Service from Grace UMC, Zanesville

Rev. Justin Williams opened the service with words of welcome. He thanked Rev. Karen Montgomery and her team at Grace UMC for hosting the retirement service. Rev. Williams announced that special music would be provided by the Community UMC Handbell choir made up of the handbell choirs from Grace, Central Trinity, and Coburn UMCs. After the opening remarks, the Introit, "Joyous Jubilee" by Brian J. Heinlein, was offered by the combined handbell choirs. Rev. Gregory Inboden led the congregation in the Call to Worship, followed by the opening congregational hymn, "O For a Thousand Tongues to Sing." The opening prayer was offered by Rev. Jane Karl.

Bishop Palmer welcomed all present to the worship service, pointing out that there are 54 clergy entering into the retired relationship (names listed on pages 205-207 of the BAC), and those clergy have 1,549 years of aggregate service in the United Methodist Church. Bishop Palmer then introduced and welcomed the speakers for the service, Dr. Rev. Joycelyn Roper and Rev. Cyndy Garn who were asked to provide remarks about a particular scripture that has been meaningful to them throughout their ministries.

The congregation was led in singing a verse of the hymn, 'O How I Love Jesus.'

Rev. Jocelyn Roper shared that scriptures of meaning that have sustained her in her ministry are Luke 4:18-19 and 1 John 3:1. Rev. Roper made an enthusiastic and compelling case for her calling "to proclaim release to the captives, recovery of sight to the blind, and freedom to the oppressed." And this life-call is sustained by knowing that she is unequivocally a child of God. She shared that for her, the Bible is not just a book, but an experience to be encountered. Her call "to proclaim release to the captives, recovery of sight to the blind, and freedom to the oppressed" has guided her throughout her life, whether raising her children, ministering to the community, or engaged in the work of a district superintendent. She finds personal liberation and freedom from captivity, because of her strong belief in being a beloved child of God. This freedom has allowed her to be an example to others – to show those who have been made captive by systems in our society that freedom and liberation are possible.

She states that in retirement her call will not change, and she will stand on her belief that she is a beloved child of God to sustain her. She challenges her retiring colleagues to do the same with her emphatic claim that "I am a child of God."

The chorus of "O How I Love Jesus" was sung by the congregation.

Rev. Cyndy Garn shared that the scripture that sustains her is one that she does not believe she has ever preached a sermon on, but that it is probably a scripture that has appeared in every sermon that she has preached. “We love, because God first loved us” is found in 1 John, chapter 4, verse 1. It seems a simple verse when we hear it, but not simple to live into. She asked her retiring colleagues to think about their lives and ministries, and when the deep realization came to them that they were accepted, forgiven, and loved by God no matter what. This realization of God’s unconditional love is what prods the desire to share the love they have come to know from God.

Rev. Garn went on to describe many scenes from the life of a pastor loving others, because she was first loved by God. She described happy and joyful scenes such as the baptism of a baby and the witness of a teenage confirmand in which God’s love is present. But there are also scenes of grieving with a family on the death of a loved one and sharing the despair of a vulnerable sister or brother in which God’s love is as equally present as in moments of joy. “We love, because God first loved us,” is present in the many scenes of a pastor’s life and ministry – in the mundane of meetings, in the call to action for justice and mercy in the community, in the challenge of keeping a congregation connected during a pandemic when they may not be physically together. Reverend Garn closed with the message that the seemingly simple statement is difficult to practice. “We love, because God first loved us” is foundational to all we have been, who we are, and to who we are becoming.

Following Rev. Garn’s message, the congregation joined in singing, “We Love, Because God First Loved Us.”

Ms. Cathy Dorman and Rev. Suzanne Allen of the Board of Ordained Ministry offered words of celebration and thanksgiving for the lives and service of the retiring members of the West Ohio Conference.

The retiring clergy were then introduced one by one by Rev. Donetta Peaks and Rev. Suzanne Allen. Those present at the service came forward in the sanctuary to receive words of encouragement from Bishop Palmer and Rev. Middelberg.

Bishop Palmer offered brief remarks about listening to the great wisdom contained in the words offered by the retiring members of the Annual Conference and asked the congregation to show their appreciation through an ovation. Bishop Palmer and Rev. Peaks offered a responsive liturgy of thanksgiving and affirmation for the retired clergy. The Community UMC Handbell Choir joined by vocalist Ann Sims offered the hymn, “Here I Am Lord” as a special music selection.

The service closed with a liturgy given by several retiring clergy: Rev. John Edgar, Rev. Barb Sholis, Rev. Merle Leskovac, Rev. Stephanie Tunison and Rev. David Phaneuf followed by the congregational hymn, “Blest Be the Ties that Bind.” Rev. Cyndy Garn offered a prayer and Bishop Palmer provided the Benediction.

The Postlude, “Abide with Me,” was played by organist Tony Merry.

Annual Conference

Zoom Webinar from Stonybrook UMC, Gahanna

Welcome and Opening Worship - 9:00 a.m.

Bishop Gregory V. Palmer opened Annual Conference at 9:00 a.m. The Annual Conference sessions are being shared as a Zoom Webinar with the help of GNTV due to the global Covid-19 pandemic. A small group of leaders gathered in-person at Stonybrook UMC to facilitate the online gathering.

Rev. Justin Williams, Chair of the Annual Conference Worship Committee, welcomed us and thanked those involved with annual conference. He thanked Rev. David Hoffman and his team at Stonybrook Church for hosting the Annual Conference sessions. He shared about other recent worship services related to annual events for conference, including memorial, retirement, and the commissioning and ordination services.

Opening worship was led by Rev. Justin Williams and Mitchell Harper, Conference Lay Leader, with the theme “Becoming More Like Jesus.” Our message was provided by Saugath Chettri, a 16-year-old layperson from Forest Chapel UMC in Ohio River Valley. A short break was provided at the end of the opening worship service.

Organizing Motion -9:26 a.m. –

Ms. Clough, Conference Secretary, moved that the bar be set as those properly registered for today’s session who have received their unique Voter ID numbers, then nominated Steve Putka, Rachel Miller, Lynda Lockwood, and Walt Jeffries to serve on the secretarial staff.

Laity Address and Lay Denman Award for Evangelism – 10:19 – Shannon Spencer and Mitchell Harper, Conference Lay Leaders

Bishop Palmer introduced Shannon Spencer and Mitchell Harper, West Ohio Conference Co-Lay Leaders. They shared a message together via video.

Mitchell Harper then presented the Lay Denman Award for Evangelism to James Clay of Grace UMC Miami Valley District and Kim Hairston of the Church for All People Capitol Area South District.

Introduction of Bishop Bickerton – 10:34

Bishop Palmer introduced Bishop Thomas Bickerton. He is Bishop Palmer's "partner bishop" for our Annual Conference session. Bishop Bickerton extended greetings to us. A short break followed Bishop Bickerton's introduction and greetings.

Council on Finance and Administration and Chief Financial Officer Reports – 10:51 – Rev. Paula Stewart, and Mr. Bill Brownson

Rev. Paula Stewart, CFA Chair, shared this year's CFA report found on pp. 28 and 29 of the Book of Reports. A few highlights from Rev. Stewart's report indicate that for 2021 receipts on apportioned connectional giving was over 71%, which exceeded budget expectations and the prior year total. As a result, CF & A directed the CFO to develop a 2023 budget the total amount apportioned will remain flat and assumes a receipt rate like 2021. Bill Brownson, Conference Treasurer and CFO provided commentary to expand our understanding of pension liabilities.

Recommendation #2 – 2023 Budget Narrative and Council on Finance and Administration Recommendations for Calendar Year 2023

Rev. Stewart moved the adoption of Recommendation #2. Kathleen Straub, Laity-Capital Area North, requested to know the amount of current assets set aside for unfunded pension liability. Per Bill Brownson, as of April 1, 2022, we have $325 million at Wespath, including $66 million for the pre-1985 fund (which is currently overfunded), in assets to cover unfunded pension liability.

Dr. Hurtig shared the names of ministries with conference affiliation.

Dr. Hurtig went on to share information related to the class action lawsuit involving the Boy Scouts of America. She called on Rev. Dee Stickley-Miner, Director of Connectional Ministries, to lead us in a litany related to the Boy Scouts of America and those injured by church people and systems.

Remarks were then shared related to the church disaffiliation process. Dr. Hurtig relayed that the Board of Trustees have focused their efforts on Book of Discipline ¶2553 which was passed at the 2019 Special General Conference and is fully vetted by the Judicial Council. The comprehensive approach to be taken by the West Ohio Conference Board of Trustees can be found in the Book of Reports, pp. 32 to 41.

Finally, Dr. Hurtig shared the list of closed churches:

Capital Area South District

- Appleton
- Mills Memorial

Maumee Watershed District

- Emmanuel
- Moline
- Zion Wauseon

Northwest Plains District

- Erastus
- Saint Mary's Grace

Ohio River Valley District

Announcements and Break - 4:15 p.m.

Chad Stoltz, member of the Annual Conference Planning Team announced our break and closed us in prayer.

Area Episcopacy Committee for West Ohio – 4:25 p.m. – Valarie Willis, Episcopacy Committee Chair

Valarie Willis introduced Bishop Palmer for his episcopal address with a warm and lyrical presentation of Bishop Palmer's impact as the episcopal leader of the West Ohio Conference. Mrs. Cynthia Palmer was introduced and welcomed as an encourager with love for the people of the West Ohio Conference. A prayer was offered for Bishop Palmer and Cynthia. Rev. Linda Middelberg presented gifts to Bishop Palmer and Cynthia on behalf of the Episcopacy Committee.

Episcopal Address – 4:40 p.m.

Bishop Palmer, on behalf of himself and Cynthia, shared his thanks for a year of "constant care, prayers and kindness" received from the staff, leadership, and the people of the West Ohio Conference. He expressed special thanks to the Episcopacy Committee for their care throughout the year.

Bishop Palmer offered an Episcopal Address with enthusiastic preaching, and evocative and probing questions around a theme of "Who do we choose to be?" The Bishop stated that we are at a pivotal moment as a conference, and we are called to give some thought to how we see ourselves and who we choose to be. His preaching focused on the question of our identity as leaders, and especially as followers of Jesus; we must keep Jesus at the center of who we say we are and in what we do. Bishop Palmer expressed hope that in our choosing who we are, we will choose to be healers and carriers of hope, bringing that healing and hope to a world filled with despair.

He concluded with reminding us that we are called by God as God's children; an eternal gift from God that cannot be changed.

The full text of Bishop Palmer's address may be found on page 229 of this Journal.

Benediction – 5:20 p.m.

Bishop Bickerton thanked Bishop Palmer for an outstanding Episcopal Address and closed our day with a benediction.

Annual Conference

Zoom Webinar from Stonybrook UMC, Gahanna

Opening Worship – 8:56 a.m.

Annual Conference continued day two with welcoming praise music and worship.

It included a video of Fred Shaw sharing reflections about the meaning of God's grace in relationships.

Opening Remarks – 9:35 a.m. – Bishop Palmer

Bishop Palmer expressed gratitude for Fred Shaw, to the communication team, and all those who were so kind to Cynthia and himself.

Light the Way and New Church Starts - 9:39 a.m.

Susan Black Executive Director of the West Ohio Foundation and Brad Aycock, West Ohio Conference Director of Fresh Starts and New Beginnings shared a report of progress related to the Light the Way Campaign. They announced a new endowment initially funded through proceeds generated from closed churches. Congregations were invited to pray for and consider financial support of new churches. Ms. Black and Mr. Aycock concluded with inviting us to pray John Wesley's Covenant Prayer and a final invitation to participate.

Recommendation #7 – Call to West Ohio Annual Conference to Recognize and Validate Persons' Calls to Ordination Without Prejudice Toward Sexual Orientation or Gender Identity – 9:54 a.m. – Rev. Dr. Deborah Stevens and Rev. David Meredith

Rev. David Meredith addressed the body and moved the adoption of Recommendation #7 found on pages 104-105 of the Book of Reports.

Serena Wolfe, Clergy-Capital Area South, moved that we suspend the rules to present and vote without debate Recommendations #7 and #8. The motion, which requires a 2/3 majority vote failed to carry.

Recommendation #8 – A Path for West Ohio Congregations Separating Under ¶2548.2 – 10:41 a.m. – Rev. Greg Stover and Rev. Jeff Greenway

Greg Stover, Clergy-Shawnee Valley, introduced recommendation #8 found on pages 106-108 of the Book of Reports.

John Edgar, Clergy- Capital Area South, brought a point of order for a question of law asking that the bishop rule whether sections of this legislation violate The Book of Discipline at paragraphs 2548.2 or 2553. Bishop Palmer requested several minutes to review and reminded us that all his rulings are automatically reviewed by the Judicial Council. A recess of about 10 minutes was taken for the Bishop to confer with colleagues.

After calling us back into session, Bishop Palmer ruled that portions of Recommendation 8 lean greatly toward being out of alignment with The Book of Discipline. The Council of Bishops has already asked the Judicial Council for rulings on paragraph 2548.2 pertaining to about six to eight points and rulings are expected in the future. Recommendation 8 does not present harm, but he would like to review the request more fully. He also remarked that there are areas in the recommendation where issues should be decided by an Annual Conference or the General Conference. Bishop Palmer indicated that he is likely to take the full 30 days to write his decision. Bishop Palmer ruled the recommendation out of order at this time. He will submit a public report on or around July 4.

Jurisdictional Conference Matter – 10:57 a.m. – George Howard

George Howard, Laity-Capitol Area South, asked for a motion to suspend the rules to take up a matter related to Jurisdictional Conference; the delegation would like to recommend Rev. Todd Anderson for election as a bishop. A second was received, and after a consultation with the parliamentarian the vote for the suspension of the rules proceeded. The motion to suspend the rules was approved (required 2/3 vote).

Total Ballots	1418
Needed	945
Yes	1028	72.5%
No	390	27.5%

George Howard asked for a recommendation for prayer and affirmation for Rev. Anderson's candidacy as a bishop. The delegation had already voted to recommend Todd, but it was not known that there would be a Jurisdictional Conference enough in advance of Annual Conference to submit a formal recommendation for consideration. Mr. Howard read a statement promoting consideration and support of Todd Anderson as a candidate for bishop.

Kathleen Straub, Laity-Capitol Area North, requested the voting results from the delegation to support the delegation's recommendation. Rachel Miller, Secretary of the delegation, shared that 18 of 29 delegates voted in favor of his candidacy.

Three speeches were made in support of the recommendation: Dennis Miller, Clergy-Capital Area South, Kalamba Kilumba, Clergy-Capital Area South, and Bryan Bucher, Clergy-Ohio River Valley.

Stephanie Tunison, Clergy-Ohio River Valley, asked if this is an affirmation or a full endorsement of the candidate. George Howard replied that it was a request for affirmation and prayer to support him. The recommendation proceeded to a vote and was approved.

Needed	695
Yes	1088	78.4%
No	300	21.6%

In the spirit of the newly approved recommendation, Bishop Palmer invited Todd Anderson to address the conference, after which Bishop Palmer prayed for him.

Clergy Denman Award - 11:28 a.m.

Mr. Sam Rodriguez, Director of Faith Formation and Community Engagement, announced the clergy Denman Award winner, Rev. Jim Hall, Kirkersville-Capital Area South.

Following the presentation of the Clergy Denman Award, a video/slide show was presented recognizing those from the West Ohio Conference who have been commissioned, ordained, and retired.

Request for Decisions of Law – 11:41 a.m. – Rev. Jeff Greenway

Rev. Jeff Greenway-Clergy, Capital Area South requested a decision of law for a number of questions. The questions were enumerated in detail in a document submitted to the Bishop and the Conference Secretary at 10:50 p.m., Friday, June 3, 2022.

Bishop Palmer thanked Rev. Greenway for bringing the additional questions to the Annual Conference and indicated that he would respond within 30 days of the adjournment of the Annual Conference session.

Cabinet Appreciation – 11:46 a.m. – Bishop Palmer

Bishop Palmer commended our three departing Conference Superintendents: Todd Anderson, Jocelyn Roper, and Scott Ocke. He welcomed our new Conference Superintendents: Jennifer Lucas, Ohio River Valley and Jim Wilson, Miami Valley.

The Unfinished Church – Anti-racism Ministry and Encouragement – 11:55 a.m. – Bishop Palmer

We watched a video on anti-racism from The Unfinished Church podcast. This ministry is shared among West Ohio, North Texas, and Baltimore-Washington Conferences. Bishop Palmer also shared that the work of anti-racism, dismantling racism, and building beloved community is necessary for creating well-formed Christian disciples in ministry. Finally, he expressed that anti-racism work is about liberation of all, not simply those being oppressed.

Fixing of Appointments – 12:12 p.m. – Bishop Palmer

Bishop Palmer read all new appointments within the West Ohio Conference, effective July 1 with the effective service date of the last Sunday in June. He closed the fixing of appointments with prayer.

Points of Personal Privilege - 12:25 p.m.

Rev. Patricia Wagner, Clergy-Capital Area North, encouraged prayer for all retirees for whom this will be their last conference. Bishop Palmer then prayed for our retirees.

Closing Motions – 12:29 p.m. – Chris Clough

Ms. Chris Clough, Conference Secretary, moved the adoption of all reports in the Book of Reports on pages 12-46 and that editorial corrections can be made prior to the publication of the 2022 conference journal.

No	23	2.4%

Closing Worship – 12:34 p.m. – Rev. Jim Wilson

Rev. Jim Wilson shared a few remarks as he ended his tenure on the conference planning and conference worship teams. He then led worship with Rev. Donetta Peaks in a responsive litany. Justin Williams closed with concluding music, "Take, Oh Take Me As I Am."

Adjournment

Bishop Gregory Palmer declared adjournment of the 2022 West Ohio Annual Conference Session closed on June 4, 2022, at 12:37 p.m.

Laity Session

September 10, 2022, 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

Bethel UMC, Columbus and Facebook Live

Presenters and Speakers:

Conference Lay Leaders, Ms. Shannon Spencer and Mr. Mitchell Harper

Mr. Sam Rodriguez, Director of Faith Formation & Community Engagement

Mr. Matt Utt, Crossroads UMC After School Program Youth Leader

Mr. Guillermo "Willie" Berman, United Methodist Missionary, Director of Manos Juntas Mexico

Bishop Gregory V. Palmer

The 2023 West Ohio Conference Laity Session was presented as both an in-person and Facebook Live event from the Bethel International UMC in Columbus. A worship service featured the music of the Bethel International UMC's praise band and an introduction of the theme scripture, Mark 12:28 to 34 to set the tone for reflecting on the question: How can we partner with the Triune God to love our neighbors as we love ourselves.

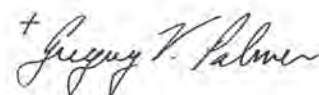

Meaningful testimonies were shared by two United Methodist laity focusing on the expansion of God's family by loving our neighbors. Matt Utt, Youth Leader with the Crossroads UMC's after-school program in the Columbus Hilltop neighborhood spoke movingly about finding an abundant life by becoming a member of the Hilltop community and establishing relationships with his neighbors. He also described the loving work of establishing relationships with three young men through Crossroad UMC's after-school program. These relationships – in the neighborhood and with the after-school program have expanded his family. His message concluded with the acknowledgement that God has adopted all of us as children, and God expects us to expand the family. His work as a mentor helps him to expand the family of God.

The Director of Manos Juntas VIM Mexico, Willie Berman is a United Methodist Missionary. Mr. Berman partners with VIM teams from the United Methodist Church, including a long-term relationship with the West Ohio Conference UMC. Through the relationships formed with teams from the West Ohio Conference important new ministries have been created for the community including a community clinic, community school, a Children's Home and the Susannah Wesley after-school program for students and families. Mr. Berman explained that the relationship with the West Ohio Conference is not about receiving money. The relationship empowers the Manos Junta community to ownership and self-sufficiency. The partnership illustrates how loving neighbor is an empowering relationship.

Bishop Palmer's message "Mission Station Christians" continued the theme of partnering with God to love our neighbors. Bishop Palmer re-read the Mark scripture passage and compared it with a similar event described in Matthew 22:34-40. He stressed that Matthew states that everything hangs on the two great commandments of loving God with all one's being and loving neighbor as self. Mission Stations are described as the Christian community joining God in helping to realize God's promises of abundant life in, through and with our neighbors. The after-school program at Crossroad's UMC is a Mission Station, and Matt Utt is engaged in Mission Station relationships with the young men that he mentors. United Methodist congregations become involved in Mission Station ministry when they join with God and engage in the community in a way that meets the needs of community and neighbor; with the needs defined by the community and neighbor. Bishop Palmer ended his message with the question, "how do we join God in helping God's promises of abundant life to be true for everybody around us?"

The Bishop's message ended the joint in-person and Facebook live portion of the Laity Session. Co-Lay Leader Shannon Spencer thanked the on-line audience for their participation and dismissed the in-person participants to continue the session with table conversation focusing on partnering with God, each other, and our neighbors. A Laity Fair was also featured with the representatives available to speak with participants about opportunities for partnership. Ministries participating in the fair included Disaster Response, Missionaries, Lay Servant Ministries, Laity Discernment Retreat, The United Methodist Foundation of West Ohio, Volunteers in Mission, and All In Community.

(Note: Once a candidate is appointed as FL or PL, they are no longer listed as a certified candidate (except the first year they are appointed when they would need to be listed in 19 and in 20 or 21). Students appointed as Local Pastors (par.318.3) are the only people who are allowed to be listed as a candidate in one conference while being listed as an LP in a different conference. Par.318.3 stipulates that students appointed as local pastors can serve in either a full or part-time capacity.)

a) By appointment category and conference relationship?

(NOTES:

(1) Where applicable, the question numbers on this report form corresponding to each category have been placed in parenthesis following the category title. Where these question numbers appear, the number reported in that category should agree with the number of names listed in the corresponding questions.

(2) For the three categories of Appointments to Extension Ministries, report as follows:

¶344.1a, c): the number of clergy members appointed within United Methodist connectional structures, including district superintendents, or to an ecumenical agency.

¶344.1b): the number of clergy members appointed to extension ministries, under endorsement by the Division of Chaplains and Related Ministries of the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry.

¶344.1d): the number of clergy members appointed to other valid ministries, confirmed by a two-thirds vote of the Annual Conference.

Note: Report those in extension ministry in one category only.

See the Discipline paragraphs indicated for more detailed description of these appointment categories.)

Note: Those approved to serve as a local pastor, but not currently under appointment, are not counted as clergy members of the conference.

VII REPORTS OF ANNUAL CONFERENCE

A. EPISCOPAL ADDRESS

Dear friends in Christ, it's a great joy for me to greet you, and to spend some time reflecting on our life together. Cynthia and I together would like to thank you for your constant care, your prayers, and your kindness, and especially across this last year, when we've had a number of significant losses in our family.

I'm going to say at every turn, the staff of the conference, the cabinet, the episcopacy committee, has been there, a call, a card, flowers, food, coupons, so we could not be more grateful. So, thank you ever so much, Valarie, and to the committee, and to all of our staff, and to all of you who are the annual conference. We're grateful.

I think you've heard me say that in the moments in which probably everybody says, "You can take this job and shove it," and anybody that says they've never said that I would not trust them much. I don't say it often, but once or twice a year, I have a day, and then I think how God has privileged me. On the days in which I say, "If you just gave me a better conference," and the Holy Spirit says, "Any conference you have is more than you deserve," I've tried to communicate that to the clergy of this conference. Any church you have is more than you deserve. This is not work we're entitled to. It's work we've been gifted with.

So, thanks be to God for the Gospel, for the church, and for you. Thank you for a good annual conference so far, and I want to say to all of you, you are to be congratulated on all the ways across these last two-and-a-half years, that you have chosen, you have chosen not to waste the crises created by multiple pandemics. You have, in the main, chosen to live and to thrive, rather than to wilt and to die.

The capacity to make conscious, meaningful, and thoughtful choices are the difference between those persons, and those congregations, and those institutions that will continue to have life, and frankly, the pandemics notwithstanding, those are the choices that we are all needing to make all the time. What will make for life? What will give us a sense of buoyancy? What will keep us out of the doldrums and out of the funk, and keep our eyes on Jesus Christ?

I want to offer another way of saying a couple of things to you. I don't want to make too much of this, but it occurs to me that in about 25 months, I will have done all I can do. And so, I think often not about how I can get to the finish line faster, but what I want to accomplish. But rather than quantifying it or coming up with a list of things that need to be accomplished, I've been forced to think about, rightly so, who I want to be and how I want to function.

I said to the episcopacy committee several years ago, that I saw myself moving forward in four modalities, each with two foci, but not in contradiction to one another, though they could be seen that way, but in creative tension with one another. Listen to what I said to them in 20 and 16. I said, "I see myself and my ministry as both an evangelist and a prophet, and if you are a United Methodist, there is no separation between the Evangelion, the good news of Jesus Christ to be proclaimed, and the work of prophetic transformational leadership. So, I see myself not as one or the other, not categorized as traditionalist or progressive, liberal or conservative, left or right, Democrat or Republican. I see myself as an evangelist and a prophet.

I see myself secondly as a provocateur and a healer. I am called to stir some things up, and I am called to bind up the wounds of the broken-hearted and to bind up the wounds of the church. Thirdly, I see myself as a curator and a creator. There are some things that need to be preserved, and perhaps some things set aside and left for the annals of history. But there is also work for all of us to do all the time, in creating, shaping, and fashioning the new thing, that is emerging not out of us, but out of the triune God, who it says in scripture is making all things new.

And I see myself, and I believe this to be true of anybody that assumes the mantle of trying to be an effective leader, that we must always be both leaders and followers. There's not much point in me announcing how great a leader I want to be, or I think I am if there is no followership on my part. I start my life, and everything else rolls out of my discipleship and my following after Jesus. That said, we are now called to give some thought to how we see ourselves and who we choose to be.

I was struck in the last couple of years by a book that came out in 2017, by a familiar author, Margaret Wheatley, a book entitled Who Do We Choose to Be? Facing Reality, Claiming Leadership, and Restoring Sanity. I'm not sure that the question raised by this book title could be more aligned with our theme of becoming. Think about it, becoming. It does not yet appear what we shall be. Think about the alignment with the question raised in the title of her book. Who Do We Choose to Be? Think of it as a Christian. Think of it as a leader. Think of it as a member of West Ohio. Think of it as a United Methodist. We are in that trusting place, and at that pivoting and turning moment, where we must answer the question, who we choose to be.

I did not say we have to answer structural questions. We are called to answer questions not so much of doing but of being, because any of our doing that does not grow out of our being will ultimately fall flat on its face, and we will be beating our voices and our winds against the firmament. Becoming. We've said for these three days, we want to be the people who think about what it means to become spirit-filled, what it means to become community, what it means to become like Jesus.

So, I ask you, who do you choose to be? You can respond to the question in the personal. We should be responding to the question in the communal, as the church, as the United Methodist Church, as an annual conference, as local congregations. Who do we choose to be? What reality, to play upon Wheatley's title, are we facing? What leadership are we claiming, and what sanity are we attempting to restore to a world that seems to have gone mad? Who do you choose to be?

I like this question, because it takes us down to the roots of what I think is the fundamental question of our lives, and those happen to be identity questions. You heard me, some years ago, tell you a story which I will not rehearse here, but you can look at the video sometimes, a scene in the movie entitled A Soldier's Story, which was also a play, which every now and again comes back to Broadway, in which there is a confrontation in a mess hall, in an army base camp during World War II. A young buck private and a sergeant get into a tussle. Others try to come to the buck private's defense, and the buck private, through his stammering English, says to those who are trying to defend him, and I quote now, "I know who I is." The grammar may not be exactly right, the conjugation of the verb "to be" may not be exactly right, but the question is unmistakable, and his declaration is unmistakable. "I know who I is," and that's the question that you and I as United Methodists are being confronted with in this hour. Do we know who we is?

That's the question that Christians are being confronted with in this hour, where at least the institutional church is more than in declining importance and significance. Do we know who we is? Perhaps nobody is paying attention to us in the ways that we think or hope that they would, because we're not acting and living like we know who we is. So, who are you, and where are you going, and how will your actions grow out of an affirmative response to the question, who do you choose to be? The Bible is laced from beginning to end, with questions and narratives that I believe are fundamentally about identity. I snagged just a half-dozen or so of them. In Exodus 13:3 and Exodus 20:2, there is this word that is always about identity, and the call to identity to ancient Israel often began with the words, "Remember." "Remember the Lord, your God who brought you out of Egypt." Remember, remember, remember. We will never know who we are if we lose sight of who we have been, but more importantly, who God has called us to be. It is in the remembering that we can be remembered in the midst of our chaos. Oh, listen to this one in the Shema, in Deuteronomy in six, "Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God is one." It is a declaration of identity about not only saying who we understand God to be, but who we understand ourselves to be in be light in the countenance of the living God. Or if you come to the gospels, the narratives of temptation in the Synoptics. What's going on there? Is it really about jumping off of pinnacles? Is it really about turning stones into bread?

No, it is primarily about Jesus claiming his identity fully and unalterably, which ultimately leads him to the cross. This tension, this chaos, this uncertainty, perhaps that attempts to be created by this provocative voice that comes and says, "If thou be the son of God." Well, if somebody questions your fundamental identity, you are potentially in an identity crisis if you do not have a clear response. But in every case, Jesus said to what the adversary said when he said, "It is written." And Jesus said, "It is also written." Who are you? Do you know your story? It's that story about your having come through trials, tribulation, tests and temptations. Has your faith and your praxis been put to the test in the real world?

Or listen to this in John's gospel. I love this in chapter one, beginning at verse 35, when John the Baptist is sort of giving a handoff. There's this wonderful identity kind of conversation. Jesus senses a couple of the disciples or those who will become disciples following after him, and he turns around and he asks them this question, "What are you looking for?" An identity question, to which they respond, "Rabbi show us, or tell us where you live." And finally, this, just as another illustration before I move on, in the Mark text, in those words in Mark 8:27 to 34, but where the question is posed, "Who do you say that I am?" After, "Who do others say I am?" But you, those closest to me, my disciples, who do you say I am? Because Jesus understood that if they began to get that right, they would understand who they had been called to be.

I want to suggest a couple of ways that we can stay clear in the midst of the current storms, in which we find ourselves. I have no naivete that we are not in the middle of some chaos, but I also believe with Margaret Wheatley, that in the chaos, there is often order, but we just cannot see it all. But I believe for a church moving forward, our identity must be clear, it must be rooted in the triune God. Let me be even more specific. We must clearly understand ourselves into the God who has made God's known in the life, the death and the resurrection of Jesus Christ. Let me see if I can say it another way. We must keep Jesus Christ at the center of what we are doing. Who we say we are. We must be shaped by him, try to be conformed to the image of who he is, aligning ourselves with him, less worried about what people say about us and more worried about what the triune God knows about us.

But part of what he knows about us is that God has called us to live fully into being God's beloved children, and we have seen that most distinctly, uniquely, transformatively and powerfully in the face of Jesus Christ our Lord. No Jesus, no church. No Jesus, no Christian. No Jesus, no community. It's about Jesus in the morning, Jesus at Noonday, and Jesus when the sun goes down. I have a friend in east Ohio, now long retired, who has an adult child that lives here in the West Ohio conference and serves among us very ably as a lay person. And his favorite hymn, I've never forgotten it is, Ask Ye What Great Thing I Know. That delights and stirs me so. What the high reward I win, who's the name I glory in? Jesus Christ, the crucified. The third verse says, "Who is life in life to me? Who the death of death will be, who will place me on his right with the countless hosts of light? Jesus Christ, the crucified."

Our life must be shaped and ultimately conform, if we are to have true meaning and purpose around who Jesus was, who he is, and who he is inviting us to be. Jesus at the center can have multiple meanings. You can think that it's a call to take a poll, well are you on the left side or the right side of Jesus? Or if it's a circle, the point at which you find yourself in the circle, how does it position you in a world that is drunk on ideologies? Most of which many people cannot even spell, much less understand. But when their caucus tells them what they believe, then they seem to become wonderfully articulate all of a sudden.

Let me be fair, it happens no matter the ideological and theological bent of the caucus. I can always tell when there's something up in the United Methodist Church. Something comes out in a news story, and about 10 days to the day later, I start getting letters on the subject matter that all look alike. And I say sometimes, "I guess their caucus told them what they should think about what happened in a certain situation or context." Jesus at the center has some multiple meanings, but it's not just about, are you to the left or the right? But that may be a way of thinking about it. Not that we can know left or right that clearly, or not that any of us are all of one thing. How insane, how insidious for any of us to call ourselves traditional or progressive. About what?

I am both, not because I'm trying to find some center, but I am trying to move to the heart of the matter, which is how do I live my life in community and in conformity with Jesus Christ? Bishop Woody White painted a picture about the insidiousness of how we get on these polarities in thinking and talking about who Jesus was and who Jesus is and who Jesus is inviting us to be.

It was 1988 in St. Louis, Missouri, may I say to you. First time I was a delegate to the General Conference as a member of the East Ohio Conference Delegation. He preached one morning on the stage from the Psalmist who said, "He's turned my morning into dancing." And the title of his sermon was, I Could Have Danced All Night. The sub theme of it all was how to find joy in God, joy in the Lord, joy in Jesus Christ. But when he came to the Christological moment, help me, Holy Ghost, he said that "I'm confused. I struggle. I feel sometimes like I'm being battered on either side by my conservative and my liberal friends." And this is what he said. He said, "My conservative friends." We might use the word traditional now, "Act like they own Jesus. I'm quoting somebody else. And my liberal friends act like they don't know him."

Just let that settle. My conservative friends act like they own Jesus, and my liberal friends act like they don't know him. May I say to you, it is seductive to conclude and to act as if any of us knows Jesus as fully and completely as we might. We are people in process, individually and collectively. I am not saying there are no differences of opinion and there are not multiple angles of view, but sometimes all of the angles are not in contradiction to one another. The viewpoints are not in contradiction to one another, they help us to see who Jesus is more completely and more fully, and then that which we have not taken into ourselves about the life, death and resurrection of Jesus has the possibility of our knowing the influence of that point of view.

I am not talking about or calling for any kind of theological or interpretive biblical work that is relativist, but asking that we be delivered from the seduction, which is a sin in my judgment, to fall for the seduction that any of us yet knows Jesus as fully as we might. We amble along, we stumble along, we speak out of conviction and sometimes, we speak out of uncertainty. We take what we know, and then we offer it to the community and to the Holy Spirit and say, "God, this is not perfect. Make of it what it can be." Now, may I say to you, it is equally seductive to point to others, claiming that their faith in Jesus Christ is not real or genuine because they have a slightly different vocabulary than you have.

Nobody in the West Ohio Conference, and in the United Methodist Church needs to surrender Jesus nor surrender the cross. We need to get under the cross and cry out in the cross of Christ, "I glory and stand and tarry there and pray there." And while all of us would have hoped that we would be long past, have it in the rear-view mirror, the 2020 General Conference and that whatever actions might have taken place would have already taken place, I wonder if God has a standing at the foot of the cross and saying, "See me. See me in the wounds of my darling son, who I have healed those wounds and raised from the dead. See in him the faces of all the people that you and your church have ignored throughout these years, you and your tribe have ignored throughout these years, because it was seductive and comfortable for you to be with folks that were just like you. Same zip code as you, same pigment as you, same gender identification as you. Maybe, in this time which we would not have dreamed up, we've got an opportunity to stand, to be delivered from the seductions, and to gaze upon Jesus Christ, be in conversation in Christian community and discover again that He is at the heart of our lives. So, I hope, whatever we do, because if we don't do this it's all irrelevant, in our choosing who we will be, that Jesus will be at the center. I can hear a gospel song of mid-20th century, 'the road is rough, the going gets tough and the hills are so hard to climb. But I started out a long time ago, and Jesus, I've made Jesus my choice. I've made Jesus my choice'.

here's the second thing, I hope in our choosing who we will be that we will choose to be church, that we will choose to be community, and that we will choose connection. And I want to give you just a couple of one-liners for you to hang on. I was listening as I was praying the other day in private devotion. I've seen this in writing many times, you've seen it, there's nothing novel about this. You cannot pray the so-called Lord's Prayer without saying 'Our Father'. So, I don't want to get into the uncomfortability of the patriarchal language, but I want to focus on the 'our'. There are no first-person pronouns in there. 'Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done'. If there are any there they're all directed toward God.

But when we refer to ourselves in that prayer, it's about 'deliver us'. Hmm? 'Give', who? 'Us this day our daily bread'. So, the next time you get to that prayer, and I hope it'll be soon, I hope you'll just get a lump in your throat on 'our'. On the plurality of that, on the we-ness of that.

Who's the 'our'? Someone has suggested, some legitimate New Testament scholar has suggested, aside from the image that we are all siblings of one another, that if this is even a prayer that has something to do, and you have to look at the biblical context, with addressing how we relate to enemies, that we should be seeing even those we see as enemies and nemeses as people that we are ultimately called to be in community with.

Here's another one, Luke 15. Miroslav Volf, who teaches at Yale Divinity School, previously taught at Fuller Theological Seminary, has a book that I've commended to you entitled Exclusion and Embrace, it's got a subtitle about forgiveness and suffering and all of that. But in looking at the text in Luke 15, about the so-called 'prodigal son', he says that one way he looks at the son who left to go to the far country, it was as if that son was trying to 'unson' himself, that he had made his life project to 'unson' himself. We know that things come back together, but not completely.

I hope the story ended better than Jesus left us at the end of the story, because what we see at the end is the father out there pleading with the other brother who stayed home, who can't even refer to his brother as his brother, but says 'your son', 'this son of yours'. In those moments I would argue he was unhitching, or unsonning, or unsiblinging, or unfamilializing himself, because he was angry. He was angry that this brother of his would go into the far country, squander his inheritance, which he got in advance of his father's death, and then come home and his dad wouldn't even receive his groveling plea to come back home, but throws him a party.

Listen to what he says, "All these years." Sounds like some folk I know who are saying we are the righteous remnant. Don't fall for the okie doke, don't go for the head fake. "We're the righteous remnant, and all these years we've been toiling in this church. Well, it can happen among any of us, our caucuses and our tribes." Don't fall for it, because when God looks upon us he sees us ideally as being together. Listen to this quote from someone smarter than I. This person says, "We don't have peace..." This is about the world; you can make it about the church. "We don't have peace because we have forgotten that we belong to one another."

I hope in our choosing who we will be, we will choose to be healers and to be carriers of hope in our communities and in all the places where we find our personal lives and the life of the church. That we will choose healing and hope for a world that is filled with despair, and a world that is coming apart at the seams because of our propensity and our addiction to violence. Our addiction, we are hooked, we are hooked on violence. This is not about any incidents which recently occurred. You can even start in the Bible, that once things got messed up, violent act after violent act, after violent act. When will we learn our learning curve? The incline is so steep. How will the church be the purveyor of hope and a sign of peace and of redemption and of reconciliation? Who do we choose to be? Do we choose to be healers, hope bearers, peace builders and makers, and reconcilers for all of the places where there is despair and hopelessness?

Now I would be utterly living on another planet if I offered no specificity, but I have no program. The program I have is, let's be the church. But listen, my friends, if the church continues, and let me say the United Methodist Church and let me be more specific, the West Ohio Conference, to gaze at our own navels about our internal debates. How will we have anything to say to a world where you can get a gun and off a crowd of people before you can shake a stick at it? We're hooked in West Ohio; we are hooked and we are addicted to one conversation. Even with what is front of us in our recommendations and resolutions, none of which I'm agreeing with or disagreeing with, not one of them speaks to the kind of violence I'm talking about here. Not one of them urges me or us to deploy ourselves to Capitol Hill in Columbus and speak to our governor.

Some of you can say this is politics if you want. I'm standing with Jesus, and if he's political, I'm political, this is not partisan for me. Don't tune me out because you don't want to understand and believe that ours is the gospel of peace. Either it is, or it is not.

A governor who, God love him, functioned at a high level to protect us from COVID and some weeks ago signed a concealed carry, no permit law in the State of Ohio. So where will the mass shooting be? In Columbus or Dayton or in Zanesville, or in some open country place? Uvalde, Texas, is not a big metropolis. I'm saying to you, do we have a voice that actually seeks the welfare of the people, which seeks to make the world safe for children, but also for us? Those were almost exclusively adults in the Tops grocery store in Buffalo. You fool, you take the accessibility to weapons, and you combine it with hatred and racism and you get a predictable result. My question in the 'who do we choose to be' is, do we choose to be a church that can speak into that, not because we have words and resolutions but because we are creating communities formed around Jesus Christ and we choose, we choose the path of nonviolence and peacemaking in our everyday lives as well as in going through our political exercises?

I could go on and on, and on and on. Need I speak of the addiction to war and violence that's being perpetrated in Ukraine right now? Or the violence that has people, huddled masses literally, to coin a phrase, on the Southern border of the United States, because people are fleeing from another kind of war that is born of poverty?

Who are you? Who am I? Am I only gazing at my own navel, and I'm happy to be a Christian when I'm around you but I am weak when it comes into speaking into the things that make people's lives a matter, literally in a moment, of life and death? Now finally, this. I hope in our choosing to pick up on Margaret Wheatley's theme, that we will choose to be not only the kind of church but the kind of leaders that we can be in this age. That we will make the right choices and to pick up on the language of the apostle, that we will understand the height and the depth and the width and the breadth of the love of God. And to understand that we will not do it just through resolutions and recommendations, but only through incarnate, embodied communities, where we begin to make a difference. Some of the bills that I would support on the Hill in Columbus, so to speak, or in Washington DC may never go through, but nothing restricts me from exercising my influence, and nothing restricts you from exercising, your influence of speaking into a local congregation. Why don't we actually try Jesus? And be the church and model and practice ways and means of peacemaking. There's no idealistic world in which people never have conflicts. That's not what I'm pleading for. I'm pleading for us to choose different weaponry if they must be called weapons at all.

And may I remind you of what the Apostle Paul said in his second correspondence to the Corinthians? The weapons of our warfare are not carnal. They are not of the flesh, but they are mighty, to the pulling down of strong goals. Why don't we actually try that? Why don't we actually try that? Who would we be? And who would we become? So, you know where I'm going to end up. It's right on our theme of becoming, I love those words. I'll never tire of them. 1st John, the first epistle of John, the third chapter and the first verse, and the second.

"See with what great love God hath loved us, that we should even be called the children of God." And listen to this certitude. "And thus, thus, we are." That train has left the station. You are a child of God, even if you don't feel like it, I'm a child of God, even if I don't act like it. You're a child of God, even if you can walk out of here and not speak to you, you're still a child of God. Nothing can un-son, or un-daughter you from the love of God. "See with what great love God hath loved us, that we should be called the children of God, and thus we are." And beloved, it does not yet appear what we shall be. But let me tell you, you, me, all of us together, we have something to say about what it shall appear to be. God's doing the heavy lifting, but we got to get with the God program. Jesus has given everything and even come back by the hand of a mighty God from the dead, but we've got to choose his way.

I grew up as a little kid when we were still a segregated church. So sometimes, when people think I stand in an idealistic position, haven't seen anything, I can remember when the Methodist church, which is where I started out, was a segregated church, constitutionally by the book of discipline. Read your church history 36 and 39. But I used to sit there with my mother and my father might be sitting somewhere else. Sometimes we were all together in the great Tindley Temple United Methodist church, seating over 3000 people in the Delaware Annual Conference of the Methodist church, at that time. Now, a part of the Peninsula, the Delaware became a part of the Peninsula Delaware Conference. And every now and again, somebody would line out a song that would sweep over the room. I wish you could hear 3000 plus African Americans in the fifties and the sixties. And that's when I came along, it started before then. And the dignity and the way in which they squared their shoulders back and held their heads up high. When they would sing, "Beloved, beloved we are the children of God, and it does not yet appear what we shall be. But this we know; we shall be like him. For we'll see him as he is."

I want you to hear this, worship committee before I leave West Ohio, when we're in some great auditorium, I don't care where it is. I want somebody to find the shape notes or let me sing it and somebody write it down, so we can teach it to ourselves. But you won't sing it well if you're looking at a piece of paper, because when they break out, there was no piece of paper. They just sang, "Beloved, beloved we are the children of God, and it does not yet appear what we shall be. But this we know; we shall be like him. For we'll see him as he is." You may want to work on some of the pronouns, but don't forget to beloved. Somewhere before I leave here in 20 and 24, I want us to start singing that. It will take the United Methodist church in West Ohio into an extraordinary, absolutely extraordinary new future to glorify God, to proclaim Jesus Christ and to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

Amen. Amen, and amen.

B. BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY

Presented by: Rev. Dr. Suzanne Allen, Chair

The West Ohio Conference Board of Ordained Ministry continues to fulfill their primary responsibilities as defined by paragraph 635.1 a-z in The Book of Discipline of “enlistment and recruitment of ministerial leadership for our churches and other ministry settings.”

The officers for this quadrennium include: Rev. Suzanne Allen, chair; Rev. Meshach Kanyion, vice chair; Rev. Steven Putka, secretary; Rev. Therese Lehman, chair, Conference Relations Committee; Rev. Rachel Miller, chair, Division of Deacons.

The work of the BOM is done in conjunction with the West Ohio Office of Ministry, under the excellent direction of Rev. Donnetta Peaks with the invaluable assistance of Ms. Susan Thomas.

West Ohio programming related to enlistment and credentialing includes, but is not limited to:

- Training and resourcing of district Committees on Ministry
- The Candidacy Summit for inquiring ministry candidates
- Local Pastor Licensing School
- The Crucible experience for provisional candidates
- Training and resourcing of the conference Board of Ordained Ministry
- Provisional and full member interviews
- Candidate Retreat
- Commissioning and Ordination Service
- Retirement requests and Retirement Service
- Memorial Service
- Conference Relations Committee
- Division of Deacons
- Extension Ministry
- Clergy change-of-status requests
- The REF Eight-Year Assessment (Refresh, Equip, Flourish)
- Young Clergy Retreat
- Black Clergy Retreat
- Intern Program
- Clergy Session – business of the annual conference
- Boundaries Training (required every four years, held this spring)

COVID-19 has continued to offer significant challenges and opportunities for innovation related to this work. Most of these gatherings have taken place online or in a hybrid setting. While we certainly long for the days when we can gather in person without health concerns, we are getting much better at utilizing Zoom and other online learning platforms. Online options have allowed us to continue our work safely, while also saving time and cost.

As the BOM gathered virtually over the last year, trainings and actions were focused in the areas of hospitality to all candidates and Cultural Competency.

After much careful consideration and preparation, the 2022 BOM interviews and plenary were held successfully in a virtual format. Thirty-one candidates were interviewed for provisional or full membership as deacons and elders. We were blessed to hear the candidates’ stories of God’s call in their lives and their witness in the local church and other ministry settings. We celebrate with the candidates who were recommended to Clergy Session for commissioning or ordination.

Commissioned for Provisional Membership on track toward Deacon:

- Sarah Lynn Beach
- Michele Marie Luebbers
- Alycia Gaye Boyer Orcena

Commissioned for Provisional Membership on track toward Elder:

- Marcella Velandia Ciccotelli
- Kristen Lawson
- Serena J. Wolfe
- WooJin Kang
- William Weaver

Approved for Full Membership and Ordination as Deacon:

- Joy Evangeline Bronson
- Abby Jean Lightle
- Christine Noel Case
- Tesia L. Mallory

Approved for Full Membership and Ordination as Elder:

- Andrew Michael Burns
- Hyo-Jin Kim
- Corey Daniel Perry
- Brian Changhoon Choi
- Peter Edward Matthews
- Katharine L. Steele
- E. Neil Gaiser
- Sarah Moon
- Cecil Jacob Fitzgerald Thompson
- Heather Eileen Grace Husted
- Sung Wha Park
- Kent H. Winkler

The work of the BOM includes faithful work of our eight district Committees on Ministry. They meet regularly in each district throughout the year to help candidates discern the call to certified lay and licensed local ministry, as well as to ordained ministry. They certify and license local pastors on a yearly basis and recommend those who are ready and called to the Board of Ordained Ministry. A special thanks to those who serve as the chairs and registrars of our DCOMs across the West Ohio Conference.

We celebrate with those who have completed these significant accomplishments.

Licensed Local Pastors who have completed the Course of Study:

- Mark Atterholt—MIV
- Brandi Blackstone—CAS
- Kima Cunningham—MIV
- Pam Hitchcock—MIV

Lay Servant Ministers who have completed the Certified Lay Ministry Academy:

- Keith Norwalk

It is a privilege to serve as chair of the Board of Ordained Ministry. We appreciate your continued prayer and support in this meaningful and transformational work of leadership formation and development across the West Ohio Conference.

C. BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Presented by: Julie Hurtig

The conference trustees have had a busy and substantive year, ably attended to by a gifted board of trustees and conference staff that support us. We addressed matters of law, property and disaffiliation while appreciating the work of our affiliated organizations during the second year of a global pandemic.

Boy Scouts of America:

The widely reported Boy Scouts of America bankruptcy case is a significant matter for The United Methodist Church. Thousands of local churches across the country and hundreds in Ohio charter scouting troops, some of which span generations. BSA entered bankruptcy proceedings to attend to over 80,000 allegations of abuse spanning 60 years. The UMC assembled a legal team to represent its interests and those of claimants.

The trial was concluded in April and the judge's ruling is pending at the time of this writing. It is expected that The United Methodist Church would contribute $30 million toward a survivors' settlement trust. West Ohio has committed nearly $1.1 million to the trust and to engage in healing actions that include listening to and learning from survivor experiences, sharing articles, and reviewing and updating Safe Sanctuary policies. An ad hoc committee of conference trustees, members of the Council of Finance and Administration, and others will review and recommend how West Ohio should fulfill its financial commitment. The BSA reorganization mediated plan would result in full liability releases in favor of United Methodist Chartering Organizations for abuse claims through Feb. 18, 2020, the date of bankruptcy.

Thankfully, we have no other material legal matters to report.

Affiliated Organizations:

The Board of Trustees is the conference body that officially relates to our affiliated organizations. They include OhioHealth, Charitable Pharmacy of Central Ohio, UMCH Family Services, Otterbein Senior Life, Life Enriching Communities and The Wesley Communities. Each found themselves in the midst of a persistent pandemic: hospitals, congregate living systems, delivered rather than picked-up prescriptions, and so on. Their work in this time surely is God's work, and we are grateful to be in ministry with them. During the first half of 2022, The Wesley Communities will officially become part of the Life Enriching Communities, covering the central and southwestern Ohio markets.

Property Matters:

Administering conference and district property, including closed churches, is now centrally coordinated. As of Dec. 31, 2021, the conference and districts own and manage 29 properties, including three parsonages, the Conference Center, three district-owned offices, three camps and retreat centers, five closed churches now used for missional purposes, and 12 closed churches pending sale.

The administration of closed churches has given rise to the Closed Church Fund. That fund had a Dec. 31, 2021, value of $6 million, of which $1.2 million was held in cash, and the balance represented the estimated value of closed church properties. In 2021, the fund incurred $1.1 million of expenses, of which 75% were grants, with the balance covering property-management expenses. Working with the extended cabinet, the trustees have created an endowment that will be funded annually with 25% of closed-church proceeds. The initial contribution to the endowment is $500,000, and income from the endowment will support new worshipping communities for years into the future.

Disaffiliation:

The trustees have been monitoring and working on how best to help churches disaffiliate from the denomination under Book of Discipline provisions. Along with many others, the Board anticipated a General Conference would provide guidance on disaffiliating and the corresponding role of conference trustees. Now that the 2020 General Conference is officially postponed until 2024, many have been looking at how to use the existing Book of Discipline paragraphs to implement disaffiliations prior to 2024. The trustees have focused their efforts on ¶2553, which was passed at the 2019 Special General Conference and is now fully vetted by the Judicial Council. Our comprehensive approach and plan for disaffiliations under ¶2553 is fully and transparently shared following this summary report, along with several related questions and answers.

Indeed, the work of conference trustees has been substantial this past year, and all indications are it will continue to undertake important matters of governance and oversight for the West Ohio Conference.

While I'm appreciative of all conference trustees and conference staff who support our work, I'm particularly grateful for Marlen Yost. Marlen served on the board since 2016, and ably and conscientiously led the board as chair from 2020 until stepping down in February 2022.

I look forward to annual conference, where I will provide a report on these and other matters. In the meantime, please contact me with questions at juliehurtig@gmail.com

D. COUNCIL ON FINANCE & ADMINISTRATION

Presented by: Rev. Paula Stewart

The timing of a General Conference and lingering impact from the COVID-19 pandemic continue to inform the work of the Council on Finance and Administration. We now know that the next General Conference will be in 2024, which will be the earliest time to gain broad guidance on how churches that so discern may disaffiliate from the United Methodist Church. What is less clear today is how many churches will now avail themselves of the disaffiliation mechanisms adopted at the 2019 Special General Conference or are otherwise already in The Book of Discipline. There will be a future when the financial capacity of the Conference – as an extension of its local churches – will be diminished.

We do know this:

- 2021 receipts on apportioned connectional giving was over 71% which exceeded both budgeted expectations and prior year total.
- Churches have continued to adapt to in-person and virtual worship and ministry contexts.
- All pathways for disaffiliation include payment of apportionments.
- CFA will endeavor to provide financially for the equipping of all our churches, which still number nearly 1,000.
- The Conference and Districts are well reserved and financially positioned to navigate any number of scenarios.

CF&A directed the CFO to develop a 2023 budget that keeps flat the total amount apportioned and assumes a receipt rate like 2021 given what we know and what remains uncertain. While in many respects this is a status quo budget, it follows several years of significant reductions in expenses and reliance on apportioned connectional giving.

In other sections of the Book of Reports, you will find budget details and an accompanying narrative and a report from CFO, Bill Brownson. Taken together they provide a comprehensive picture of 2021 results, the 2022 budget and the 2023 budget.

In what is affectionately called the boilerplate of Recommendation #1, you will see two additions from prior years. First, CFA gives its support to a capital campaign for Camps & Retreats Ministries. While it's too soon for details, the work done so far indicates resources from a capital campaign will be needed. And we don't want to unnecessarily delay that work by waiting until 2023 to officially bless it. Second, we believe that churches should not accept loans from church members or constituents and made that a rule as of July 1, 2022.

We are grateful that with your generosity we contributed 94% toward total General Church apportionments in 2021. Had we been operating under the budget that was likely to be adopted at General Conference, our support would have exceeded 100%. This level of support exceeds what the General Church had forecast. Your support provides for our capacity to be a global church: 100% of your contributions to UMCOR is possible because of connectional support. Scholarships for clergy and undergraduates are possible because of connectional support. Missionaries like Gaston and Jeanne Ntambo save lives and inspire faith because of connectional support.

Another role of CF&A is to oversee administration, not just finances. On that front, we are fortunate to have a strong administrative staff. Our CFO, Bill Brownson ably oversees a staff who focuses on accounting, property management, information technology and human resources. Each function equips and supports all conference ministries, usually behind the scenes. We are grateful for their work and professionalism.

E. EPISCOPACY

Presented by: Valarie D. Willis

Greetings to my brothers and sisters in Christ, Bishop and Mrs. Palmer, and all members of the West Ohio Annual Conference. It has certainly been another interesting and challenging year in the life of the episcopacy. We stayed connected through conducting all our meetings via Zoom. We are grateful to have the technology that permits us to continue to conduct our business and ministry.

We are appreciative and thankful for those who served on the Episcopacy Committee this past year. The role of the Episcopacy Committee is to support our bishop, be available to the bishop for counsel, determine the needs of the episcopal area and be advisor to the bishop.

Our wonderful team, who serves with grace and candor, includes:

Stephen Brooks, secretary	Rev. Wade Giffin	Dean Metzger	Rev. Jason Wellman
Rev Michaela Brown Jasper	Rev. Dr. Judy Guion-Utsler	Diana Skinner	Valarie D Willis
Rev. Hannah Van Meter	Leslie Hall	David Smith	Jami DeWolf
Rev. Hannah Ewald	George Howard	Shannon Spencer
Rev. Lauren Fuchs	Stacey Kyser	Chris Steiner

The Episcopacy Committee is organized into four sub-committees:

- 1. Profile: Prepares a quadrennial report that shares with the North Central Jurisdictional Committee on Episcopacy the episcopacy leadership requirements for West Ohio. This input is taken into consideration during the assignment of bishops. Chaired by Rev. Jason Wellman.
- 2. Interpretation and Communication: Interprets and communicates the nature and function of the bishop and episcopal office to the people of the West Ohio Conference. Chaired by Chris Steiner.
- 3. Evaluation and Leadership: Conducts an annual performance evaluation of our episcopal leader and reports back to the Episcopacy Committee. Provides leadership-development opportunities as identified from the evaluation process and/or by the bishop. Chaired by Stacey Kyser.
- 4. Transition: Ensures a smooth transition for incoming and/or retiring bishops. Chaired by Rev. Wade Giffin.

The West Ohio Episcopacy Committee also has two members who serve on the North Central Jurisdictional Committee on Episcopacy. These delegates represent the needs of West Ohio episcopal leadership and have a role in the assignment of bishops to the annual conferences.

Bishop Palmer not only serves the West Ohio Conference, but he also serves as co-chair of the Episcopal/United Methodist Dialogue Committee and on The Standing Committee on Central Conference Matters. Bishop Palmer serves on the boards of Ohio Health, United Theological Seminary, Methodist Theological School in Ohio, The United Methodist Publishing House and several others.

On June 22, 2021, Bishop Palmer's father, the Rev. Herbert E. Palmer, entered eternity. We continue to pray for Bishop Palmer and Cynthia Palmer as they lean into this season of life.

Members of our committee who are members to the North Central Jurisdiction Conference attended a day and a half meeting in November. Their report to the Episcopacy Committee included the following:

Three main sessions focused on dismantling racism, the future of episcopal leadership and the future of The United Methodist Church. It was reported that the Jurisdictional Conference will request a transition from nine bishops to eight bishops. Those who attended reported favorably on the content and results of the meeting.

Starting July 1, Bishop Palmer served as the interim bishop of the Illinois Great Rivers Annual Conference while Bishop Frank Beard was on medical leave. We are grateful for Bishop Palmer's faithful service to the people of the Illinois Great Rivers Conference.

Bishop Palmer has always encouraged us to focus on the mission of the church, and he is committed to the health and stability of our pastors and congregations. Let us run together with our bishop to do the work of God, address racism and bring others to Christ. In addition, the bishop reported that the West Ohio Conference has started six new faith communities and that such actions were very encouraging, even with the pandemic still prevailing in our communities.

Leadership clinics, held virtually, are ecumenical in nature and open to all. Bishop Palmer is always encouraging, indicating, "that there is much good news in a bad-news world.”

During these challenging times of The United Methodist Church, Bishop Palmer's leadership is a catalyst to drive change and unity in our conference. We are thankful for his resilience and spiritual leadership.

As Bishop Palmer enters his 11th year with us, we give our love and thanks to him and Mrs. Cynthia Palmer for their commitment to Christ. We ask that you continue to pray for each of them.

“Let your eyes look directly forward, and your gaze be straight before you.

Ponder the path of your feet; then all your ways will be sure.”

Proverbs 4:25-26, ESV

F. EQUITABLE COMPENSATION

Presented by: Rev. Kurt King, Chair

Bishop Palmer, Members of the Cabinet, honored guests and faithful disciples of Jesus Christ,

On behalf of the Equitable Compensation Commission, we humbly come before this annual conference with the recommendation for Equitable Compensation.

Ministry happens when clergy, lay leaders and members of congregations put into motion what they hear from God. Jesus said, "Everyone then who hears these words of mine and acts on them will be like a wise person who built their house on rock." (Matthew 7:24) Vital and healthy ministry takes place when clergy and congregations actively support the vision and mission of reaching and making new disciples of Jesus Christ for purpose of transforming the world. When we work collaboratively, we are better positioned to support spiritual journeys in a variety of missional contexts.

The Commission on Equitable Compensation, outlined in the 2016 Book of Discipline (Paragraph 625), is a way to employ financial resources as a means of support for congregational revitalization. The West Ohio Conference and churches partner together through faithful stewardship, accountability and encouragement. The commission's two main goals are: 1) Communicate clarity around clergy compensation. 2) Connect churches and clergy to the available resources to assist congregations in the movement toward fulfilling their mission and purpose.

Faithful disciples of all ages and backgrounds have the spiritual gifts, abilities and resources to transform the community where they live, and when matched with gifted clergy, the movement toward transformation begins.

Clergy include elders and deacons in full connection, commissioned elders and deacons, associate members and licensed local pastors. Each clergy member plays a vital role within the life and ministry of the church. Each congregation's unique context may call for a different type of clergy leadership.

Elders provide spiritual leadership through nurturing others in their relationship to God and lead the church through the ministry of the word and sacrament, and service to others while ordering the life of the church.

Deacons provide spiritual leadership through nurturing others in their relationship to God and act as bridges for the congregation to respond to those marginalized in and around them through word, service, justice and compassion.

Associate members and licensed local pastors provide spiritual leadership through nurturing others in their relationship to God and leading the life of the local church.

Licensed local pastors can provide leadership within a local area, while elders, deacons and associate members can be placed in areas of need across the connection. Elders, deacons and licensed local pastors may work together within a local church or be appointed individually, based on the needs of each congregation.

Provisional elders and deacons, as well as ordained elders and deacons, should be compensated equally (salary, pension, health insurance, housing, accountable reimbursement) if appointed full time to a local congregation. (See the table provided in Recommendation 4.)

Regardless of appointed role within a local church, the salaries outlined in this recommendation should be considered for all appointed clergy serving full time within the local church.

As established in the guidelines of The Book of Discipline, funds have been set aside in the 2023 budget to provide temporary financial assistance under the definitions presented for minimum salary support in this recommendation. Working with the Cabinet, the commission seeks to coordinate local needs, while working to minimize the need for long-term minimum salary support.

The minimum salary-increase recommendation for 2023 is an average of 3% over last year. (See the Table, provided in the Book of Reports.) This increase was determined after much discussion, as we seek to balance the issues of seeing that clergy families are properly supported versus the costs of salary, pension, health insurance, housing and accountable reimbursement. We understand this balance causes a struggle for many local churches. We also continue to emphasize that minimum salaries are just that, a minimum compensation level for the purpose of determining missional support needs. Any individual local church can and should determine merit increases at or above this amount of increase.

Once again, we as a Commission are thankful for your support over the years for your clergy. We appreciate your leadership and the thoughtful consideration of this Commission resolution that is before you today. I move the adoption of Recommendation #4 of the Book of Reports.

G. OFFICE OF FRESH STARTS AND NEW BEGINNINGS

Presented by: Clark Hess

“And God-Enthroned spoke to me and said, ‘Consider this! I am making everything to be new and fresh.

Write down at once all that I have told you, because each word is trustworthy and dependable.”

Revelation 21:5, TPT

In 2021, Bishop Palmer positioned the Office of Fresh Starts and New Beginnings to support the fast-changing landscape of the current and future church through congregational development. Bishop Palmer’s vision for the Office of Fresh Starts and New Beginnings with Director Brad Aycock is to collaborate with the appointive cabinet to help equip established churches and to identify strategic areas for new faith communities to make new disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. New faith communities are supported through recruiting, assessing, training, coaching and funding.

Multiply Minis. West Ohio welcomed more than 1,500 registrations to the 21 Multiply Minis in 2021. Multiply Minis are timely, relevant trainings based on feedback from leaders across the conference. These Minis were led by practitioners from the requested topics.

Emerge. The Office of Fresh Starts and New Beginnings also provided a focused training for large churches. “Emerge” was offered to 10 West Ohio churches who average over 400 in worship. The purpose of this training was to assist churches in revisioning for the next season of ministry.

Bishop Palmer’s Leadership Clinics. In collaboration with the Office of Communications, the Office of Fresh Starts and New Beginnings launched Bishop Palmer’s Leadership Clinics. Throughout six clinics, more than 2,000 registered guests joined the virtual trainings from across the U.S. Nationally known leaders Nona Jones (Facebook/Meta), Carey Nieuwhof, Bishop Michael Curry, Beth Comstock, Nadia Bolz-Weber and Jemar Tisby offered their gifts and experiences to leaders hungry to learn. Out of the March Clinic with Nona Jones, Fresh Starts and New Beginnings worked with the Office of Communications to offer a training cohort and awarded 121 tech grants to churches looking to enhance their online presence.

Mission for New Faith Communities. To be a diverse movement of church-planting churches who make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

Greenhouse. In 2021, the Office of Fresh Starts and New Beginnings worked to recruit church planters into the Greenhouse who have a vision for a new faith community. The Greenhouse is West Ohio’s leader-development training for those called to start a new church.

New launches. In 2021, four new faith communities were launched and are being funded by Greenhouse grants awarded by the Missional Church Development Team. Those were Refuge 461 in Bluffton, Chapters in Cincinnati, The Warehouse in Cincinnati and Hope Collective Church in Dayton.

GHX (Greenhouse Expressions). The Office also expanded the previous Fresh Expressions training to develop a more contextualized GHX. GHX is an incubator and training for clergy or laity who have an idea or a desire to begin a new expression of church launching from an established church. GHX began in 2022.

Collaboration. In addition to the trainings, the Office of Fresh Starts and New Beginnings works with Bishop Palmer’s appointive cabinet to assist churches who are looking to reimagine their future through avenues such as restarting, rebranding or adoptions through our “new wineskins” process and Readiness 360 assessments.

The Office of Fresh Starts and New Beginnings once again worked alongside the United Methodist Foundation of West Ohio and the Light the Way team to raise awareness and funds to start innovative new United Methodist faith communities.

Governance. The Office of Fresh Starts and New Beginnings is governed by the Missional Church Development Team. This team is responsible for oversight of the office, as well as evaluating and approving requests for Greenhouse and revitalization grants. This team also supports the office and grant recipients through monitoring of ministry goals and prayer.

2022. Bishop Palmer, through the Office of Fresh Starts and New Beginnings, plans to offer Multiply Minis, Emerge, Greenhouse, GHX and Bishop Palmer’s Leadership Clinics to help equip leaders throughout the conference.

H. TRANSFORMATIVE DISCIPLESHIP

Presented by: Rev. Corey D. Perry, Chair

Bishop Palmer and members of Annual Conference, grace and peace be with you in the name of our Lord. I humbly submit to you this report on behalf of the Transformative Discipleship Team and Connectional Ministries staff.

The past year created as many operational challenges as the previous year, if not more. The Transformative Discipleship Team and Connectional Ministries staff rose to these challenges in multiple ways. It was a year of growth and transformation in ways other than size. We recognized that, while a few areas of our work reside as distinct elements, most of our team’s work is interconnected and interdependent. Building upon those connections and dependencies will be essential for future success.

One of the distinct elements of our work, Camps and Retreats Ministry, was able to resume summer camping opportunities with children and youth, though at reduced capacity. This resumption was warmly welcomed even if it was on a more limited basis than usual. A third-party consultant completed a thorough evaluation of all three camp sites and assessed the physical assets of each. This assessment provided incredibly valuable information to the Camps and Retreats team. It has also raised questions regarding how stewardship of these resources will be best managed into the future. It is the expectation of the Transformative Discipleship Team to bring a recommendation to conference members in 2023 regarding West Ohio camp facilities. We continue to believe that our camping ministry is transformative for those who participate – but also that we are called to a more disciplined stewardship of this ministry.

In the meantime, we will launch an urban strategy in partnership with Global Village in Dayton to expand camps to the inner-city, reaching more diverse campers with life-changing experiences. Further, the team is working to create systems of intentional connection and follow-up for congregations that send campers to our sites.

In conversation with Bishop Palmer, our Team will be dedicating itself to the continued expansion and integration of lay leadership throughout the conference’s work. While ordained leadership is critical to the Church’s mission, lay leadership is vital to sustaining its efforts, robustness, and viability. This work must be tied to other elements within the work of Connectional Ministries and the conference at large, such as Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion. Further, these leaders must be equipped and supported in their ministries, as well as deployed in areas of greatest need, working to realize the vision of every congregation serving as a mission station. We also need to elevate the visibility and voices of these lay leaders as they engage this work to ensure on-going alignment with and to the work of the churches and conference.

An example of the strength of equipped, supported, and deployed lay leadership is the conference’s restorative justice program, All In Community. This program has continued to become more sophisticated and effective as it has leveraged the relationships and resources within the conference and within communities to respond to the lives of persons affected by crime and incarceration. It is the goal of Transformative Discipleship and Connectional Ministries to take the template of how this work was launched and developed and apply that to other ministries that are lay led within the conference. It is also the goal of these teams to work with aligned community partners and donors to extend intentional invitations for financial investment that will allow this ministry – and others like it – to become less dependent on apportioned funds.

The Fear+Less Congregations initiative has seen a very successful year having taken its first cohort through the educational encounter. This work – funded by a grant from the Lilly Foundation – hopes to build on that success as it expands through additional cohorts and, ultimately, creates a culture within the conference where congregations can work through the fear they may experience in reaching out boldly into their communities and engaging diverse people.

Throughout all the work of Connectional Ministries and the conference, Transformative Discipleship seeks to weave the work of Diversity and Belonging and Next-Generation Engagement. In everything we do, in everything we say, we are to “let justice roll down like waters, and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream” (Amos 5:24). We must allow that flood of justice to pour through our conference, congregations, and communities, so that all who thirst for it may be quenched and the injustices be swept away, that all may then know peace.

We are grateful to our Connectional Ministry staff who make this possible.

1. LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT

i. Lay Servant Ministries

Presented by: Tracy Chambers

Greetings, members of the West Ohio Annual Conference.

It is my privilege to report what has occurred over this past year with Lay Servant Ministries (LSM). First, Samuel Rodriguez, Director of Faith Formation and Community Engagement, was assigned as the conference staff member to oversee the work of Lay Servant Ministries for the West Ohio Conference. He has partnered with Tracy Chambers, a Certified Lay Minister serving as West Ohio's Director of Lay Servant Ministry, as well as the chairpersons of district LSM committees.

Just as many of our churches did, Lay Servant Ministry (LSM) embraced the use of Zoom for trainings throughout our conference. Full adaptation to virtual teaching and learning is a work in progress, but most are warming to it.

Equipping all laypersons for ministry is a primary focus for Connectional Ministries. To this end, the district LSM chairs serve as a Lay Servant Ministry Collaborative working together across the conference. For the future of LSM and to assist with standardizing the administration of learning across the conference, our district administrators are developing Standard Operating Procedures. Through their work, this team discovered challenges and opportunities for Lay Servant Ministries. The following recognizes the current reality of West Ohio Conference Lay Servant Ministries:

- Some districts continue to struggle with raising enough participation to hold LSM classes in-person. Often, classes are scheduled then canceled due to low registration.
- Using Zoom enables the districts to hold LSM conference-wide classes. However, duplicate classes have been offered simultaneously, in multiple districts, on the same weekends, with varying costs and timeframes for the same course.
- With experience, our committees have gained confidence with technology over the past two years. We are ready to move forward with offering more LSM classes conference-wide, resulting in the required basic and six core courses being offered over one conference year.
- This collaboration potentially will decrease class duplication across districts, increase participation across the conference, and allow classes to go on as scheduled.
- This collaboration provides districts the opportunity to offer more advanced classes, in-person or online, according to preference/need.

The following chart details district collaboration and the training completed toward equipping West Ohio Conference laity through Lay Servant Ministries in 2021.

District	#LSM classes	#Students
MWD	1	2
MIV	5	6
NWP	9	13
SVD	2	3
CAS	2	2

#Lay Servants	219

Finally, Lay Servant Ministries and Connectional Ministries will continue collaborating to further develop LSM training, thus equipping West Ohio Conference laity to work across the conference as mission station Christians.

ii. Camps, Retreats, and Next-Gen Engagement

Presented by: Christian Albrecht and Rev. Matt Overman

Next-Gen Engagement

A total of $83,800 was awarded across nine Campus Ministries in West Ohio. With a full year of ministry that looked and felt differently, these grants allowed campus ministry to continue fostering faith-filled community in real and tangible ways. One participant in such a ministry recalls, "My faith journey prior to my involvement in campus ministry was centered on events, fellowship, and personal time with God. Now, I understand the importance others have on my walk."

A new off-shoot of this team also started to be developed. This off-shoot will focus on next generation engagement through first listening to young leaders.

Safe Sanctuaries

All local churches should review and update Safe Sanctuaries policies yearly. It is recommended that all local policies include: an introduction, statement of covenant, definitions, and recommended procedures for

Camps & Retreats

After a year without normal programming, we were happy to welcome campers and staff back for summer camp by implementing COVID-19 protocols. One quarter of the 525 campers had never been to any camp before. Two such campers came reluctantly because their friends told them camp was boring. They were happy to report at the end of the week, "Our friends had clearly not been to this camp. We can't wait to share Jesus with them and have them join us next year because this was not boring at all!"

We also partnered with AAnthony to gain an understanding of the lifespan of our current camping and retreat facilities and the capital needed to continue providing ministry within those facilities for years to come.

2. JUST MISSION

The Just-Mission Lead Team, as part of Transformative Discipleship, is charged with visioning, overseeing, and governing the work of ministries related to mission and justice within the West Ohio Conference. Below is a summary of those endeavors for 2021.

All In Community

All In Community's impact continues to grow deeper by building relationships with justice-involved members and neighbors and wider by restoring hope and supporting healing with those impacted by crime and incarceration across Ohio. All In Community has established the Four Friends Speakers Bureau, a community of 25 restored citizens who are equipped and deployed out to local congregations to bear witness to Jesus' transformational presence in their reentry journey. All In Community also continues to connect and collaborate broadly in its community partners network across Ohio. All this in addition to the countless ways in which we have come alongside pastors, laity, family members, and returning friends in their justice-involved journeys.

Also in 2021, All in Community:

- Grew the HOPE Letters Ministry to 130+ writers representing 13 churches and connecting with six Ohio prisons
- Brought together 265 congregants and community members through the Building Bridges Community Experience
- Supported 150 UMC members and faith-based co-laborers in monthly mutual learning experiences

Technology of Participation

Over the last couple of years, a group West Ohio clergy and laity have been on a journey toward understanding how to effectively facilitate conversations – an important skill when people desire to be heard in order to invest in what takes place in their church. The training was provided by the Institute for Cultural Affairs and centers on learning how to lead focused conversations, creating consensus, and focused implementation. Other than the focused conversations, all are done in two-hour participatory workshop format. The benefit of this process is that the generative work is accomplished via the wisdom of the people involved, those who know their church and community best.

Disaster Response

West Ohio has long been passionate about disaster response ministry, and 2021 was no exception. During a year that saw 20 major natural disasters in the U.S. alone, the people of the West Ohio Conference gave generously to support UMCOR's disaster response funds. In addition, Early Response Team members were trained and recertified, allowing them to respond as a caring Christian presence in the aftermath of disasters. Here in West Ohio, ice storms and flooding in southern Ohio caused damage to homes in multiple communities. And the Church responded – providing food, water, and propane to those in need. In Dayton, teams continued doing long-term tornado recovery work while following COVID-19 protocols for masking, social distancing, and tool-sharing.

In 2021, West Ohio:

- Trained and recertified 46 Early Response Team members
- Responded to disasters in Lawrence County, OH; Dayton, OH; Reynoldsburg, OH; and Detroit, MI.
- Donated $7,200 to West Ohio Disaster Response
- Donated $425,600 to U.S. Disaster Response
- Donated $57,800 to International Disaster Response, plus $93,800 to wherever disaster funds were most needed

Thank you, West Ohio Conference, for your generous support of disaster response ministries!

Volunteers in Mission (VIM)

In a year when COVID-19 caused many to re-think overseas travel, many of West Ohio's Volunteers in Mission teams stayed close to home, working either in their own communities or in a nearby state. Medical mission teams did return to Mexico starting in May of 2021, after vaccines became readily available in the U.S. VIM Team Leader Training, which provides practical and spiritual guidance for mission team leaders, was held online instead of in person. Virtual, online mission experiences helped churches and teams stay connected with mission sites around the world.

In 2021, West Ohio:

- Trained 7 new Volunteers in Mission Team Leaders
- Supported 14 Volunteers in Mission teams with a total of 140 volunteers
- Sent VIM teams to projects in Mexico, Kentucky, Illinois, and Pennsylvania
- Created 3 Virtual Mission experiences: Manos Juntas (Mexico), Kamisamba Farm and Wings of the Morning (North Katanga)

Mission Partnerships

Over many years, the West Ohio Conference has cultivated mission partnerships with United Methodist churches and projects in Cambodia, Laos, Mexico, North Katanga (DRC), and Russia. These mutually generative partnerships provide resources to and from West Ohio through missionary itineration, Volunteers in Mission teams, project support, and relationship-building. One such partnership is with Global Missionary Lorraine Charinda, who serves at Kamisamba Farm in Kamina, DRC. With the help of OhioHealth, West Ohio was able to bring Lorraine to the U.S. in 2021 to receive her COVID-19 vaccinations. While here, Lorraine met with churches and individuals that are now invested in her and her ministry in North Katanga. She even visited Seminary Hill Farm at the Methodist Theological School in Ohio and was able to exchange ideas with the staff and volunteers. Lorraine's story was featured on local, national, and international news outlets, casting the Church in a positive light.

In 2021, West Ohio:

- Supported 10 different missionaries and 88 ministries around the world
- Gave $33,550 to support United Methodist missionaries
- Gave nearly $1.1 million towards United Methodist Advance Specials

This critical support allows the message of God's love to reach far and wide! Thank you!

I. UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION OF WEST OHIO

Presented by: Bruce Boyd, Chair

Greetings, West Ohio Conference Members.

On behalf of the Foundation Board of Trustees, it is my privilege to bring you an update about your United Methodist Foundation of West Ohio. While we have much to share, I will focus on three areas of greatest importance.

The Foundation is growing.

2021 offered the opportunity for the Foundation to share its message across the conference and share our future plans. We have established sustainable processes and built strong relationships with individual donors and local church congregations throughout the conference.

Thanks to a strong market and excellent asset management, the Foundation is on strong financial footing. This year, four churches began endowments with the Foundation, and nearly a million dollars was invested by churches and organizations into their existing endowment funds. We are excited that our assets under management now top $100 million.

The Foundation is strong.

The Foundation Board is an active, diverse group of dedicated professionals, each bringing strengths and talents to bear on the success of the organization. Our executive director and her staff are equally dynamic, bringing enthusiasm, caring and attention to detail to their work on behalf of the West Ohio Conference. The structures and processes are in place to support the growth initiatives being planned. Finally, the Foundation is supported by excellent partners in the Conference Finance Team, especially CFO Bill Brownson.

The Foundation is focused on the future.

Most importantly, this year the Foundation Board of Trustees completed its first strategic plan after a nine-month process. This plan maps out the strategic direction of the Foundation through the end of the quadrennium. In addition to identifying new guiding statements for the Foundation, it identifies two primary strategic goals supported by clearly identified objectives and measurable outcomes. The highlights of the plan are identified below.

As chair of the board, I am excited about the future of the Foundation and how we can support the mission of the church. Your involvement and support are crucial to our success. I encourage you to seek out the services and resources of the Foundation and consider how the Foundation might help you and your church achieve your kingdom-building goals.

2022-24 Strategic Plan Highlights

Mission: To equip local churches to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world ... a world of justice, love and peace filled with people growing in the likeness of Jesus Christ.

Purpose: To be the premier provider of best-in-class asset-management services, and a trusted advisor offering expert stewardship education and guidance for WOC stakeholders.

Vision: The UMFOW envisions a day when every West Ohio church, ministry and organization possesses the financial resources to achieve its kingdom-building goals.

Strategic Goal #1

Our first goal is to build relationships with current and potential stakeholders through a clearly communicated value proposition. To achieve this goal, we will develop a communication plan that identifies our primary audiences; develop a value proposition for each identified audience; and design the appropriate communication strategies and vehicles for sharing that value proposition. An awareness survey will be shared before and after the communication plan is put in place to measure effectiveness.

Strategic Goal #2

Our second goal is to increase the Foundation's capacity to serve current and future stakeholders. To achieve this goal, we will focus our work on four key areas, including: providing best-in-class asset management services; becoming the preferred provider of stewardship education/development services to local churches; providing structure to serve all United Methodist churches; and helping individual donors reach their philanthropic goals. The central activities to meet these objectives include assessing our asset management services, growing the Foundation staff, developing a Stewardship Education program, as well as developing a more robust Donor Advised Fund program for individual donors.

- d. The conference at any corporate session may change these rules governing the Board of Trustees by a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting.
- e. Each local congregation will establish a Safe Sanctuaries® Policy following denominational training guidelines and will update these annually. Each congregation's Safe Sanctuaries® Policy is subject to provisions described by the West Ohio Conference office responsible for the oversight of the Safe Sanctuaries® Policy implementation.
- f. The parsonage and moving standards shall be available on the conference website and, when amended, printed in the journal.
- g. Archives and History Committee – The Archives and History Committee will be a specialized committee to work collaboratively with the Board of Trustees and the conference archivist to implement disciplinary requirements. Members will be named by the Board of Trustees and may serve a maximum of two consecutive four year terms. The team shall have eight members, at least one of these members shall be a member of the Board of Trustees. A chair shall be named by the chief financial officer in consultation with the conference archivist.

17. COMMUNICATIONS ADVISORY COMMITTEE

The Communication Advisory Committee will assist the West Ohio director of Communications in resourcing the conference around communication needs. The team will help develop the capacity of conference leaders to develop and implement effective communication strategies. Members may serve a maximum of two consecutive four year terms.

The team shall be composed of eight people nominated by the Conference Committee on Nominations. A chair shall be determined by the director of Communications in consultation with the bishop and elected by members of the West Ohio Annual Conference session.

18. THE COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE COMPENSATION

There shall be a Commission on Equitable Compensation composed of four lay persons and four clergy persons (including a chair and a secretary), with one person being from each district. At least one lay and one clergy person shall be from a church of fewer than 200 members. Members are nominated by the Conference Committee on Nominations and elected by the annual conference. The commission on Equitable Compensation shall operate in accordance with The Book of Discipline.

19. THE COMMITTEE ON RULES

There shall be a Committee on Rules composed of ten persons at large (including a chair and a secretary). In addition, the assistant to the bishop, the conference secretary, and the conference director of Connectional Ministries shall also be members. This committee shall edit or compose all statements pertaining to structure, procedure and rules. Changes shall be approved by the annual conference and then given to the secretary for inclusion in the conference journal.

B. NOMINATIONS AND ELECTIONS

1. CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON NOMINATIONS

- a. There shall be a Conference Committee on Nominations elected by the annual conference. The Conference Committee on Nominations shall be the official group to serve as a coordinating arm through which all nominations shall be cleared before they are presented for election at annual conference. Where procedures for nominations are not otherwise provided, the Committee on Nominations shall make all needed nominations. The members shall serve four-year terms. The membership of the committee shall consist of:
 - i. The chairperson, named by the bishop
 - ii. Three at large members, named by the bishop.
 - iii. One lay and one clergy representative from each district, named by the district superintendent in consultation with the district committee on nominations.
- b. Officers shall be: Chair as named by the bishop, vice chair, and secretary to be nominated from the membership, by the Conference Committee on Nominations for the succeeding term. The committee may choose to elect additional officers as needed.
- c. The Conference Committee on Nominations shall be empowered to nominate all ~~officers and~~ members of the agencies to be elected by the annual conference with the exception of those groups whose organization is determined by The Book of Discipline or other conference rules.

2. NOMINATION PROCESS

The primary task of nominating persons to serve as officers and members of lead teams, boards and committees of the West Ohio Conference shall reside with the Conference Committee on Nominations as set forth below.

- a. The Nominations Committee shall oversee a process of creating a pool of persons to serve on the lead teams, boards and committees. The nominations committee can use Interest Forms, which are available on the conference website.

- b. The director of Connectional Ministries shall advise, monitor, and evaluate the process used by the committee for making nominations to the annual conference.
- c. Conference Lay Leaders
 - i. The resident bishop in consultation with the Director of Connectional Ministries and the extended cabinet will make recommendations regarding the number of laity to deploy as conference lay leader(s) within a quadrennium. The strategic vision, mission and priorities of the annual conference will guide the process.
 - ii. The Director of Connectional Ministries will work with the conference nomination team and other leaders to identify potential laity to serve as conference lay leader(s).
 - iii. An interview process will be developed by the Director of Connectional Ministries to identify the individual or individuals to place into nomination. The final candidate(s) will be interviewed by the bishop before a nomination slate is developed.
 - iv. The Director of Connectional Ministries, along with the current lay leader(s) will develop a nomination slate for members of the laity session. The resident bishop will facilitate the election of the lay leader(s). Members of the laity session will elect the conference lay leader(s) for the quadrennium.
- d. Conference Director of Lay Speaking Ministries
 - i. The Director of Connectional Ministries will work with the Conference Nomination Team and other leaders to identify potential laity to serve as the Conference Director of Lay Speaking Ministries. This position shall be filled by a certified lay servant, certified lay speaker, or certified lay minister.
 - ii. The Conference Nomination Team, in cooperation with the Director of Connectional Ministries, will prepare the slate for members of the laity session. The Conference Lay Leader will facilitate the election of the Conference Director of Lay Speaking Ministries. Members of the laity session will elect the Conference Director of Lay Speaking Ministries for the quadrennium.
 - iii. As per The Book of Discipline, the Conference Director of Lay Speaking Ministries will chair the Conference Committee on Lay Servant Ministries. Other officers will be elected by the committee as deemed necessary

3. TERM OF OFFICE AND MEMBERSHIP TENURE

- a. The elected term of membership on all lead teams, boards and committees of the annual conference shall be one quadrennium. The membership begins after the elections at the annual conference immediately following general conference. Unless otherwise stipulated by The Book of Discipline, no member shall serve longer on a conference lead team, board or committee than two consecutive quadrennia except that members elected during the last half of a quadrennium shall be eligible to be elected for two additional consecutive quadrennia. For missional purposes, a term may be extended upon approval of the bishop and annual conference.
- b. Officers of lead teams, boards and committees may be drawn from the current membership of said lead teams, boards and committees. They are elected for a term of one quadrennium, unless otherwise specified in The Book of Discipline. No successive term in the same office shall be possible unless the lead team, board, or committee member takes office during the last half of the previous quadrennium.
- c. The name of each lead team, board and committee member listed in the conference journal shall carry in parenthesis after his/her ~~each~~ name the year in which he/she began serving ~~service began~~. ~~Following the name of an officer the year he/she became an officer will also be included.~~ Officers' service start year will also be included as appropriate.
- d. The Conference Committee on Nominations shall be responsible for applying the tenure rule.
- e. The maximum workload of any person shall be two elected positions on conference lead teams, boards and committees simultaneously. The Conference Committee on Nominations shall be responsible for applying the maximum workload rules.
 - i. Service on a conference related lead team, board or committee shall not count toward a person's maximum workload if the position on the committee is by virtue of membership on the parent body.
 - ii. Persons who become members of conference lead teams, boards or committees by virtue of a national or jurisdictional office shall not have this counted as part of their conference role.
- f. The above rules do not apply to the following: United Methodist Women, United Methodist Men, ~~Conference Program Committee~~, Board of Conference Trustees, institutional trustees and officers, staffs of the conference treasurer and statistician, conference secretary and staff, and all district superintendents and other full-time salaried officials of the conference.
- g. The annual conference shall in its regular session vote to elect the membership of any conference lead team, board or committee where The Book of Discipline or conference rules require election by the annual conference. In between sessions of the annual conference this function shall be delegated to the Transformative Discipleship Team.
- h. Vacancies occurring between the sessions of annual conference, for which no procedure for filling is otherwise provided, shall be filled by the cabinet, upon nomination by the person or group originally responsible for making the nomination.

- i. The chair or secretary of each of the conference lead team, board or committee (for which the Committee on Nominations has power to nominate) shall submit to the nominations chair meeting attendance records for the year. Persons who have been inactive and/or absent from their meetings for one year, without cause, may be replaced. The conference Committee on Nominations shall nominate necessary replacements. When this applies to district representatives, districts will be notified.
- j. Lay members of annual conference shall be elected annually by the churches. In the event that a charge is represented by an alternate at any session of the annual conference, it shall be the responsibility of the charge conference to determine whether or not the alternate shall also replace the lay member in positions that the member holds in the charge by virtue of office.

4. ELECTIONS TO GENERAL AND JURISDICTIONAL CONFERENCES

- a. The elections shall take place in the Annual Conference Session the year before the year when the Jurisdictional and General Conferences take place.
- b. Lay Election for General and Jurisdictional Delegates
 - i. In the year of the election of delegates to general and jurisdictional conferences, a Lay Voter Guide shall be prepared by the conference office and distributed to all lay members of the annual conference by May 1 of the year of the election. The Lay Voter Guide shall include the names, biographical information, and assigned election numbers for all eligible Laity.
 - ii. For biographical information to be printed in The Lay Voter Guide, a candidate must meet the following criteria:
 - (a). Indicated to the conference office a desire to be considered for election.
 - (b). Met all eligibility requirements. To be eligible a layperson must be a member of a local church in the West Ohio Annual Conference in accordance with the Constitution and The Book of Discipline
 - (c). Completed the biographical information forms provided by the conference office by the deadline. Forms must be returned to the conference office no later than January 15 of the year of the election.
 - iii. The first ballot and the second ballot tally will report those receiving 25 votes or more. The third ballot tally and fourth ballot tally will show 35 votes or more. The fifth ballot tally will show 50 votes or more and the sixth ballot tally will show 100 votes or more. The seventh ballot tally will show 200 votes or more, and each succeeding ballot tally showing will increase by 50 or more. The members of the conference may direct the reporting of a higher minimum vote. When the general conference delegates have been elected, the process for the election of the jurisdictional delegates will follow the same process as that for general conference delegates.
- c. Clergy Election for General and Jurisdictional Delegates
 - i. In the year of the election of delegates to general and jurisdictional conferences, a Clergy Voter Guide shall be prepared and distributed to all clergy by the conference office. It shall include a listing of all clergy eligible for election. Prior to October in the year preceding the election, biographical information forms shall be distributed by the conference office to all clergy eligible for election. Each eligible clergy will be asked to indicate on the form whether ~~he/she wants~~ they want to be considered for election. Clergy biographical information forms must be returned to the Conference office no later than January 15 of the year of the election of delegates to general and jurisdictional conferences to be published in the Clergy Voter Guide.
 - ii. The Clergy Voter Guide shall be prepared by the conference office and distributed to all clergy through the conference offices by May 1 of the year of the election of delegates to general and jurisdictional conferences. The Clergy Voter Guide shall include the names and assigned election numbers for all eligible clergy. Eligible clergy who return the biographical information form by the deadline shall have that information printed with their name and election number. The listings of eligible clergy shall be divided into three categories: 1) those who want to be considered for election, 2) those who do not want to be considered for election, and 3) other eligible clergy.
 - iii. The first ballot tally and the second ballot tally will report those receiving 25 votes or more. The third ballot tally and fourth ballot tally will show 35 votes or more. The fifth ballot tally will show 50 votes or more and the sixth ballot tally will show 100 votes or more. The seventh ballot tally will show 200 votes or more, and each succeeding ballot tally showing will increase by 50 or more. The members of the conference may direct the reporting of a higher minimum vote. When the general conference delegates have been elected, the process for the election of the jurisdictional delegates will follow the same process as that for general conference delegates.
- d. Additional Procedures Governing the Election of Lay and Clergy Delegates to general and jurisdictional conferences
 - i. The West Ohio Annual Conference shall establish a Conference Elections Team to guide the elective process. The Conference Election Team shall be composed of a balanced and diverse group of eight persons who hold differing viewpoints and shall be appointed by the bishop and confirmed by the annual conference.
 - (a). The bishop shall select the leadership of the Conference Election Team.

- (b). The Conference Election team shall be selected two years prior to the next election year for general and jurisdictional conference, and shall begin their work upon election.
- (c). Members of the Conference Election Team must agree not to offer themselves for or accept election as delegates to general and jurisdictional conference while serving on the team.
- (d). The Conference Election Team shall implement, oversee, monitor, report and provide for the methods outlined in this document, and may propose changes to the Annual Conference based on the communication available and perceived needs to best serve the process.
- (e). The Conference Election Team will recommend the number of laity and clergy alternates to be elected. (for 2019, 4 of laity and 4 clergy)
- ii. The West Ohio Conference shall provide means for any persons offering ~~herself/himself~~ themselves for election, or any group seeking to present recommendations regarding election, to distribute materials (at the individual's or group's expense) to all lay and clergy members of the conference. Any member of the annual conference or of the churches of the West Ohio Conference upon endorsement by their local church council or an official or unofficial group within the annual conference shall be eligible to access the services described in this paragraph. All individuals and groups participating in the election process will be asked to covenant to distribute materials only through means providing by the West Ohio Conference. Any person or group not abiding by this process will be noted at annual conference.
- iii. A tally of each ballot shall be completed and made available to members of the annual conference prior to taking the next ballot. The tally will be made available on screens throughout the conference area in ways that do not interfere with the voting. Printed copies of ballots will not be available; rather ushers and members of the Election Team will be available to assist persons in obtaining results if they are unable to make use of the screens. The tally shall include:
 - (a). The name and number of the candidate
 - (b). The vote total of each person receiving votes (subject to rules established or amended from time to time by the body)
 - (c). The gender identity, racial-ethnic identity, district and age category (Under 18; 18-30; 31-45; 46-60; Over 60) of each person receiving votes.
 - (d). The order (elder or deacon) of each clergy candidate.
 - (e). A report of the gender identity, racial-ethnic identity, age category, and order composition of the delegation elected to that point in time.
- e. The Election Team shall provide means to compile recommended candidate lists for equitable dissemination that contains the updated candidate recommendations ("slate updates") of official and unofficial conference groups during the process of balloting at annual conference.
 - i. At the conclusion of the election process the Conference Elections Team will calculate the cost of producing and distributing the Election Lists. Groups making use of this process may be required to underwrite the cost on an equitable basis as determined by the Conference Election Team.
 - ii. All official or unofficial groups participating in the election process will be asked to covenant to distribute updated recommendations to the body of the Annual Conference only through this process. Those who do not abide by this process will be noted at the annual conference.
- f. Persons wishing to withdraw from consideration for election shall notify the chair (bishop) of their desire. The chair (bishop) shall report the withdrawal to the conference.
- g. The procedure for nominating individuals for the episcopacy from the West Ohio Conference shall be as follows: The jurisdictional conference delegates may bring nominations for the office of bishop to the annual conference immediately preceding the jurisdictional conference.

C. DISTRICT STRUCTURE

1. The district superintendent, in consultation with district leadership, may organize and schedule district conferences. The membership may consist of all licensed and ordained clergy, commissioned and diaconal ministers and deaconesses residing within the district and designated lay members representing local congregations and district ministries.
- ~~2. District Program Council or equivalent Districts may organize a District Program Council or equivalent. The purpose of the District Program Councils or equivalents shall be to assist local churches to minister more effectively; to serve as a channel of communication between the local churches, Connectional Ministries, and the General Agencies of the Church; to initiate programs for the district; and to partner with the Connectional Ministries Team in the performance of its functions.~~
2. The district superintendent shall ensure the organization and operation of each district's incorporated entity consistent with its code of regulations (bylaws) and articles of incorporation. Therefore, each district shall have a Board of Directors or Trustees that fulfills obligations of the district's articles of incorporation and code of regulations (bylaws). The members of this board shall be nominated by the District Nominations Committee and elected by the District Conference. It should meet at least quarterly to conduct the business of the district.

3. District Committee on Ordained Ministry: There shall be a district committee on ordained ministry as outlined in The Book of Discipline
4. District Committee on Superintendency: There shall be a district committee on superintendency as outlined in The Book of Discipline.
5. Each district shall have a District Board on Church Location and Building to approve purchase and sale of church or district properties within the district. It also shall approve new building projects and significant (over 25% of the value of the building) remodeling projects for the district or the churches in the district.

D. CLERGY PROCEDURES

1. MOVING TO A NEW APPOINTMENT

The cabinet shall annually determine the effective date of appointment changes and the moving date for pastors.

2. COMPENSATION FOR NEWLY APPOINTED PASTORS

When a pastor receives a new appointment, the cabinet shall determine the date for compensation changes including salaries, pension, and hospitalization.

3. COMMITTEE ON STAFF/PASTOR-PARISH RELATIONS AND NEWLY APPOINTED PASTORS

We strongly recommend that the Committee on Staff/Pastor-Parish Relations and newly appointed pastors meet monthly for the first six months and at least quarterly thereafter for the purpose of developing a supportive relationship.

4. VACATION

a. Vacation Policy

Time for vacation, continuing education, Sabbath and formational renewal are extremely important to every person involved in professional ministry. There must be times of recreation, study and recentering in each clergy's life. The West Ohio Conference adopts these guidelines for clergy and churches as a way of encouraging clergy to live a balanced life in ministry.

The guidelines that are listed below are the minimum of all clergy under appointment to local congregations. A charge and the appointed clergy in consultation with the District Superintendent may negotiate mutually agreeable changes to fit unusual circumstances in line with the spirit of this section.

Details and agreements regarding vacation, sick time, continuing education, days off, formational and spiritual growth leave, and connectional responsibilities should be established at the time of the appointment and reviewed annually as part of the annual pastor evaluation with the charge's Committee on Staff/Pastor-Parish Relations (SPRC).

All clergy shall have at least, but not limited to, the equivalent of four weeks (based on estimated weekly workdays), plus two days. These days may be taken individually. This shall include a maximum of four Sundays. The following table shows minimum paid vacation days by nature of appointment.

MINIMUM VACATION STANDARDS

Appointment Level	Estimated Weekly Workdays	Total Vacation Days including 4 Sundays
Full Time Appointment	6	26 (6 x 4 = 24) + 2
¾ Time	4.5	20 (4.5 x 4 = 18) + 2
½ Time	3	14 (3 x 4 = 12) + 2
¼ Time	1.5	8 (1.5 x 4 = 6) + 2

Clergy do not need to take a vacation day for regularly scheduled weekly day(s) off

Vacation shall be granted on the annual conference year (July 1 through June 30). In order to establish proper healthy boundaries, pastors and other clergy persons under appointment are expected and encouraged to take all vacation days annually. Vacation is not cumulative and cannot be carried over to the succeeding year. It is expected that the pastor will make arrangements in advance with the SPRC and consult with them in obtaining vacation supply coverage. Vacation leave for appointment beyond the local church (deacons) or extension ministry (elders and local pastors) is determined by that employer.

b. Continuing Education and Spiritual Growth

In accordance with The Book of Discipline ¶350.2, clergy members continuing education and spiritual growth program shall include professional formation leaves at least one week each year and may include at least one month during one year of every quadrennium. Such leaves shall not be considered vacation time and should be coordinated through your SPRC committee. More extended time for renewal leave is a healthy part of the rhythms of vocational ministry. In accordance with The Book of Discipline ¶350.3, clergy members who have held full-time appointment for at least six years may request a formational and spiritual growth leave of up to six months while continuing to hold an appointment in the local church.

c. Sabbath and Weekly Day Off

It is important for clergy to have regular time away each week. Clergy members are strongly encouraged to establish a schedule that includes at least one day of Sabbath and one day away from ministerial responsibilities each week. Experiencing and modeling the rhythm of weekly Sabbath rest is vital to the work of vocational ministry. This day is included as a part of the six-day workweek for full time appointment in the chart above. Such days should be communicated so that congregation and staff will know when such days are to occur, so as to allow a time of refreshment. These are not vacation days.

d. Connectional and Community Responsibilities

All clergy are expected to attend all sessions of the Annual Conference. In addition, clergy may have other connectional responsibilities. Time spent on these responsibilities shall not be counted as vacation or as continuing education. Clergy will inform the SPRC of time needed for these responsibilities.

Clergy are also often involved in various community groups. Such involvement provides an opportunity to build a bridge between the community and the church. These involvements shall not be considered vacation or continuing education. Clergy are encouraged to use good judgement in determining the commitment accepted beyond the primary appointment. Consultation with the SPRC should take place before accepting such responsibilities.

E. CONFERENCE PROCEDURE

1. There shall be an Annual Conference Worship Committee with the responsibility of planning all worship services connected with the annual conference. The Bishop will nominate 8–10 people to serve on the committee to be elected by members of Annual Conference. The worship committee is empowered to include other people in the design and leadership of worship services and will work with the bishop or their designee.
2. There shall be an Annual Conference Planning Team charged with the responsibilities of selecting the theme, designing, and planning annual conference and responding to all relevant concerns and issues. ~~appointed by the Bishop of the Ohio West Area. 2. ~~The Annual Conference Planning Team shall have the responsibility, in cooperation with the Council on Finance and Administration, to create a budget for the annual conference session and shall be accountable for the budget's management.~~
3. ~~The Annual Conference Planning Team shall be charged with the responsibilities of selecting the theme, designing, and~~

- planning annual conference. The team shall respond to all relevant concerns and issues concerning annual conference.
4. There shall be an Annual Conference Worship Committee, appointed by the bishop, for the purpose of planning and leading the services of worship held during the sessions of annual conference. This committee shall work in consultation with the bishop and his or her designee.
 5. The Annual Conference Planning Team shall appoint the Head Usher. The Head Usher will recruit, train and maintain a roster of ushers and pages for the Annual Conference session.
 3. Reports to the Annual Conference containing recommendations shall be included in the Book of Reports or otherwise copied and distributed using annual conference communication systems prior to the opening of the session at which they are presented.
 7. Reports shall not exceed four pages in length, exclusive of financial statements, charts, and graphs. The secretarial staff shall be authorized to edit reports in cooperation with the reporting chair.
 4. All reports and other materials to be distributed to the conference must be approved by the Conference Secretary 24 hours prior to the time distribution is made. Distribution must be made not later than the morning of the day the reports are to be considered by the annual conference, and must be in a format(s) reasonably available to all members.
 9. At the first session following the general conference, the conference shall elect a secretary and a statistician upon nomination by the bishop and the cabinet, and, upon nomination by the Council on Finance and Administration, a treasurer.
 5. At the opening of each annual session, the annual conference shall elect assistants to the conference secretary, nominated by the conference secretary, to assist with his/her duties.
 6. There shall be a standing committee on the conference journal who shall work with the Annual Conference secretary and journal editor to ensure the accuracy of the journal. The committee shall be comprised of three people nominated through the Conference Nominations Committee and elected by members of the Annual Conference. which shall report to the conference some time prior to adjournment regarding the accuracy and acceptability of the journal as prepared by the secretary.
 7. The secretary shall take charge of the conference journal and other papers of the conference and preserve them with care. Working with the Episcopal Office, the conference secretary will ensure that the journal is created and distributed within an agreed upon timeframe.
 13. All persons who are members of general church agencies shall serve on corresponding annual conference lead teams, boards or committees.
 8. Legislation and Procedures:
 - d. There shall be a Reference and Procedure Committee of the annual conference. All recommendations from the bishop, the conference staff, cabinet members, other officers of the conference boards, lead teams, committees, local congregations, lay persons, and clergy shall be submitted to this committee by March 1. The Reference and Procedure Committee shall receive these recommendations and provide a legislative process to bring them to the floor of the annual conference session.

There shall be not more than ten members of the Reference and Procedure Committee. The members shall be: Chair— the conference secretary; director of Connectional Ministries; one representative from the Transformative Discipleship Team; agenda coach; assistant to the bishop, and such lay and clergy as will provide an equal balance named by the Conference Committee on Nominations.
 - e. Members of the conference wishing to submit recommendations of urgent business directly to the plenary session shall identify the subject of their recommendation whereupon the plenary session shall vote whether or not it wishes to suspend the rules to consider the recommendation.
 - f. The submitter of any recommendation shall have the right of last speech to present his/her that recommendation to the annual conference session.
 9. The voting bar of the conference shall be fixed at the convening session of the annual conference.
 10. The Annual Conference Budget shall be approved on the first day of conference legislative action. Any legislative action modifying the budget shall be reviewed and voted by the final day of legislative work.
 11. Speakers to a matter of business are to identify self by name, lay or clergy, and district before speaking.
 12. Amendments other than a motion to approve or reject a matter under discussion must be submitted in triplicate to the secretary's desk before action is taken.
 13. Lay Members to Annual Conference
 - a. Each charge is entitled to elect a lay member of annual conference. Each charge with more than one clergy appointed shall elect additional lay members so that the number of clergy and lay members from the charge shall be equal.

In order to achieve lay and clergy balance in the membership of the annual conference, in addition to those laity specified in The Book of Discipline, the formula for identifying additional lay members for the West Ohio Conference shall be:

- i. Director of Conference Certified Lay Ministry Academy
- ii. Elected lay chairs of conference lead teams, boards and committees
- iii. Conference college interns
- iv. Elected lay persons to general agencies
- v. Elected lay delegates to general conference and jurisdictional conference
- vi. Appointed lay persons to general agencies
- vii. The Dean of the West Ohio mission-u
- viii. United Methodist Administrators of Community Centers in West Ohio related to the United Methodist Women, and Global Ministries and West Ohio Lay Church and Community Workers and Young Adult Missionaries
- ix. Lay members of the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry
- x. Lay members of the West Ohio Annual Conference Board of Trustees
- xi. Certified Lay Ministers
- xii. Conference Director of Lay Speaking Ministries

The persons in the above priority categories shall be designated "virtue of office or position."

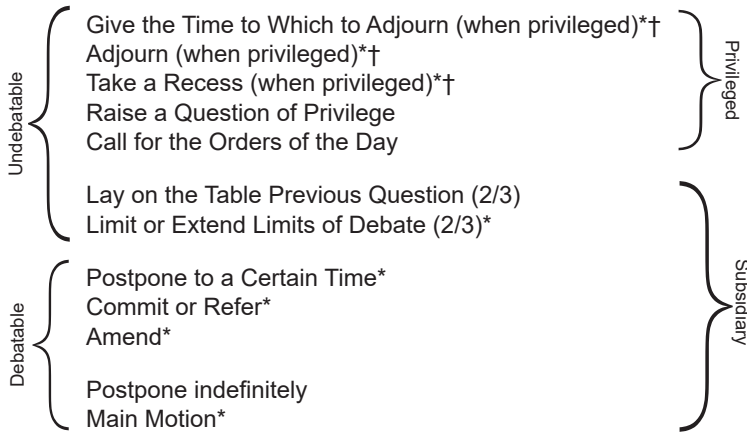

- b. Continuing with the balance of lay and clergy members, the at-large lay members from the districts shall be in proportion to the number of professing members in each district. Twenty per cent (20%) of the at-large lay members shall be youth and young adults. Deliberate care should be taken to ensure inclusive representation as outlined in the Values Statement. This formula shall be reviewed every quadrennium by July 1, in the year following general conference, based upon the previous year's statistician report.
- c. At large members of Annual Conference from each district shall be elected by January 31 no later than one week prior to the annual conference registration deadline by the district conference, District Board of Directors, Program Council or equivalent, or an appropriate district administrative body upon recommendation by the District Nominating Committee or equivalent. In fulfilling these positions, it is further recommended the District Board of Directors, Program Council or equivalent chair, district youth president, district associate lay leader, district director of Lay Servant Ministries, lay speakers and lay supply pastors be given consideration for these positions. If there are at-large member vacancies after January 31, then the district conference, District Program Council or an appropriate district administrative body may determine a process for filling these vacancies.
- d. Each priority is to be entirely used before proceeding to the next priority category. This formula is to be administered under the supervision of the annual conference secretary.

14. The heads of institutions and paid staffs of conference or General Church agencies, may be introduced to the conference at a time deemed appropriate by the chair of the conference.
15. No request for a conference-wide campaign, or for an amount in excess of one thousand dollars, shall be made as part of, or in connection with, any report of the annual conference unless such request shall have the approval of the Council on Finance and Administration. Any such request or any proposed divergence from that council's recommendation, shall be made under separate and distinct motions at a time when, in the judgment of the chair, proper consideration by the body can be given to all such proposals.
16. Absent the approval of the Council on Finance and Administration, no conference-wide campaign for funds needing approval by the annual conference shall be launched earlier than one year after the date of its approval by the West Ohio Conference.
17. Amendments to the rules for conference procedure may be made by a two-thirds vote of any session of the West Ohio Annual Conference provided that the proposed change shall have been submitted to the Committee on Rules for consideration prior to the vote.
18. Retired bishops who served, who were elected from, or who reside in the West Ohio Conference shall be honorary members of the annual conference and listed in the conference journal.

F. PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

All sessions of the West Ohio Annual Conference shall be conducted according to these rules. These rules may be amended by the vote of two-thirds of the members present and voting at any session, provided that the proposed change shall have been submitted to the Committee on Rules for consideration prior to the vote.

1. ORDER OF PRECEDENCE OF MOTIONS

* Can be amended; the others cannot be amended (from Roberts Rules of Order).

2. UNDEBATABLE MOTIONS

The following motions shall be acted upon without debate:

- a. To adjourn, when unqualified, except to adjourn the conference.
- b. To suspend the rules (2/3 vote).
- c. To take from the table.
- d. To call for the previous question.
- e. To reconsider a nondebatable motion.
- f. To limit or extend the limits of debate.
- g. To call for the orders of the day.

3. PRECEDENCE OF SECONDARY MOTION

If any one or more of the following motions are made when one or more other motions are pending, the order of precedence in relation to one another shall be the same as the order of their listing below:

- a. To fix the time to which the conference shall adjourn. (This motion is subject to amendment or it may be laid on the table.)
- b. To adjourn.
- c. To take a recess.
- d. To order the previous question.
- e. To lay on the table.
- f. To limit or extend the limits of debate.
- g. To postpone to a certain time.
- h. To commit or refer.
- i. To amend or substitute.
- j. To postpone indefinitely.

4. WHEN A SECOND IS NOT REQUIRED

The following do not require a second:

- a. To raise a question of privilege
- b. Question of order
- c. Objection to the consideration of a question
- d. Call for orders of the day
- e. Call for the division of question (under certain circumstances)
- f. Call for division of conference (in voting)

- g. Call up motion to reconsider
- h. Filling blanks
- i. Nominations
- j. Leave to withdraw a motion
- k. Inquiries of any kind

5. WHEN MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS ARE TO BE WRITTEN

All motions and resolutions shall be reduced to writing if so directed by the presiding officer or by a majority vote of the conference.

6. WHEN A MOTION OR RESOLUTION IS IN POSSESSION OF THE CONFERENCE

When a motion or resolution is made and seconded or stated by the presiding officer, it shall be in the possession of the conference. By conference consent, any motion or resolution may be withdrawn by the mover at any time before its amendment or decision.

7. ALTERATION OF REPORTS

When a committee report has been published in The Book of Reports to the members of the conference, it is in possession of the conference and cannot be altered except by action of the conference.

8. MOTIONS IN ORDER WHEN A MAIN MOTION IS BEING CONSIDERED

When a question is under debate, any subsidiary motion applying thereto may be made. This includes the following motions listed in order of their precedence: Lay on the Table, Previous Questions, Limit or Extend Limits of Debate, Postpone to a Certain Time, Commit or Refer, Amend, Substitute, Postpone indefinitely. Privileged motions are always in order, limited only by such restrictions, Roberts Rules of Order.

The motion to adjourn cannot be made when a member has the floor or when it interrupts voting or verifying a vote.

9. AMENDMENTS AND SUBSTITUTIONS

Only one amendment to an amendment shall be in order. However, it is in order to move a substitute for the main motion. In such case the chair shall proceed to perfect the original motion. The previous question when voted under these conditions shall merely stop debate but does not permit a vote on the main motion. When the main motion has been perfected, the chair shall proceed to perfect the substitute. When the substitute has been perfected, the chair shall call for a vote on the substitute. If the substitute is carried, it shall replace the original main motion and become the main motion. The chair will then call for a vote on the (new) main motion. The new main motion can be amended only by addition. If the substitute does not carry, without further debate, the chair shall call for a vote on the original main motion as it has been perfected.

10. DIVISION OF QUESTION

Before a vote is taken, any member has the right to call for the division of any question, if it is subject to such division as he/she indicates indicated. If no member objects, the division shall be made, but if there is objection, the chair, not waiting for a second, shall put the question of division to vote.

11. TABLING RELATED MOTIONS

No motion which adheres to another motion, or has another motion adhering to it, can be laid on the table by itself. Such motions, if laid on the table, carry with them the motions to which they respectively adhere or which adhere to them.

12. SPEAKERS FOR AND AGAINST

- a. When a recommendation is under consideration, it shall be the duty of the chair to ascertain, when recognizing a member of the conference, on which side the member proposes to speak; the chair shall not assign the floor to any member proposing to speak on the same side of the pending question as the speaker immediately preceding if any member desires to speak on the other side thereof.
- b. Except for undebatable motions (Rule 2), no recommendation shall be adopted or question relating to the same decided without opportunity having been given for at least two speeches for and two against the same recommendation. After three speeches for and three against and provided no secondary motions come before the floor, the question shall be put automatically.

13. LIMITATIONS ON DEBATE

No member shall speak more than once on the same question until all who desire to speak have spoken. Speeches shall be no more than two minutes without leave of the conference. The chair and/or duly authorized member or members presenting the recommendation shall be entitled to two minutes to close the discussion. The motion to limit or extend the limits of debate is in order any time, except when a member has the floor.

14. SPEAKING ONLY AFTER A MOTION

No member of the conference shall be permitted to speak on a question unless it has been properly presented to the conference in the form of a motion.

15. MOTIONS AFTER SPEAKING ON A PENDING QUESTION

No member who has spoken on a pending question shall at the close of his/her that person's speech have the right to call for the previous question or move to lay the motion on the table.

16. WHO MAY VOTE

Every member who is within the bar of the conference at the time the question is put has the right to vote. A member who is not within the bar of the conference at the time the question is put by the chair shall not be permitted to vote except such member is necessarily absent in the work of the conference.

17. PREVIOUS QUESTION

When any member moves the previous question (that is, that the vote be now taken on the motion or motions pending) he/she the member shall indicate to what he/she intends it it is intended to apply if any secondary motion or motions are pending. If he/she the member does not so indicate, the chair may regard it as applying only to the immediate pending question. This vote shall be taken without debate and, if in the judgment of the chair, two-thirds of those present vote for its adoption, the vote shall be taken on the motion or motions to which it applies.

18. INTERRUPTING THE SPEAKER

No member who has the floor shall be interrupted except for a breach of order, or a misrepresentation, or to direct the attention of the conference that the time has arrived for a special order of the day, or to raise a very urgent question of high privilege.

19. RECONSIDERATION OF A QUESTION

A motion to reconsider an action of the conference shall be in order any time if offered by a member who voted on the prevailing side. If the motion it is proposed to reconsider is nondebatable, the motion to reconsider may not be debated.

20. SUSPENSION OF RULES

The application of any of the provisions of these Rules of Order may be suspended at any time by a two-thirds vote of the conference.

21. ROBERTS RULES OF ORDER, SUPPLEMENTARY AUTHORITY

In any parliamentary situation not covered in these Rules of Order, the conference shall be governed in its action by the appropriate provisions of Roberts Rules of Order.

22. BISHOP'S RIGHT TO SPEAK ON ISSUES

~~The bishop is not, and by discipline cannot be, a member of the body with whose presidency he/she is charged. But he/she is the head of the area, vitally concerned with the decisions of this body. Therefore, the bishop shall have the right to speak on the issues before this conference, providing he/she surrenders the chair to someone of his/her appointing at any time that he/she feels he/she should apprise the conference on matters pertaining to the issue before the house.~~

The bishop is not, and by The Book of Discipline cannot be, a member of the body with whose presidency the bishop is charged. As head of the area, the bishop is vitally concerned with the decisions of this body. Therefore, the bishop shall have the right to speak on issues before this conference, providing the chair is surrendered to a person of the bishop's choosing at such time the bishop feels the conference should be apprised on matters pertaining to the issue before the house.

2023 Budget Narrative for Recommendation #2

Context and Key Themes

The total amount apportioned for connectional support and overall budget is largely status quo. We see, however, some shifts within various funds and areas. These are the key themes that support this positioning:

- Receipts on apportioned connectional giving in 2021 were both better than budgeted and better than in 2020. The Council on Finance and Administration recommended the 2023 receipt level be in line with 2021 actual results.
- The 2020 General Conference will now be held in 2024. This is delaying clarity on whether and how churches wishing to do so might disaffiliate.
- The Conference is committed to continuing to equip all our local churches to make disciples and our lay and clergy to lead in this effort. At least for most of 2023, it is likely we be equipping a similar number of churches and clergy as we do now.
- While some churches may disaffiliate in 2023, all avenues for doing so include payment of apportionments. Some of these churches have not been supporting the connection through apportioned connectional giving, so any 2023 support is a net increase.

While these are key underpinnings of the 2023 budget, the 2024 budget will reflect our best information a year from now. What is forecast then may make the 2024 budget markedly different from the 2023 budget.

The 2023 budget has also been developed in what we hope are the waning months of COVID-19 and our response to it. (A nearly identical statement was written in this report a year ago!) What programming and equipping we undertake is not changing. How we deliver it will continue to be informed by what we have learned the past two years. In-person meetings are part of who we are and will take place. In-person-virtual hybrid meetings will likely become more normal. The former costs more, not only in time for participant travel, but also in meals and, sometimes, lodging. The latter is generally less expensive.

The Bottom Line and Matters of Special Note

- The total amount apportioned is $17,712,000, in line with 2022 and down significantly from five years ago.
This is how it breaks down:
 - $2,590,000 is apportioned for district support.
 - $9,149,000 is apportioned for conference support.
 - $5,973,000 is apportioned for general church support.
- Aggregate conference and district staffing levels are expected to be flat to slightly lower based on retirements and appointment changes.
- Program and other income provide significant support in addition to apportioned connectional giving.
- 2023 will be the second year for which the Board of Pensions and the United Methodist Foundation of West Ohio will require no apportionment support to cover direct expenses. While not supported by apportionments, their 2023 budgets are reported on pages 89 and 90.
- 2023 will be the second year in a row where districts are supported by a single apportioned fund. This approach equalizes the support required for district ministries regardless of district. Implementing this approach for 2022, churches in some districts generally saw a decrease in district apportionments, and in at least one district, churches generally saw an increase. In 2023, we should see minimal change for churches in all districts.

Funding Plan Discussion by Section

General Church Ministries

The General Church, including the North Central Jurisdiction, helps West Ohio churches make a difference in the Conference, our country and around the world. The infrastructure of the General Church allows the United Methodist Committee on Relief to be among the most effective disaster-relief organizations in the world. World Service, which includes UMCOR, Global Ministries, Discipleship Ministries, Higher Education and other agencies, accounts for 55% of the General Church apportioned budget. Twenty-six percent of General Church connectional giving supports education efforts of both clergy and lay through the Ministerial Education Fund, the Africa University Fund and the Black College Fund. The Episcopal Fund represents 15% of the denominational budget. Just under $6 million is apportioned for General Church purposes, and at the projected collection rate of 66.5%, apportionments will cover 90% of West Ohio's allocation.

The postponed General Conference has delayed what is anticipated to be a significant reduction in the denominational budget. In anticipation of a reduced General Church budget and receipts on apportionments, agencies and funds of the General Church have already significantly reduced staffing levels. Nevertheless, total General Church receipts on apportionments for 2021 were higher than expected.

Conference Ministries

Connectional Ministries

The role and responsibilities of Connectional Ministries can be found in The Book of Discipline. Annual conferences carry them out based on context and priorities. This is West Ohio's approach.

Vision:

To develop, communicate and implement a Jesus-centered transformative discipleship process that integrates antiracism, cultural competency, missiology, next generation engagement and restorative practices.

Narrative Pillars:

- GIVE VOICE
Intentionally cultivate diverse environments where the voices and perspectives of laity, youth and young adults, and marginalized populations – including those from West Ohio's mission partnerships – are respected and included in the work of transformative ministry.
- PROCESS --> CHANGE
Develop sustainable systems and adaptive processes where creativity is valued, mutual relationships are fostered, new perspectives are engaged, and change is embraced, so the whole community may flourish.
- INTEGRATION
The valuing of laity, young people, mission and diversity must be integrated into ministries and systems at all levels of the West Ohio Conference, leading to the shared practices of anti-racism, cultural competency and restorative justice.
- TRANSFORMATION
From the Conference level to the local church level, our members, communities and partnerships will be transformed by a culture of belonging because all people are seen, heard and accepted for who they are.

Bishop's Priorities:

- Lay Leadership Development
An integrated system where laity can discover their call, access resources to support and equip them as leaders, then be deployed to lead and live from that calling. In addition, lay representation and voice will be increasingly present and heard at the conference level.
- Next Generation Engagement
Helping congregations listen better to younger generations, while providing space and opportunity for those voices to speak, shape and lead. This will inspire churches to develop multigenerational ministries where all voices and people are welcome.
- Diversity and Belonging
Creating a narrative whereby churches and individuals are invited to become anti-racist disciples of Jesus working toward a world of justice. Conference leaders and clergy are equipped with resources and strategies for turning churches into restorative faith communities.
- All In Community
By integrating awareness, understanding and application of restorative practices, AIC seeks to create relationships and communities of belonging, repair and restoration. Expanding the network of relationships among United Methodist members and community partners allows new pathways for engagement to emerge. Communicating impact and intentional invitations for financial investment will lessen the ministry's dependence on apportionments.
- Fear+Less Congregations
A strategy for multiplying Fear+Less culture will be a crucial step in helping congregations to recognize the impact of fear and embolden them to reach their communities. Fear+Less culture will be integrated into all resourcing at the conference level.

- Camps and Retreats

Diversification of staff, volunteers and campers will require the integration of cultural competency and restorative practices within camping and retreat ministries. Camping will also be expanded through an emerging urban strategy of bringing camps to the city. Systems of intentional connection will provide critical follow-up for congregations that send campers.

While apportioned dollars support much of the work of Transformative Discipleship, two vital areas in which we provide leadership and ministry support are fully funded outside of apportionments: Volunteers in Mission and Disaster Response. We are grateful for the volunteers and donors who choose to invest their time and resources in these critical ministries. Connectional Ministries anticipates total expenses of $3.3 million, of which $1.9 million (58%) is provided by apportioned connectional giving.

For questions about Connectional Ministries, contact the Director of Connectional Ministries, Dee Stickley-Miner, at dstickey@wocumc.org or at 380-223-9382.

Office of Fresh Starts & New Beginnings

Fresh Starts & New Beginnings equips clergy and laity to develop leadership and ministry skills for the purpose of building capacity in existing churches and of starting new faith communities. Resources for covering the $776,000 of Fresh Starts & New Beginnings initiatives noted below will come from apportioned connectional giving ($496,000), and $280,000 will come from donor-restricted fund and other transfers.

- Bishop Palmer's Leadership Clinics: Live, online opportunities provide access to leadership insights from diverse and influential voices.
- Multiply Minis: Developed based on WOC leader feedback, these relevant, timely trainings help churches and leaders multiply their impact.
- Emerge: Contextual, immersive, boot-camp-style learning experience designed to equip established larger churches with tools to lead with a new vision for mission and ministry.
- Greenhouse and Greenhouse Expressions: Leadership development to train and deploy spiritual entrepreneurs who are called to start new faith communities/fresh expressions.
- Revitalization Grants: Intended to provide churches with resources to address matters inhibiting vitality in order to build their congregational capacity.
- New Faith Community Grants: Grants for emerging churches and new faith communities led by specially trained laity and/or clergy from West Ohio's Greenhouse.

For questions about Fresh Starts & New Beginnings, contact Brad Aycock, at bradaycock@wocumc.org or 380-223-9262.

Office of Ministry

The Office of Ministry is responsible for caring for people as they discern call, pursue varying paths of credentialing, and follow the required educational tracks in their call to ministry. Students are also supported financially for Seminary and Course of Study work. The Office of Ministry also oversees the Board of Ordained Ministry, which makes determinations regarding candidates for ordination. Programming in the Office of Ministry includes:

- Candidacy Summit Retreat: Provides an introduction to clergy candidacy.
- Local Pastors Licensing School: Allows ministry candidates to become certified to lead churches and administer the sacraments.
- Crucible: Two-year residency program for Provisional Deacons and Elders.
- Next Generation Ministry Leadership Intern Program: College students work in a local church explore seminary programs, and gain real-life ministry experience.
- Clergy Assessments: As required by The Book of Discipline.
- The Office of Ministry will continue to partner with Diversity and Inclusion to equip clergy and congregations for Cross-Racial and Cross-Cultural appointments

The Office of Ministry administers a $624,000 budget. $195,000 of support come from the Ministerial Education Fund, one of the general church funds for which Annual Conferences retain 25% of receipts. The Office expects to receive non-apportioned support from tuition, registration fees and funds designated for the work of the office. Conference apportionments will provide $302,000 of support.

For questions regarding the budget and work of the Office of Ministry, contact the Rev. Donnetta Peaks at dpeaks@wocumc.org or 380-223-9260.

Episcopal Area Leadership

Bishop Palmer and his leadership team set the vision for how the West Ohio Conference will meet the mission of making Disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of our communities, our Conference and our world. To this end, the bishop oversees the following areas, which are budgeted to incur $2,547,000 of expenses in 2023, with all but $198,000 provided by apportioned connectional giving.

- Annual Conference
- Episcopal Office Administration
- District Superintendents and Cabinet
- Equitable Compensation
- Conference Communications

Together with the District Superintendents, the Bishop provides for the deployment of credentialed clergy and oversees the process by which local churches meet the administrative requirements of The Book of Discipline. In addition, the Episcopal leadership team partners with other Conference teams to provide resources for our churches to achieve their mission of discipleship and transformation. Those resources include missional grants, conflict mediation, training and coaching, finding new places for new people, and strategic-planning assistance.

The 2023 budget assumes six district superintendents and a full-time clergy assistant to Bishop Palmer. Bishop Palmer's salary, benefits, travel and support are provided for and paid directly from the Episcopal Fund of the General Church. Questions about the budget and responsibilities of Episcopal Area Leadership can be directed to the Rev. Linda Middelberg at lmiddelberg@wocumc.org or 614-223-9327.

Communications

As we've learned through two years of COVID-19, effective communication is inseparable from effective ministry. In this program area, the Communications Team provides resources to support everything from detailed safety information, such as COVID-19 protocols, to prerecorded sermons from Bishop Palmer and the cabinet so pastors can take much-deserved breaks. In addition, the team resources the Annual Conference session, whether virtual or in-person. Day-to-day operations include providing an active social media ministry, video production, crisis communications, technological support for leadership trainings, as well as storytelling, web and graphic design resources, and general communications training. Questions about Communications can be directed to Kay Panovec at kpanovec@wocumc.org or 380-223-9223.

Finance and Administration and Board of Trustees

Finance and Administration includes many functions that span the Districts and Conference, including accounting, treasury management, human resource management, information technology, Conference statistics, and facilities and property management for all closed church and conference-owned parcels. The area equips local churches through training and online content, and it resources the Council on Finance and Administration, the Conference Chancellor, the Board of Trustees, and the Foundation's Investment Policy Committee.

2023 will be the second year of financially administering all Districts. Each district receives the same set of financial reports each month, including a narrative, balance sheet, income statement and fund balance report. With the Board of Pensions and the Foundation separately incorporated, there are 12 distinct legal entities and over 100 designated and donor-restricted funds in the consolidated financial position of the West Ohio Conference. While our legal structure is somewhat complex, consolidated financial administration is efficient and provides for consistent reporting across areas and corporations.

While program income is limited, interest and dividend income are earned on operating cash balances and reserves, although income opportunities are constrained by low interest rates. Looking ahead, additional efficiencies in finance and administration will likely be incremental and driven largely by technology. In total, budgets expenses are $1,656,000, of which $300,000 is offset by other income or release from designated funds.

Questions about the Finance and Administration and Trustee Budgets can be directed to Bill Brownson at bbrownson@wocumc.org or 380-223-9324.

Districts

Districts will again be supported through single district apportioned fund. While superintendents are provided for in the Conference budget, much of the programming they oversee is made possible by staff and professional services provided by apportioned connectional giving for District budgets.

In the same way in which District apportionments are pooled, some District resources will be combined. Four Regional Missional Specialists will support Districts and superintendents with organizing community circuits of local churches, facilitating dialogues with churches contemplating merges or other strategic options, coaching and mediating, and being a link between Conference and District programming. These positions were formerly clergy assistants to superintendents. The Rev. Linda Middelberg, Bishop Palmer's clergy assistant, will coordinate the work of the Regional Missional Specialists.

While superintendents will supervise other District staff, their salary and benefits expenses will be pooled as well. With District budgets structured this way, the optimal resource can be deployed regardless of the District. Further, financial resourcing decisions can be focused on effective grantmaking and supplemental professional services within each District.

Apportionment support for Districts in 2022 is $2.6 million, the same as in 2021 and a 4% reduction from 2020.

Questions about the District budgets can be directed to your District superintendent or Linda Middelberg at lmiddelberg@wocumc.org or 380-223-9327.

Self-Supporting Programming

United Methodist Foundation of West Ohio

The UMFOW envisions a day when all congregations of the West Ohio Conference possess the financial resources required to be healthy, growing, spiritually vital, risk-taking centers for making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

We expect to achieve our vision through:

- Local Church Partnerships: Providing stewardship education and training to develop a culture of generosity within the Conference.
- Planned Giving: Assisting donors in achieving their individual legacy-giving priorities by providing planned giving guidance and options.
- Investment Services: Providing competitive endowment and investment management services compatible with The United Methodist Church's Social Principles.

This vision is made possible by investment administration fee income of $315,000 on a projected $100 million of local church, District and Conference assets invested with the Foundation. This support covers all direct expenses of the Foundation, eliminating the need for support from apportioned connectional giving. The Foundation's 2023 budget indicates a $28,000 surplus that, if realized, will add to a reserves goal.

Direct questions about the Foundation to its Executive Director, Susan Black, at sblack@wocumc.org or 380-223-9257.

Clergy Benefits

Clergy Benefits, at more than $15 million, is financially the largest Conference or District program area. Most of the expense is related to the active clergy health plan, followed by clergy pension plan liabilities. Beginning in 2022, retiree health care is funded through an HRA program rather than a group insurance plan. The financial support level will be the same or better than the current plan, and retirees will have the option to pay for a supplemental plan that best meets their needs. As a result, retirees will not be billed directly for their share of the plan, nor will there be a large insurance premium. The result is a reduction in both income and expense for retiree health care.

What is not covered by direct billing for clergy benefits will be provided for from investments in the Clergy Benefits fund, which at the time of this report was valued at $65 million, in excess of the expected actuarial liabilities of the Board. 2022 will be the second year in which the Board of Pensions has not requested apportionment support.

Additional information regarding the work of the Board of Pensions can be found in Recommendation #3.

Questions should be directed to Grace Welch, Conference Benefits Officer and HR Director, at gwelch@wocumc.org or 380-223-9310.

Recommendation #2

Council on Finance and Administration Recommendations Calendar Year 2023

Adopted

Special Sundays and/or Offerings

General Church Special Sundays for 2023 are:

- Human Relations Day (Offering) January 15 (Sunday before MLK Day)
- UMCOR Sunday (Offering) March 27 (4th Sunday in Lent)
- Native American Ministries Sunday (Offering)* April 30 (3rd Sunday of Easter)
- Peace with Justice Sunday (Offering)* June 4 (1st Sunday after Pentecost)
- World Communion Sunday (Offering) October 1 (1st Sunday in October)
- United Methodist Student Day (Offering) November 26 (Last Sunday in November)

Please review the important ministries these Special Sundays support and incorporate them into your planning year. To the extent a local church wishes to emphasize other special days or calendar periods, the Conference encourages them to do so.

* 50% of Peace with Justice and Native American Ministries Sunday offerings remain in and are applied to ministries of the West Ohio Conference.

 Through the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry, 10% of United Methodist Student Day offerings is awarded to West Ohio Conference students who apply for and are selected to receive merit-based college scholarships.

Other approved offerings and appeals:

Any Conferencewide appeal by affiliated United Methodist organizations must be approved in advance by the Council on Finance and Administration. All offerings taken at the sessions of the Annual Conference shall be used to expand the missions of the Conference.

Deadlines:

1. Friday, January 6, 2023: Last day on which the Conference Treasurer's office must receive 2022 apportionment payments.
2. Friday, March 10, 2023: 2022 Annual Statistical Reports (Tables I, II and III) are to be completed online or otherwise sent to the Conference Statistician at the Conference Treasurer's office.

Apportionments:

1. The formula for computing the apportionments for the calendar year 2023 shall be based (1/3 on membership and 2/3 on operational expenses subject to closed, merged and new churches as reported by the District Superintendents at the time of the computation.)
2. The Council on Finance and Administration, using the formula, shall mail apportionments for 2023 to each local church by Friday, October 7, 2022.
3. District apportionments will use the same formula and be based on a consolidated district apportionment budget.

Receipts and Payments:

All payments to the Annual Conference and General Church apportionment funds shall be made through and recorded by the Conference Treasurer's office. In addition to apportioned funds, non-apportioned benevolences paid directly by a local church should be reported on Table II of the church's annual statistical report.

Budgets and Reports:

1. The Council on Finance and Administration budget report to the Annual Conference shall include at least the proposed budget, the current budget, the previous year's budget, and actual expenses. The report published in the Journal shall also chart a four-year history of the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC), the Conference Average Compensation (CAC), the Consumer Price Index (CPI-U), the Grand Total Paid (GTP) by local churches, and the Conference budget.

2. Connectional Ministries and its Disciple Making Churches board shall develop and authorize a plan to allocate all Conference Mission and Ministry grant funds prior to release of these funds. This plan shall be made available to the Annual Conference including posting on the Conference website.

Salaries and Travel:

1. The District Superintendents shall be paid in an equitable manner. The base salary component shall not be less than the preceding year's actual salary or more than 1.61 times the preceding year's Conference Average Compensation (CAC). In 2023, the maximum salary is $108,767 (1.61 x 2022 CAC of $67,557), and the minimum is $102,773. The recommended salary is $105,342. (NOTE: Any change in compensation is considered in the context of the Conference's financial position. In some years, the increase will be zero, regardless of the amount recommended in this legislation.)
2. The IRS rate for volunteers shall be paid when an expense is vouchered by any board or committee for automobile travel on Conference business.
3. The Conference shall reimburse two lay alternate and two clergy alternate delegates to the regular or special called General and Jurisdictional Conference based on the per diem as set by the business offices of the General and Jurisdictional Conferences.

Miscellaneous:

1. A vital camping and retreat ministry requires an investment in the capital needs of this ministry. Accordingly, CFA approves a capital campaign designed solely to meet the needs of the camping and retreat ministry. The Transformative Discipleship Team shall be the lead entity in the campaign and will assemble the case, plan and resources necessary for its success.
2. Lay and clergy directories shall be published annually in the Journal. Electronic database versions of these directories are for the exclusive use of the Conference councils, boards and committees for their specific ministries. The directory database shall not be sold or loaned to individuals, groups or commercial organizations or otherwise be made available in a form that facilitates direct solicitation of clergy and lay members by such individuals or organizations.
3. The Conference Council on Finance and Administration through the Conference Treasurer's office shall send, at least annually to each pastor and local church treasurer, information that may be helpful to their financial operations. This may include tax, legal, stewardship and fiduciary responsibility bulletins.
4. Effective July 1, 2007, local churches/charges, members or constituents of a local church/charge shall not make a loan or a grant to a clergy person. When a local church, its members or constituents, acts as a banker to its pastor, the dynamics of the relationship between the pastor and the congregation are very likely to be changed and may adversely affect the ministry of both congregation and pastor.
5. Effective July 1, 2022, a local church/charge shall not accept a loan from its members or constituents. When a member or constituent acts as a banker to their church, the dynamics of the relationship between the member and the church are likely to change and may adversely affect the ministry of the church.

Introduction to Board of Pensions and Health

This year's recommendation from the Conference Board of Pensions is mostly consistent with past years with a few exceptions listed below.

Specific items of note in this year's recommendation include:

- For Clergy Pension & Disability Income Plans
 - In addition to full-time appointments, West Ohio will continue to include clergy serving $\frac{1}{2}$ and $\frac{3}{4}$ time in the Clergy Retirement Security Plan (CRSP), the denomination's pension plan for clergy. #2)
 - There is no change in the billing rate to local churches for clergy enrolled in the pension plan and disability income plans (#'s 5 and 6)
 - For the Pre-82 clergy pension plan, the past service rate (PSR) will increase to $636, a 2.2% increase). (see Clergy Pension and Disability Income Plans #7)
- The retiree health insurance program will be limited to the retired clergy and clergy spouse, subject to years of service eligibility (Health Care Benefits, #2b)

- Retiree housing allowance exclusion will remain unchanged. It will be posted on the conference website for easy access when filing 2022 taxes.

Questions about this recommendation can be directed to Grace Welch, Conference Benefits Officer at gwelch@wocumc.org or at 614-844-6200.

Recommendation #3

2023 Board of Pensions and Health

Adopted

Clergy Pension and Disability Income Plans

1. The General Conference of The United Methodist Church gives authority to Wespath Benefits and Investments (Wespath) to establish and maintain a retirement program for the benefit of ordained ministers and their families, other church workers, and lay employees (§1501). As a part of those plans (as approved by the General Conference) participation by full-time ordained clergy is required. The Discipline does not give permission for a local church to deny payment of the retirement benefits for any pastor appointed to that charge. Such payments are part of the total obligations of receiving the appointment of a pastor.
2. The 2012 General Conference made Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) eligibility optional for Annual Conferences for those clergy with less than full-time appointments. The Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits approved the continued CRSP eligibility of three-quarter and one-half time appointments effective January 1, 2014. The Board affirms this recommendation for 2023.
3. Licensed local pastors (not the local church) may waive participation in the pension program if the pastor is appointed less than full time. Provisional elders and deacons and full elders and deacons (not the local church) may waive participation in the pension program if they are appointed half time. To waive participation, the pastor must complete, have notarized, and return a "Waiver of Participation", which is supplied by the Conference Benefits Office.
4. The Plan Compensation shall include salary plus 25% for housing where the minister lives in a parsonage or the amount of any cash housing allowance where provided.
5. The contribution rate for funding the Clergy Retirement Security Program (CRSP) will be billed in two parts; the Defined Benefit (DB) portion shall not exceed 11% of the participant's actual Plan Compensation up to the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC)¹. The DAC for 2023 is $76,221. The rate for funding of the Defined Contribution (DC) portion shall not exceed 3% of the participant's actual Plan Compensation. (The participant must be enrolled and making a minimum of 1% United Methodist Personal Investment Plan (UMPIP) contribution to have the full 3% credit to CRSP-DC.) Billing begins at the time of participant's eligibility for, not enrollment in, the program.
6. The contribution rate for the Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP) shall not exceed 3% of the participant's actual Plan Compensation for all full-time or three-quarter time appointments for Full, Provisional, or Associate members and full-time local pastors. Contributions will be paid monthly by each charge for their pastor or pastors. The West Ohio Conference, acting as an agent of Wespath, shall be responsible for the collection of these funds. Because each full-time or three-quarter time appointment for Full, Provisional, or Associate members and full-time local pastors must be part of the CPP, it is the obligation of each local church to pay this cost. Billing begins at the time of participant's eligibility for, not enrollment in, the program.
7. The base annuity rate for 2023 on Pre-82 pensions will increase to $636. The yearly PSR may not be decreased.
8. Annuity rates for surviving spouses shall be 70% of the base rate on Pre-82 pension.
9. Each eligible clergy member and local pastor will contribute at least 3% of his or her plan compensation to the UMPIP unless opting out of the auto-enrollment feature. Additionally, each eligible clergy member and local pastor will have their UMPIP contribution increased 1% until a maximum of 10% is reached unless opting out of auto-escalation. Participants may contribute more than the 10% max, if desired. Personal contributions will be billed to the local church by Wespath and paid from payroll deduction by the local church.
10. Medical Leave and Death Benefits: Eligible clergy also have CPP as part of the benefit package. CPP provides disability income, death, and other supplemental benefits. Complete policy information can be found on the Wespath website at www.wespath.org. Clergy whose health condition may indicate a need for medical leave should contact his or her District Superintendent.

11. A death benefit of $50,000 is part of CPP for active clergy. An additional death benefit of $50,000 is provided by the Conference for eligible active appointments. The cost is included in the Clergy Benefit billing for full-time or three-quarter time appointments of Full, Provisional or Associate Members and fulltime licensed local clergypersons.

Health Care Benefits

1. Active Pastors: Eligibility

- a. Each charge shall fund health insurance for its eligible pastors and families through the West Ohio Conference program. The following chart shows who shall be covered and who has responsibility for payment of premiums.

Status	Time	Coverage	Premium Payment
Full Member Provisional Member Associate Member	3/4 time and FT	Required	Shared Cost Church/Participant
Local Pastor	Full Time	Required	Shared Cost Church/Participant
Full Member Provisional Member Associate Member	1/2 time	Optional	Subject to District Superintendent and local church approval
Local Pastor	1/2 time & 3/4 time	Optional	Subject to District Superintendent and local church approval

- b. Pastors under full-time appointment to West Ohio Conference local churches, District Offices or Conference Office will participate in the Conference health insurance plan. If such pastors have duplicate coverage through a spouse's employment, have access to military coverage or prior employer insurance they may use those plans. A written waiver is required to use other insurance.
- i. Should a church provide compensation to pastors that opt out of the Conference plan, care should be taken not to violate employer payment plan rules, the violation of which could subject the church to financial penalties. Clergy opting out of the West Ohio Conference health insurance plan for any other reason must do so in writing and the decision is irrevocable: he or she will be prohibited from accessing a West Ohio Conference active or retiree health plan in the future.
- c. A pastor serving in active full-time ministry beyond his/her 65th birthday will remain on the Conference health insurance plan.
- d. If one in an active clergy couple dies, the appointment of the surviving spouse will be responsible for health insurance as an active participant and responsible for payment of premium.
- e. Surviving spouses and qualified dependents of deceased active clergy previously serving in an appointment will pay 25% of the premium cost of the policy in use for the 24 months following the clergy's date of death. Thereafter, access will be based on years of service consistent with the premium sharing available to retirees.

2. Retired Pastors, Surviving Spouses, Medical Leave participants

Eligibility: When a pastor retires under ¶358.1, ¶358.2b or ¶358.2c health insurance is available to the pastor, spouse, and eligible dependents.

- a. Beginning 1/1/2022, a Health Reimbursement Arrangement (HRA) based on years of service toward retirement eligibility will be provided for each eligible retiree and spouse.
- b. Retirees under age 65 will be provided a stipend to purchase an individual policy or to remain on the Conference plan. The amount of this stipend will be a fixed dollar amount consistent with the amount toward post 65 retirees, which is based on years of service toward retirement eligibility. Plans and support will be limited to the retiree and retiree spouse only.
- c. Upon retirement at age 65 or thereafter, the pastor and spouse (at age 65) are responsible for enrolling in Medicare Part A and B. Those having opted out of Social Security will not have access to West Ohio Conference retiree (over 65 years) insurance.
- d. Retired clergy or surviving spouses who remarry will not have access to Conference insurance for a new dependent.
- e. Pastors who transfer from an Episcopal appointment in another United Methodist Conference to an Episcopal appointment in the West Ohio Conference where the Conference has pension responsibility will be granted years of service from previous Conferences.

3. Other Health Care Provisions

- a. All full-time (at least 30 hours per week) lay employees of the West Ohio Conference and its District Offices will have access to health insurance under the same provisions as active and retired clergy.
- b. Any participant who terminates employment may continue their health insurance for up to 12 months at his or her own expense. The participant's payment for insurance will continue through the former local church to the Conference until coverage is terminated or 12 months pass, whichever occurs first.
- c. The Conference Board of Pension shall be empowered to select the carrier, set the premium rate, and adjust benefits and method of funding the total health insurance program in a manner that is deemed appropriate and equitable for both local churches and participants in the program.
- d. The Conference Board of Pension shall extend an invitation to the Board of Ministry to review and comment on material changes in the Board of Pension recommendation to Annual Conference at least 30 days prior to Annual Conference.

General

1. The Employee Assistance Program (EAP) is designed for eligible clergy and lay Conference and District employees and their dependent family members who seek professional emotional assistance. This includes certified lay ministers and pastors appointed to a local church, clergy appointed to extension ministry and serving on Conference and District staffs, as well as lay Conference and District staff. Pastors appointed to their first church and newly hired Conference and District lay staff are eligible after 6 months. This service is provided by OhioHealth at no cost.
2. A moving reimbursement (receipt(s) of cost) of up to $3,500 is paid to each full-time and three-quarter time clergy household of the retiring class and each member accepting CPP disability leave and the families of active full-time members in the event of the death of the member, provided they have not previously had a move reimbursed and provided they have been a participating member in the Conference Pension Program for the last five years prior to retirement.
3. The Board requests no apportionments in 2023 to support its work.
4. The church from which the pastor is moving will pay pension payments for pastors moving at conference time for the whole month of June. Payments for new pastors will begin on the first of the month following the appointment.
5. All churches are encouraged to include eligible full-time church lay employees in UMPIP; the retirement Benefits program offered by Wespath. ¶258.2g (12)
6. The Conference will post on its website the date when the 2023 Comprehensive Funding Plan from Wespath releases its opinion. This became an annual requirement because of 2012 General Conference legislation.

Resolutions Relating to Rental/Housing Allowances for Retired or Disabled Clergypersons of the West Ohio Conference

The West Ohio Conference (the "Conference") adopts the following resolutions relating to rental/housing allowances for retired or disabled clergypersons of the Conference:

Whereas the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church (the "Church"), of which this Conference is a part, has in the past functioned and continues to function through ministers of the gospel (within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code section 107) who were or are duly ordained, commissioned, or licensed ministers of the Church ("Clergy"), and

Whereas the practice of the Church and of this Conference was and is to provide active Clergy with a parsonage or a rental/housing allowance as part of their gross compensation, and

Whereas pensions or other amounts paid to retired and disabled Clergy are considered to be deferred compensation and are paid to retired and disabled Clergy in consideration of previous active service, and

Whereas the Internal Revenue Service has recognized the Conference (or its predecessors) as the appropriate organization to designate a rental/housing allowance for retired and disabled Clergy who are or were members of this Conference;

Therefore, be it resolved that an amount equal to 100% of the pension or disability payments received from plans authorized under The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (the "Discipline"), which includes all such payments from Wespath Benefits and Investments (Wespath) during the year 2023 by each retired or disabled Clergy who is or was a member of the Conference or its predecessors, be and is hereby designated as a rental/housing allowance for each such Clergy; and Therefore, be it resolved that pension or disability payments to which rental/housing allowance applies will be any pension or disability payments from plans and/or annuities from funds authorized under the Discipline. This may include payments from Wespath and from a commercial annuity company that provides an annuity arising from benefits accrued under a Wespath plan, annuity, or fund authorized under the Discipline. Those payments may result from any service a Clergy rendered to this Conference or that a retired or disabled Clergy of this Conference rendered to:

- any local church
- Annual Conference of the Church
- general agency of the Church
- other institution of the Church
- former denomination that is now a part of the Church
- any other employer

that employed the Clergy to perform services related to the ministry of the Church, or its predecessors, and that elected to make contributions to, or accrue a benefit under, such a plan, annuity, or fund for such retired or disabled Clergy's pension or disability as part of his or her gross compensation.

Note:

The rental/housing allowance that may be excluded from a Clergy's gross income in any year for federal income tax purposes is limited under Internal Revenue Code section 107(2) and regulations there under to the least of (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the Clergy's employer or other appropriate body of the Church (such as this Conference in the foregoing resolutions) for such year; (2) the amount actually expended by the Clergy to rent or provide a home in such year; or (3) the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances (such as a garage), plus the cost of utilities in such year.

Inquiries:

Inquiries regarding current funding of pensions, personal contribution accounts (UMPIP), tax-deferred programs, and pension annuity checks shall be directed to Wespath Benefits and Investments, 1901 Chestnut Avenue, Glenview, Illinois 60025, 1-800-851-2201 or visit www.wespath.org for more information. All other concerns shall be directed to the West Ohio Conference, 32 Wesley Boulevard, Worthington, Ohio 43085, to the attention of Grace Welch at 1-614-844-6200 ext. 10226 or gwelch@wocumc.org. Retirees, please notify both Wespath and the West Ohio Conference if you change your address.

Recommendation #4

2023 Recommendation Commission on Equitable Compensation

Adopted

Ministry happens when clergy, lay leaders and members of congregations put into motion what they hear from God. Jesus said, "Everyone then who hears these words of mine and acts on them will be like a wise person who built their house on rock." (Matthew 7:24) Vital and healthy ministry takes place when clergy and congregations actively support the vision and mission of reaching and making new disciples of Jesus Christ for purpose of transforming the world. When we work collaboratively, we are better positioned to support spiritual journeys in a variety of missional contexts.

Clergy includes elders and deacons in full connection, commissioned elders and deacons, associate members, and licensed local pastors. Each clergy member plays a vital role within the life and ministry of the Church. Each congregation's unique context may call for a different type of clergy leadership.

Elders provide spiritual leadership through nurturing others in their relationship to God and lead the church through the ministry of the word and sacrament, and service to others while ordering the life of the church.

Deacons provide spiritual leadership through nurturing others in their relationship to God and act as bridge for the congregation to respond to those marginalized in and around them through word, service, justice, and compassion.

Associate Members and Licensed local pastors provide spiritual leadership through nurturing others in their relationship to God and lead the life of the local church.

Licensed local pastors can provide leadership within a local area while elders and deacons, and associate members are able to be placed in areas of need across the connection. Elders, deacons, and licensed local pastors may work together within a local church or be appointed individually based on the needs of each congregation.

Provisional elders and deacons, as well as ordained elders and deacons should be compensated equally (salary, pension, health insurance, housing, accountable reimbursement) if appointed full-time to a local congregation. See the Five Elements of Compensation for Full-Time Clergy table below.

Regardless of appointed role within a local church, the salaries outlined in this recommendation should be considered for all appointed clergy serving full-time within the local church.

THE FIVE ELEMENTS OF COMPENSATION FOR FULL-TIME CLERGY
		Ordained Elder/Deacon		Provisional Elder/Deacon
		Associate Member	Licensed Local Pastor (Course of Study)	Licensed Local Pastor
Compensation Elements	Salary	Pension	Health Insurance	Housing Allowance/ Parsonage	Accountable Reimbursement
Definition/Explanation	Cash Salary paid by Local Church (Employer)	Contributions made toward Pension Plan (CRSP and UMPIP) by Local Church (Employer).	Participating in the conference plan with the Local Church paying a portion and clergy paying a portion.	Compensation provided in lieu of parsonage.	Agreement to reimburse clergy for ministry expenses according to the approved and signed ARP Form

The Commission on Equitable Compensation, outlined in the 2016 Book of Discipline (Paragraph 625), is a way to employ financial resources as a means of support for congregational revitalization. The West Ohio Conference and churches partner together through faithful stewardship, accountability, and encouragement. The goal is to come alongside churches and clergy as a transition resource to assist congregations in the movement toward greater vitality and health.

Guidelines and Established Minimum Salaries

The Commission presents the following guidelines and minimum salaries for the calendar year 2023 with consideration of the projected General Board of Pensions Conference Average Compensation (C.A.C.) of $67,557 (which includes salary plus 25% for housing where the clergy lives in a parsonage, or the housing allowance where such is provided). The 2023 minimum salaries reflect an average of 3% increase over last year.

A. Minimum Salary

Recommended Minimum Salaries	2023*	2022
Elder/Deacon Full-Time appointment in a local church	$45,600	$44,270
Provisional Elder/Provisional Deacon Full-Time appointment in a local church	$41,350	$40,140
Associate Member Full-Time appointment	$41,350	$40,140
Licensed Local Pastor Full-Time (Course of Study completed or equivalent)	$39,875	$38,710
Licensed Local Pastor Full-Time	$37,780	$36,680

Each elder in full connection who is in good standing and who is appointed by the bishop to less than full-time service under the provisions of paragraph 338.2 of the 2016 Book of Discipline shall have a claim upon the conference Equitable Compensation Fund in one-quarter increments (Paragraph 342.2).

B. Definition of Eligibility

1. MINIMUM SALARY SUPPORT

- a. Elders, provisional members on the elder-track, deacons in full connection serving in local churches, provisional members on the deacon-track serving in local churches, associate members, and licensed local pastors serving full-time appointments in local churches are eligible for minimum salary support.

- b. Retired members, retired local pastors, full-member deacons appointed beyond the local church, provisional members on the deacon-track beyond the local church, student pastors, and members in extension ministries have no claim to minimum salary support.
- c. Support from all church sources (District, Conference and General Church) in addition to local sources will be used in computing claims.
- d. The commission will continue to work with the Cabinet in providing minimum compensation, sensitive to such variable factors as unique situations needing special skills, missional priorities, and ethnic/radical considerations.
- e. When a church withdraws from a charge to a station, its clergy shall not be eligible for minimum salary support for at least five years.
- f. A charge with more than 300 members shall have no claim to minimum salary support.
- g. Any situations limiting full itineracy of clergy will be taken under consideration prior to approving equitable compensation amounts.

2. KEY LEADERSHIP SALARY SUPPORT

Developing/redeveloping Ministries: Situations where new congregations should be developing or where existing congregations are facing circumstances that enhance the potential for unusual growth. These churches have the potential of becoming viable and self-supporting within five years.

3. KEY MISSIONAL SALARY SUPPORT

Situations where churches/parishes have an unusually large or complex program of missional ministries and require clergy leadership for expanded ministries. This also includes Ethnic Churches where support is necessary in getting the ministry established.

4. SPECIAL SALARY SUPPORT

This category provides clergy support on a short-term basis to meet a temporary situation. Funding under this category shall not continue beyond the appointive year in which it began.

C. The goal of the commission is to eliminate the need for long-term minimum salary support by:

1. Agreeing that any new Equitable Compensation grants for Minimum Salary Support or Key Leadership Salary Support shall not exceed 25% of the total cash salary received by the clergy of the church or charge. The 25% rule shall not apply to Key Missional or Special Salary Support.
 2. Limiting the maximum number of years of eligibility for all Equitable Compensation grants to five years per clergy or church. Grants will be decreased by 20% of the original amount each year.
 3. Asking for greater accountability of the local churches in the process of applications for funds through the District Superintendents, providing information on budgeted receipts and expenditures, having a stewardship plan, detailing how they are living within the CORE process, and an apportionment plan.
 4. Being aware that churches and charges which reach the total grant or grant term limitations described above, and which are unable to maintain support for a full-time appointment will be assisted by the District Superintendent to move to a part-time clergy, or to realign the charge.
 5. Being open to knowing that there may be special circumstances that would warrant an exception to these guidelines which can be made with the approval of the cabinet and the Equitable Compensation Executive team.
- D. The commission reminds the members of the Conference, local church Pastor-Parish Relations Committees, and clergy, that total ministerial support package includes: 1) Cash Salary 2) Pension 3) Health Insurance 4) Housing (housing allowance or parsonage) 5) Accountable Reimbursement.
- E. It is the responsibility of the clergy of any church not receiving agreed upon compensation from the church during the calendar year to contact their District Superintendent by the earlier of March 15th of next year; one year from the date of the initial arrearage; or at the time of an appointment of change. Failure to submit such notice of arrearage will end the statute of limitation for filing a claim from the Annual Conference for such funds (under the 2016 Book of Discipline Paragraph 342.4 once an appointment ends the pastor no longer has claim on the local church for compensation funds) and/or may cause an administrative complaint to be filed against such clergy.

- F. The commission recognizes that compensation contributes to clergy morale and encourages openness in financial matters among all person, boards, and agencies who share the concern for the well being of churches and clergy.

Recommendation #6

Support for an Amicable Separation for Local Churches and Annual Conferences

Adopted

Whereas the United Methodist Church is at a critical juncture and theological division among United Methodists remain;

Whereas the West Ohio Conference and the Conference delegation is theologically a diverse body;

Whereas the West Ohio Conference delegation has already endorsed the Christmas Covenant;

Whereas the North Central Jurisdiction, including members of the West Ohio Conference Delegation, endorsed A Call to Action, which calls on bishops and annual conferences to “use existing disciplinary authority to find grace-filled ways for these leaders and churches to follow their call now, allowing them to take their church property with them where appropriate;”

Whereas the Protocol of Reconciliation and Grace Through Separation, originally endorsed by nine major advocacy groups representing different sides of the conflict, including Africa Initiative, The Confessing Movement, Good News, Mainstream UMC, Reconciling Ministries Network, UMAction, UMCNext, Uniting Methodists, and the Wesleyan Covenant Association, seeks to provide a way beyond our theological difference and impasse through a formal separation;

Whereas the West Ohio Conference delegation, while being attentive to the complexity of a denominational division and its impact on our United Methodist sisters and brothers across the world, is supportive of the tone and intent of the Protocol of Reconciliation and Grace Through Separation, including the desire for an amicable separation;

Whereas the legislation implementing the Christmas Covenant and the Protocol of Reconciliation and Grace Through Separation are complex legislation that is likely to differ from that originally submitted after amendments and through other parliamentary actions. Nevertheless, West Ohio’s delegation seeks a legislative way forward that facilitates gracious exits for those choosing to disaffiliate and contextual ministry via regionalization for those choosing to continue in the United Methodist Church;

Now, be it resolved the West Ohio Annual Conference encourages our elected delegation to support legislative action that allows for a gracious exit of any church or Annual Conference that seeks to disaffiliate or withdraw from the United Methodist Church, including releasing congregations from the Trust Clause.

Be it further resolved the conference secretary shall send copies of this resolution to the Commission on the General Conference, urging them to organize the work of General Conference such that legislation providing for graceful exits is prioritized.

Be it further resolved the West Ohio Annual Conference host informational sessions highlighting the various plans of separation and their implications for local congregations and the Annual Conference.

Recommendation #7

Call to West Ohio Annual Conference to Recognize and Validate Persons' Calls to Ordination Without Prejudice Toward Sexual Orientation or Gender Identity

Adopted

Whereas throughout the history of the church, its views of the world and of what is supported by Biblical and Christian teaching has shifted. In the 1700s, the Biblically grounded theory that the earth was approximately 6,000 years old gave way to a scientific understanding that the earth is millions of years old. In the 1800s, Biblical support for chattel slavery gave way increasingly to Biblical support for the eradication of slavery in all its forms, a position that was held by John Wesley. In the 1900s, Biblical support for the practice of refusing ordination to women gave way to Biblical support for the belief that God calls women and men, not only to ordination but to the vocation of bishop. And now, in the 2000s, Biblical support for the rejection of openly LGBTQIA persons as capable of being called and validated for ordained ministry is giving way to Biblical support for the practice of ordaining people of all sexual orientations and gender identity who have experienced the call and demonstrate the fruits for ordained ministry. This history is a demonstration of how the Spirit of God is continuing to lead the church into the fullness of the truth (John 14:25-26).

Whereas this history reflects the best of our Wesleyan tradition. Specifically, as United Methodists, we see how our theological task, as described in The Book of Discipline (§105), is put to use constructively, "in that every generation must appropriate creatively the wisdom of the past and seek God in their midst in order to think afresh about God, revelation, sin, redemption, worship, the church, freedom, justice, moral responsibility, and other significant theological concerns." Committed to the primacy of Scripture, we are challenged to test our "expressions of faith by asking...do they provide the Church and its members with a witness that is faithful to the gospel as reflected in our living heritage and that is authentic and convincing in the light of human experience and the present state of human knowledge." This is our heritage that carries forward in these times of change. It is this heritage that assists us in more fully realizing the commitment we have made in our Constitution that "all persons are of sacred worth [and that] no conference or other organizational unit of the Church shall be structured so as to exclude any member or any constituent body of the Church because of race, color, national origin, status or economic condition" (§4. Article IV.)

Whereas in the United Methodist Church, the vows of baptism are the same for all disciples, lay and clergy. On behalf of the whole church, we are each asked: "Do you confess Jesus Christ as your Savior, put your whole trust in his grace, and promise to serve him as your Lord, in union with the Church which Christ has opened to people of all ages, nations, and races?" This vow neither makes nor implies any disqualifying distinction among those who would so confess, such as ones based on gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, or any other "status."

Therefore, by virtue of our own vows, we recognize the sacred worth of lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender persons as beloved children of God. Furthermore, our baptismal vows call upon us to exercise "the freedom and power God gives [us] to resist evil, injustice, and oppression in whatever forms they present themselves." To that end we find the current language in The Book of Discipline that discriminates against the ordination of otherwise qualified candidates to be unjust.

Therefore, we in the West Ohio Annual Conference affirm candidates of all sexual orientations and gender identities. We recognize that to present themselves for ordination, they have made and fulfilled their baptismal vows in their profession of faith, reception into membership, walk of discipleship, and disciplined participation in the candidacy and ordination process. Therefore, we promise to serve Christ as Lord in union with the church which Christ has opened to all people.

Further, we call upon the West Ohio Conference Board of Ordained Ministry to exercise faithfully their vows of baptism and to consider requests for ordination and conference membership without prejudice toward a candidate's sexual orientation or gender identity.

Recommendation #8A Path for West Ohio Congregations Separating Under Paragraph 2548.2*Adopted

Whereas, The Book of Discipline of the United Methodist Church provides an avenue for deeding property to “one of the other denominations represented in the Pan-Methodist Commission or to another evangelical denomination” (Paragraph 2548.2); and

Whereas, the Protocol for Reconciliation and Grace through Separation offers a proposal to restructure the United Methodist Church by separation as the best means to resolve our differences, and allow each part of the Church to remain true to its theological understanding, while recognizing the dignity, equality, integrity, and respect for every person; and

Whereas, prolonged uncertainty regarding if and when General Conference will meet, and whether the Protocol will be enacted creates anxiety and distraction among United Methodist Congregations in West Ohio; and

Whereas establishing and publishing just, fair and clear standards and processes for disaffiliation and/or separation for congregations in West Ohio will reduce anxiety, create clarity, and empower local churches to make informed decisions; and

Whereas this resolution is aspirational in nature and expresses an aspiration of the 2022 Session of the West Ohio Annual Conference;

Therefore, be it resolved, that the 2022 Session of the West Ohio Conference encourages the Board of Trustees of the West Ohio Conference and all officials of the Annual Conference to give due consideration to the following principles, policies and processes in engaging congregations desiring to separate from The United Methodist Church and affiliate with “one of the other denominations represented in the Pan-Methodist Commission or to another evangelical denomination” under Paragraph 2548.2.

General Provisions

1. The Global Methodist Church be designated by the West Ohio Annual Conference as “another evangelical denomination” under Paragraph 2548.2
2. Congregations separating to join one of the denominations represented in the Pan-Methodist Commission or other evangelical church be permitted, at their sole discretion, to choose Paragraph 2548.2 as their preferred path of separation.
3. Congregations disaffiliating to an independent status be required to use the provisions of Paragraph 2553.
4. Any required payments for unfunded pension liability shall be based on Wespath calculations of the aggregate unfunded liability of the Annual Conference. Allocation of a proportional share of that liability to the local church shall be determined using the West Ohio Conference apportionment formula applied to the aggregate unfunded liability in like manner that the apportionment formula is applied to the annual total amount apportioned in the West Ohio Conference. The liability shall include unfunded obligations related to The United Methodist Church’s pre-1982 pension plan, the Ministerial Pension Plan, and/or the Clergy Retirement Security Program.
5. The Bishop of the West Ohio Area be urged to convene one or more Special Sessions of the Annual Conference for the purpose of considering disaffiliations prior to the next regularly scheduled Annual Conference.

Policies And Provisions In The Administration Of Paragraph 2548.2

A standard agreement should be used by the West Ohio Conference Board of Trustees with local churches separating under 2548.2. No additional payments or sums should be required of the local congregation which are not included in the standard agreement. In addition, with respect to items required for conformity to legal standards (transfer of name, assets and liabilities, trademark integrity, etc.) it is recommended the agreement include the following terms and provisions:

1. The local church retains all its assets and liabilities.
2. The local church be current in apportionments for the period of 12 months preceding the effective date of separation. Payment of unpaid amounts for the 12 months preceding separation shall be made preceding the effective date of such separation.
3. The local church repays previously documented loans from the Annual Conference, and be current as of the date of separation in all ordinary required payments to the West Ohio Conference (e.g. health care insurance, regular pensions payments, etc.)
4. The local church makes the West Ohio Conference whole for the local church’s proportional share of the unfunded liability with the following stipulations;

- a. On the date of exit the withdrawal payment should be defined to be an amount certain. No additional withdrawal payments for pension should be required, regardless of how the annual conference uses the received funds, or the impact of their increase/decrease in value over time.
- b. A choice of methods for payment at the time of exit, or payment over time should be provided as options for congregations to choose. These methods should not include interest charges to the congregation, but might include a reasonable annual administrative fee. Payment should be secured and guaranteed by the congregation by a promissory note and lien or other legal instrument which includes defined due process for both the conference and the congregation. Some alternatives could include:
 - Promissory Note and Lien with payments required from the exited congregation when Wespath requires the annual conference to make an additional infusion against the unfunded liability.
 - Promissory Note and Lien¹ with a defined payment schedule for the congregation covering 10 to 25 years.
 - A down payment upon exit with a Promissory Note and lien for the balance due.
 - The option of payment in full prior to exit for those congregations who desire to do so.
5. Congregations fulfilling the payment of the pension withdrawal in full will be immediately released from the lien and further obligations.
6. The goal of the withdrawal payment is to provide a reasonable level of insurance to the conference against future risks, not to function as an exit penalty.
7. If the conference reaches fully funded status, all outstanding payments should be cancelled.
8. In the event that a future General Conference of the UMC grants authority for Wespath to transfer the aggregate unfunded liability of disaffiliating and/or separating local churches into a Wespath pension plan under the Global Methodist Church or other denomination, the balance owed on the Promissory Note will be considered fulfilled and any lien against local church property or other assets will be released.
9. No additional sums should be required as payment to obtain release of all the congregation's property and assets from the trust clause.
10. The local church should make the decision to separate under Paragraph 2548.2 at a church conference duly called according to the provisions of The Book of Discipline and relevant Judicial Council Decisions. The district superintendent shall approve the request of the Church Council, and shall preside or choose another elder to preside at a church conference to take place no later than sixty days after the request to separation under Paragraph 2548.2 is received in writing.

2021 STATISTICIAN'S REPORT

The Statistical Data collected from our local churches for 2021 is highlighted in this report. We continue to use the GCFA Statistical Website (Ezra) to collect our church data as this continues to provide for a better management of our data at the General Church and Conference levels. This year, with help from the District Offices we were able to collect 92% of the reports from our 974 churches. Unfortunately, there were 8% or 80 churches that did not completed their reports to give a true statistical picture of the West Ohio Conference. Capitol Area South District was the only district that had all their churches complete their yearend reports. Keep in mind that with Covid-19 part of our everyday life in 2021 these numbers are off from a normal statistical year. We again allowed churches to enter their data using the online entry method or by sending the information to the Conference Office to be manually entered by the Conference Statistician.

At the close of 2021, the membership of the West Ohio Conference stood at 127,937 members. A total of 2,800 members were added to the membership across our conference in 2021. That meant that every day last year, 8 members either joined a congregation or restored their affirmation in our conference. Like the previous years the largest increase was received on profession of faith, a total of 1,313 members. That number increased by 200 from 2020. In 2021, a total of 111 churches held confirmation classes, representing 17% of our churches. In 2021 that number has decreased from the previous year by 58 classes.

At the close of 2021, the West Ohio Conference membership was down from what was reported at the end of 2020. The total loss of members in all statistical categories was 7,499. Unfortunately, that meant that every day last year 21 people were leaving congregations in the conference. The largest loss was removed by death or deceased, a total of 2,834 members. This number decreased from what was recorded for the year in 2020 by 281 members. The net loss from the new members minus the members lost shown below is 5,291 members. The West Ohio Conference membership has been reduced by 34,899 members over the last 5 years. The average annual loss for our conference over the last ten years has been 6,532 members per year.

Starting Membership 2021	133,228
Those received during 2021 – Add	2,800
Those removed during 2021 – Subtract	-7,499
Ending Membership 2021	127,937

During 2021 worship attendance on Sunday in the West Ohio Conference had an average of 114,340 members participating in worship across the conference. Of that amount the online worship has been added. Online worship had 56,621 members participating. The average attendance in principal worship services decreased by close to 17,138 members from what was reported in 2020. These numbers were inflated or deflate depending on how you look at it by the Covid-19 pandemic. We also baptized 944 individuals during 2021. The number of baptisms increased by 429 from the totals reported in 2020. A total of 337 churches or 35% of the congregations in our conference reported at least 1 baptism in during 2021. Baptisms because of Covid-19 were still affected greatly by the inability of worship services being not in person.

The Total number of Christian Formation Participants for 2021 was 53,337 participants. All four of the categories' Children, Youth, Young Adults & Other Adults showed decreased numbers in 2021. Overall, the West Ohio Conference experienced a 10% decrease in the number of participants from 2020 to 2021. The Average Attendance at Sunday School decreased from that of 2020 by 722 members. There were 15,113 participants involved in Vacation Bible School in our churches during 2021. This was an increase from those participating in 2020 of 6,955. These numbers were also greatly affected by the Covid-19 pandemic.

There were 35 UMVIM teams sent out from local churches in 2021. That was a decrease from 2020 of 35 mission teams. That accounted for 529 participants in UMVIM teams which decreased by 17 participants. We also have several churches that are involved in community ministries for outreach, justice, mercy, and daycare. The number of persons engaged in mission in the local churches was 35,857 serving 1,201,837 people in those communities. There were 694 or 71% of our congregations that had persons engaged in mission.

The West Ohio Conference recorded an increase in total paid in 2021. The conference received $182,413,371 which was an increase of $7,775,643 compared to 2020. That breaks out to a cost of $1,426 per member as compared to $1,311 per member in 2020. Almost 53% or 516 of the churches in our conference paid their apportionments at 100% or more in 2021. That number has increased from what was reported in 2020 by 11 churches. General Advance Special giving for specific, designated ministries and projects showed an increase of $239,204 in 2021. Total giving to General Advance Specials was $652,195. The West Ohio Advance Specials in 2021 collected a total of $101,120 in gifts. That was an increase of $1,120 from what was reported in 2020.

Other ministries in the conference that are not recorded in the Statistical Data include: Groups and gatherings of people using the churches of the West Ohio Conference for worship, Emmaus Walks, Chrysalis, food pantries, after school programs, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, 4H, kindergarten, pre-school, and many other civic functions. Some ethnic congregations are using West Ohio Conference churches for worship services. In situations like those mentioned above, vital ministries are taking place to help establish or re-establish the United Methodist Church as an integral part of their communities. The West Ohio Conference appreciates those churches for providing this outreach.

In conclusion, please be aware that this report covers only part of the Statistician's entire Report. Please review your church's records in the conference journal and compare how your church measures up against others in your district and across the conference. Hopefully in 2022 our churches will be back to a more normal day to day operation like we had grown accustom.

FINANCIAL REPORTS

A. CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER REPORT

Presented by: Bill Brownson

The overall financial state of the Conference, including the districts, Board of Pensions and the United Methodist Foundation of West Ohio, is sound as of Dec. 31, 2021. Our financial foundation is strong because of attentive stewardship, in terms of both expense management and asset management. Three successive years of strong investment returns will have that effect on an organization like ours with more than $100 million of invested assets. Gratefully, we are in a good position to weather volatile investment conditions and uncertainties in the short term to maintain and even grow our ministries.

From this encouraging starting place, I'd like to raise some substantive matters and issues we will be navigating going forward.

Boy Scouts

As indicated in the Trustees' report, the Conference has committed just over $1 million toward the denominational settlement amount in the Boy Scouts bankruptcy. While our responsibilities are about more than money, we will need to cobble together our share. An ad hoc committee of Trustees, CF&A members and others is working on allocating the promised support among the Conference and districts.

Active Health Insurance Plan

The Board of Pensions and others continue to grapple with the medical and prescription drug claims of our active health-insurance plan. As caretakers of a self-funded plan, we are responsible for assigning premiums to participating churches at a level that covers claims. In 2021, premiums would have had to be 13% higher to cover the cost of the plan. That might seem incredible for churches already contributing nearly $30,000 to a family plan. Fortunately, the Board of Pensions is well reserved and has the capacity to cover a shortfall in premium income to pay for ongoing claims. As the Board plans for 2023, everything will be subject to review. With U.S. health care costs of $12,530 per person in 2020, there are no silver bullets.

Disaffiliations

I have invested significant time in understanding and navigating the possible impacts on churches choosing to disaffiliate from The United Methodist Church. The timing, number and mix of disaffiliating churches are all unknown. What we know is that 2024 will be the next time General Conference convenes and the earliest it can act on a way forward on this matter. Until then, the current Book of Discipline is our guide on facilitating departing churches in West Ohio. Elsewhere in this document, the Board of Trustees has included in-depth information about the terms of disaffiliation for churches considering it.

One of the key financial considerations of disaffiliation is providing for a share of unfunded pension liability. To be sure, this is a complicated matter. I have wrestled with how to simplify this for the widest understanding and landed here:

- Under a set of assumptions that includes a stable support base (i.e., churches), investment markets in the future being like the past, predictable participation and mortality rates, our pension plans are fully funded. This is the assessment on a "funding basis," a term actuaries apply to the situation described here.
- Under a set of assumptions that includes a great deal of uncertainty, it makes sense to value pension liabilities in a more conservative way. When entire annual conferences are contemplating separating and an unknown number of churches and clergy will depart The UMC, predictability gives way to uncertainty and ambiguity. In this case, Wespath has applied a more conservative "market-based" methodology to value pension liabilities and take into account an uncertain future. On this basis, we are underfunded.
- Technically, informed professionals and interested parties alike can debate whether a market-based valuation is too conservative and that a funding basis is more appropriate. From my chair, compensating for uncertainty on something as important as retirement income for clergy and their surviving spouses is sensible.
- Regardless of one's opinion and analysis, the pension valuation methodology to be considered for disaffiliating churches is fixed in The Book of Discipline; we cannot unilaterally choose something else.

Given our current finances and assuming orderly disaffiliations using the terms provided in The Book of Discipline, I am optimistic about our financial capacity to navigate a future committed to making disciples and engaging in meaningful ministry. The road may be choppy, but we have everything we need, not only to navigate it, but also to navigate it effectively.

The matters named in this report are substantive, material and complex. I am blessed to work collaboratively with capable and committed volunteer board and committee members on plans and solutions for Conference matters. The Council on Finance and Administration, the Board of Trustees, the Board of Pensions, the Audit Committee, the Investment Committee – the ones with whom I work more closely – are all engaged and supportive. We wouldn't have a prayer without them.

Finally, wearing my additional hat of Director of Administration, I'd like to raise up the dedicated Conference and District staff who come to work every day committed to doing their part in advancing our shared mission. Without them, our results would be diminished. Just like in the local church, they have demonstrated resilience and adapted to the changing context of their work. I am grateful for their dedication and proud to call them colleagues.

B. 2023 MISSION & MINISTRY FUNDING PLAN

The West Ohio Annual Conference and its Districts' Budgets rely significantly on receipts from Connectional Giving apportioned three funds:

1. Districts Ministries Fund, which provides for staffing (except superintendents), programming and grants.
2. Conference Ministries Fund combines all Conference offices (Connectional Ministries, Missional Church Development, Financial Administration, Episcopal Office and District Leadership, Communications).
3. Seven General Church Agencies and Funds and the North Central Jurisdiction are combined into the General Church Ministries Fund.

General Church funds cannot be used by the Annual Conference for any purpose and will be forwarded pro-rata based on the denominational budget to the General Church each month. The exception is receipts on the Ministerial Education Fund, 25% of which is retained by Annual Conferences for Ministerial Education purposes.

The detailed 2023 budget also shows the 2022 and 2021 budgets as well as 2021 actual results. As separate legal entities and no longer reliant on apportionment support, the United Methodist Foundation of West Ohio (UMFWO) and the Board of Pensions information is reported but after the Conference Ministries budget. The consolidated Districts budgets follow the Conference budget. The format strives to reflect all sources used to meet expenditures, including donor income and program income.

The total amount of apportioned Connectional Giving in 2023 will be $17,712,000, in line with 2022 apportionment amounts. This follows significant reductions over the past five years.

C. AUDIT REPORT

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Council on Finance and Administration and Board of Trustees
West Ohio Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church and Affiliates
Columbus, Ohio

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of the West Ohio Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church and Affiliates (a not-for-profit organization), which comprise the consolidated statements of financial position as of December 31, 2021 and 2020, and the related consolidated statements of activities, functional expenses and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of West Ohio Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church and Affiliate as of December 31, 2021 and 2020, and the results of its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of West Ohio Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church and Affiliate and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about West Ohio Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church and Affiliate's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the consolidated financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists.

The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements, including omissions, are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of West Ohio Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church and Affiliate's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about West Ohio Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church and Affiliate's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

Report on Supplementary Information

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the consolidated financial statements as a whole. The consolidating schedules are presented for purposes of additional analysis and are not a required part of the consolidated financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the consolidated financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the consolidated financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the consolidated financial statements or to the consolidated financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the information is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the consolidated financial statements as a whole.

West Ohio Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church and Affiliates
Consolidated Notes to the Financial Statements
December 31, 2021 and 2020

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of activities

The West Ohio Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church and Affiliates (the "Conference") is a religious not-for-profit organization that was established to provide organizational structure and support to its member churches. The Conference provides management of conference-wide programs for missional, ministerial, and charitable giving purposes. The Conference also operates retirement and healthcare programs for eligible lay and clergy employees and retirees of the Conference and member churches.

Conference and Affiliates

The more than 970 member churches are organized into eight districts. The Conference is legally the sole member of eleven corporations that are included in these consolidated financial statements. The eleven corporations are:

- Capitol Area North (CAN)
- Capitol Area South (CAS)
- Foothills (FTH)
- Maumee Watershed (MWD)
- Miami Valley (MIV)
- Northwest Plains (NWP)
- Ohio River Valley (ORV)
- Shawnee Valley (SHV)
- Community Ministries of the Capital Area
- West Ohio Conference Board of Pensions
- United Methodist Foundation of West Ohio

Because of the control exercised by the Conference over the Community Ministries of the Capitol Area (CAM), that entity is included in the consolidated financial statements.

The Conference is also the sole legal member of the Charitable Pharmacy of Central Ohio, UMCH Family Services, and Ohio Health. The powers reserved by their respectful Boards indicates a level of control that does not warrant consolidating their results in to these statements.

Basis of presentation

The Conference's consolidated financial statement presentation is in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP). Under U.S. GAAP, the Conference's consolidated financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting, and the Conference reports information regarding its financial position and activities according to two classes of net assets: net assets without donor restrictions and net asset with donor restrictions.

Accordingly, the net assets of the Conference, and changes therein, are classified and reported as follows:

Net assets without donor restrictions – Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed restrictions and are available for use in the Conference's ongoing operations.

West Ohio Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church and Affiliates
Consolidated Notes to the Financial Statements
December 31, 2021 and 2020

Net assets with donor restrictions – Net assets that are “temporarily restricted” and therefore limited as to use by donor-imposed restrictions that can be fulfilled by either the actions of the Conference, or the passage of time; and net assets that are “permanently restricted” and therefore limited as to use by donor-imposed restrictions that permanently restrict the use of the funds by the Conference, with the exception of the investment earnings.

Generally, if the corpus of a contribution will, at some future time, become available for spending, it is recorded as with donor restrictions. In addition, contributions that are promised to be given in a future period are presented as with donor restrictions. If the corpus never becomes available for spending, it will be held in perpetuity by others and classified as net assets with donor restrictions. Net assets held by others represent the fair value of the original gift as of the gift date and the original value of subsequent gifts to donor-restricted endowment funds.

Net assets without donor restrictions include liquid and illiquid resources without restrictions, including donations, gifts, and bequests available for the use of the Conference, over which the Board of Trustees has discretionary control. The Conference reviewed all endowment funds, and no reclassification to net assets was required.

Use of estimates

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting periods. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and cash equivalents

For purposes of reporting cash flows, cash includes all cash on hand, demand deposits, and highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less. Cash and cash equivalents excludes the cash components of investments.

The Conference maintain financial relationships with financial institutions subject to FDIC or NCUA membership. Under FDIC and NCUA guidelines, all depository accounts are insured up to $250,000. Throughout the year, the Conference's and certain Affiliates' deposits exceeded these limitations for deposits held at certain financial institutions. Balances are insured subject to the regulatory guidelines for banks and credit unions. Further, periodic reviews of financial institution relationships include assessment of capital adequacy. Deposits in excess of insured limits were approximately $5.6 million and $3.1 million at December 31, 2021 and 2020, respectively.

Accounts receivable and revenue

Apportionments - Apportionment revenue represents amounts paid by member churches to fund Conference initiatives and operating expenses. Requests for apportionment contributions are sent in the early part of each year, and additional requests are sent throughout the year. The Conference records revenue based on the satisfaction of the performance obligations over time. Final revenue and receivables for the current year are recorded at year-end, based on subsequent receipts collected in January that relate to the prior year. Accordingly, there is no need to consider or record an allowance for uncollectible apportionments. Receivables are never considered delinquent and no interest is charged on receivables. Apportionment revenue does not include amounts collected from member churches to be passed on to the general United Methodist Church. These amounts are recorded as liabilities until transferred.

West Ohio Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church and Affiliates
Consolidated Notes to the Financial Statements
December 31, 2021 and 2020

Medical Coverage Insurance and Post-Retirement Pension Contributions - The Conference operates a medical coverage plan and post-retirement pension covering eligible lay employees, eligible clergy employees, eligible retired clergy of the Conference, and member churches. Medical coverage premiums and pension contributions are collected from member churches and retirees. Revenue is recognized based on the related satisfaction of the performance obligations over time, which is monthly. Receivables are recorded, and there is no need to consider or record an allowance for uncollectible accounts as payments are automatically pulled electronically when invoiced.

Camp Operations - The Conference operates three camps throughout its region. Camp sessions primarily occur in the summer. Revenue is recorded at the related satisfaction of the performance obligations at point in time, which is at the time of the camp session. As such, no receivables are recorded. Any revenue collected in the current year pertaining to a camp session for the next year is recognized as deferred revenue.

Program Fee Income - At times, the Conference also requests a fee for events (other than camps) to defray a portion of program costs. These programs may be educational sessions or mission trips. Revenue is recorded at the related satisfaction of the performance obligations at point in time, which is at the completion of the event. Any revenue collected during the current year that pertains to a future event is recorded as deferred revenue.

Miscellaneous Revenue - Non-operational and ancillary income is reflected as miscellaneous revenue in the consolidated statement of activities. Miscellaneous revenue consists primarily of revenue generated from rental income, and random monetary or property gifts received from donors.

Total revenue recognized at a point in time is $430,338 and $185,218 for December 31, 2021 and 2020, respectively. Total revenue recognized over time is $21,666,134 and $24,660,459 for December 31, 2021 and 2020, respectively.

Investments

Investments are recorded at fair value based on quoted market values. Investment returns, including interest income, dividends, unrealized and realized gains or losses and fees are included in the consolidated statement of activities. See Notes 4 and 6.

Property and equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost and depreciated over their estimated useful lives using the straight-line method. Routine repairs and maintenance are charged to expense when incurred, and improvements and additions are capitalized. The carrying value of long-lived assets are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate the amount of assets may not be recoverable. Management has determined there was no asset impairment on depreciable assets in 2021 or 2020.

The Conference holds approximately 798 acres of land related to its camps that were donated or otherwise acquired in prior years. As the fair market value of this land could not be reasonably determined at the time of its donation, it is not recorded in the consolidated financial statements. In addition, the Conference is holding 13 properties for resale at December 31, 2021 and was holding 11 properties for resale at December 31, 2020. These properties have been recorded at their estimated fair values.

Endowment investment and spending policies

The Conference has adopted investment policies for all investment assets for which it is accountable, including certain endowment assets. The investment policy acknowledges and accommodates objectives unique to each fund, pool, or donor. In some cases, the investment policy is designed to produce an income stream to meet conference obligations to annuitants; in other cases, the policy is designed to preserve the real purchasing power of the assets and produce increasing income over time. In all cases, the policy provides a governance framework and guidance on investment management practices that are prudent and respectful of The United Methodist Church's social principles and underlying investment objectives.

Where not restricted by donor intent, the Conference relies on a total return strategy in which investment returns are achieved through both capital appreciation (realized and unrealized) and current yield (interest and dividends). Spending and disbursements from each fund are set by donor agreement or the investing body (e.g., Board of Pensions (BOP), Trustees, or The United Methodist Foundation of West Ohio (UMFWO)). Certain affiliated churches that have placed investment assets with the Conference, be they endowed or otherwise, may request a distribution of some or all of their balances at any time. The liability for funds held for the benefit of these churches is included in amounts held for distribution on the consolidated statements of financial position.

Each district or mission board within the Conference that has investable assets, separately maintains an investment policy statement designed to meet their respective needs and objectives or adopts the policy of the UMFWO if invested with that entity.

Contributions

Revenues from contributions are recognized when a donor's unconditional commitment is received. Donor contributions are recorded as without donor restrictions or with donor restrictions, depending on the existence or nature of any donor restrictions. When a restriction is satisfied, net assets with donor restrictions are released to net assets without donor restrictions and reported in the consolidated statements of activities as satisfaction of donor restrictions. Any restricted contributions that are received and fulfilled in the same year are recorded as net assets with donor restrictions originally, and then released to net assets without donor restrictions in the same year. Contributions of marketable securities and property and equipment are recorded at their fair value at the date of the gift.

Expense allocation

The Conference allocates a portion of administrative expenses to program and mission services based on various direct costs related to each program and an analysis of personnel time.

Income and property taxes

The Conference along with nearly all US-based United Methodist churches, conferences, districts, and agencies, it is included in the denomination's IRS group ruling exempting IT from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Conference did not have any unrelated business income during 2021 or 2020. Accordingly, no provision for federal, state, and local income taxes is included in the consolidated financial statements.

As a religious organization, the Conference is not required to file tax returns if it has no unrelated business income. Based on its review, management does not believe the Conference has taken any material uncertain tax positions, including any position that would place the Conference's exempt status in jeopardy for 2021 and 2020.

Real property held long term and not directly for program purposes, such as parsonages, are subject to property taxes which are paid timely.

Life annuity gifts

The UMFWO receives funds from donors classified as life annuity gifts. The donors contribute an irrevocable remainder interest in the donated funds and establish an interest that requires monthly or quarterly payments of a specified amount to the donor annuitant or another annuitant. Payments must be made for the remaining life of the specified annuitant or annuitants.

Upon the death of the donor, other identified party or annuitant, the remainder interest becomes available for the final beneficiary, which is either the Conference, or other organizations generally associated with The United Methodist Church. The final beneficiary is designated in the life annuity contracts; however, the Conference enables the donor to change the final beneficiary up until the time of death, with the stipulation that the donor must either change the final beneficiary to the Conference or to another organization associated with The United Methodist Church. Since the final beneficiary is not determinable until the date of death, the Conference records all original gifts as liabilities and includes them in amounts held for distribution in the consolidated statements of financial position.

Upon the death of the donor, identified party or annuitant, if the Conference is named as the final beneficiary, then the Conference records contribution revenue for the remaining portion of the gift in the year of death. If another organization is named as the final beneficiary, then a liability is recorded to that organization by the Conference for the remaining portion of the gift. When the remaining portion of the gift is paid to the other organization, the liability is released.

Reclassification

Certain reclassifications have been made to the December 31, 2020 financial statement presentation to correspond to the current year's format.

Subsequent events

In preparing these consolidated financial statements, the Conference has evaluated events and transactions for potential recognition or disclosure December 19, 2022, the date the consolidated financial statements were available to be issued.

2. PLEDGE CAMPAIGN RECEIVABLES

The Conference conducts fundraising activities on an ongoing basis and some of those efforts result in multi-year promises to give. Pledges are recorded at their estimated fair value using discount rates ranging from 5.20% to 6.17%. Pledge campaign receivables as of December 31 are as follows:

	2021	2020
Pledges due in:

3. NOTES RECEIVABLE

From time to time the Conference extends loans to local churches, assessed interest rates are generally at or below market and where applicable, tied to published rates such as prime or LIBOR Lending is not considered a core conference program.

Notes receivable are considered delinquent if required payments are not made; however, loans are not charged incremental interest or penalty fees provided foreclosure of property does not occur. Based on this practice, despite loans made to churches closely related to the Conference, there is a certain level of credit risk that may become significant.

Management assesses the collectability of notes receivable at year-end. Based on collection activity and known financial status of the church, an allowance may be recorded. The allowance for uncollectible notes receivable was $31,615 and $25,615 at December 31, 2021 and 2020, respectively.

Maturities of notes receivable over the subsequent five years and thereafter are as follows:

Year ending December 31
2022	$	18,843
2023		14,388
2024		9,633
2025		2,815
2026		1,058
Thereafter		264
	$	47,001

4. INVESTMENTS

Marketable securities are exposed to various risks such as interest rate, market, and credit risks. Due to the level of risk associated with certain marketable securities, it is at least reasonably possible that changes in the value will occur in the near term, and such changes could be material. Investments consisted of the following as of December 31:

	2021	2020
Money market	$ 1,822,920	1,428,294
Government obligations	4,593,689	4,160,237
Corporate securities	3,970,362	5,285,227
Common stock	31,179,584	32,652,585
Mutual funds	72,572,624	62,183,421
Certificates of deposit	736,876	1,296,390
	$ 114,876,055	107,006,154

5. BENEFICIAL INTEREST IN ASSETS HELD BY OTHERS

Three bequests are held and administered as endowments by the Board of Trustees of The United Methodist Church. Two of the funds are for the benefit of the ORV and one is for the benefit of the BOP. All three are recorded as “beneficial interests in assets held by others.”

Under the terms of the endowments, ORV and BOP have the irrevocable right to receive income earned in perpetuity. The original corpus and accumulated income as reported by the Board of Trustees of The United Methodist Church are recorded as a permanently and temporarily restricted beneficial interests, respectively. When distributions are received, they become donor-restricted assets. Restrictions are released only when qualifying expenses are incurred.

6. FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

Generally accepted accounting principles define fair value, establish a framework for measuring fair value, and establish a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. A fair value measurement assumes that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability occurs in the principal market for the asset or liability or, in the absence of a principal market, the most advantageous market. Valuation techniques that are consistent with the market, income or cost approach are used to measure fair value.

The fair value hierarchy prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value into three broad levels:

Level 1: Inputs to the valuation methodology are unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that the Conference has the ability to access.

Level 2: Inputs to the valuation methodology include:

- Quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets;
- Quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in inactive markets;
- Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability;
- Inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means. If the asset or liability has a specified (contractual) term, the level 2 input must be observable for substantially the full term of the asset or liability.

Level 3: Inputs to the valuation methodology are unobservable and significant to the fair value measurement.

The asset or liability's fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques used need to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

The following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for assets measured at fair value. There have been no changes in the methodologies used at December 31, 2021 and 2020.

Money market and certificates of deposit: Valued based on the contractual terms of the underlying money market or cash equivalent account.

West Ohio Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church and Affiliates
Consolidated Notes to the Financial Statements
December 31, 2021 and 2020

Common stock, corporate securities and government obligations: Valued at the closing price reported on the active market on which the individual securities are traded.

Mutual funds: Valued at the net asset value of shares held by the Conference at year-end.

Property held for sale: Valued at fair market value based upon real estate appraisals.

Beneficial interest in assets held by others: Valuation is determined by the underlying interest in funds held by the custodian, which are primarily invested in marketable securities with quoted market prices.

The following table summarizes the valuation of financial instruments measured at fair value on a recurring basis in the consolidated statement of financial position as of December 31:

December 31, 2021 and 2020

Property held for sale is measured at fair value on a nonrecurring basis in the consolidated statements of financial positions as of December 31, 2021 and 2020. Property held for sale is valued at $4,766,702 and $2,425,998 as of December 31, 2021 and 2020, respectively, as a Level 3 input.

The preceding methods described may produce a fair value calculation that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, although the Conference believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

The Conference has acquired church properties from former congregations that have ceased to be associated with the Conference. These properties are recorded at their estimated fair value when the Conference determines it will be held for resale. The Conference is committed to selling these properties as soon as possible.

7. LINE OF CREDIT AND LOAN GUARANTEE

ORV maintains a $1,500,000 revolving line of credit with a financial institution due on demand. The line of credit bears interest at a rate determined by the size of the District's assets that are under management of the financial institution (1.75% at December 31, 2021 and 2020). The assets of the ORV are pledged as collateral.

8. PAYCHECK PROTECTION PROGRAM LOAN

The Conference received a Paycheck Protection Program (PPP) loan as part of the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act for $1,119,400 in May 2020. The related revenue from the forgiveness is included in miscellaneous revenue on the consolidated statement of activities for the year ended December 31, 2020 because management determined the conditions for forgiveness were met.

10. OPERATING LEASES

ORV leases office space as an operating lease commencing in January 2018 from a local church, with annual payments of $1. As compensation to the Lessor, Lessee will pay for repairs and remediation to the property as set out in Exhibit B to the lease. Since the commencement of the lease, ORV has paid $196,675 towards the repairs and remediation of the property.

The Conference leases certain other office equipment under non-cancelable operating leases, which expire at various times over the next five years. Total lease expenditures in 2021 and 2020 were $105,339 and $114,847, respectively. Future minimum lease payments are as follows:

Year ending December 31

11. NET ASSETS WITH DONOR RESTRICTIONS

The net assets with donor restrictions that are restricted by time or purpose includes assets and trust obligations of the Conference related to gifts with explicit donor-imposed restrictions that have not been met. Net assets restricted by time or purpose at December 31, are restricted to the following uses:

	2021	2020
Church buildings	$ 3,217,944	2,904,198
District operations	886,678	1,358,040

	$ 16,373,368	15,033,594

The net asset with donor restrictions that are held by others includes assets of the Conference related to gifts with explicit donor-imposed restrictions that permanently restrict the use of the corpus of the original gift. See Note 5 regarding beneficial interest in assets held by others. Net assets that are being held by others at December 31, are restricted to the following:

	2021	2020
Beneficial interest in assets held by others	$ 122,998	122,998
Local churches	204,301	204,301

Cemetery support endowments	22,726	22,726
	$ 418,721	418,721

12. FUNDS HELD IN TRUST BY OTHERS

The UMFWO is named as the remainder beneficiary of certain trusts held by others. These trusts are not included in the consolidated financial statements as the funds are neither in the possession of nor under the control of the UMFWO. Total estimated fair value of the UMFWO's interest in these funds at December 31, 2021 and 2020, is not available.

13. EPISCOPAL FUND

The Conference receives funds from the Episcopal Fund established by the General Council on Finance and Administration (GCFA) of The United Methodist Church. This fund is one of the general church funds to be used for administrative expenses of annual conferences.

West Ohio Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church and Affiliates
Consolidated Notes to the Financial Statements
December 31, 2021 and 2020

The GCFA requires certain comparative information to be disclosed as a part of the annual audit of the Conference for the years ended December 31:

	2021	2020
Revenue
GCFA Episcopal Fund receipts	$ 85,470	85,471
Expenses
Salaries	228,283	179,627
Payroll taxes and benefits	77,165	61,831
Travel	5,319	2,052
Episcopal initiatives	2,296	21,182
Occupancy and office expenses	40,256	51,502
	353,319	316,194
	$ (267,849)	(230,723)

Episcopal related expenses exceed funding received annually; accordingly, there is no beginning or ending cash balances as funds are fully utilized by the year-end. Other operational or contribution funding is effectively utilized to pay for Episcopal expenditures greater than the funds provided from the Episcopal Fund. Except for equipment approved for and reimbursed by GCFA, none of the Episcopal Funds were used for property and equipment purchases in 2021 or 2020.

14. ENDOWMENT FUNDS AND UPMIFA

Management has determined that certain Conference assets meet the definition of endowments under the Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act of 2006 (UPMIFA). The Conference has interpreted UPMIFA as requiring the preservation of the fair value of the original gift as of the gift date of the donor-restricted endowment funds, absent explicit donor stipulations to the contrary. As a result of this interpretation, the Conference classifies as net assets with donor restrictions (a) the original value of gifts donated to endowments, (b) the original value of subsequent gifts to endowments, and (c) accumulations to the endowment made in accordance with the direction of the applicable donor gift instrument at the time the accumulation is added to the fund.

In accordance with UPMIFA, the Conference considers these factors in making a determination to appropriate or accumulate donor-restricted endowment funds:

- (1) The duration and preservation of the fund;
- (2) The purposes of the Conference and the donor-restricted endowment fund;
- (3) General economic conditions;
- (4) The possible effect of inflation and deflation;
- (5) The expected total return from income and the appreciation of investments;
- (6) Other resources of the organization; and
- (7) The investment policies of the organization.

15. HEALTHCARE POST-RETIREMENT BENEFIT OBLIGATIONS

The Conference sponsors a defined benefit post-retirement healthcare plan covering substantially all employees, and is a participant in a denomination-sponsored defined benefit pension plan as described in Note 16. GAAP requires an employer to recognize the over-funded or under-funded status of a defined benefit plan, or post-retirement benefits plan, as an asset or liability in its consolidated statement of financial position.

For pension plans, the asset or liability is determined by comparing plan assets to the projected benefit obligation. Pension plans recognize changes in the funded status in the year in which the changes occur through net assets without donor restricted revenue or expense. For post-retirement plans other than pension plans, the asset and liability is determined by comparing plan assets to the accumulated benefit obligation.

Effective January 1, 2022, the Conference ceased providing a retiree group health care plan for retirees and spouses age 65 and older. The group plan was succeeded by a Health Reimbursement Account (HRA) funding model. Under this arrangement, the Conference funds annually an HRA for retired clergy and their spouses at levels based on their years of service.

The size of the post-retirement healthcare obligation and related expense is based upon the plan benefit levels approved each year by the BOP and anticipated future increases. The change from sponsoring a retiree group health plan to funding HRAs is the primary contributor to the significant reduction in the liability in 2021 versus 2020. The Conference had assets designated for this liability totaling approximately $68.6 million and $64 million as of December 31, 2021 and 2020, respectively, in the Retired Clergy Benefits Fund.

16. RETIREMENT PLANS

The Conference is one many United Methodist-related sponsors of multi-employer retirement Program administered by Wespath on behalf of the United Methodist Church. The Program is comprised of a series of retirement plans organized under appropriate code sections and includes defined benefit plans and defined contribution plans. The Program is intended to meet the requirements of a "church plan" and be exempt from ERISA to the extent permitted.

Broadly, the Program is comprised of three sequential retirement plans, the Pre-82, MPP (Ministerial Pension Plan) and a Core Defined Benefit Plan and Core Defined Contribution Plan (CRSP-DB and CRSP-DC). The Pre-82 plan was frozen December 31, 1981, and it was succeeded by MPP. MPP was in effect until December 31, 2006, when it was succeeded by the CRSP plans. CRSP was amended effective January 1, 2014, and it is the current plan for eligible participants.

The Conference is responsible for funding its share of liabilities in each Plan in the Program. Wespath created a trust to receive contributions from plan sponsors in support of the Program. Wespath is responsible for investing Program assets and where applicable providing participants with mechanisms to accommodate their risk profiles. Sponsors have no control over program investments. Over the years, the Conference has employed various methods to ensure current service costs and accumulated liabilities are funded. All benefits under the program are provided exclusively by distributions from the trust. Annually, Wespath retains a third-party actuary to develop plan liabilities and assign funding levels based on plan assets. The most recent actuarial valuations were issued September 2021 as of January 1, 2020 and January 1, 2021, no plan assets or liabilities are recorded on the Conference's balance sheet.

Current Funding Levels

On a Funding Plan basis, plan assets and liabilities as of January 1, 2021 for 2023 plan contributions are as indicated in the table below. Funding plan liability is discounted based on average expected asset returns. This type of liability may provide incentives to adopt riskier investment policies that increase expected returns and lead to lower reported cost or increased funded status. The Conference's share of plan assets and liabilities on a Funding plan basis is reflected in the table below.

	Pre-82	MMP Current Annuities	CRSP-DB	Total
Assets	65,869,468	155,801,723	82,344,756	304,015,947
Liabilities	(57,862,916)	(127,418,907)	(69,547,509)	(254,829,332)
Funded Status	8,006,552	28,382,816	12,797,247	49,186,615
Funded ratio	114%	122%	118%	119%

The Market Liability is not discounted based on the allocation of invested plan assets. It is priced to reflect the lower risk that participants experience in receiving the benefit. This liability uses a discount rate curve that attempts to reflect the current price at which the liabilities would trade in the open market. The table below reflects estimated plan liabilities on a market basis and the resulting funding levels.

	Pre-82	MMP Current Annuities	CRSP-DB	Total
Assets	70,669,965	166,901,326	70,669,965	308,241,256
Liabilities	(78,887,241)	(187,576,874)	(78,887,241)	(345,351,356)
Funded Status	(8,217,276)	(20,675,548)	(8,217,276)	(37,110,100)
Funded ratio	90%	89%	90%	89%

The Conference's share of total plan assets range from 3.27% to 3.51%. As Program administrator, Wespath is responsible for assigning funding responsibility to plan sponsors. The need for additional funding could result from persistent lower than expected investment returns or the inability of one or more plan sponsors to meet their share of obligations.

The Conference made full contributions of $3,208,722 and $3,353,473 years ended December 31, 2021 and 2020 toward its current service CRSP-DB obligations.

The terms of the plan permit the Conference to use an over-funded position in the Pre-82 Plan to fund the defined benefit component of the CRSP. Although a surplus was available, the Conference made a full contribution of $3,208,722 and $3,353,473 years ended December 31, 2021 and 2020, respectively. The Conference bills its churches at a percentage of eligible compensation regardless of whether the surplus is utilized. When amounts collected exceed the amount remitted to GBPHB, the excess funds are used to build a reserve for the post-retirement healthcare liability or other clergy benefits, as designated by the BOP.

United Methodist Personal Investment Plan

The Conference sponsors a 403(b) defined contribution plan for clergy and full-time lay employees of the Conference and Affiliates. Participants are 100% vested in their contributions. The Conference and Affiliates make matching contributions subject to their respective adoption agreements with the GBPHB. Matching contributions for the 403(b) defined contribution plan are immediately vested. Matching contributions totaled approximately $182,472 and $193,000 for years ended December 31, 2021 and 2020, respectively.

17. LIQUIDITY AND AVAILABILITY

The Conference is substantially supported by earned revenue. The Conference also receives contributions with donor restrictions. Because a donor's restriction requires resources to be used in a particular manner or in a future period, the Conference must maintain sufficient resources to meet those responsibilities to its donors. Thus, financial assets may not be available for general expenditure within one year. As part of the Conference's liquidity management, it has a policy to structure its financial assets to be available as its general expenditures, liabilities, and other obligations come due.

	2021	2020
Financial assets:
Cash and cash equivalents	$ 7,377,556	5,122,199
Investments	114,876,055	107,006,154
Accounts receivable	881,143	2,155,190
Beneficial interest in assets held by others	1,264,176	1,124,579
Financial assets available at year-end	124,398,930	115,408,122
Less those unavailable for general expenditures within one year:
Restricted by donor	16,792,089	15,452,315
Financial assets available to meet cash needs for general expenditures within one year before board designated and post-retirement benefit obligations	107,606,841	99,955,807
Board designated	52,666,631	43,698,543
Post-retirement benefits obligations	21,495,130	46,243,630
Financial assets available to meet cash needs for general expenditures within one year	$ 33,445,080 *	10,013,634

18. RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES

Several thousand United Methodist Churches are or were chartering entities for Boy Scout troops, including approximately 200 West Ohio Conference churches. As part of the Boy Scouts of America bankruptcy proceeding, the United Methodist Church negotiated an amount to be paid into a survivor's trust in exchange for release of liability associated with Boy-Scouts-related sexual abuse claims through February 2020. It is anticipated the West Ohio Conference will make a contribution estimated at $1.1 million toward the denomination's commitment over the next two years. As of the date of the audit, no payments have been made and the bankruptcy proceeding is not finalized.

They are elected for a term of one quadrennium, unless otherwise specified in The Book of Discipline. No successive term in the same office shall be possible unless the lead team, board, or committee member takes office during the last half of the previous quadrennium.

- c. The name of each lead team, board and committee member listed in the conference journal shall carry in parenthesis after each name the year in which service began. Officers' service start year will also be included as appropriate.
- d. The Conference Committee on Nominations shall be responsible for applying the tenure rule.
- e. The maximum workload of any person shall be two elected positions on conference lead teams, boards and committees simultaneously. The Conference Committee on Nominations shall be responsible for applying the maximum workload rules.
 - i. Service on a conference related lead team, board or committee shall not count toward a person's maximum workload if the position on the committee is by virtue of membership on the parent body.
 - ii. Persons who become members of conference lead teams, boards or committees by virtue of a national or jurisdictional office shall not have this counted as part of their conference role.
- f. The above rules do not apply to the following: United Women of Faith, United Methodist Men, Board of Conference Trustees, institutional trustees and officers, staffs of the conference treasurer and statistician, conference secretary and staff, and all district superintendents and other full-time salaried officials of the conference.
- g. The annual conference shall in its regular session vote to elect the membership of any conference lead team, board or committee where The Book of Discipline or conference rules require election by the annual conference. In between sessions of the annual conference this function shall be delegated to the Transformative Discipleship Team.
- h. Vacancies occurring between the sessions of annual conference, for which no procedure for filling is otherwise provided, shall be filled by the cabinet, upon nomination by the person or group originally responsible for making the nomination.
- i. The chair or secretary of each of the conference lead team, board or committee (for which the Committee on Nominations has power to nominate) shall submit to the nominations chair meeting attendance records for the year. Persons who have been inactive and/or absent from their meetings for one year, without cause, may be replaced. The conference Committee on Nominations shall nominate necessary replacements. When this applies to district representatives, districts will be notified.
- j. Lay members of annual conference shall be elected annually by the churches. In the event that a charge is represented by an alternate at any session of the annual conference, it shall be the responsibility of the charge conference to determine whether or not the alternate shall also replace the lay member in positions that the member holds in the charge by virtue of office.

4. ELECTIONS TO GENERAL AND JURISDICTIONAL CONFERENCES

- a. The elections shall take place in the Annual Conference Session the year before the year when the Jurisdictional and General Conferences take place.
- b. Lay Election for General and Jurisdictional Delegates
 - i. In the year of the election of delegates to general and jurisdictional conferences, a Lay Voter Guide shall be prepared by the conference office and distributed to all lay members of the annual conference by May 1 of the year of the election. The Lay Voter Guide shall include the names, biographical information, and assigned election numbers for all eligible Laity.
 - ii. For biographical information to be printed in The Lay Voter Guide, a candidate must meet the following criteria:
 - (a). Indicated to the conference office a desire to be considered for election.
 - (b). Met all eligibility requirements. To be eligible a layperson must be a member of a local church in the West Ohio Annual Conference in accordance with the Constitution and The Book of Discipline
 - (c). Completed the biographical information forms provided by the conference office by the deadline. Forms must be returned to the conference office no later than January 15 of the year of the election.
 - iii. The first ballot and the second ballot tally will report those receiving 25 votes or more. The third ballot tally and fourth ballot tally will show 35 votes or more. The fifth ballot tally will show 50 votes or more and the sixth ballot tally will show 100 votes or more. The seventh ballot tally will show 200 votes or more, and each succeeding ballot tally showing will increase by 50 or more. The members of the conference may direct the reporting of a higher minimum vote. When the general conference delegates have been elected, the process for the election of the jurisdictional delegates will follow the same process as that for general conference delegates.
- c. Clergy Election for General and Jurisdictional Delegates
 - i. In the year of the election of delegates to general and jurisdictional conferences, a Clergy Voter Guide shall be prepared and distributed to all clergy by the conference office. It shall include a listing of all clergy eligible for election. Prior to October in the year preceding the election, biographical information forms shall be distributed by the conference office to all clergy eligible for election. Each eligible clergy will be asked to indicate on the form

- whether they want to be considered for election. Clergy biographical information forms must be returned to the Conference office no later than January 15 of the year of the election of delegates to general and jurisdictional conferences to be published in the Clergy Voter Guide.
- ii. The Clergy Voter Guide shall be prepared by the conference office and distributed to all clergy through the conference offices by May 1 of the year of the election of delegates to general and jurisdictional conferences. The Clergy Voter Guide shall include the names and assigned election numbers for all eligible clergy. Eligible clergy who return the biographical information form by the deadline shall have that information printed with their name and election number. The listings of eligible clergy shall be divided into three categories: 1) those who want to be considered for election, 2) those who do not want to be considered for election, and 3) other eligible clergy.
 - iii. The first ballot tally and the second ballot tally will report those receiving 25 votes or more. The third ballot tally and fourth ballot tally will show 35 votes or more. The fifth ballot tally will show 50 votes or more and the sixth ballot tally will show 100 votes or more. The seventh ballot tally will show 200 votes or more, and each succeeding ballot tally showing will increase by 50 or more. The members of the conference may direct the reporting of a higher minimum vote. When the general conference delegates have been elected, the process for the election of the jurisdictional delegates will follow the same process as that for general conference delegates.
- d. Additional Procedures Governing the Election of Lay and Clergy Delegates to general and jurisdictional conferences
- i. The West Ohio Annual Conference shall establish a Conference Elections Team to guide the elective process. The Conference Election Team shall be composed of a balanced and diverse group of eight persons who hold differing viewpoints and shall be appointed by the bishop and confirmed by the annual conference.
 - (a). The bishop shall select the leadership of the Conference Election Team.
 - (b). The Conference Election team shall be selected two years prior to the next election year for general and jurisdictional conference, and shall begin their work upon election.
 - (c). Members of the Conference Election Team must agree not to offer themselves for or accept election as delegates to general and jurisdictional conference while serving on the team.
 - (d). The Conference Election Team shall implement, oversee, monitor, report and provide for the methods outlined in this document, and may propose changes to the Annual Conference based on the communication available and perceived needs to best serve the process.
 - (e). The Conference Election Team will recommend the number of laity and clergy alternates to be elected. (for 2019, 4 of laity and 4 clergy)
 - ii. The West Ohio Conference shall provide means for any persons offering themselves for election, or any group seeking to present recommendations regarding election, to distribute materials (at the individual's or group's expense) to all lay and clergy members of the conference. Any member of the annual conference or of the churches of the West Ohio Conference upon endorsement by their local church council or an official or unofficial group within the annual conference shall be eligible to access the services described in this paragraph. All individuals and groups participating in the election process will be asked to covenant to distribute materials only through means providing by the West Ohio Conference. Any person or group not abiding by this process will be noted at annual conference.
 - iii. A tally of each ballot shall be completed and made available to members of the annual conference prior to taking the next ballot. The tally will be made available on screens throughout the conference area in ways that do not interfere with the voting. Printed copies of ballots will not be available; rather ushers and members of the Election Team will be available to assist persons in obtaining results if they are unable to make use of the screens. The tally shall include:
 - (a). The name and number of the candidate
 - (b). The vote total of each person receiving votes (subject to rules established or amended from time to time by the body)
 - (c). The gender identity, racial-ethnic identity, district and age category (Under 18; 18-30; 31-45; 46-60; Over 60) of each person receiving votes.
 - (d). The order (elder or deacon) of each clergy candidate.
 - (e). A report of the gender identity, racial-ethnic identity, age category, and order composition of the delegation elected to that point in time.
- e. The Election Team shall provide means to compile recommended candidate lists for equitable dissemination that contains the updated candidate recommendations ("slate updates") of official and unofficial conference groups during the process of balloting at annual conference.
- i. At the conclusion of the election process the Conference Elections Team will calculate the cost of producing and distributing the Election Lists. Groups making use of this process may be required to underwrite the cost on an equitable basis as determined by the Conference Election Team.

- ii. All official or unofficial groups participating in the election process will be asked to covenant to distribute updated recommendations to the body of the Annual Conference only through this process. Those who do not abide by this process will be noted at the annual conference.
- f. Persons wishing to withdraw from consideration for election shall notify the chair (bishop) of their desire. The chair (bishop) shall report the withdrawal to the conference.
- g. The procedure for nominating individuals for the episcopacy from the West Ohio Conference shall be as follows: The jurisdictional conference delegates may bring nominations for the office of bishop to the annual conference immediately preceding the jurisdictional conference.

1. The district superintendent, in consultation with district leadership, may organize and schedule district conferences. The membership may consist of all licensed and ordained clergy, commissioned and diaconal ministers and deaconesses residing within the district and designated lay members representing local congregations and district ministries.
2. The district superintendent shall ensure the organization and operation of each district's incorporated entity consistent with its code of regulations (bylaws) and articles of incorporation. Therefore, each district shall have a Board of Directors or Trustees that fulfills obligations of the district's articles of incorporation and code of regulations (bylaws). The members of this board shall be nominated by the District Nominations Committee and elected by the District Conference. It should meet at least quarterly to conduct the business of the district.
3. District Committee on Ordained Ministry: There shall be a district committee on ordained ministry as outlined in The Book of Discipline
4. District Committee on Superintendency: There shall be a district committee on superintendency as outlined in The Book of Discipline.
5. Each district shall have a District Board on Church Location and Building to approve purchase and sale of church or district properties within the district. It also shall approve new building projects and significant (over 25% of the value of the building) remodeling projects for the district or the churches in the district.

D. CLERGY PROCEDURES

1. MOVING TO A NEW APPOINTMENT

The cabinet shall annually determine the effective date of appointment changes and the moving date for pastors.

2. COMPENSATION FOR NEWLY APPOINTED PASTORS

When a pastor receives a new appointment, the cabinet shall determine the date for compensation changes including salaries, pension, and hospitalization.

3. COMMITTEE ON STAFF/PASTOR-PARISH RELATIONS AND NEWLY APPOINTED PASTORS

We strongly recommend that the Committee on Staff/Pastor-Parish Relations and newly appointed pastors meet monthly for the first six months and at least quarterly thereafter for the purpose of developing a supportive relationship.

4. VACATION

a. Vacation Policy

Time for vacation, continuing education, Sabbath and formational renewal are extremely important to every person involved in professional ministry. There must be times of recreation, study and recentering in each clergy's life. The West Ohio Conference adopts these guidelines for clergy and churches as a way of encouraging clergy to live a balanced life in ministry.

The guidelines that are listed below are the minimum of all clergy under appointment to local congregations. A charge and the appointed clergy in consultation with the District Superintendent may negotiate mutually agreeable changes to fit unusual circumstances in line with the spirit of this section.

Details and agreements regarding vacation, sick time, continuing education, days off, formational and spiritual growth leave, and connectional responsibilities should be established at the time of the appointment and reviewed annually as part of the annual pastor evaluation with the charge's Committee on Staff/Pastor-Parish Relations (SPRC).

All clergy shall have at least, but not limited to, the equivalent of four weeks (based on estimated weekly workdays), plus two days. These days may be taken individually. This shall include a maximum of four Sundays. The following table shows minimum paid vacation days by nature of appointment.

MINIMUM VACATION STANDARDS

Appointment Level	Estimated Weekly Workdays	Total Vacation Days including 4 Sundays
Full Time Appointment	6	26 (6 x 4 = 24) + 2
¾ Time	4.5	20 (4.5 x 4 = 18) + 2
½ Time	3	14 (3 x 4 = 12) + 2
¼ Time	1.5	8 (1.5 x 4 = 6) + 2

Clergy do not need to take a vacation day for regularly scheduled weekly day(s) off

Vacation shall be granted on the annual conference year (July 1 through June 30). In order to establish proper healthy boundaries, pastors and other clergy persons under appointment are expected and encouraged to take all vacation days annually. Vacation is not cumulative and cannot be carried over to the succeeding year. It is expected that the pastor will make arrangements in advance with the SPRC and consult with them in obtaining vacation supply coverage. Vacation leave for appointment beyond the local church (deacons) or extension ministry (elders and local pastors) is determined by that employer.

b. Continuing Education and Spiritual Growth

In accordance with The Book of Discipline ¶350.2, clergy members continuing education and spiritual growth program shall include professional formation leaves at least one week each year and may include at least one month during one year of every quadrennium. Such leaves shall not be considered vacation time and should be coordinated through your SPRC committee. More extended time for renewal leave is a healthy part of the rhythms of vocational ministry. In accordance with The Book of Discipline ¶350.3, clergy members who have held full-time appointment for at least six years may request a formational and spiritual growth leave of up to six months while continuing to hold an appointment in the local church.

c. Sabbath and Weekly Day Off

It is important for clergy to have regular time away each week. Clergy members are strongly encouraged to establish a schedule that includes at least one day of Sabbath and one day away from ministerial responsibilities each week. Experiencing and modeling the rhythm of weekly Sabbath rest is vital to the work of vocational ministry. This day is included as a part of the six-day workweek for full time appointment in the chart above. Such days should be communicated so that congregation and staff will know when such days are to occur, so as to allow a time of refreshment. These are not vacation days.

d. Connectional and Community Responsibilities

All clergy are expected to attend all sessions of the Annual Conference. In addition, clergy may have other connectional responsibilities. Time spent on these responsibilities shall not be counted as vacation or as continuing education. Clergy will inform the SPRC of time needed for these responsibilities.

Clergy are also often involved in various community groups. Such involvement provides an opportunity to build a bridge between the community and the church. These involvements shall not be considered vacation or continuing education. Clergy are encouraged to use good judgement in determining the commitment accepted beyond the primary appointment. Consultation with the SPRC should take place before accepting such responsibilities.

E. CONFERENCE PROCEDURE

1. There shall be an Annual Conference Worship Committee with the responsibility of planning all worship services connected with the annual conference. The Bishop will nominate 8–10 people to serve on the committee to be elected by members of Annual Conference. The worship committee is empowered to include other people in the design and leadership of worship services and will work with the bishop or their designee.
2. There shall be an Annual Conference Planning Team charged with the responsibilities of selecting the theme, designing, and planning annual conference and responding to all relevant concerns and issues.
 - a. Membership: The Annual Conference Planning Committee will be comprised of 8–10 people nominated by the Bishop and elected by Annual Conference members. The committee will also include by virtue of office, the Worship Committee Chair and the Conference Lay Leader or designee.
 - b. The resident bishop will assign appropriate staff to assist with the planning and implementation of annual conference. They shall have voice and no vote.

- c. The bishop may designate additional members to ensure that the body reflects the diversity in the annual conference congregations and the contexts in which they serve, including someone qualified in making the event accessible for people with disabilities.
3. Reports to the Annual Conference containing recommendations shall be included in the Book of Reports or otherwise distributed using annual conference communication systems prior to the opening of the session at which they are presented.
4. All reports and other materials to be distributed to the conference must be approved by the Conference Secretary 24 hours prior to the time distribution is made. Distribution must be made not later than the morning of the day the reports are to be considered by the annual conference, and must be in a format(s) reasonably available to all members.
5. At the opening of each annual session, the annual conference shall elect assistants to the conference secretary, nominated by the conference secretary, to assist with his/her duties.
6. There shall be a committee on the conference journal who shall work with the Annual Conference secretary and journal editor to ensure the accuracy of the journal. The committee shall be comprised of three people nominated through the Conference Nominations Committee and elected by members of the Annual Conference
7. The secretary shall take charge of the conference journal and other papers of the conference and preserve them with care. Working with the Episcopal Office, the conference secretary will ensure that the journal is created and distributed within an agreed upon timeframe.
8. Legislation and Procedures:
 - a. There shall be a Reference and Procedure Committee of the annual conference. All recommendations from the bishop, the conference staff, cabinet members, other officers of the conference boards, lead teams, committees, local congregations, lay persons, and clergy shall be submitted to this committee by March 1. The Reference and Procedure Committee shall receive these recommendations and provide a legislative process to bring them to the floor of the annual conference session.

There shall be not more than ten members of the Reference and Procedure Committee. The members shall be: Chair— the conference secretary; director of Connectional Ministries; one representative from the Transformative Discipleship Team; assistant to the bishop, and such lay and clergy as will provide an equal balance named by the Conference Committee on Nominations.
 - b. Members of the conference wishing to submit recommendations of urgent business directly to the plenary session shall identify the subject of their recommendation whereupon the plenary session shall vote whether or not it wishes to suspend the rules to consider the recommendation.
 - c. The submitter of any recommendation shall have the right of last speech to present that recommendation to the annual conference session.
9. The voting bar of the conference shall be fixed at the convening session of the annual conference.
10. The Annual Conference Budget shall be approved on the first day of conference legislative action. Any legislative action modifying the budget shall be reviewed and voted by the final day of legislative work.
11. Speakers to a matter of business are to identify self by name, lay or clergy, and district before speaking.
12. Amendments other than a motion to approve or reject a matter under discussion must be submitted to the secretary's desk before action is taken.
13. Lay Members to Annual Conference
 - a. Each charge is entitled to elect a lay member of annual conference. Each charge with more than one clergy appointed shall elect additional lay members so that the number of clergy and lay members from the charge shall be equal.

In order to achieve lay and clergy balance in the membership of the annual conference, in addition to those laity specified in The Book of Discipline, the formula for identifying additional lay members for the West Ohio Conference shall be:

 - i. Director of Conference Certified Lay Ministry Academy
 - ii. Elected lay chairs of conference lead teams, boards and committees
 - iii. Conference college interns
 - iv. Elected lay persons to general agencies
 - v. Elected lay delegates to general conference and jurisdictional conference
 - vi. Appointed lay persons to general agencies
 - vii. The Dean of the West Ohio mission-u
 - viii. United Methodist Administrators of Community Centers in West Ohio related to the United Women of Faith, and Global Ministries and West Ohio Lay Church and Community Workers and Young Adult Missionaries

- ix. Lay members of the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry
- x. Lay members of the West Ohio Annual Conference Board of Trustees
- xi. Certified Lay Ministers
- xii. Conference Director of Lay Speaking Ministries

- b. Continuing with the balance of lay and clergy members, the at-large lay members from the districts shall be in proportion to the number of professing members in each district. Twenty per cent (20%) of the at-large lay members shall be youth and young adults. Deliberate care should be taken to ensure inclusive representation as outlined in the Values Statement. This formula shall be reviewed every quadrennium by July 1, in the year following general conference, based upon the previous year’s statistician report.
 - c. At large members of Annual Conference from each district shall be elected no later than one week prior to the annual conference registration deadline by the district conference, District Board of Directors, or an appropriate district administrative body upon recommendation by the District Nominating Committee or equivalent. In fulfilling these positions, it is further recommended the District Board of Directors, chair, district youth president, district associate lay leader, district director of Lay Servant Ministries, lay speakers and lay supply pastors be given consideration for these positions.
 - d. Each priority is to be entirely used before proceeding to the next priority category. This formula is to be administered under the supervision of the annual conference secretary.
14. The heads of institutions and paid staffs of conference or General Church agencies, may be introduced to the conference at a time deemed appropriate by the chair of the conference.
 15. No request for a conference-wide campaign, or for an amount in excess of one thousand dollars, shall be made as part of, or in connection with, any report of the annual conference unless such request shall have the approval of the Council on Finance and Administration. Any such request or any proposed divergence from that council’s recommendation, shall be made under separate and distinct motions at a time when, in the judgment of the chair, proper consideration by the body can be given to all such proposals.
 16. Absent the approval of the Council on Finance and Administration, no conference-wide campaign for funds needing approval by the annual conference shall be launched earlier than one year after the date of its approval by the West Ohio Conference.
 17. Amendments to the rules for conference procedure may be made by a two-thirds vote of any session of the West Ohio Annual Conference provided that the proposed change shall have been submitted to the Committee on Rules for consideration prior to the vote.
 18. Retired bishops who served, who were elected from, or who reside in the West Ohio Conference shall be honorary members of the annual conference and listed in the conference journal.

F. PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

All sessions of the West Ohio Annual Conference shall be conducted according to these rules. These rules may be amended by the vote of two-thirds of the members present and voting at any session, provided that the proposed change shall have been submitted to the Committee on Rules for consideration prior to the vote.

1. ORDER OF PRECEDENCE OF MOTIONS

* Can be amended; the others cannot be amended (from Roberts Rules of Order).

2. UNDEBATABLE MOTIONS

The following motions shall be acted upon without debate:

- a. To adjourn, when unqualified, except to adjourn the conference.
- b. To suspend the rules (2/3 vote).
- c. To take from the table.
- d. To call for the previous question.
- e. To reconsider a nondebatable motion.
- f. To limit or extend the limits of debate.
- g. To call for the orders of the day.

3. PRECEDENCE OF SECONDARY MOTION

If any one or more of the following motions are made when one or more other motions are pending, the order of precedence in relation to one another shall be the same as the order of their listing below:

- a. To fix the time to which the conference shall adjourn. (This motion is subject to amendment or it may be laid on the table.)
- b. To adjourn.
- c. To take a recess.
- d. To order the previous question.
- e. To lay on the table.
- f. To limit or extend the limits of debate.
- g. To postpone to a certain time.
- h. To commit or refer.
- i. To amend or substitute.
- j. To postpone indefinitely.

4. WHEN A SECOND IS NOT REQUIRED

The following do not require a second:

- a. To raise a question of privilege
- b. Question of order
- c. Objection to the consideration of a question
- d. Call for orders of the day
- e. Call for the division of question (under certain circumstances)
- f. Call for division of conference (in voting)
- g. Call up motion to reconsider
- h. Filling blanks
- i. Nominations
- j. Leave to withdraw a motion
- k. Inquiries of any kind

5. WHEN MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS ARE TO BE WRITTEN

All motions and resolutions shall be reduced to writing if so directed by the presiding officer or by a majority vote of the conference.

6. WHEN A MOTION OR RESOLUTION IS IN POSSESSION OF THE CONFERENCE

When a motion or resolution is made and seconded or stated by the presiding officer, it shall be in the possession of the conference. By conference consent, any motion or resolution may be withdrawn by the mover at any time before its amendment or decision.

7. ALTERATION OF REPORTS

When a committee report has been published in The Book of Reports to the members of the conference, it is in possession of the conference and cannot be altered except by action of the conference.

8. MOTIONS IN ORDER WHEN A MAIN MOTION IS BEING CONSIDERED

When a question is under debate, any subsidiary motion applying thereto may be made. This includes the following motions listed in order of their precedence: Lay on the Table, Previous Questions, Limit or Extend Limits of Debate, Postpone to a Certain Time, Commit or Refer, Amend, Substitute, Postpone indefinitely. Privileged motions are always in order, limited only by such restrictions, Roberts Rules of Order.

The motion to adjourn cannot be made when a member has the floor or when it interrupts voting or verifying a vote.

9. AMENDMENTS AND SUBSTITUTIONS

Only one amendment to an amendment shall be in order. However, it is in order to move a substitute for the main motion. In such case the chair shall proceed to perfect the original motion. The previous question when voted under these conditions shall merely stop debate but does not permit a vote on the main motion. When the main motion has been perfected, the chair shall proceed to perfect the substitute. When the substitute has been perfected, the chair shall call for a vote on the substitute. If the substitute is carried, it shall replace the original main motion and become the main motion. The chair will then call for a vote on the (new) main motion. The new main motion can be amended only by addition. If the substitute does not carry, without further debate, the chair shall call for a vote on the original main motion as it has been perfected.

10. DIVISION OF QUESTION

Before a vote is taken, any member has the right to call for the division of any question, if it is subject to such division as indicated. If no member objects, the division shall be made, but if there is objection, the chair, not waiting for a second, shall put the question of division to vote.

11. TABLING RELATED MOTIONS

No motion which adheres to another motion, or has another motion adhering to it, can be laid on the table by itself. Such motions, if laid on the table, carry with them the motions to which they respectively adhere or which adhere to them.

12. SPEAKERS FOR AND AGAINST

- a. When a recommendation is under consideration, it shall be the duty of the chair to ascertain, when recognizing a member of the conference, on which side the member proposes to speak; the chair shall not assign the floor to any member proposing to speak on the same side of the pending question as the speaker immediately preceding if any member desires to speak on the other side thereof.
- b. Except for undebatable motions (Rule 2), no recommendation shall be adopted or question relating to the same decided without opportunity having been given for at least two speeches for and two against the same recommendation. After three speeches for and three against and provided no secondary motions come before the floor, the question shall be put automatically.

13. LIMITATIONS ON DEBATE

No member shall speak more than once on the same question until all who desire to speak have spoken. Speeches shall be no more than two minutes without leave of the conference. The chair and/or duly authorized member or members presenting the recommendation shall be entitled to two minutes to close the discussion. The motion to limit or extend the limits of debate is in order any time, except when a member has the floor.

14. SPEAKING ONLY AFTER A MOTION

No member of the conference shall be permitted to speak on a question unless it has been properly presented to the conference in the form of a motion.

15. MOTIONS AFTER SPEAKING ON A PENDING QUESTION

No member who has spoken on a pending question shall at the close of that person's speech have the right to call for the previous question or move to lay the motion on the table.

16. WHO MAY VOTE

Every member who is within the bar of the conference at the time the question is put has the right to vote. A member who is not within the bar of the conference at the time the question is put by the chair shall not be permitted to vote except such member is necessarily absent in the work of the conference.

17. PREVIOUS QUESTION

When any member moves the previous question (that is, that the vote be now taken on the motion or motions pending) the member shall indicate to what it is intended to apply if any secondary motion or motions are pending. If the member does not so indicate, the chair may regard it as applying only to the immediate pending question. This vote shall be taken without debate and, if in the judgment of the chair, two-thirds of those present vote for its adoption, the vote shall be taken on the motion or motions to which it applies.

18. INTERRUPTING THE SPEAKER

No member who has the floor shall be interrupted except for a breach of order, or a misrepresentation, or to direct the attention of the conference that the time has arrived for a special order of the day, or to raise a very urgent question of high privilege.

19. RECONSIDERATION OF A QUESTION

A motion to reconsider an action of the conference shall be in order any time if offered by a member who voted on the prevailing side. If the motion it is proposed to reconsider is nondebatable, the motion to reconsider may not be debated.

20. SUSPENSION OF RULES

The application of any of the provisions of these Rules of Order may be suspended at any time by a two-thirds vote of the conference.

21. ROBERTS RULES OF ORDER, SUPPLEMENTARY AUTHORITY

In any parliamentary situation not covered in these Rules of Order, the conference shall be governed in its action by the appropriate provisions of Roberts Rules of Order.

22. BISHOP'S RIGHT TO SPEAK ON ISSUES

The bishop is not, and by The Book of Discipline cannot be, a member of the body with whose presidency the bishop is charged. As head of the area, the bishop is vitally concerned with the decisions of this body. Therefore, the bishop shall have the right to speak on issues before this conference, providing the chair is surrendered to a person of the bishop's choosing at such time the bishop feels the conference should be apprised on matters pertaining to the issue before the house.

XII MEMOIRS CLERGY

RICHARD C ADAMS JR

Richard C. "Rick" Adams Jr., 71, of Findlay, died at 9:20 pm on Thursday on September 23, 2021, at The Manor of Greendale, Findlay. He was born on December 21, 1949, to the late Richard and Ruth (Routson) Adams. On August 17, 1975, Rick married Teri (Shafer) Adams. They were married for 46 years. He will be remembered as a compassionate minister, devoted husband, loving father, and an adoring grandfather.

He is survived by his wife Teresa "Teri"; sons: Philip (Dagmar) Adams of Findlay, and Casey (Becky) Adams of Springfield, Illinois; and a daughter, Faith Adams of Findlay. Also surviving are his grandchildren: Kaylin, Madeline, Philip "Emmanuel," Daphne, and Norah; siblings: Robyn (John) Kryling of McComb, Scott Adams of Columbus, and Amy McGiffin of Bowling Green; and numerous nephews and nieces. Rick was preceded in death by his parents, and a brother, Philip, at the age of 5 from Leukemia.

As a child, Rick enjoyed living and working on the farm where he helped plant, sow, and harvest various crops. He also helped his grandfather raise and care for calves, including pitching manure into a manure spreader. He thought that a job like that keeps a person humble. The most important decision he ever made in his life was, as a teenager, he asked and accepted Jesus into his heart as his Lord and Savior during a revival meeting at Oakdale Evangelical United Brethren Church. His faith in Jesus has provided him with peace, strength, and courage in difficult times.

Rick graduated from McComb High School in 1967. He attended Bowling Green State University in 1971, graduating with a BS degree in Business Administration with a major in Accounting. He worked as an accountant for Consolidated Airways in Indiana, Sheridan Manufacturing Company in Wauseon, and International Child Care/Grace Children's Hospital in Port-au-Prince, Haiti.

He was called into the ministry and attended the United Theology Seminary with a Masters of Divinity Degree. In 1978, Rick was ordained a Deacon in the West Ohio Conference of the United Methodist Church. In 1980, he was ordained an Elder. Rick was a minister for 41 years. He was a student pastor at St. Paul United Methodist Church near Vanlue. As a full-time minister, Rick served at Memorial United Methodist Church in Carey, St. Andrew's United Methodist Church in Findlay, Hyde Park United Methodist Church in Cincinnati, Westview (now known as Cridersville) United Methodist Church in Cridersville, Wesley United Methodist Church in Van Wert, Hoytville United Methodist Church in Hoytville, and St. James United Methodist Church in North Baltimore.

Rick was an avid New York Yankees, Ohio State Buckeyes, and McComb Panthers fan. He enjoyed collecting model tractors and spending time with his family and friends. Rick especially cherished his time with his grandchildren.

The family would like to thank St. Catherine's (The Manor of Greendale) for providing a loving home for Rick's last 3 months of life. They would also like to thank Southern Care Hospice for providing the comfort Rick needed in his final days.

Visitation was held at St Andrew's United Methodist Church in Findlay on September 27, 2021, with the funeral service on the following day at Hoytville United Methodist Church, with Jeff Motter officiating. Burial followed at the McComb Union Cemetery.

HOWARD "BUD" ALLISON

Howard "Bud" Mirrell Allison was born on May 31, 1941, in Pickaway County to Gladys Mildred Cupp and Howard Ray Allison. He died on September 16, 2021, at home, surrounded by family, at the age of eighty years, three months, and sixteen days. He was preceded in death by his parents; sisters Norene Fisher, Maxine Bosworth, Ruth Copeland; brother-in-law, Dorsey Bosworth. He married Emily Eileen Keels of Reynoldsburg on June 17, 1962, and she survives. Also surviving are children, David (Kim) Allison of Xenia, Steven (Michelle) Allison of Medina, Deborah (Gregg) Cousey of Lima, and Joy (Tim) Weir of Kettering; grandchildren, Jon, Zach, Kaitlyn, Lauren, Ryan, Dylan, Sarah, Sam, Collin, and Jacob; eight great-grandchildren; brothers-in-law, Bob (Carol) Fisher of Minnesota and Lowell Copeland of Galloway, Ohio; many nieces and nephews, special cousins, and a host of friends.

Bud graduated from Walnut Township High School in 1959. As a young man, he was a deputy sheriff for Pickaway County. After receiving a call to ministry, Bud earned a bachelor's degree from Ohio University, a master's degree from Methodist Theological School, and was fully ordained in 1974, by The West Ohio Conference of The United Methodist Church. While in college and seminary, he followed in his father's footsteps and was the caretaker of Reber Hill Cemetery where he would be laid to rest.

He served several appointments in Ohio, including South Bloomfield, Lockbourne, Shadeville, Manchester, Norwood Grace, and Lima St Mark's where he served twenty-four years. He was known in the Lima area as "The Marrying and Burying Pastor" for officiating many weddings and funerals for families who did not have a church family. He will be missed by those he mentored in The United Methodist Church and Lima funeral homes that became his friends. For many years he hosted a monthly bring-your-own lunch group of Lima colleagues. He was also known for telling great stories that will be passed on for generations to come. After retirement in 2011, Bud and Emily bought their first home in Sidney, Ohio, and joined Jackson Center United Methodist Church.

The family is thankful for caregivers, Tina, Amy, and Vickie; neighbors on Foxcross Drive, Wilson Home Health, and Hospice; Melissa and the staff of Wilson Health Wound Care Clinic, and Dr David Powell.

Visitation was September 30 at the Shawnee Chapel of Chiles-Lamen Funeral and Cremation services in Lima. Another visitation was October 2, at the Community United Methodist Church in Circleville. The celebration of life service followed with Barry Burns, Cean Wilson, and Jim Smith officiating and burial at Reber Hill Cemetery in Ashville, Ohio.

WILLIAM JOSEPH AUGMAN JR

The Reverend Dr. William Joseph Augman, Jr, was born on December 19, 1943, to William J. Augman, Sr and Emily Perry Augman. LOUISE BOYD

Louise Reif Boyd was born in Cincinnati, Ohio, on September 8, 1941, to Elsie and Jack W Reif. She died on February 3, 2022, at the age of eighty years, four months, and twenty-six days. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her grandparents, two uncles and aunts, one first cousin, her husband Thomas W Boyd in 2016, and her nephew Thomas S Reif. She is survived by her sister-in-law and brother, JoAnn and Jack L Reif, niece Amy E Reif, and Thomas Boyd's daughter, Lori Boyd Miller.

Louise was born while her family lived in Monfort Heights, Ohio, and shortly after birth relocated for five months to Dallas, Texas, because of her brother's health issues. They returned to Ohio in the spring of 1942, locating in Bond Hill in Cincinnati where she lived for two years. The family then moved to Norwood where she graduated from Sharpsburg Elementary School and Norwood High School. She entered the University of Cincinnati School of Nursing and became a Registered Nurse in Ohio in 1963.

Louise began her nursing profession working with psychiatric patients. Later she taught at the Deaconess Hospital School of Nursing in Cincinnati. She earned a master's degree in education from the University of Cincinnati in 1971 and a Master of Science from Wright State University in 1986. Louise advanced to Supervisor of Deaconess Hospital School of Nursing until it closed. She then took the position as head of staff training at the Episcopal Retirement Homes organization.

Louise was always engaged in music. As a child she was in the children's choir at Grace Methodist Church in Norwood. She studied piano and while in high school, became accompanist for the girls' glee club. In the high school band, she played the tuba. She also sang in the choir at Sharonville United Methodist Church. Even as her memory declined, when she heard the tune of a favorite hymn, she would begin to quietly sing along although she could not remember much else.

Following retirement, in 1990, Louise participated on a medical mission team in Lima, Peru. While a member of the Sharonville United Methodist Church, Louise took an interest in visiting elderly and disabled church members. In order to be better qualified, she took classes at United Theological Seminary in Dayton, Ohio, and was consecrated a diaconal minister in 1995. After further studies, she was ordained deacon in full connection in 1998, and was associate pastor of Parish Care at the Sharonville United Methodist Church until her final retirement in 2011.

While a member of Hyde Park Community United Methodist Church, Louise met and married Thomas W Boyd in 1971. His daughter, Lori Boyd, lived with them until her marriage. After Thomas died, Louise, already showing signs of memory loss, moved to SEM Haven Nursing and Memory care in Milford, Ohio, until her death.

Louise was a loving and caring person with all whom she encountered. In school, in church, and even with other afflicted people while she herself was in nursing care. She will be greatly missed by many who remember her and the friendship, encouragement, comfort, and care she had offered to them.

The funeral service was at the Sharonville United Methodist Church on February 11, 2022, with burial following at the Spring Grove Cemetery.

HENRY WARD BROOKS JR

Henry Ward Brooks Jr was born in May of 1927 to Arizona and Henry Ward Brooks Sr in West Mansfield, Ohio. He died on April 8, 2022, at the age of ninety-four, about one month short of ninety-five years.

DAVID LEE FORRY

The Reverend Doctor David Lee Forry was born on October 16, 1933, to Mignon and Carlton Forry. He died on Valentine's Day in 2022, at the Cadia Capitol Nursing Home in Dover, Delaware, at the age of eighty-eight years, three months, and thirty days. In addition to his parents, David was preceded in death by his wife Kathryn Christianson in 2018, brothers Dudley and Kingsley Forry, and his sister, Deborah Best. He is survived by son Erik (Anne) Forry of Magnolia, Delaware; son Karl Forry of Dover, Delaware; grandsons Daniel Forry of Omaha, Nebraska, and Kevin Forry of Felton, Delaware.

David grew up in Marysville and Columbus. He was active in scouting, achieving the rank of Eagle Scout. He graduated from Columbus High School in 1951 and enlisted in the United States Army. He trained with the 1st Infantry Division in Kansas and had orders to the war in Korea, but at the last minute, the army learned that David had learned Morse Code in the Boy Scouts; he was diverted to the communication school at Ft Devens, Massachusetts. There he became an instructor, teaching coded communications and radio direction finding to other soldiers. David mustered out after the war and enrolled in college on the G I Bill. He earned a Bachelor of Arts degree from Ohio Wesleyan College in 1958. During his college years, he served as a student local pastor at the nearby Stratford Methodist Church for three years. He was ordained deacon by the West Ohio Conference and continued his education at Wesley Theological Seminary earning bachelor's and master's degrees. He was ordained elder in 1964, eventually continuing to the Doctor of Ministry degree at Boston University in 1989.

In 1969, David took a position as Chaplain at the Hampshire Country School in Rindge, New Hampshire. For fifty years, he was a frequent substitute minister at churches in southwest New Hampshire and northern Massachusetts. He became associate minister at the Cathedral of the Pines, officiating numerous weddings, baptisms, and veterans' and fraternal organization events at the Cathedral. Though he loved preaching, David's primary ministry was as pastoral counselor and therapist. He was a founding member, and eventually director, of the Monadnock Area Pastoral Counseling Service. One of his proudest accomplishments was implementing on-site counseling services for employees of large companies in the area, such as New Hampshire Ball Bearings and Millipore. David worked in private practice as a pastoral counselor, while serving at the Staff Chaplain at Cheshire Medical Center in Keene, New Hampshire, until his retirement in 2009.

There was an indoor memorial service at the Cathedral of the Pines, in Rindge, New Hampshire on Saturday, March 12, 2022, with interment at a later date in the Cathedral's cemetery.

Then he became District Superintendent of the Columbus North District. He was on the conference staff for several years, retiring on July 1, 2007. In retirement, he took a position at the United Theological Seminary in Trotwood, Ohio, and then served his home church, Hilltop in Columbus.

As a superintendent, Michael always worked hard to be a friend to his pastors and their families; in life he loved his family, many friends, and his dogs. He will always be remembered as a person who did his best, who loved God, the Church, and the Black Methodist for Church Renewal organization. He is probably soliciting memberships and money in heaven as we write. Rest in peace, dear Michael. We will forever love and remember you and say your name.

CHARLES W LOVELESS

Charles W Loveless was born on August 30, 1933, in Oil City, Pennsylvania, to Clara Mae Kahle and Harold Leroy Loveless. He died on April 8, 2022, at the age of eighty-eight years, eight months, and twenty-two days. In addition to his parents, Chuck was preceded in death by a brother-in-law, Ron Sell. He is survived by his wife Jean Rembold Loveless and their four children, Cindy Cary, Rick (Debbie) Loveless, Brad (Mindy) Loveless, and Bill (Susan) Loveless. Also surviving are his younger siblings, Richard (Susan) Loveless and Nancy Sell.

Chuck's father was also a minister, serving many churches throughout western Pennsylvania. He graduated from Rocky Grove High School in 1951. On August 15, 1953, he married Jean L Rembold. Jean supported Chuck and the family by working as a nurse while he obtained his degree at Albright College, graduating in 1955. Because Albright College closed their theological school, the Loveless family moved to Dayton, Ohio, so Chuck could attend United Theological Seminary, graduating in 1958, with his Master of Divinity degree.

The family enjoyed special years of pastoral appointments in wonderful congregations at Dayton Oak Street, Clayton/Dayton, Cincinnati Zion/Cleves, and finally, Kettering Church of the Cross. For the balance of his ministry, Chuck held administrative roles: Coordinator/Registrar of the Section on Ordained Ministry, District Superintendent of the Newark District, Assistant to Bishops Edsel Ammons and Judith Craig. He retired in 1998, but then served as an interim District Superintendent when an unexpected vacancy occurred.

Chuck was active in developing interfaith community relations, was passionate about civil rights, (he was one of three members of the annual conference who marched with Martin Luther King Jr in Selma), women's rights (he attended every international clergy women's convocation) and LGBTQ+ rights. When Dayton was losing state services for mental health care, he was instrumental in developing community-based mental health services for the Dayton area. He was a trustee for Wesley Glen Communities, United Theological Seminary, and Lakeside Association, as well as many years serving on the Board of Ohio Health. In their retirement years, Jean and Chuck had a great love for Broad Street United Methodist Church in Columbus, and were actively involved in The Heart of the City Foundation's programs to support the Columbus community.

Jean and Chuck built an amazing family unit, beginning with their four children. Chuck was the proud grandfather of five grandchildren, Ryan Larkin, Jake (Emmie) Loveless, Kahle (Bridget) Loveless, Kate (Andrew) Gerber, Mike Loveless; great-grandchildren, Corinne Bruce, Lincoln Loveless, Landon Loveless, Anna Jean Gerber, Brandt Gerber, Elliott Loveless, and Bennett Gerber. The celebration of Chuck's rich life was April 30, 2022, at the Otterbein Senior Living Chapel, in Lebanon, Ohio.

DOLORES JOAN MOORE

Delores Joan Moore was born on May 20, 1937, in Sunbury, Ohio, to Estelle and Forrest Bailey. She had been living in Lancaster, Ohio, and died on September 9, 2021, at the age of eighty-four years, three months, and twenty days. In addition to her parents, Joan was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Richard E. Moore. She is survived by her loving children, Don (Susan) Moore, Carolyn Moore, Diane (Chris) Alexander, Linda Pesta, and Connie (Dale) Roush. Also surviving are many grandchildren and great-grandchildren, and a host of other family, friends, and loved ones.

As a full member of The West Ohio Conference, she served as a student local pastor at Baltimore United, as a probationary member at Continental United and Bascom, and as an elder at Amanda, Sharon, Bloomdale Trinity, Memorial Fremont, and Laurelville Trinity, retiring in 1999.

Joan was a published author and poet, with a piece in "Images: Women in Transition" and others. She enjoyed being a substitute teacher for Heath and Reynoldsburg Schools.

Following Joan's wishes, there was a private graveside service.

BARBARA BECK NOLIN

Remembering Barbara Frances Josephine Beck Nolin, daughter of Marion Marguerite Curtis Beck, daughter of Josephine Sonnenburg Curtis, daughter of Mary von Gunten Sonnenburg, who immigrated from Switzerland to Toledo, Ohio. Barbara breathed her last and died at a good old age, an old woman and full of years, and was gathered to her people. This is the length of Barbara's life, ninety-seven years. (Barb's words exactly!)

Barbara died peacefully in her home of natural causes on April 30, 2022, in Bloomington, Indiana. She was visited and comforted by close family and friends. She was born in Findlay, Ohio, on January 9, 1925, to Marguerite and Clyde Beck. After attending school in Findlay, she earned a bachelor's degree in vocal music from Wheaton College and went on to earn a Master of Religious Education from the Biblical Seminary in New York City, later known as Union Theological Seminary. On September 3, 1943, Barbara was ordained by the Evangelical United Brethren Church, which later merged with the Methodist Church, becoming the United Methodist Church in 1968. A trailblazer, Barbara was the first woman to be ordained by that denomination and served as the Director of Religious Education at St Mark's United Methodist Church in Findlay.

Barbara recognized the importance of early childhood education and devoted ten years to full-time parenting after the birth of her first child in 1955. She then returned to study at Saint Mary's College to earn her teaching certificate in music education. She became a public-school music teacher in Indiana, instructing students of all ages. After moving to Terre Haute in 1973, while teaching full-time, Barbara earned a Master of Education degree at Indiana State University and joined the staff of Terre Haute First Baptist Church as Minister of Music and Choir Director. She retired from teaching after twenty-seven years and reclaimed professional ministry, pastoring United Methodist Churches in The West Ohio Conference, including Cleves and East Mt Zion, retiring again on February 1, 1990. During these years, she directed the conference clergywomen's choir.

In retirement, Barbara joined the pastoral care team at First United Methodist Church in Bloomington, Indiana, and then moved to Clarkston, Michigan. A favored substitute teacher, she was known as the "Rappin' Granny" who wrote and performed raps warning against drug and alcohol abuse, published in a booklet, "Granny Raps." She always taught the importance of kindness and inclusion...she was thrilled to officiate the wedding of her grandson, Ben, and Adam.

Wherever she lived, she loved being close to her grandchildren. At the age of eighty-five, she retired again and returned to Bloomington where she was active at First United Methodist Church, she continued pursuing biblical research and published a book on genealogies from the Old Testament, called "Hebrew Family Trees – The Favorite Son of the Favorite Wife." Her memoir and some of the artistic and colorful "trees," are housed with the conference archives at Ohio Wesleyan University library. She maintained a weekly correspondence for several years with Cean Wilson who edited some of her writings.

Barbara was preceded in death by her parents and her brother, Robert Beck. She is survived by daughters, Elizabeth von Gunten and Nancy Nolin; sons, Mark Nolin and Timothy (Robin) Nolin; grandchildren, Nathan (Beth) Nolin, Caleb (Liz) Nolin, Joshua Nolin, Hope von Gunten, Ben Rogers (Adam Bloemstein), and Rebecca Rogers; great-grandchildren Riley, Emma, and Maggie Nolin; a host of family and friends, including Elizabeth Mayberry.

Barbara's body was donated to the Anatomical Education Program at Indiana University School of Medicine. A memorial service was held at a later date.

NANCY LEE O'DELL

Nancy Lee Schwartz O'Dell was born in Marietta, Ohio, on December 17, 1948, to Bernice and Henry Schwartz. She died on September 21, 2021, at the age of seventy-two years, nine months, and four days. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her beloved maternal grandparents, Laura and Dean Oliver. She is survived by her husband of thirty years, Olaf O'Dell of Marietta; sister, Shirley (Robert) Schwartz Klocek of Fairfax Station, Virginia; niece, Catherine (Brian) Klocek Wood of Clifton, Virginia; beloved dogs, Abby and Max.

Nancy graduated from Marietta High School in 1966, where she played coronet in the band. She also attended Christ United Methodist Church and was active in the youth group and choir, often serving as a piano accompanist. Nancy attended Marietta College for two years before she transferred to Scarritt College for Christian Workers in Nashville, Tennessee, graduating in 1970 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in religious education. She subsequently enrolled in the Methodist Theological School in Ohio, in Delaware, graduating with a Master of Theological Studies in 1972 and a Master of Divinity in 1973.

Nancy was ordained as both a deacon and an elder in The West Ohio Conference of The United Methodist Church and was one of the first two women in Ohio so ordained. She served as the Director of Education at Reynoldsburg United Methodist Church in Reynoldsburg, Ohio; District Program Assistant for the Conference in Newark and Springfield Districts; minister at Pickerington United Methodist Church; other appointments to Lancaster First, Gethsemane, Belpre Saint Marks, Dayton Stillwater, and Marietta Gillman. She retired on December 31, 2006. In retirement, she served as interim at Belpre Congregational Church for three years.

Nancy and Olaf met while she was serving at Saint Mark's United Methodist Church in Belpre. They wed on June 16, 1991.

In addition to her professional ministry, she was an avid stamp collector and a passionate musician who loved to sing alto (otherwise known as a soprano who can read music) and play the piano and organ. She was also a talented crafter and skilled stitcher, winning numerous awards and accolades for creative and beautiful stitching projects. She enthusiastically shared her talents with others by teaching stitching classes in the area for over twenty years.

A graveside service was held.

DEDRA MAE RADER

Dedra "Dee" Mae Rader was born on February 26, 1960, in Wellston, Ohio, to Eiline Newsome and William Amos Cochran. She died on February 11, 2022, just two weeks and a day short of her sixty-second birthday. In addition to her parents, Dedra was preceded in death by a brother, Patrick Cochran, and a sister, Evelyn Newsom Wyatt. She is survived by her daughter, Rebecca (Tyler Foreman) Rader of Laurelville, Ohio; Patricia (Joe) Spires, whom she claimed as a daughter; granddaughters, Taelar, Lyla, Isabel, Lily, Lexie, and Lanissa; grandson, Xavier. Also surviving is R Keith Rader.

Dedra worked nineteen years as a medic for Southeast Ohio Emergency Medical Services (S.E.O.E.M.S.) She then founded God's Net youth center ministry in Meigs County, Ohio. She was a local pastor with The West Ohio Conference of The United Methodist Church. Her appointments in the conference included North Bethel, beginning in 2013, South Zanesville, Philo, Belpre Heights, and Little Hocking. Dedra was a recent graduate of the Spring Heights Course of Study. She enjoyed fishing, painting, and hiking.

Her memorial service was on February 18, 2022, at the Leavitt Funeral Home Belpre, with Paul Risler officiating. Another memorial service was February 19, 2022, at the Mulberry Community Center in Pomeroy, Ohio.

DENNIS G REBENACK

Dennis "Den" was born on September 29, 1947, to Helen and George Rebennack. He died on July 13, 2021, at the age of seventy-three years, nine months, and fourteen days. He was preceded in death by his parents. Den is survived by his wife of over fifty-one years, Barbara Thompson Rebennack; children, Greg (Jenny) Rebennack, Jen (Rick) Baltzersen, and Mark (Angela) Rebennack; grandchildren, Zach (Ali), Brandon (Kara) Noah, Elliette, Emmett, and Esme; special granddaughter, Boston. Also surviving is Den's sister, Pat (Tom) Simmons.

Dennis was a deacon in full connection with The West Ohio Conference, appointed to Shiloh United Methodist Church from 2002, until his retirement on October 1, 2011. He loved being the Associate and Youth Pastor at Shiloh, where he touched the lives of many people and led them to a deeper relationship with Christ.

Den was a Vietnam veteran, volunteer, sports coach, runner, golfer, a leader, and a vessel of love. His Christian values were a guidepost for many. He was an incredible man who lived his life through love, kindness, caring, and faith in the Lord.

A celebration of Den's life was September 25, 2021, at Shiloh United Methodist Church.

DONALD W ROSSMAN

Donald Wilfred Rossman was born near Pennsylvania Furnace, Pennsylvania, on April 3, 1926, to Viola Elder and Randall L Rossman, the younger of their two children. He died on August 20, 2021, at the age of ninety-five years, four months, and seventeen days. In addition to his parents, Donald was preceded in death by a sister, Ruth Shade, and his beloved wife Fay, who died on June 18, 2011, ending their marriage of sixty-one years and eight months.

Donald was a graduate of Harrison Township High School, Clay City, Indiana, class of 1944; Cairn University, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, class of 1950; Miami University, Oxford Ohio, Class of 1960; United Theological Seminary, Dayton, Ohio, class of 1963. Before moving to Ohio in 1957, he served as pastor of the North Buffalo Grace Brethren Church near Kittanning, Pennsylvania. He became a member of The West Ohio Conference of The United Methodist Church, serving appointments including Fairhaven Circuit, Gettysburg, South Zanesville, Harrison, Dayton Saint Mark, Bryan Faith, and Tyler Memorial, retiring in 1991.

Donald was a member of Scioto Lodge 6 F & AM and Chapter 419 Order of the Eastern Star. He was a thirty-two-year volunteer at the Adena Regional Medical Center. During World War II, he served in the United States Army (1944-46) with the 602nd MP Bn.

The funeral was held on August 27, 2021, at the Haller Funeral Home and Crematory with his son-in-law Emory H. Clark and grandson Jason W. Taylor, officiating. Burial followed in Crouse Chapel Cemetery.

JON SAYERS

Jon "Zeke" Keith Sayers was born in Fort Dodge, Iowa, to Marian (Trexel) and Keith Sayers. He died in a boating accident on July 22, 2021, at the age of sixty-six years, nine months, and ten days. Jon was preceded in death by his parents. He is survived by daughters Michelle (Brian) Adair of Dublin, Ohio, and Christina Belenky of Shaker Heights, Ohio; granddaughters Abigail and Sophia, Neve and Monroe. Also surviving are siblings, Jacki Lerdal and Jim Sayers, both of Humboldt, Iowa; nieces and nephews; a host friends.

Jon grew up on a farm in Beaver Township, Humboldt County, Iowa, attended Heaver Township Elementary School, graduated from Humboldt High School in 1973. During high school he was given the nickname "Zeke," which stayed with him for the rest of his life. Jon attended Iowa Central Community College and Iowa State University with a Bachelor of Public Service and Administration; The University of Tennessee with a Master of Social Work; Methodist Theological School of Ohio with a Master of Divinity. During seminary, he and his brother cleaned chimneys as the "Soot-Sayers Chimney Sweeps."

After seminary, he was ordained in Iowa and then transferred to The West Ohio Conference of The United Methodist Church. Jon's appointments included West Park, Oakwood Park, and Glenwood, and taking incapacity leave in 2003. As a pastor, he served with love and compassion. Many especially remember his sense of humor, storytelling, and hospitality. Although he lived with the challenge of multiple sclerosis for many years, Jon did not let the disease define him. Rather, he continued his life with joy, action, and enthusiasm, doing what he could, the best he could. After his leave from full time ministry, he continued his service to others by officiating weddings and funerals, filling the pulpit for colleagues on vacation, and doing ventriloquism at local churches and senior centers.

Jon loved his family, daughters, granddaughters, nieces, nephews, siblings, and parents. He enjoyed jet skiing on area lakes, returning to Humboldt, Iowa, for the annual Rock 'N' Picnic musical event. Jon's joy was connecting to people, talking about World Wrestling Entertainment, singing karaoke, performing with his puppet Erin, and taking selfies.

A celebration of life and memorial service was August 5, 2021, at Walnut Hill United Methodist Church in Columbus Ohio. Another memorial service was in Humboldt, Iowa, on August 15, 2001.

MARILYNN SCHROEDER

Marilynn Christine Schroeder was born on May 13, 1944, in Chicago, Illinois, to Eleanor and Albert Pemberton Jr. She died on July 22, 1944, at the age of seventy-seven years, two months, and nine years. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by younger siblings, Thomas Edward Pemberton and Kristine Marie Mattenson. Survivors include her beloved husband, Paul Erwin; sons Christopher Paul, Jonathan (Melinda) Edward, and Jeremy (Josie) Leroy, five grandchildren, Madeleine Rose, Nicholas Iain, Aya Sophia, Eleanor Catherine, and Molly Christine; special niece, Jennifer (Tom) Charrette; a host of other family, friends, and colleagues.

Marilynn received her BS Ed from Northern Illinois University in 1966. She then began teaching children with handicapping conditions in Skokie, Illinois. During her undergraduate schooling she was a member of the Alpha Omicron Pi sorority, later serving as adviser to a chapter at the University of Minnesota, Minneapolis. Moving to Columbus, Ohio, for Paul's graduate school in 1972, she became a full-time mother. During the children's baby years, she was involved with the LaLeche League, an international organization advocating breastfeeding and provided counseling to many nursing mothers. As her children grew, she formed a group in the local elementary school to encourage healthy eating with natural foods in the school lunch program.

In the late 1970's Marilyn began studies at Methodist Theological School in Ohio. She was ordained deacon and elder in The West Ohio Conference of The United Methodist Church. She served several churches in the conference including Church of the Messiah in Westerville as Christian Education Assistant, pastor at Pottersburg, New Dover, and Unionville Center in the Marysville area; senior pastor of Point Place (now Riverpoint Ministries) and Aldersgate in Toledo. During her years serving the Marysville churches, she received the Harry Denman Evangelism Award for outstanding evangelism efforts. After retirement in 2008, she served Epworth as past-time Minister of New Member ministries.

Marilynn had a passion for involving children in worship services through participation in the children's sermon time. She is known for her children's sermons which centered on reading a children's book by showing the kids the pictures in the book right-side up while she read the words upside-down. Living in Toledo, Marilyn became active in the Northwest Ohio Emmaus Community, serving as the Spiritual Director for the Community and several weekend walks. She was also active in the Women's Kairos Prison Ministry, serving on several weekend teams at the Marysville Women's Correctional Institution.

Marilynn was an avid scrap booker putting together over fifty-nine books of various family events, vacations, and around the world travels. She enjoyed summers at the family cottage at the Lakeside Chautauqua in Lakeside, Ohio, where she served on the Board of Directors of the Lakeside Association.

The memorial service was July 31, 2021, at Epworth United Methodist Church with burial of her ashes at the Lakeside Chautauqua Memorial Gardens.

Both Barbara and Richard graduated from Reynoldsburg High School, Barbara in 1960 and Richard in 1959. They were high school sweethearts and were married September 3, 1960, in Monroe, Michigan. Richard entered Ohio Wesleyan and then seminary at the Methodist Theological School of Ohio where he received his Master of Divinity. Richard became a fulltime local pastor, probationary member, and was ordained elder in 1978. Appointments in The West Ohio Conference of the United Methodist Church included Newark Circuit North, Corning, Ostrander, Rushville-Otterbein, Plain City, Minerva Park, Whitehall, Sugar Grove, and Christian Endeavor, retiring September 1, 2005. Barbara served alongside Richard while working as an office administrator until she retired from Ashland Chemical Company in 2002.

A Celebration of life service was held at a later date.

MARY SONANDER

Mary Lee Malcom Sonander was born on October 27, 1934, in Hamilton, Ohio, to Pauline Finlay and Edward Emmitt Malcom. She died on August 3, 2021, at the Kimes Convalescent Center, at the age of eighty-six years, nine months, and seven days. In addition to her parents, she is preceded in death by husband of twenty-five years, Arnold W. Sonander Jr, brother, William E. Malcom, nephew, William C. Malcom, and sister-in-law, Marjorie Ann Malcom. She is survived by brother, Robert (Ellen) Malcom of State College, Pennsylvania, and their children: Blair Malcom, Dorothy Notarincola, and Cindy Daron; brother, Paul Scott Malcom of Athens, Ohio, and his children: Mary Malcom, Ann Paulins, Margaret Wieland, and Nancy Malcom; Nancy and Ulrich Bolleter-Malcom of Winterthur, Switzerland, and their children: Thomas Bolleter, Peter Bolleter, Andres Bolleter Bieri, and Sarah Bolleter; sister-in-law, Dolores Bertocki Malcom of Hampton, Virginia and her children: Amy Malcom and Virginia Marks. She is also survived by twenty great nieces and nephews.

Mary Lee graduated from Seven Mile High School in Butler County, Ohio, and received her bachelor's and master's degrees from Miami University. She began her teaching career in Germantown, Ohio, and for twenty-two years taught at Miami University. She was associate professor and acting chair in the Department of Home Economics with major interests in food and nutrition. She was also past president of Ohio Home Economics Association and was honored with their Friend of the Family award in 1997.

Following retirement from teaching, she entered United Theological Seminary in Dayton, where she earned a Master of Theology. Mary was ordained into the ministry in The West Ohio Conference of The United Methodist Church in 1990. She served Arcanum Trinity and Oregon Faith, retiring on July 1, 1999. She moved to Athens, Ohio, and served as supply pastor in area churches including Canaanville, Stewart, and Clark's Chapel. She lived at her residence on Elmwood Place for sixteen years and then moved to the Lindley Inn in The Plains.

Mary Lee loved to play bridge, garden, and was active in AFAN. She was an avid traveler and her trips included the Holy Land, Zimbabwe, and trekking in Nepal. Most often were trips to Switzerland, which included visits to her sister and family. She and her husband owned a Cessna aircraft and they flew extensively throughout the states. Mary Lee advanced as far as commercial certification. One of her first visits to Athens was as a pilot landing at the airstrip now occupied by Community Center.

Mary Lee loved life, delighted in visiting family and keeping up with the lives and accomplishments of her nieces and nephews. She was a major force in establishing the Malcom Family Scholarship at Miami University and the Mary Lee Malcom Sonander Fund in the Athens Foundation. She will be missed by her family and her many friends.

A combined memorial service with her sister-in-law, Marjorie Ann Malcolm (who died May 4, 2020) was held at Athens First Presbyterian Church on August 14, 2021, with interment of ashes in the Malcom plot at the Alexander Cemetery.

WYATT J WEEKS

Wyatt James Weeks was born in Charleston, West Virginia, on August 8, 1921. He died on January 19, 2022, at the age of one hundred years, six months, and twenty-six days. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his wife, Norma Hundley Weeks, son Jonathan Wyatt Weeks, his brother, and two sisters. He is survived by daughter, Anne Olivia Weeks of Huntington, West Virginia, daughter-in-law, Angela Pollard Weeks of Cincinnati, Ohio, grandson, Andrew Wyatt Weeks of Cincinnati, Ohio, and numerous nieces, great nieces, nephews, and great nephews.

Wyatt served as a tail and wing gunner in the Army/Air Force Corp during World War II. He was stationed in England and flew thirty-five missions to Germany. Upon discharge, he graduated from Anderson University, Anderson Indiana, receiving a bachelor's degree; he earned a Master of Divinity in 1953, from Drew University in Madison, New Jersey.

He began his ministry in Moundsville, West Virginia, later moving to Defiance, Ohio. As a member of The West Ohio Conference, he was appointed to Trinity United Methodist Church in 1966, in Columbus as the minister for social concerns. He then served as senior pastor of Beavercreek St Andrews, Cincinnati Cheviot, and retired in 1985.

In retirement, Wyatt and Norma returned to West Virginia and built a home in Beckley. In 2003, they moved to Huntington, to be closer to their daughter. Norma died after sixty-four years of marriage, on June 23, 2009, at the age of eighty-five.

A service honoring Wyatt's life was held on January 27, 2022, with Dr. Mark Conner officiating. Interment with military honors, followed at Cunningham Memorial Park, St Albans, West Virginia.

KEITH WILCOX

Keith Shade Wilcox was born on July 23, 1965, in Tiffin, Ohio, to Sally McCoy and Charles Wilcox. He died on November 13, 2021, at the age of fifty-six years, three months, and twenty days. He was preceded in death by his father. He is survived by his wife of twenty-two years, Kathy Meeker Wilcox; daughter, Renee Wilcox; son, Joshua (Kristin) Wilcox; grandson, Justin Hernandez; mother and stepfather, Sally (Wilcox) and Tom Gabel; brother, Mark Wilcox; nieces and nephews, Cassie Hook, Seth Wilcox, Tyler Meeker, Logan Meeker, Hannah Meeker; "bonus" grandchildren, Payton, Jamee, and Jayde Lyle.

Kevin graduated from Tiffin Columbian High School in 1983. He entered the US Navy following graduation, serving until 1988. He is proud that son Joshua follows with Navy service. After an honorable discharge, Kevin returned to Ohio, and to Alger, making footballs at the Wilson Sporting Goods Company, in Ada. He then worked as a plumber/HVAC technician for many years before entering the ministry after serving as Director of Men's Ministry at The Lima Rescue Mission. As a local pastor, Kevin served The Ohio City United Methodist Church and the Carey Grace and Memorial United Methodist Churches.

Kevin lived to share God's love wherever he went. He had a heart for people and spent many hours talking to, comforting, and ministering to those who crossed his path. He enjoyed serving with the Emmaus and Chrysalis communities.

Growing up, Kevin and his family often returned to his father's hometown of Whitesburg, Kentucky, and for the rest of his life, his heart was always in Kentucky. Not surprising, he was a die-hard Kentucky Wildcats basketball fan. His love for family and friends was boundless and he will be missed.

A celebration of life was November 20, 2021, at Grace United Methodist Church in Carey with Loren Miracle officiating. The memorial service with military honors was in the spring in Lima.

CLEMENTE ZUNIGA

Clemente "Sonny" Sanchez Zuniga Jr, was born on March 8, 1932, in the Philippines. He died on October 1, 2021, at the age of eighty-nine years, eight months, and twenty-two days.

Sonny had a deep beautiful voice and while he was singing a solo at the Kamuning Methodist Church in Quezon City, he felt the "invitation" to ministry. He served several appointments in the Philippines. He became a local pastor in The West Ohio Conference in 1985, while serving Middleport Heath United Methodist Church. He was ordained elder in 1989, and served Columbus Linden and Belle Center, retiring on July 1, 1994.

The family requested private memorial services be held.

JOANN ROBINSON

Joann Nettie Robinson, beloved mother, music teacher, choir director, pianist, organist, singer, artist, computer enthusiast, and servant of God, died on January 9, 2022, just three weeks shy of her ninetieth birthday. She was preceded in death by her husband Robert Robinson. She is survived by children, David, Diana, Steve, and Bob; grandchildren, Joel, Emily, Jonathan, Rachael, Barbara, Joanna, Kristin; great grandchildren, Aubrey Rose and Iliana; nieces, Rannie, Phyllis, and Donna; nephews, Jimmy Bauman, Brian Bauman, and Jimmy Eaton.

Born and raised in rural West Virginia, hers was a humble beginning. She attended a one-room schoolhouse. It was there that she developed an interest in singing and piano. Through her determination and force of will, she created a rich and enduring legacy of service and inspiration. Her seventy years of music ministry touched countless lives. She and her husband, Associate Member of The West Ohio Conference of The United Methodist Church, served appointments in Ansonia Dawn, Port William, York, Lilly Chapel, Lewistown, Lakeview Christ, Middleport Heath, Metamora Clark Street, and Pomeroy, retiring in 1998.

Joann was a lifelong learner, curious about everything. She taught her children to play piano and to appreciate music, which they continue to do to this day. All of this while directing and accompanying choirs for the churches they served, and ran the household budget, took art lessons, and practicing new music. She was a force, determined and driven to do and to be her best self, teaching her children to be and to do the same.

Funeral services were on January 14, 2022, at Anderson McDaniel Funeral Home in Pomeroy, Ohio, with Rebecca Zurcher officiating. Burial followed at Riverview Cemetery.

JUDY ROYALTY

Judith Lee Johnson Royalty was born on March 7, 1941, in Gauley Bridge, West Virginia. She died on November 15, 2021, in Lebanon, Ohio, at Otterbein Senior Life Community, at the age of eighty years, eight months, and eight days.

Judy graduated from Marietta High School in 1959, and the University of Cincinnati College of Nursing in 1963. Judith was a dedicated RN who spent her life serving the elderly population, first as a geriatric nurse and finally as a Hospice Nurse in Kentucky. She served on the Board of Otterbein Homes for many years, shepherding the many changes in the Otterbein Communities. She also spent years working in AIDS ministry with The United Methodist Church.

Judy was preceded in death by her husband of fifty-seven years, Richard, serving with him for fifty-seven years, in his appointments in The West Ohio Conference, including, Westerville, Anna Botkins, Fairborn St Lukes, Cincinnati Cleves, Toledo Broadway, Germantown Good Shepherd, Cincinnati Clifton, Bethesda Scarlet Oaks, Elberon, and Medway, retiring on February 1, 2002. She had a beautiful voice and sang in every church choir of the churches they served.

Judy is survived by sons, Charles (Rebekah) Royalty and Tim (Grace) Royalty; eight grandchildren and one great-grandchild, Lily, Emma, Cameron, Preston, Hanna, Emmett, Christian, Nash, and Sylvan.

The years of moving gave her the ability to make friends quickly. She was dedicated to serving those around her in any way she could, and the result was too many loyal friends to count. She loved animals, especially cats. In her later years, she enjoyed giving treats to the dogs on the Otterbein Lebanon campus. She worked hard her entire life instilling her work ethic in her sons who both have carried on her tradition of demanding work and pinching a penny. She always had a smile and encouraging word for anyone she met and is fondly remembered: truly a great woman who lived a great life.

The Memorial Service was January 29, 2022, at the Clifton United Methodist Church.

XIV HISTORICAL STATEMENT

The hardy pioneer itinerants who blazed their way through the uncharted Indian wilderness were people of giant hearts, stalwart frames and steadfast convictions. Surely these faithful pioneers, always ready for any hardship and toil the Church and its elders might demand, would be most happy that the Church militant has achieved such a historical time line as is evidenced in the continued health and aspirations of this, the oldest original Conference in the Northwest Territory.

The east and west borders of the Western Conference were that portion of Ohio bordering the Ohio River on the east to the "shores of the setting sun" on the west. At the annual meeting of the Western Conference in Cincinnati on October 1, 1811, both Bishop Frances Asbury and Bishop William McKendree were in attendance. At that time it was decided that, if the General Conference voted to divide the Western Conference, the "lower conference" would next meet at Fountain Head, Tennessee, and the "upper conference" – to be called the Ohio Conference – would be held in Chillicothe, Ohio, on October 1, 1812.

Our present West Ohio Conference, therefore, reflects the unions of the former Cincinnati (1913), Central Ohio (1913), old West Ohio (1927), part of the former Central German (1936), and part of the Lexington (1964), Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church, the Ohio (1939) and the Muskingum (1918) Conferences of the Methodist Protestant Church, and the Ohio Miami (1968), Ohio Sandusky (1968), and Ohio Southeast (1968) Conference of the Evangelical United Brethren Church.

On June 10, 1970, a Special Session of Six Annual Conferences of The United Methodist Church, within the Ohio West and Ohio East areas, was held in Veterans' Memorial Auditorium, Columbus, Ohio, for the purpose of uniting the six conferences into two. The former Ohio Methodist, Ohio Sandusky Evangelical United Brethren, Ohio Miami Evangelical United Brethren, and Ohio Southeast Evangelical United Brethren Conferences were united to become the West Ohio Conference of The United Methodist Church. The former North East Ohio Methodist, the East Ohio Evangelical United Brethren and a designated number of churches in the former Ohio Sandusky and Ohio Southeast Conferences were united to become The East Ohio Conference of The United Methodist Church.

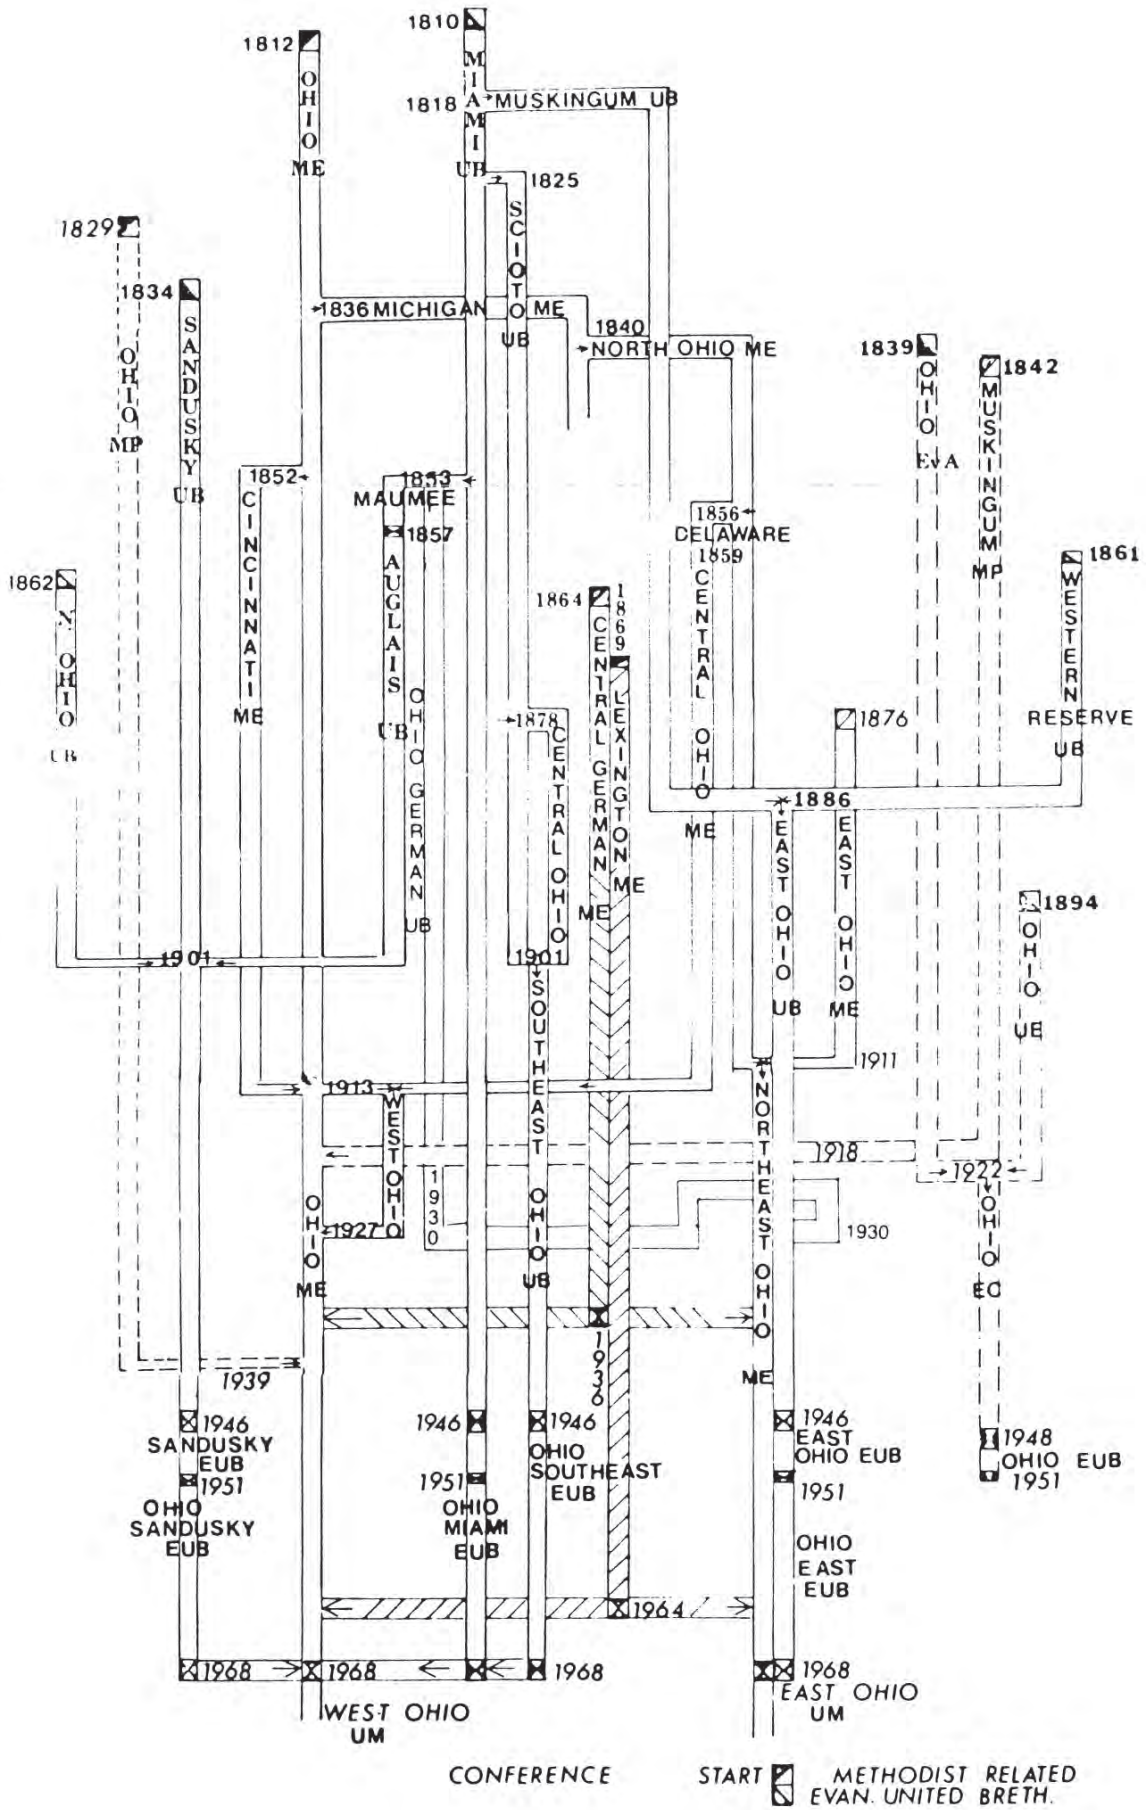

West Ohio, State of Ohio: counties of Adams, Allen, Athens, Auglaize, Brown, Butler, Champaign, Clark Clermont, Clinton, Darke, Defiance, Fairfield, Fayette, Franklin, Fulton, Gallia, Greene, Hamilton, Hancock, Hardin, Henry, Highland, Hocking, Jackson, Lawrence, Licking (excluding the towns of Homer and Utica), Logan, Lucas, Madison, Meigs, Mercer, Miami, Montgomery, Paulding, Perry, Pickaway, Pike, Preble, Putnam, Ross, Scioto, Shelby, Union, Van Wert, Vinton, Warren, Williams, and Wood; west of the Muskingum River in the counties of Morgan, Muskingum (including the city of Zanesville), and Washington (including the city of Marietta); west of Route 23, north of Route 37, and west of Route 71, south of Route 37 in Delaware County and west of Sandusky Street (excluding Asbury United Methodist Church) in the city of Delaware; west of Route 23 in the counties of Marion and Wyandot (including the city of Upper Sandusky); west of the 83rd longitude in Ottawa County; and west of the Sandusky River through the counties of Sandusky (including the city of Fremont) and Seneca.

This is the 225th year of organized Methodism in Ohio. It also marks the 211th Conference Session within the territory covered by the West and East Ohio Conferences.

ANNUAL REPORTS FOR 2021 - UMC CONNECTIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

GENERAL BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND MINISTRY

GBHEM seeks to promote innovative and experiential opportunities for transformative learning, higher education, and ministry formation worldwide. The agency works with key partners, churches, and institutions in Africa, Asia Pacific, Europe, and Eurasia, Latin American and the Caribbean, and North America to offer connectional, contextual, and collaborative programs to support the Church, the Academy, and the world. Among its various activities, GBHEM is responsible for two initiatives approved by General Conference: The Methodist Global Education Fund for Leadership Development (MGEFLD) – which includes the Grants and Scholarships Program (GRASP) – and the Central Conference Theological Education Fund (CCTEF). The agency also maintains Regional Hubs for Leadership, Education and Development (LEAD Hubs) in various locations around the world, has helped create and support the International Association of Methodist Schools, Colleges, and Universities (IAMSCU), and works with regional education associations on five continents. GBHEM is currently partnering with general agencies and other organizations to support important projects on COVID-19 vaccine equity, mindfulness and wellbeing, net-zero emissions, human rights, and the promotion of a culture of generosity throughout the United Methodist worldwide connection.

In 1972, The United Methodist Church reaffirmed its support of the 11 historically black colleges and universities related to the denomination by creating the Black College Fund and this year we celebrate its 50th Anniversary. Support for the Black College Fund supports the education of world-changing leaders by investing in the hopes and dreams of students from around the world. Continued support for the Black College Fund renews the vision for the next generation of transformational leaders.

We celebrate GBHEM awarding more than 2,250 students a total of $4,084,979 in scholarships in 2021. These future leaders range from first year freshmen to doctorate level students across the denomination. We are grateful for the support received in recognizing United Methodist Student Day, World Communion Sunday, and Native American Sunday which helps fund a portion of our scholarships. The remaining funds for these awards come from gifts, annuities, and endowments GBHEM has invested and administered for decades.

Worldwide Inclusion, Diversity, Equity, and Access (WIDEA) is a strategic focus area for GBHEM to align its work with the mission and ministry of congregations and constituents around the world. This renewed commitment includes advanced staff development in intercultural competency, active listening, and a deeper understanding of and appreciation for difference so relevant programs and services may be developed, offered, and implemented more equitably and effectively.

GBHEM remains committed to building and sustaining collaborative cross-conference networks that foster collegiality and guide credentialing for ordained and licensed ministry. We have partnered with conference leaders to clarify the role of those in ministry while assisting in the interpretation and application of relevant paragraphs within The Book of Discipline. We have supported the work of recruiting, guiding, and credentialing candidates and clergy through the development of Passage - a comprehensive registry resource - as well as a virtual onboarding module for new district and conference board members.

Hundreds of years before amazon.com, John Wesley stuffed the saddlebags of circuit riders with books of theology and biblical interpretation—selling them to fund the movement while spreading it literally. GBHEM continues this innovative spirit by leveraging social enterprise opportunities and creative partnerships as a way of reducing its reliance on apportionments while continuing to focus on delivering the very best services, products, and programs to United Methodist constituents around the world.

The same spirit of service and leadership that first inspired John Wesley lives on in each of us. Today, GBHEM looks confidently to the future taking bold and creative action, remaining good stewards, and continuing to support The United Methodist Church in innovative and meaningful ways.

Greg Bergquist, General Secretary

AFRICA UNIVERSITY

You are the light of the world. A city on top of a hill can't be hidden. —Matthew 5:14 (CEB)

This year, The United Methodist Church marks 30 years of vibrant, transformative ministry through Africa University. Thank you, West Ohio Conference, for your faithfulness and generosity in bringing the dream of Africa University (AU) to life.

In celebrating its 30th anniversary, Africa University is honoring the past and looking to the future, while remaining true to its mission as the cornerstone ministry for United Methodist-related leadership development in Africa.

From the first conversations in 1984 to formal approval at the General Conference in 1988, the planting of Africa University required vision, faith, and bold action in the face of predictions that it could never succeed. Africa University found friends and advocates in West Ohio, across the global Methodist connection, and beyond. The “Dream is Alive” was the rallying cry in March 1992 as 40 students from six African countries attended lectures in repurposed farm buildings.

Africa University’s journey from day one to the present is a shared story of being salt and light. Africa University is also part of the West Ohio Conference’s story—of restoring hope, equipping, and sending forth young leaders to shape an abundant life for themselves and for the communities they serve.

Africa University is grateful to the West Ohio Conference for investing 100 percent of the asking to the Africa University Fund (AUF) in 2021. Thank you to the members of the West Ohio Conference for ensuring access to a lifechanging educational experience for Africa University students, many of whom are unable to fund a college education on their own!

Like the year that preceded it, 2021 affirmed that God’s grace is sufficient in all circumstances. In January 2021, the students, faculty, and staff grappled with the sudden death of Africa University Vice Chancellor, Dr. Munashe Furusa. As the year unfolded, the COVID-19 pandemic claimed more lives and continued to restrict travel and damage livelihoods. Unable to be on campus together, the students, faculty, and staff grieved, pivoted, supported, and encouraged each other, and persevered.

Against the backdrop of a global pandemic, Africa University harnessed new opportunities for missional engagement in 2021. The year’s highlights include:

- Effective online-only teaching, learning and student assessment: About 99 percent of students participated in online learning. Enrollment held steady at 3,060 students and more than 500 graduates from 24 African countries were awarded degrees in July 2021.
- The installation of AU’s fifth Chancellor: Bishop Gaspar João Domingos of the Western Angola Episcopal Area was elected Chancellor following the death of Bishop John K. Yambasu of Sierra Leone.
- Research and community service:
 - o AU researchers received US$2 million in funding for regional initiatives to eradicate malaria, tuberculosis, and other communicable diseases.
 - o AU’s students and graduates led, and showed their love of neighbor, with initiatives to feed hungry families, care for the environment, and improve the quality of life of legally blind parents and their children.
 - o AU received the 2021 Jairos Jiri Humanitarian Award from the Government of Zimbabwe for its pandemic impact mitigation efforts.

Thank you, West Ohio United Methodists, for letting your light shine for young women and men who would otherwise be left on the sidelines. “A city on top of a hill can’t be hidden.” AU’s current students and its more than 10,000 graduates to date are that metaphor made real. Continue to walk alongside them, West Ohio Conference, as they hone their abilities, live fully into their God-given purpose, and join in the work of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

James H. Salley, Associate Vice Chancellor for Institutional Advancement and President/CEO, Africa University (Tennessee) Inc.

CANDLER SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

Since 1914, Candler School of Theology at Emory University has lived into our mission, educating faithful and creative leaders for the church’s ministries throughout the world. This year, as we leaned into this critical work and continued to adapt to a world changed by the coronavirus pandemic, we imagined new possibilities for students who are called by God to pursue serious theological study and preparation for ministry. For some, opening avenues to graduate theological education requires moving financial obstacles, and for others, geography or family responsibilities may be the barriers. Candler is committed to assisting students in removing these barriers and opening new pathways to ministry.

An official seminary of The United Methodist Church, Candler holds true to the Methodist value of ecumenical openness, enthusiastically welcoming students from 43 denominations, with 45% of MDiv students coming from the Wesleyan tradition. Our student body reflects the diversity and breadth of the Christian faithful, with an enrollment of 466 from 16 countries and 38 states, 45% persons of color (U.S.), and a median age of 28 among MDivs. This diversity is a blessing, enriching our students and our larger community and providing a “learning laboratory” for ministry in the 21st century—ministry that reaches across difference, works to resolve injustice, and embodies Christ’s love in and among us.

Candler offers six single degrees (MDiv, MTS, MRL MRPL, ThM, DMin) and ten dual degrees. Our DMin is 90% online, so students can remain in their places of ministry while earning their degrees. Its high 87% completion rate illustrates both the quality of our students and Candler’s commitment to their success. This year, we increased online offerings in other degrees as well.

Now students can complete the Master of Religion and Public Life completely online; the Master of Religious Leadership with concentrations in Youth Ministry, Justice, Peacebuilding and Conflict Transformation, or Wesleyan Leadership and Heritage in a hybrid format; and MDiv students can complete core classes online. Plus, our new Remote Teaching Parish (RTP) program allows MDiv students who have jobs in ecclesial settings far from our Atlanta campus to take core classes online and complete their contextual education requirements at their place of ministry, participating in mentor-led online groups with other RTP students.

Alleviating student debt through generous financial aid is a top priority. In 2020-2021, we awarded more than $6.8 million in financial aid, with 100% of MDiv and 98.5% of all students receiving support. All MDiv students who are certified candidates for ordained ministry in the UMC receive full-tuition scholarships, and all MDiv, MTS, MRL, and ThM students who are enrolled part-time or more receive a scholarship covering at least 50% of tuition for the length of their program.

Hundreds of laity and theology students alike have joined in classes and events offered through The Candler Foundry, our innovative program to make theological education accessible to all. Through short and semester-length courses taught by Candler faculty, videos and discussion guides to spark conversation in groups or one-on-one, and online panel discussions, those who want to delve more deeply into theology and the Bible have the chance to do just that. View the latest offerings at candlerfoundry.emory.edu.

Associate Dean of Methodist Studies the Rev. Dr. Anne Burkholder will retire from Candler at the end of the 2021-22 academic year. We are grateful to God for her energetic and skillful leadership in this vital area as she strengthened the connection between our students and conferences throughout the UMC, mentoring them as they discerned their call and navigated the ordination process.

Candler's ability to fulfill our mission to provide the church with the faithful and creative leaders it needs depends upon your prayers, partnership, and support. Thank you for the countless ways you advance this essential ministry in the life of our denomination. We invite you to visit us online at candler.emory.edu.

DUKE DIVINITY SCHOOL

Edgardo Colón-Emeric, the Irene and William McCutchen Associate Professor of Theology and Reconciliation and director of the Center for Reconciliation, began his two-year term as the dean of Duke Divinity School on July 1. Colón-Emeric earned both his M.Div. and Ph.D. from Duke and has been a member of the faculty since 2008. He has served as the director for the Hispanic House of Studies and as the director for the Center for Reconciliation (CFR). Under his leadership, CFR expanded its capacities, partnerships, and areas of engagement, including convening the Americas Initiative. He also sought to strengthen connections between Duke Divinity and local Hispanic-Latino/a ministers and churches, often in partnership with The Duke Endowment's support for rural congregations and pastors in North Carolina. An ordained elder in the North Carolina Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church, he directs the Central American Methodist Course of Study and the Peru Theological Initiative and serves on the United Methodist Committee on Faith and Order and on both national and international Methodist-Catholic dialogues. Recognizing that he is entering the dean's office at a pivotal time for the school, Colón-Emeric stated his commitment to keep the Divinity School heading in a life-giving direction: "The world needs the church, and the church needs the theologically grounded, intellectually vibrant, and socially innovative pastors and leaders that we train. From the heart of Duke University, we cultivate wisdom that is joyfully orthodox, Christ-centered, Spirit-led, and irrevocably anti-racist for the sake of the church in its mission for the life of the world." He is the first Latino dean of the school.

This year the school launched several new programs to provide support for current and future students. A new partnership with North Carolina Wesleyan College will enable qualified undergraduates to take master's level courses at Duke Divinity School beginning in 2022. The Duke Accelerated Pastoral Formation Program offers select juniors and seniors the option to begin coursework toward Duke's Hybrid M.Div. or Master of Arts in Christian Practice (M.A.) degree programs while completing their baccalaureate degree. Funded by the support of the Kern Family Foundation, the Accelerated Program will help students lower educational debt incurred in the preparation for ministry process and accelerate their timeline to engaging the field of ministry. In the spring the school launched the Asian House of Studies, a formational community that will support Asian and Asian-American students; build a network of Asian and Asian-American students, alumni, and church leaders; and provide resources for Asian theological studies. Asian House of Studies is under the leadership of Sangwoo Kim, a consulting professor and senior director of the Methodist House of Studies, and Jung Choi, a consulting professor and senior director of Wesleyan Formation Initiatives.

Three new certificates were approved this year, and all can be earned as part of the residential M.Div., Hybrid M.Div., M.T.S., and M.A. degree programs. The Certificate in Methodist/Wesleyan Studies is aimed at pan-Methodist/Wesleyan students who want to engage in robust and intentional training in Wesleyan theology and spiritual practice in preparation for leadership positions in Methodist and Wesleyan organizations and churches, such as the United Methodist Church, AME Church, AME Zion Church, and Korean Methodist Church. In the Certificate in Latinx Studies, students will practice and hone skills for ministry while becoming part of a learning community that is committed to Hispanic/Latinx communities and seeks to learn from Hispanic/Latinx traditions and cultures. The Certificate in Worship is designed to prepare Duke Divinity students to engage in practical formation and theoretical reflection on the worship of God in Christian congregations. The new certificate is one of several measures being introduced by the school in response to listening sessions on racial justice and cultural competency that revealed a desire and need for both formation and expression that would welcome, support, enhance, and celebrate worship from diverse racial, ethnic, and cultural backgrounds.

In January, the school announced 12 full-tuition fellowships to support incoming residential Master of Divinity degree program students who pursue a certificate in Black Church Studies or Latinx Studies. In addition to providing full-tuition scholarships, the Black Church Studies and Latinx Studies Fellowships provide vocationally specific formation and mentoring opportunities for the fellows and up to $24,000 in stipend support and internship opportunities through the Office of Field Education. The fellowships begin in the fall of 2022.

The Office of Wesleyan Engagement announced the “Rediscovering the Heart of Methodism” project. This project is a missional initiative of the Divinity School with the support of the Kern Family Foundation. It seeks to nurture innovative leadership within the Wesleyan tradition as a constructive and hope-filled response to a turbulent ecclesial landscape.

Supported by a gift from the Duke Endowment, the school launched To Heal the Wounded Soul, a project to strengthen Wesleyan pastors in the Carolinas who are Black, Indigenous, or people of color, including from the AME, AME Zion, CME, and UMC churches. Led by the Office of Black Church Studies and the Clergy Health Initiative To Heal the Wounded Soul will develop peer networks, support groups, and retreats to address the specific mental, emotional, and spiritual needs of this community.

This academic year Duke Divinity School welcomed the largest incoming class in the school’s history, with 259 new students from 31 different states and five other countries—India, Zimbabwe, Colombia, Mexico, and South Korea. Enrollment in the flagship M.Div. degree program jumped to 133 students, up from approximately 110 students during each of the previous four years. The growth was heavily driven by the first cohort of 52 Hybrid M.Div. students. There were 27 denominations represented in the M.Div. entering class, with 38 percent affiliated with the United Methodist Church (up from 30 percent in 2020). Anglican-Episcopal students made up 13 percent of the new M.Div. students (up from nine percent the prior year); non-denominational students, 11 percent; and Baptists, 10 percent. The Doctor of Ministry (D.Min.) welcomed 36 students, the Master of Theological Studies (M.T.S.) gained 33, and the M.A. saw 17 new students. The Master of Theology (Th.M.) enrolled 12 students, and the Doctor of Theology (Th.D.) enrolled seven new students. The Certificate in Theology and Health Care welcomed five residential students to campus and a large first cohort of 14 students in the hybrid version of the program. Across all degree programs at the Divinity School, 32 percent of the incoming class identified as a race or ethnicity other than white. Black students made up 18 percent of all students; Latinx students, six percent; Asian students, two percent; and American Indian students, two percent. Women made up 47 percent of incoming students across all programs.

Three new faculty members joined the faculty in 2021. Polly Ha is an Associate Professor of the History of Christianity whose work focuses on the history of Christianity and the construction of diverse confessional and ecclesiastical traditions in the Reformation and post-Reformation world. Ronald K. Rittgers is the Duke Divinity School Chair in Lutheran Studies and Professor of the History of Christianity, and his research interests include the religious, intellectual, social, and cultural history of medieval and early modern/Reformation Europe, focusing especially on the history of theology and devotion. Daniel Castelo, William Kellon Quick Professor of Theology and Methodist Studies, taught intensive Wesleyan theology courses in Mexico, Honduras, and Brazil, and then took a teaching post at a Mexican seminary for three years. He has been an active participant in the Central American Methodist Course of Study program and recently has served as a doctoral mentor for the Hispanic Theological Initiative.

We remain deeply grateful for the relationships among The United Methodist Church, this Annual Conference, and Duke Divinity School. We look forward to working with you in the task of preparing men and women for Christian ministry. To learn more about Duke Divinity School, please visit our website at www.divinity.duke.edu.

Thank you for this opportunity to bring you news from MTSO.

MTSO-West Ohio partnership creates Alford-Cantlin D.Min. Fellowships

We are excited to partner with the West Ohio Conference and the United Methodist Foundation of West Ohio to support conference clergy who are seeking leadership opportunities and academic training focused on transformational change. The first cohort of Alford-Cantlin Fellows is beginning Doctor of Ministry studies in July 2022, receiving scholarship funding and additional support. Ordained United Methodist clergy of all ages and backgrounds who meet the criteria may apply, and diverse candidates are encouraged to apply. The program will welcome a new cohort every other year.

With $1 million grant, MTSO supports existing religious leaders and helps form new ones

MTSO has received a five-year grant of $999,665 to establish “Connecting Pathways: A Multi-Faceted Approach to Strengthen and Sustain Current and Future Faith Leaders.” The project is being funded through Lilly Endowment Inc.’s Pathways for Tomorrow Initiative.

The project utilizes MTSO’s distinct strengths in two distinct parts. Part One, “Connecting Pathways: Congregations and Other Ministry Partners,” supports existing religious leaders, focusing on anti-racism training and resourcing. Working with partner organizations, MTSO helps faith leaders to assess land use and church food programs to assist in building community engagement. Part Two, “Connecting Pathways: Vocational Exploration Intensive for Young Adults,” invites young adults to imagine the possibilities for lifelong faith, offering experiential learning, theological reflection, worship, and relationships with healthy community leaders and vibrant faith communities. It introduces the whys and hows of ministry, connecting participants with faith leaders, including some of those involved in Part One of the project.

Full-tuition scholarships extended to those pursuing United Methodist candidacy

MTSO and the school’s donors pledged to extend a full-tuition pledge to all prospective students who are pursuing United Methodist elder or deacon candidacy. The MTSO admissions staff is happy to answer questions about this initiative at 800-333-6876 or admissions@mtso.edu.

UNITED THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Dayton, OH

For the past 150 years, United Theological Seminary has educated men and women for Christian ministry within the historic traditions of the United Brethren, Evangelical United Brethren and United Methodist churches. On October 11, 1871, United Theological Seminary, then Union Biblical Seminary, held its first classes in Dayton, Ohio. From a starting class of 11 students, the seminary has grown to 488 students in its most recent academic year,* representing 39 denominations, 11 countries, and 39 states. Today’s seminary serves a diverse student body that is 53% African American.

On October 10, 2021, the seminary celebrated its 150th anniversary and burned the mortgage on its current campus facilities, freeing up $400,000 annually to support student scholarships.

In 2021, United received a grant of $1 million from Lilly Endowment Inc.’s Pathways for Tomorrow Initiative to expand the seminary’s Houses of Study, which offer specialized master’s tracks to equip students for the unique ministry needs of the communities, movements and denominations they serve. The seminary has introduced six Houses of Study, currently enrolling for 2022-23:

- Fresh Expressions, directed by Dr. Michael Beck;
- Mosaix, in partnership with Mosaix Global Network and directed by Rev. Chip Freed;
- Hispanic, 100% in Spanish for Spanish-speaking leaders, directed by Dr. Jorge Ochoa;
- Black United Methodist, directed by Dr. Vance Ross;
- Global Pentecostal, directed by Dr. Mark Chironna;
- and Global Wesleyan, directed by Rev. Gregory Stover.

Because United believes so passionately in this initiative, the seminary has dedicated additional resources to offer half-tuition scholarships for inaugural students in its Houses of Study programs.

United also introduced the Academic Dean’s Scholarship, which provides 50% tuition for the duration of a master’s degree program, and the Presidential Scholarship, awarding up to $5,000 per year to new students.

In honor of United’s 150th anniversary year, a generous donor gifted $2 million to help graduating students reduce their educational debt. Each graduate in the 2021-22 academic year will receive up to $20,000 toward student debt from theological and previous academic studies.

As United looks forward to the next 150 years with gratitude and anticipation, the seminary remains committed to the preparation of faithful and fruitful Christian leaders to make disciples of Jesus Christ.

WESLEY THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Some days, it seems that we, and the religious, civic, and educational institutions we love, stand peering into the fog of an unknown future as questions resound: What does our collective future look like, and who will lead it? In the midst of these questions, Wesley remains committed to supporting pastors and churches and to preparing graduates to lead innovative ministries grounded in God's mercy and justice. We stand ready to accompany you on the path to which God is calling you.

Creating new models of education that respond to students' needs

Building on Wesley's strengths and responding to student needs, Wesley is pleased to announce two pathways for master's level students beginning in Fall 2022. For students who reside on or near campus, classes will continue to be offered each week on campus during daytime and evening periods. For students needing to remain in their own contexts, Wesley will offer a hybrid pathway that invites students to campus for a one-week intensive immersion each semester, with the remaining coursework being held online. Learn more about how you can be part of the Wesley community and the Washington, DC experience through these pathways at <https://www.wesleyseminary.edu/mdiv/>.

These course pathways also support our FlexMA, a degree program built to provide robust learning and theological formation for busy individuals that integrate faith, life, and professional experience with the flexibility needed to customize content and accommodate hectic schedules. Whether preparing for bi-vocational ministry in congregational and institutional settings, going deeper in one's own spiritual journey, or integrating faith and theology into an existing career or "third career" post-retirement, wherever God is calling, the FlexMA will help you prepare to respond fully. Learn more at <https://www.wesleyseminary.edu/flexma/>.

Research projects support congregational community engagement and envision future ministry

Four grants from the Lilly Endowment Inc, totaling $5.25 million, undergird Wesley's research into and support of congregational thriving and innovation.

- A new five-year project through the Wesley Innovation Hub will have two main foci: a one-year Design Fellowship to equip young adult leaders and the Wesley Design Lab, featuring both in-person and online curricula, training, and other resources for congregational innovation. Young adults ages 23-29 years are invited to apply for the Design Fellowship, which will provide an $8,000 stipend, community formation, spiritual direction, graduate-level courses in design thinking for ministry and hands-on experience leading innovation in congregations. Wesley will also be seeking creative persons of faith to be "Innovators in Residence" at Wesley and partner churches who have interesting challenges or opportunities for young adult ministry. To learn more: <https://www.wesleyseminary.edu/wesley-innovation-hub/>
- A second new grant will undergird Wesley's move toward comprehensive theological education for the whole church. Wesley will strengthen its existing excellent master's and doctoral programs while also expanding a suite of pre-degree, post-degree (continuing education), and non-degree courses to meet the current and emerging needs of spiritual leaders in their context.
- Now in its second year of The Source Collaborative, Wesley continues to work with congregations in adjacent UMC annual conferences to identify markers of thriving and pursue them. Congregations and coaches interested in joining the 2023 cohort should apply by Sept. 1, 2022 via innovation@wesleyseminary.edu.
- The Religious Workforce Project, run by the Lewis Center for Church Leadership, studies religious work in congregations across several denominations to understand current and future needs. Learn about emerging data at <https://religiousworkforce.com/>.

Using research and partnerships to reach and equip the next generation of ministers

Wesley is ready to work with you as we make theological education more accessible and relevant to the realities of ministry today. Wesley offers an 81-hour Master of Divinity, a 36-hour Master of Arts, and a 60-hour Master of Theological Studies, any of which can be focused on specializations in public theology, urban ministry, arts and theology, missional church, children and youth ministry and advocacy, or African American church leadership. Courses are available in person, online, and in intensive hybrid formats. Info at www.wesleyseminary.edu/admissions/try-a-class-3.

Wesley provides $2 million annually in scholarships via regular merit awards, ranging from 25% to 100% tuition with stipends, including full-tuition scholarships for qualified applicants recommended by WTS alumni, campus ministers, or Christian service ministries; Next Call in Ministry scholarships for students working in a non-ministry setting for at least 10 years; and Generación Latinx Scholarships for emerging Latinx leaders for ministries within and beyond the church.

Take your ministry to the next level

The Certificate for Children and Youth Ministry and Advocacy (CYMA) is a non-residential certificate completed in 12 - 15 months via online classes and up to two residential sessions (www.wesleyseminary.edu/admissions/cyama-3). The Certificate in Faith and Public Life explores the foundations of public theology, religious freedom, and civil discourse (www.wesleyseminary.edu/ice/programs/public-theology/public-life/).

Wesley's premiere Doctor of Ministry programs includes three new 2022 tracks: Ministry in a Digital Age; Justice, Compassion, and Witness in a Turbulent World (Cambridge, UK); and a program focused on Latinx ministry. In 2023, we will again see popular DMin tracks: the Cambridge UK track, Military and CPE Chaplains, Global Church Leadership program, Church Leadership Excellence and a ground-breaking track on Trauma. Visit www.wesleyseminary.edu/doctorofministry/.

Enrich your congregational outreach and explore new dimensions of ministry

The Lewis Center for Church Leadership conducts leading edge research for the local church. The Lewis Center's Leading Ideas e-newsletter and Leading Ideas Talk podcast is the go-to source for over 20,000 people in ministry each week. Subscribe at www.churchleadership.com.

The Community Engagement Institute embraces a vibrant vision to be the premier center for churches and faith-based organization engaging their communities. The innovative online Health Minister Certificate Program prepares congregations for public health work in their parishes. Contact: Dr. Tom Pruski, tpruski@wesleyseminary.edu.

The Center for Public Theology equips pastors, seminarians, people of faith, and the media to create spaces for civil dialogue at the intersection of religion and politics. Visit <http://www.wesleyseminary.edu/ice/programs/public-theology/>.

The Henry Luce III Center for the Arts and Religion works with students, religious communities, artists, and scholars exploring the intersection of the arts and theology. Visit www.luceartsandreligion.org.
